BANKING AND COMMERCIAL LAWS.

COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE BANKERS' DIRECTORY.

ALABAMA.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution makes the following provisions: 1. No bank of issue can be incorporated by special act of the legislature, nor except on a specie basis; but all must be established under a general banking law. There is no general law for the establishment of banks of issue. 2. Holders of bank notes, and depositors who have not stipulated for interest, are preferred in case of insolvency over all other creditors. 3. Every bank must cease all banking operations within twenty years from the time of organization (unless the time is extended by the legislature), and promptly thereafter close up its business. Banks can sue and be sued until the affairs and liabilities are fully settled.

Statutory provisions for banks of discount and deposit: 1. Any number of persons (not less than three stockholders) may associate themselves together to establish a bank of deposit and discount; their capital stock to be not less than $50,000, of which not less than 20 per cent., and in no case less than $25,000, must be actually paid by the subscribers for stock before the filing of the declaration of incorporation. 2. Such persons must make a declaration in writing under oath, setting forth, (a) The name of the association; (b) place of business; (c) the number of shares of capital stock, and total amount; (d) names and residences of stockholders, and number of shares held by each; (e) time when the business of the association is to commence and to end. 3. Which declaration must be recorded in the Probate Court of the county where the bank is established. 4. A transcript of the declaration of incorporation must also be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who issues to the incorporators a certificate of incorporation. 5. A stockholder is liable for the debts of the bank only to the extent of unpaid stock.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS and proofs of conveyances may be taken by Judges of the Supreme and Circuit Courts and their Clerks, Chancellors, and Registers in Chancery, Judges of Probate Courts, Justices of the Peace, and Notaries. In other States they may be taken by Judges and Clerks of any Federal Court, Judges of any court of record, Notaries Public and Commissioners appointed by the Governor of this State. If out of the United States, by the Judge of any court of record, Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city, town, borough or county, Notaries Public, or any Diplomatic or Consular or Commercial Agent of the United States.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. Every general assignment made by a debtor, by which a preference or priority of payment is given to one or more creditors over the remaining creditors of the grantor, shall be and enure to the benefit of all the creditors of the grantor equally, but this section shall not apply to or embrace mortgages given to secure a debt contracted contemporaneously with the execution of the mortgage and for the security of which the mortgage was given. All assignments by a debtor made with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, is void.

ATTACHMENT process will issue for the collection of a debt, whether due or not, to recover damages for breach of contract, or where the action is for damages alone, upon affidavit by the creditor or his agent of the amount due and that the debtor absconds, or resides out of the State or secretes himself so that process can not be served upon him, or is about to remove out of the State or has or is about to fraudulently dispose of his property, or fraudulently withholds money, chattels or effects which are liable to the satisfaction of his debts; plaintiff must give bond in double the amount claimed. Garnishment process will issue in aid of attachment in all such cases.

BILLS OF LADING. False bills of lading and receipts are forbidden. No warehouseman, common carrier, or a wharfinger, or other person engaged in the business of storage, carriage, or keeping for shipment, or of forwarding things or property shall issue any bill of lading or document for any property, by which it shall appear that such property has been shipped on such vessel or delivered at any railroad warehouse, unless same actually delivered; provided, railroad may, in certain cases, issue bill of lading upon delivery of cotton to compress.

COLLATERALS. All banking, insurance and other corporations, private bankers, brokers, and other persons engaged in the business of making discounts or lending money, are required, on receipt by them of any collateral for a loan or discount, if demanded by the borrower, his agent or attorney, to give a receipt or acknowledgment in writing; which said receipt or acknowledgment shall designate or describe the collateral so held, the amount and character of the debt, and the time when due, and if the same be negotiable bonds, the series number thereof shall also be given in said receipt; and if any corporation or person, so making discounts or lending money, willfully fail or refuse to give such acknowledgment as above provided, such corporation or person shall have no title to said collaterals. Personal property or securities, whether negotiable or not, pledged or deposited as collateral security, may, in default of payment of a debt, be sold by the creditor at public auction, at the door of the court house of the county, or, at other public place at which sales at public outcry are usual. Creditor must give to pledgor written notice of his intention to sell, and of time and place of sale, two days before sale, and must advertise sale for five days in newspaper published in county where it is to be made. Amount of debt and actual and lawful costs taken out of proceeds, balance paid to pledgor or his assignee; upon failure to pay such balance to pledgor or his assignee, upon demand after receiving proceeds of sale, person selling liable for interest thereon at rate of five per cent. for each thirty days payment is so withheld. Name of pledgor not to be published without his consent. Parties may make such other contracts as they may see fit for the sale of pledges, not in conflict with laws of the State. Pledgee can not assign or transfer pledged property to any other than pledgor or his assignee, except with original debt. Violation of this provision operates a discharge of the pledge, and reinstatement of pledgor's original ownership thereof, but does not affect debt. Pledged property may be assigned with original debt, assignee taking rights of original pledgee.

CONTRACTS for conditional sale or lease of railroad equipment or rolling stock, by which the vendor or lessor retains the title of the property sold until payment in full is made, possession being given to the vendee or lessee, are void against judgment creditors and purchasers without notice unless recorded within three months like conveyances of real estate, and have the same privileges for the purposes of evidence and notice as conveyances of land. Each locomotive, engine or car so sold or leased must have the name of the vendor or lessor plainly and permanently marked thereon, so as to readily and clearly indicate the ownership thereof.

CORPORATIONS. Every company, corporation, or association, not organized under the laws of Alabama, shall, before engaging in any business in this State, file in the office of the Secretary of State, at the Capitol, in Montgomery, an instrument in writing, under the seal of such company, corporation, or association, and signed officially by the President and Secretary thereof, designating at least one known place of business in this State, and an authorized agent residing thereat. If such corporation is engaged in any business of insurance, the statement must be filed in the office of the Auditor. If the agent is changed, a new paper must be filed.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts have unlimited common law jurisdiction and exclusive jurisdiction of libel, slander, assault and battery, and ejectment. The Courts of Chancery have exclusive equity jurisdiction. Regular terms of both twice a year in nearly every county. Chancery Courts have full equity powers, and the City Courts of Montgomery, Birmingham and Mobile have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Courts. Probate Courts hold term on second Monday of each month but court always open except Sundays. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction of all civil causes where the amount in controversy does not exceed $100 in value, except in cases of libel, slander, assault and battery and ejectment. Names of all parties plaintiff and individual names of co-partners must be given in writs. Partnership may be sued in courts of law in firm name, without setting forth names of co-partners. The writ may be served upon any one of the partners; the judgment reaches the partnership property alone. Any one partner, or his personal representative, may be sued alone on a partnership obligation. Non-residents must give security for costs when suit is commenced or within such time thereafter as the court may direct. Money may be deposited with the Clerk instead of sureties.

EXEMPTIONS. The homestead not exceeding 160 acres in area, and not exceeding $2,000 in value, or, in a city, town or village, the lot with dwelling, etc., not exceeding $2,000 in value, owned and occupied by any resident. Exemption of homestead may be waived, but wife must join in the waiver and it must be acknowledged. Any person may, by stipulation in writing, waive whole or any specific part of exemption of personality, without the consent of wife. Personal property to value of $1,000 selected by debtor, and wages to $25 per month, are also exempt. Widow's exemption includes also wearing apparel, family books and pictures, and provisions for twelve months

EXECUTIONS. Writ of fi. fa. is a lien only within the county in which it is received by the officer, on lands and personalty of defendant subject to levy and sale, from the time only that the writ is received by such officer and continues as long as writ is regularly delivered to the Sheriff without the lapse of an entire term. The plaintiff or owner of any judgment or decree may file in the office of the Judge of Probate of any county in Alabama a certificate of the Clerk or Register of any Court by which such judgment or decree was rendered, showing the Court which rendered same, the amount and date thereof, and the amount of costs, the names of the parties and the name of the plaintiff 's attorney, which certificate shall be registered by the Judge of Probate of such county in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which register shall also show the date of filing and the name of the owner of such judgment or decree; and every judgment or decree so filed and registered shall be a lien upon all the property of the defendant in such county which is subject to levy and sale under execution; and such lien shall continue for ten years from the date of such registration. The registration of such judgment or decree shall be notice to all persons of the existence of such lien. Executions issue from Circuit Courts and City Courts, when the court continues in session but one week, within ten days; when it continues two weeks, within fifteen days; and when it continues three or more weeks, within twenty days; Justice's after five days, returnable in not less than twenty nor more than sixty days. May be issued instanter on affidavit of plaintiff or his agent that he is in danger of losing the fruits of his judgment. No stay of execution in Circuit Court except by appeal, and supersedeas bond which delays collection until affirmance by Supreme Court, and entails ten per cent. damages, with legal interest and costs. In Justice's Courts stay is granted on good security; below $20, thirty days; over $20, sixty days.

Fraud. Obtaining money or goods on credit under false color or pretense of carrying on business, or under false representation of pecuniary condition, with intent to defraud, or bringing into the State money or goods so obtained, punished as larceny.

Interest. Legal rate is eight per cent., and same is allowed on all open accounts, judgments and decrees. Usury forfeits all interest.

Judgments of courts of record, are proved by a certified transcript. Cases stand for trial at first term of Circuit Court, if summons executed twenty days previous to first day. Judgment not a lien. Execution received by Sheriff during life of defendant may be levied after his decease, or alias execution issued and levied if there has not been lapse of entire term so as to destroy lien originally created. Above applies to executions from Circuit and Chancery Courts. An execution issued by a Justice of the Peace is a lien only from time of its levy. In Justice's Courts cases stand for trial after three days' notice.

Lien for Rent. Landlords of store houses, dwelling houses and other buildings, have a lien for rent on such goods, furniture and fixtures therein as may belong to the tenant, superior to all other liens, except for taxes.

Limitations. Notes, six years; stated accounts, such as where all the terms are agreed on, six years; open accounts, three years; sealed instruments, real actions and motions against officers, ten years; judgments, twenty years. Bar created by statute can only be removed by a partial payment, made on the contract before the bar is complete, or by an unconditional promise in writing. Those under legal disability have three years after its removal in which to begin suit; but no action can be commenced after twenty years. Statutes of limitation apply to married women's separate estates. Actions founded on a promise in writing not under seal, or for trespass to person or property, must be brought within six years. Statutes of limitation are made applicable to equitable as well as legal demands, but do not run against direct trusts.

Married Women. The wife, if the husband be of sound mind and has not abandoned her, or be not a non-resident of the State, or be not imprisoned under a conviction for crime for a period exceeding two years, cannot alienate her lands, or any interest therein, without the assent and concurrence of the husband, the assent and concurrence of the husband to be manifested by his joining in the alienation in the mode prescribed by law for the execution of conveyances of land.

But if the husband be non compos mentis, or has abandoned his wife, or is a non-resident of the State, or is imprisoned under a conviction for crime for a period exceeding two years, the wife may alienate her lands as if she were sole. But the personal property of the wife, or any part thereof, may be sold, exchanged, or otherwise conveyed or disposed of by the husband and wife, by parol or otherwise. If the husband is living apart from the wife, without fault upon her part, or if he be of unsound mind, the wife may convey or dispose of such property in any manner as if she were sole.

The husband and wife may contract with each other, but all contracts into which they enter are subject to the rules of law as to contracts by and between persons standing in confidential relations; but the wife shall not, directly or indirectly, become the surety for her husband.

All property of the wife held by her previous to the marriage, or to which she may become entitled after the marriage, in any manner, is the separate property of the wife and is not subject to the liabilities of the husband.

The earnings of the wife are her separate property; but she is not entitled to compensation for services rendered to or for the husband, or to or for the family,

The wife has full legal capacity to contract in writing as if she were sole with the assent or concurrence of the husband expressed in writing.

The wife must sue alone at law or equity, upon all contracts made by or with her, or for the recovery of her separate property, or for injuries to such property, or for its rents, income or profits, or for all injuries to her person or reputation; and upon all contracts made by her, or engagements into which she enters, and for all torts committed by her, she must be sued as if she were sole.

The wife may, with the consent of the husband, expressed in writing, and filed and recorded in the office of the Judge of Probate of the county of their residence and of the county in which the business is carried on, enter into and pursue any lawful trade or business, as if she were sole. But the consent of the husband is not necessary, if he be of unsound mind, or has abandoned his wife, or is a non-resident of the State, or is imprisoned under a conviction for crime.

All property of the wife, whether acquired by descent or inheritance, or gift, devise or bequest, or by contract or conveyance, or by gift from, or contract with the husband, is the separate property of the wife within the meaning of this article, saving and excepting only such property as may be conveyed to an active trustee for her benefit.

Mortgages are executed and acknowledged in the same manner as deeds. May be foreclosed by bill in equity, or, if there be a provision to that effect, by sale under power, upon such default as authorizes a sale. Two years are allowed for redemption in either case. Conveyances of property, real or personal, to secure debts, or provide indemnity, are void against creditors or purchasers without notice, unless recorded. Homestead realty can not be mortgaged or otherwise aliened without signature and assent of wife, evidenced by acknowledgment, upon private examination separate and apart from the husband, and certified. All mortgages must be in writing, signed by the mortgagor. Payment of mortgage debt, made before or after maturity of debt, revests in the mortgagor, or his assigns, the title to the real or personal property mortgaged, if made in the lifetime of the mortgagor; if made after his death, such payment revests title to personal property in the personal representative, and title to realty in the heirs, devisees or legatees of the mortgagor.

Notes and Bills of Exchange. Promissory notes payable in money at a bank or private banking house, or a certain place of payment therein designated, and bills of exchange, are governed by commercial law and are negotiable instruments. All other instruments payable in money at a bank or private banking house, or a certain place of payment therein designated, are governed by the commercial law as to days of grace, protest and notice. Sunday, Christmas day, the 1st day of January, the 22nd day of February, the 4th day of July, the day designated by the proclamation of the Governor for public thanksgiving, shall each be deemed a holiday. If Christmas day, or the 1st day of January, or the 22nd day of February, or the 4th day of July falls on Sunday, the Monday following is a holiday. If any paper entitled to days of grace, by the allowance thereof, or subject to protest, becomes due on a holiday, it must be taken as due on the next succeeding day. All bonds, contracts, and writings, for payment of money or any other thing, or the performance of any act or duty, are assignable by indorsement so as to authorize an action thereon by each successive indorsee. Acceptances of bills of exchange must be in writing, but an unconditional written promise to accept a bill before it is drawn is an actual acceptance, and any person upon whom a bill is drawn and to whom the same is delivered for acceptance who refuses to return it within twenty-four hours after such delivery, or within such other period as the holder may allow to return the bill accepted or non-accepted, is deemed to have accepted it.

Protest. Indorsers of bills of exchange or notes payable in money at a bank or private banking house are charged by the general rules of commercial law. To charge the indorser of paper, not commercial, suit must be brought against the maker to first court. Damages on bills of exchange, whether foreign or inland, protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, are five per cent. on the sum drawn for. But the holder may recover costs of protest incurred previous to and at the time of giving notice of non-payment and legal interest upon the aggregate amount of the principal sum specified in such bill and of the damages thereon.

Suits. Every action, except upon bills of exchange, negotiable instruments, etc., as above, founded on express or implied contract for the payment of money, must be brought in the name of the person really interested, whether he have the legal title or not. [See Courts.] Security for costs of suit is required of non-residents of the State, and may be given by acknowledgment signed by security, indorsed on the complaint or writ, approved by the officer issuing the same; or by deposit of money with Clerk of Court in which suit is brought, the amount to be determined by the Court or officer taking the security, and same to be increased from time to time as necessary to cover costs. Upon failure to give such security required by the Court, upon motion therefor, suit dismissed at cost of the attorney directing process to be issued.

Taxes become delinquent on the 31st of December of the year for which they were levied, and the lands may be sold by certain proceedings in the Probate Court commenced in the month of March following. The purchaser of lands sold for delinquent taxes receives from the Collector a certificate of purchase containing a description of the property, the date and amount of assessment, taxes, costs, fees, etc., which after the expiration of two years and from the date of the sale is exchangeable for a deed from the Probate Judge—which is prima facie evidence of title. Lands sold for taxes may be redeemed within two years by the owner, mortgagee or any person having a beneficial interest therein, by depositing with the Probate Judge of the county in which the lands were sold, the amount of purchase money, with interest at fifteen per cent. per annum, and all taxes which have accrued subsequent to the sale, and interest thereon at eight per cent. per annum; also all costs and charges. Whenever land is sold for State or county taxes, and from any cause such sale is invalid to pass title to purchaser, sale operates as transfer to purchaser of lien of State or county, or the property for payment of taxes for which sold.

EXEMPTIONS. Every head of a family is entitled to homestead not exceeding $4.000 in value and $1,000 worth of personal property, to be selected by himself.

HOLIDAYS. Legal holidays are January 1, February 22, July 4, Thanksgiving, May 30, December 25, every Sunday, and general Territorial election day, or any special election day that may be called by the Governor. Any promissory note, bank check, bill of exchange, acceptance, or other negotiable instrument, made payable at any future period, which falls due on any of the days mentioned shall be considered due and collectible on the day following; and if January 1, February 22, July 4, or December 25, May 30 shall fall upon Sunday, then the Monday following shall be considered, treated and considered as a legal holiday.

INSOLVENT AND ASSIGNMENT LAWS. A general assignment by insolvent debtor must be recorded, have annexed an inventory, under oath, of all creditors, their residence, sum and consideration due each, how evidenced, with statement of debtors' entire estate, giving values. Insolvent may make assignments for benefit of such creditors only as will accept their pro rata in discharge of all liability. Any creditor having reason to believe that such debtor has concealed his property, may have him summoned before District or County Judge, and examined under oath, etc. Any attempted preference of one or more creditors shall be deemed fraudulent and without effect. Concealment by debtor of his property from assignee, or transfer of property previous to and in contemplation of assignment, with intent to defraud his creditors, is made a felony.

INTEREST. Legal, 7 per cent., and by contract any rate may be fixed. No usury laws in the Territory. The payees and indorsees of every such note payable to them or their order, and the holders of every such note payable to bearer, may maintain actions for the sums of money therein mentioned against the makers and indorsers of the same respectively, in like manner as in cases of inland bills of exchange, and not otherwise. To charge a person within this Territory as an acceptor on a bill of exchange, his acceptance must be in writing, signed by himself or his lawful agent. Grace on all bills. Damages for protested bills, 10 per cent.

BANKING LAWS. There is no law in relation to Territorial or savings banks in this Territory.

ARKANSAS.

BANKING LAW.

There are no constitutional or statutory provisions specially relating to banks. They are incorporated under a general law, provided for all incorporated companies, by filing articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State. There is no system of official examination, and no reports are made, except statement required to be made to Assessor for the purpose of taxation.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds within the State may be taken before the Supreme Court, the Circuit Court, or either of the Judges thereof, or the Clerk of any court of record, or any Justice of the Peace or Notary Public. Anywhere else within the United States, or their Territories, before any Federal, State or Territorial Court having a seal, or the Clerk of any such Court, Notary Public, Mayor of any city or town, or chief officer of any city or town having a seal, or a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State. Out of the United States, before any Court having a seal, any Mayor or chief officer of any city or town having a seal, or any officer of ny foreign country, authorized by the laws of such country to take obate of conveyance of real estate of his own country, having an official seal, or before the Clerk of any court of record of the Indian country, embracing the five civilized tribes.

ATTACHMENT. Plaintiff in civil action, arising on contract, may at or after commencement thereof have attachment against property of defendant where said defendant is non-resident of the State or a foreign corporation, or has been absent four months from the State, or has departed from it with intent to defraud his creditors, or has left the county of his residence to avoid service of a summons, or conceals himself so that a summons can not be served upon him, or has transferred, sold, conveyed or removed his property out of the State with fraudulent intent, or is about to sell, remove or dispose of the same with such fraudulent intent, not leaving enough to pay all his debts. Under a writ of attachment debts due the defendant may be garnisheed. Plaintiff must give bond with sureties, conditioned to pay all damages defendant may sustain if the order of attachment is wrongfully obtained.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. Assignments for the benefit of creditors may be made with or without preference. Assignee must give bond in double the amount of property assigned, and must sell within 120 days, at auction, all the property assigned to him for the payment of debts. Proof of fraud on the part of assignor is sufficient to invalidate the assignment, whether the assignee knew of it or not.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts with original jurisdiction over all civil cases exceeding $100 excluding interest, are held twice a year in each county. Justices have original jurisdiction in matters of contract up to $100, and concurrent up to $300, excluding interest. Courts of Common Pleas are authorized by the constitution, and are established in a few counties, with specially defined jurisdiction in matters of contract, etc., varying from $500 to $1,000.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead of married person or head of a family in country not exceeding 160 acres, with improvements, not to exceed $2,500, but in no case can the homestead be reduced below 80 acres, without regard to value. In any town, city or village, homestead of one acre with improvements, of total value of $2,500, not reducible below one-fourth of an acre without regard to value. Personal property of married person or head of a family, $500 besides wearing apparel; unmarried, or not head of a family, $200 and wearing apparel. No conveyance, mortgage or other instrument affecting homestead of a married man (except for taxes, laborers' and mechanics' lien) is valid unless the wife joins in, and acknowledges same. Debtor may select and claim his homestead, before or after sale on execution, whenever suit is brought for possession. If he neglects to claim it, his wife may do so.

EXECUTIONS are returnable sixty days from date from the Circuit Court, and thirty days from Justice's Court. Where execution from Circuit Court has not been stayed, sales are made on a credit of three months on bond and security, said bond having the force of a judgment if forfeited. Execution may be stayed for six months by defendant giving bond with security for judgment, interest, and costs, which bond has the force and effect of a judgment. Sales under Justice of Peace execution are for cash in hand.

INTEREST. Legal rate is six per cent., but contracts may be made for any rate not exceeding ten per cent. Interest begins to run on an open account from the time payment is unreasonably withheld. Judgments bear the same interest as contract sued on, if in such instrument the words "until paid" are used concerning the payment of interest. But if the words per annum alone are used, then, regardless of the rate stipulated, the judgment would draw six per cent. Usury forfeits principal and interest.

JUDGMENTS and decrees of Circuit Courts are liens on real estate of defendant within the county in which the Court is held and on personal property from the time execution is received by the Sheriff. Judgments of Justices of the Peace become a lien on real estate by filing a transcript with the Clerk of the Court, and are a lien on personal property from the time execution is received by the constable. Executions may be issued on judgment until it is barred by the statute of limitations. Judgments are rendered at first term of a court of record if no defense is made. Executions can not issue on Justice's judgment after a lapse of five years. If the judgment is over ten dollars, exclusive of costs, plaintiff may, within five years, file transcript of judgment in the Circuit Clerk's office, and it then has the force and effect of a Circuit Court judgment.

LIMITATIONS. Accounts, three years; notes, five years; judgments, ten years; sealed instruments executed prior to March 29th, 1889, ten years; executed after that date, five years. A written acknowledgment of indebtedness and promise to pay, or a part payment, revives the debt. Limitations of actions for the recovery of real estate, seven years. Usual saving clause in favor of infants, married women, and insane persons, but not as to non-residents. Suits to foreclose mortgages or trust deeds are barred unless brought within the period of limitation fixed by law for suit on the debt or liability for the security of which they are given. A payment made on the debt before it is barred, will not revive it, nor extend period of limitation, so as to affect rights of third parties, unless mortgagee, trustee, or beneficiary, prior to expiration of limitation, endorses memorandum and date of such payment on margin of the record of the mortgage or trust deed; where the debt would be barred in less than one year from March 25th, 1889 mortgagee is allowed one year from that date to bring an action to enforce his lien.

MARRIED WOMEN. Married women have the same absolute and unqualified right in property of every description, when acquired, as femmes sole, and the same is not liable for debts or contracts of the husband. To entitle a married woman to her right as to personal property, she must cause such separate property to be recorded in her name in the county of her residence. She may carry on business on her sole and separate account, and she may sue or be sued alone on account of her separate property, business, or services; and she may contract and bind herself in respect to such separate property or business, and no such contract shall be binding on her husband, or render him or his property in any way liable therefor. In all actions where a married woman is a party—except as to such separate property or business—her husband must be joined with her in the suit. Widow takes dower in one-third of all lands of which the husband was seized of an estate of inheritance during marriage, unless legally relinquished; also an absolute one-third of all personalty. Where there are no children she takes one-half of realty for life, and absolute one-half of all personalty.

MORTGAGES are acknowledged same as deeds, and are not liens until filed for record, though good between the parties. May be foreclosed by complaint in equity. Chattel mortgages must be acknowledged as other mortgages. May be filed and not recorded at option of mortgagee, and are liens from time of filing for one year. May be renewed for a year at a time by affidavit of mortgagee, his agent or attorney, made within thirty days after expiration of the year. Trust deeds must be acknowledged and filed same as mortgages. Before sale under mortgages, the property must be appraised, and must bring two-thirds of the appraised value, or it is reserved from sale twelve months, if real estate, and sixty days if personal property. At second offering it is sold for what it will bring. The mortgagor is not permitted to waive his right of appraisement or redemption.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper may be defined in general terms as that species of contracts used in the transaction of business as a representative of value, consisting of promissory notes, bills of exchange and checks, etc. There is no law requiring it to be paid at a bank, or any other fixed place. Foreign and inland bills of exchange are governed by mercantile law as to days of grace, protest and notice. All indorsers or assignors of any instrument in writing assignable by law, which by its terms is payable "without discount or defalcation," may be notified of non-payment or protest of such instrument, and are equally liable with the maker, obligee or payee, and may be sued for the same at the same time with the maker, obligee or payee thereof, or may be sued separately. Sunday, Christmas and July 4 are the only legal holidays in this State. Bills of exchange, notes, etc., falling due on either of these holidays are payable on the next day preceding, and may be noted and protested on such next preceding day; but notice and protest the next day after the holiday is valid and effectual.

SUIT in the Circuit Court is commenced by filing written complaint signed by the party or his attorney, verified by affidavit of the party, but such verification is not required where the complaint is founded on a bill, note, or other written obligation. The first term is trial term where the summons has been served within the county within which the action is brought, or in adjoining county ten days before the beginning of term—twenty days elsewhere in the State, or sixty days outside the State.

TAXES must be paid between the 1st Monday in January and the 10th day of April in each year. If not paid within the time required by law twenty-five per cent. penalty is added, and lands are advertised for two weeks and sold. Lands may be redeemed by the owner—or agent or other person for the owner—within two years, by payment of purchase money, penalty, and costs, and ten per cent. interest per annum, and by insane persons, persons in confinement, and minors, within two years after expiration of disabilities. Sale conveys absolute title, subject to such redemption.

CALIFORNIA.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution of the State provides that the legislature shall have no power to pass laws granting charters for banking purposes; but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws. The Bank Commissioners must once a year make examination of banks, as also the Attorney General and District Attorney, whenever required by the Governor of the State. Banks are required to make semi-annual reports to the Bank Commissioners, on the 20th of January and the 20th of July, and verify them by the oath of the president and secretary or cashier, or the two principal officers. Sworn statements as to capital or condition of assets are to be published semi-annually by every banker.

Savings banks can only invest in bonds of the United States, of the State of California, and of the counties, cities, or towns of the State of California, unless they have a capital stock or reserve fund paid in of not less than $300,000, but may loan money on adequate security on real or personal property for not longer than six years.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF DEEDS. Real estate is transferred by what is known as a "grant" or deed, which contains a description of the property. Deeds, though not recorded, are valid between the parties thereto and as to all other persons having actual notice, but are void as against a subsequent purchaser or mortgagee in good faith, for value, whose conveyance is first recorded. Proof or acknowledgment of an instrument may be made within the State before any Judge or Clerk of a court of record, Recorder, Justice of the Peace, or Notary Public. Without the State, but within the United States, before any judicial officer, Commissioner, or Notary, and in foreign countries before any Diplomatic or Consular Agent or Judge of a court of record, Commissioner, or Notary Public. A conveyance by a married woman has no validity until acknowledged. But see 59 Cal. 507. 63 Cal. 286.

ASSIGNMENTS. No assignment of an insolvent debtor is valid unless in conformity with the Laws of the State. Civil Code Sections 3449-3473 as amended in 1889.

ATTACHMENT will issue in an action upon a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, where the contract is made or is payable in this State, and is not secured by any mortgage or lien upon real or personal property, or any pledge of personal property; or if originally so secured, such security has, without any act of the plaintiff, or the person to whom the security was given, become valueless; also in an action upon a contract, express or implied, against a defendant not residing in this State. Garnishee process can be had in all cases where property is liable to attachment. Defendant may be arrested in a civil action arising upon contract where he is about to depart from the State, or has removed or disposed of his property or is about to do so, with intent to defraud creditors, or was guilty of fraud in contracting the debt. For other grounds see Sec. 479 C. C. P.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. The Supreme Court consists of a Chief Justice and six justices also five commissioners appointed by the Court. It has original jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus and other writs and also writs in aid of its appellate jurisdiction in the cases mentioned in Sec. 52 C. C. P. Superior Courts, of one or more judges in each county (in San Francisco, twelve) which are always open for the transaction of business. Such Courts have original jurisdiction in all equity cases, all suits involving the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, import assessment, toll or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand amounts to $300, exclusive of interest, and in other cases mentioned in Sec. 76 C. C. P. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction up to $300 and in case mentioned in Sections 112-115 C. C. P.

EXECUTIONS from any court may issue immediately on rendition of judgment, or at any time within five years, and as often within that period as any part of the judgment remains unsatisfied. If not collected within five years, judgment may be renewed by suit. Executions are returnable not less than ten nor more than sixty days after receipt by the Sheriff. The court in which an action has been tried has discretionary power to grant a reasonable stay of execution. Lands sold under execution are subject to redemption by the judgment debtor or his successor in interest, or by any creditor having a lien, on payment, within six months, of the purchase money, with interest at two per cent. per month and certain payments made by the purchaser. See 703 C. C. P.

EXEMPTIONS. The homestead, not exceeding $5.000 in value, if declaration of homestead is properly filed in the Recorder's office of the county where situate, by a husband or wife, or other head of a family, is exempt from execution except in the following cases: 1st, where the judgment was obtained before the declaration of homestead; 2d, on judgments for liens of mechanics, contractors, sub-contractors, artisans, architects, builders, laborers, material men or vendors of the land; 3d, on debts secured by mortgage on the land, executed by the husband and wife, or an unmarried claimant; 4th, on debts secured by mortgage on the land recorded before the declaration of homestead. Homestead of a single person not exceeding $1,000 in value, is exempt. Personal property exempt includes chairs, tables, desks, and books, $200; necessary household and kitchen furniture, sewing machine, stoves, beds, etc., provisions for family for three months, three cows, four hogs, two horses, oxen, or mules, and seed grain reserved up to $200; tools and implements of a mechanic or artisan, instruments of a physician, surgeon, surveyor, or dentist and their library and office furniture, abstracts, etc., of searcher of records, professional library of attorney, minister, editor, or school teacher; a miner's cabin, not exceeding $500 in value, also sluices, pipes, tools, etc., necessary for his business, not exceeding $500, two horses or mules with harness, and food for one month and the miner's claim worked by him and not exceeding $1,000 in value; are also exempt. Two oxen, horses, or mules, with harness and wagon or dray, coupé, hack or carriage, and one month's food. One fishing-boat and net not exceeding the total value of $500, the property of any fisherman by the lawful use of which he earns a livelihood. Earnings within thirty days of levy, if necessary for support of family, provided if the debts are incurred by the person or his family for the common necessaries of life, the one-half of said earnings are subject to execution therefor; $25 worth of poultry, shares in homestead associations up to $1,000, if debtor has no homestead selected; and life insurance policies and all benefits accruing therefrom, provided the annual premium does not exceed $500, are all exempt. But all things above mentioned are liable for debts incurred for their purchase, and see Sec. 690 C. C. P., amended in 1887. Insolvency. See Insolvent Act of 1880.

INTEREST. The legal rate is seven per cent., but parties may agree on any rate, and there is no penalty for usury. Judgments bear seven per cent. per annum from date of entry.

JUDGMENTS in courts of record, where no defense is made, are entered immediately after expiration of time designated in the summons for defendant's appearance; are liens for two years on all real estate of the debtor within the county, which may be extended to other counties by filing a certified copy of the docket in the office of the County Recorder. Judgments in Justice's Courts have the same effect when transcript is filed.

LIMITATIONS TO SUITS. Actions must be brought as follows: Within five years, upon a judgment or decree of any court of the United States, or of any State within the United States, or an action for mesne profits of real property; within four years, an action upon any contract, obligation, or liability, founded upon an instrument of writing executed in this State—(promissory notes included); within three years, an action upon a liability created by statute—other than a penalty or forfeiture; for trespass upon real property; for taking, detaining, or injuring any goods or chattels—including actions for the specific recovery of personal property; for relief on the ground of fraud or mistake. Within two years, upon a contract, obligation, or liability—not founded upon an instrument in writing, and on promissory notes and other written instruments executed out of this State, and see Sec. 312-363 C. C. P. or other classes of actions.

MARRIED WOMEN. All property acquired in any manner before marriage, or afterward, by gift, bequest, devise, or descent, is wife's separate property, and controlled as if femme sole. All property acquired after marriage by husband or wife, except as above, is common property. The presumption is that property conveyed to married woman vests in her as her separate property, and this presumption is conclusive in favor of purchaser or incumbrancer in good faith and for value. So a like presumption prevails that she takes as tenant in common under a deed to her and her husband or any third person, unless the deed shows a different intention. Earnings of wife are not liable for debts of the husband, but he controls the community property. Dower and curtesy are unknown, but the widow takes half the common property after payment of debts and expenses of administration. A married woman may dispose of all her separate estate by will without consent of her husband.

MORTGAGES of real estate do not require the wife's signature unless the property is the homestead or her own separate estate.

They are executed and acknowledged in the same manner as deeds. Chattel mortgages to be valid against persons other than the parties thereto must show the residence and trade of the mortgagor and mortgagee, the rate of interest charged, and when and where it is payable, and mortgagor and mortgagee must each make affidavit that the mortgage is bona fide and made without design to defraud or delay creditors, acknowledged or proved and recorded in like manner with grants of realty. § 2955 C. C. prescribes what articles may be mortgaged. The same equity of redemption exists in lands sold under mortgage as under execution.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper, or a negotiable instrument, is a written promise or request for the payment of a certain sum of money to order or bearer. It must be made payable in money only, and without any condition not certain of fulfillment. The person to whose order it is made payable must be ascertainable at the time the instrument is made. It may be with or without date, and with or without designation of the time or place of payment. It may contain a pledge of collateral security, with authority to dispose thereof. Any date may be inserted by the maker, whether past, present or future, and it is not invalidated by the death or incapacity at the time of the nominal date. If it does not specify the time of payment, it is payable immediately; and, if it does not specify the place of payment, is payable at the residence or place of business of the maker, or wherever he may be found. Notice of dishonor may be given by the holder or any party to the instrument who may be called on to pay it, and must be in writing. Days of grace are not allowed. Every Sunday, the 1st of January, 22d of February, 30th of May, 4th of July, 9th of September, 25th of December, day of State election, and Thanksgiving and days appointed by the President or Governor for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday, are legal holidays; if the holiday falls on Sunday next day is a holiday. Damages instead of interest to time of dishonor are allowed on dishonored bills, drawn or negotiated in this State as follows: two per cent. of the amount if drawn on a person in this State; five per cent. on a person out of the State west of the Rocky Mountains; ten per cent. on a person east of the Rocky Mountains, and fifteen per cent. if on a person in a foreign country. The apparent maturity of a bill of exchange or promissory note payable at sight or on demand, as against an endorser and bearing interest, is one year from its date, if it does not bear interest, ten days from date on bills and six months on promissory notes, and when the latter are payable at a certain time after sight or demand, said time is added.

SUITS. Where Brought. There is but one form of action, commenced by filing a written complaint with the Clerk of the Court; or if in a Justice's Court, it may be by filing a copy of the note, bill, or account, on which action is brought. Summons must be issued within one year and served within three years after complaint is filed, and if defendant evades service he may be notified by publication. In the Superior Courts the defendant is allowed ten days after the service of summons and complaint to appear and answer the complaint, where service is made within the county in which the action is brought; and thirty days if served elsewhere. In Justice's Courts five days are allowed defendant to answer where summons is served in the township where action is brought; ten days if served out of the township but in the county in which action is brought, and twenty days if served elsewhere.

STATE AND COUNTY taxes become delinquent on the last Monday in December after which, five per cent. is added. Delinquent list is published, except in San Francisco, on or before the first Monday in February, and sale is made in front of the court house or the tax collector's office, as the Board of Supervisors may direct, not less than twenty-one nor more than twenty-eight days after first publication. Taxes on personal property are a lien on real estate of same owner. Owner of real estate sold for taxes may redeem within one year by paying the amount and fifty per cent. additional to the County Treasurer. But see Sec. 3785 Polit. Code. There are laws providing for a different period of delinquency on collection of taxes of some cities. [NOTE.—The new Constitution provides that each taxpayer must furnish a sworn statement of his property, and also provides for the collection of an income tax and poll-tax. In this as in some other points affected by the new Constitution the Legislature is charged with the passage of laws necessary to carry out the constitutional provisions.]

Owing to limited space, we have been unable to treat as fully as we could have wished, the matters referred to us.

COLORADO.

BANKING LAWS.

STATE BANKS. The constitution says: "The General Assembly shall provide by general laws for the organization of corporations." The General Assembly has passed a law providing that any number of persons, not less than three, may associate to establish a bank of discount and deposit, the capital stock must not be less than $30,000; fifty per cent. to be paid in before the opening of the bank, and a certificate to that effect under the oath of the president and cashier, to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in the county where such bank is located; and no bank to continue to transact business beyond the period of one year unless the capital stock shall have been fully paid up in cash and a like certificate filed as before stated. If any banker, bank officer, or employe doing business in this State shall receive money or property after he shall have had knowledge of the insolvency of said bank, such banker or banking institution shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and, on conviction, punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than ten years. Evidence at the trial of the failure of any such banker or banking institution, within thirty days after the reception of the deposit or creation of such indebtedness, shall be prima facie evidence of knowledge on the part of the persons charged, that said bank or banking institution was insolvent at the time of the reception of such deposit or the creation of such indebtedness.

No president, director, manager, cashier, or other officer, agent, or employe of any bank or banking institution, organized and doing business under any law of this State, shall receive or assent to the reception of deposits, or create or assent to the creation of any indebtedness by such bank or banking institution after he shall have had knowledge of the fact that it is insolvent or in failing circumstances. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall be individually responsible for such deposits so received and such indebtedness so contracted.

SAVINGS BANKS.—Savings banks shall have a capital of not less than $25,000 which shall be paid in cash. The board of directors or trustees may invest one-half of the deposits made with them upon personal security or in bonds or stock of this State or of the United States, or in the bonds of any county, State or school district of this State, legally authorized to issue such bonds or loan the sum upon bonds secured by mortgage upon unincumbered real estate worth at least double the amount loaned.

Creditor may maintain an action on bond of assignee for damages sustained by reason of assignee's failure to act.

ATTACHMENTS. In actions on contracts, express or implied, the plaintiff, at the time of issuing summons, or at any time afterward before judgment, may have the property of the defendant not exempt from execution attached as security for any judgment that may be rendered in such action, upon filing with the Clerk of the Court the affidavit and bond herein described, unless the defendant shall give good and sufficient security to secure the payment of such judgment. The bond must be signed by sufficient sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Court (generally two freeholders in this State are required), and be in a sum not less than double the amount claimed by plaintiff; the condition of the bond being that the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to defendant and all damages he may sustain by reason of the attachment, if the Court shall finally decide the plaintiff was not entitled to the attachment. The affidavit shall be made by the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, or some credible person for him, and shall set forth, in addition to the fact that defendant is indebted to plaintiff in a certain sum, stated, as near as may be, upon contract, express or implied, one of the following grounds of attachment: (1) That defendant is not a resident of this State; (2) that defendant is a foreign corporation; (3) that defendant is a corporation whose chief office or place of business is out of this State; (4) that the defendant conceals himself or stands in defiance of an officer, so that process of law can not be served upon him, or that the defendant has for more than four months been absent from the State, or that for such length of time his whereabouts have been unknown, and that the indebtedness mentioned in the affidavit has been due during all said period; (5) that the defendant is about to remove his property or effects, or a material part thereof, out of this State, with intent to defraud, or hinder or delay his creditors, or some one or more of them; (6) that the defendant has fraudulently conveyed or transferred, or assigned his property or effects, so as to hinder or delay his creditors, or some one or more of them; (7) that the defendant has fraudulently concealed or removed, or disposed of his property or effects so as to hinder or delay his creditors, or some one or more of them; (8) that the defendant is about to fraudulently convey or transfer, or assign his property or effects, so as to hinder or delay his creditors, or some one or more of them; (9) that the defendant is about to fraudulently conceal or remove, or dispose of his property or effects, so as to hinder or delay his creditors; or that such debtor has departed or is about to depart from this State, with the intention of having his effects removed from this State; (10) that the defendant has failed or refused to pay the price or value of any article or thing delivered to him, which he should have paid for upon the delivery thereof; (11) that the defendant has failed or refused to pay the price or value of any work or labor done or performed, or for any service rendered by the plaintiff, at the instance of the defendant, and which should have been paid at the completion of such work or when services were fully rendered; (12) that the defendant fraudulently contracted the debt, or fraudulently incurred the liability respecting which the suit is brought, or by false representations or false pretenses or by any fraudulent conduct, procured money or property of the plaintiff; (13) that the action is brought upon an overdue promissory note, bill of exchange and other written instrument for the direct and unconditional payment of money only and upon an overdue book account. Garnishee process will issue in aid of attachment when property of the debtor is found in the possession of third persons. Writs of attachment may issue upon debts or liabilities not yet due, if the affidavit of attachment states any of the grounds aforesaid, except the first, second and third. Where it appears necessary by affidavit filed, the writ may be executed on Sunday. The defendant may have the attached property released, by executing an undertaking to the plaintiff with at least two sureties, residents and freeholders, or householders in this State, conditioned upon the return of the property or its value on demand if the attachment be not dissolved. In all cases of attachment any person other than the defendant, claiming any of the property attached or any interest therein, may intervene without giving bail, but the property shall not thereby be released; and the Court shall, upon due notice, try the rights of such intervenors. Shares of stock of a corporation can be attached.

COMMERCIAL PAPER. The law merchant prevails generally in Colorado. All promissory notes, bonds, due bills, and other instruments in writing made by any person, whereby such person promises and agrees to pay any sum of money or article of personal property, or any sum of money on personal property, or acknowledges any sum of money or article of personal property to be due to any other person or persons, constitutes "Commercial Paper," as recognized by the General Statutes of Colorado. Such instruments of writing last mentioned, shall be taken to be due and payable to the person or persons to whom the said note, bond, bill or other instrument in writing is made; any such note, bond, bill or other instrument made payable by any person or persons, shall be assignable by endorsement thereon under the hand of such person, and of his assignee, in the same manner as bills of exchange are, so as absolutely to transfer and vest the property thereof in each and every assignee successfully. Commercial paper need not be paid at a bank or any fixed place in the State; it is, however, customary to make payable at some bank or place of business. The banks do not pay unless personally requested so to do. Holder of Commercial Paper must exhaust remedy against maker before proceeding against endorser. In cases where any of the above-mentioned instruments of writing are for the payment or delivery of personal property other than money, and no particular place be specified in such writing for the payment or delivery thereof, it shall be lawful for the maker of any such instrument of writing to tender, or cause to be tendered, on the day mentioned in such instrument, the personal property therein mentioned, at the place where the obligee or payee of any such instrument resided at the time of the execution thereof. In case the personal property is too ponderous to be moved, or the obligee or payee have, at the time of the execution of such instrument of writing, no place of residence in the County where the maker resides, then it shall be lawful to tender such personal property at the place where the maker resided at the time of the execution thereof.

COURTS. United States Circuit and District Courts, District of Colorado. Terms: At Denver, first Tuesday in May and November; at Pueblo, first Tuesday in April; at Del Norte, first Tuesday in August. Supreme Court of Colorado consists of one Chief Justice and two Associate Justices; has appellate jurisdiction only, save in a few matters, such as habeas corpus, mandamus, etc. Terms: At Denver, second Monday in September, second Monday in January, second Monday in April. There are three Supreme Court Commissioners who are subject to the rules of the Supreme Court, District Courts, courts of general and original jurisdiction, both in law and equity, and have appellate jurisdiction in certain cases from the County Courts and Justices of the Peace; also jurisdiction in criminal cases—in capital cases exclusive. From one to three regular terms are held in each of the several counties in each year. County Courts have exclusive probate jurisdiction and concurrent jurisdiction with the District Courts in civil cases where the debt, damages, claim or amount in controversy does not exceed two thousand dollars. They also have original jurisdiction in cases of misdemeanor and are empowered to try such cases upon information by the District Attorney. Terms: In Arapahoe and some few other counties, six terms are held yearly; in the remaining counties, four. Criminal Courts: In Pueblo and Lake counties Criminal Courts have jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts in all criminal cases not capital. Terms: Four terms in each of said counties are held yearly. Besides the foregoing courts of record, there are Justices of the Peace in the several counties having civil jurisdiction where the amount involved does not exceed three hundred dollars, besides certain criminal jurisdiction. Courts of Record may enforce decrees in action brought for the enforcement of an express, implied or resulting trust, or the removal of cloud from title, or for the specific performance; the establishment of laws to destroy deed, conveyance or instrument in writing, or proof of any conveyance deed or instrument in writing, not properly proved or acknowledged, or any proceeding in rem, or affecting only specific property. If defendant not found within the jurisdiction of the court, and constructive service alone is had, the court may appoint a trustee to act for defendant, whose acts if lawfully done under said decree shall be as effectual as if done by defendant.

DEPOSITIONS. The deposition of a witness out of the State shall be taken upon commission issued by the Clerk of the Court under seal of the court where the suit is pending, on the application of either party, on five days' previous notice to the other, which notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the interrogatories to be attached to the commission. It shall be issued to a person agreed upon by the parties, or if they do not agree, to any Judge or Justice of the Peace selected by the officer granting the commission, or to a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of the State to take affidavits and depositions in other States and Territories, or to a Notary Public. The adverse party may file and have attached to the commission such cross-interrogatories as he may desire. Parties may agree by written stipulation to take the deposition orally. The commission authorizes the Commissioner to administer oaths; instructions for the taking of the deposition are printed on the back of the commission. Depositions of resident witnesses in certain cases may be taken either on written interrogations or orally.

EXECUTIONS may be issued from all courts immediately on entering judgment, and become a lien at once on all personal property of defendant within the county. When issued from a court of record, are returnable in ninety days; from a Justice's Court, thirty days; and land on which defendant resides must be taken last. Defendant or legal representative has six months in which to redeem lands sold under execution; judgment creditors may redeem after six and within nine months. Where execution is returned unsatisfied, judgment debtor may be required to answer under oath touching his property, and if it appears by affidavit that there is danger of his absconding, he may be arrested and held to bail. There is no stay of execution except by appeal. Where an award has been made and filed by the successful party, with the Clerk of the District Court, as a basis of a judgment, an execution may be issued for its collection.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead consisting of house and lot or lots in any town or city, or of a farm of any number of acres, so that the value does not exceed $2,000, when such homestead has been entered of record as such, and is occupied by a householder the head of a family. FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES. Any person or persons who shall be a party to any fraudulent conveyance or sale of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, goods or chattels or any right or interest issuing out of the same, or who shall conceal, secrete, remove or dispose of any goods or chattels, or shall be a party to any bond, suit, judgment or execution, contract or conveyance had, made or contrived with intent on the part of said parties, in either case; to deceive and defraud or defeat, hinder or delay the creditor or creditors, of such person or persons aforesaid in the collection of their just debts, damages or demand, such person or persons shall, on conviction of either or all of said offenses, be punished by confining in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding three years.

INTEREST. The legal rate where no agreement is made, is eight per cent. and the same is allowed on bonds, bills, promissory notes, judgments, county, town, and city warrants and other like evidences or certificates of municipal indebtedness; said warrants draw eight per cent. Parties may stipulate for a higher rate. There are no usury laws.

JUDGMENTS are liens upon real estate within the county as soon as abstracts thereof are filed of record in the office of the County Recorder and not before, and may be extended to other counties by filing transcript. Lien continues six years from entry of judgment, provided execution be issued on the judgment within one year. Judgments are liens upon personal property during the lifetime of the execution from the date when the execution was placed in the hands of the officer on all property within the county where such officer is acting. Judgments may be revived.

LIMITATIONS TO SUITS. Actions of date founded upon contract express or implied; upon judgments of courts not courts of record; for arrears of rent; of assumpsit on a case founded on any contract; for waste and trespass on land and for replevin, must be begun within six years after the cause of action accrues. Actions against Sheriffs and Coroners, for liability incurred by them in their official capacity, shall be brought within one year after the cause of action accrues. Bills of relief on the ground of fraud must be filed within three years after the discovery of the fraud by the aggrieved party; in case of a trust not cognizable by the Courts of common law within five years In actions accruing out of the State upon contract express or implied or upon any sealed instrument in writing, or judgment or decree of any Court, more than six years before the commencement of the action, the statute of limitations may be pleaded in bar of recovery. Persons under the age of 21 years, married women, persons insane, imprisoned or absent from the United States, may bring any of the foregoing actions within the time in this chapter respectively limited after the disability shall be removed. If any person entitled to bring any of the foregoing actions shall die before the expiration of the time limited therefor, and if the cause of action does by law survive, the action may be commenced by the executor or administrator of the deceased person at any time within one year after the grant of letters testamentary or of administration, and not afterwards, if barred by the provisions of this chapter. Payment by one co-obligator will not take the case out of the statute as to the others.

MARRIED WOMEN retain their separate property, real and personal, owned at marriage, or acquired thereafter by gift, and the rents, issues, profits, and proceeds thereof, and any real, personal or mixed property which shall come to them by descent, devise or bequest or the gift of any person except the husband, including presents from the husband—for their own separate use, and not liable for their husbands' debts. They may carry on trade or business, sue and be sued, contract debts, and execute promissory notes, bonds, bills of exchange and other instruments precisely as if sole, and may convey real estate without the husband joining in the deed. A married woman may make a will, but can not bequeath more than half her property away from her husband without his consent in writing. Dower is abolished, and the estate of an intestate descends to the surviving wife or husband where there are no children, or descendants of children; in other cases survivor takes one-half subject to payment of debts. The husband can not by will deprive his wife of over one-half of his property. A married woman can sue and be sued the same as if she were sole. In all marriages hereafter contracted, the husband shall be liable for the debts and the liabilities of the wife contracted before marriage, to the extent of the real and personal property he may receive with or through her, or derive from the sale or rent of her lands, and no further.

MORTGAGES. There are no statutory provisions except as to foreclosure and redemption from sale, the same time being allowed for redemption as in sales under execution. Trust deeds are common, and lands or real estate sold by the trustee under the deed or trust are not redeemable. Chattel mortgages, to be valid as to third parties, must be acknowledged before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds to real estate, and recorded in the Recorder's office, unless possession of the chattels actually passes; thereupon shall be good from time recorded until maturity of the last installment of the mortgage indebtedness, and may be given not exceeding two years if principal does not exceed $2,500, and not exceeding five years if the principal is more than $2,500, and not more than $20,000, and not more than ten years if indebtedness exceeds $20,000, notwithstanding property mortgaged or conveyed by deed of trust remains in the possession of mortgagors. If mortgage given to secure greater sum than $2,500, these shall be recorded in the county where mortgage is recorded and sworn statement showing (1) mortgage given in good faith to secure payment of sum mentioned therein, (2) how much has been paid or remains unpaid. Mortgages on live stock to cover increase thereafter born. Where chattel mortgage does not exceed $300, payable in one installment, due not more than eighteen months after, may be extended not exceeding six months beyond maturity, by mortgagee or assignee filing with the County Clerk of the county where mortgage is recorded a sworn statement showing (1) amount which remains unpaid, (2) that it is still due; that mortgagee or assignee consents to extend mortgage not to exceed six months. Thereupon lien extended for period named. If the mortgage indebtedness does not exceed $300, and the time for the maturity of the mortgage indebtedness does not exceed six months, not required to be recorded, but may be filed with County Clerk and Recorder, and when satisfied same shall be made to appear released on the margin of the instrument.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Promissory notes, due bills, bonds, and other instruments in writing, are negotiable by indorsement, and if made payable to a person or bearer, do not pass by delivery only, but must be assigned by indorsement, so as absolutely to vest the property in each assignee successively. Assignee must use due diligence against the maker before he can hold the assignor liable. Three days of grace are allowed on notes and bills except drafts payable at sight, and checks for funds deposited subject to draft at sight. Paper maturing on Sunday, Fourth of July, Christmas, or any day set apart by the President of the United States, or the Governor, as a day of fasting or thanksgiving, is deemed to fall due the previous day, and may be presented and protested accordingly. Protest is necessary upon foreign bills of exchange, and bills drawn upon any person or body politic or corporate out of the State and within the United States and her territories for non-acceptance or non-payment; and the drawee or endorser thereof, due notice being given of such non-acceptance or non-payment, must pay said bill, with legal interest thereon from the time such bill ought to have been paid, and ten per cent. damages in addition, together with the costs and charges of protest. A person upon being convicted of fraudulently giving a check or draft on a bank organized under the State laws or laws of the United States in which he has not sufficient funds, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment.

PARTNERSHIP. Surviving partner shall make an inventory and a complete list of all the liabilities of deceased partner, and have the estate appraised in like manner as the individual property of a deceased person. Inventory under oath to be returned to the County Court, granting administration, within sixty days after death of co-partner. Persons neglecting or refusing to make return shall, after citation, be liable to attachment. Surviving partner shall have a right to continue in possession of the effects of the partnership, and pay its debts out of the same. Court may prevent waste by surviving partner to give security for the faithful settlement of the affairs of the co-partnership. Limited partnership may be formed and provided by statute.

SUITS. There is but one form of civil action, commenced in courts of record by the filing of a complaint with the Clerk of the court in which the action is brought; or by service of summons. Complaint must be filed within ten days after summons issued or the action may be dismissed without notice. Any time within one month after filing the complaint, plaintiff may have summons issued. Defendant is required to plead, demur or answer the complaint or stand default within twenty days after service of summons, if served in the county, or if served out of such county or by publication, within thirty days. If copy of complaint not served, or if the service be by publication, ten days additional to the time above mentioned shall be allowed for appearance and answer. If defendant is served by publication, service shall be deemed complete after expiration of ten days from date of last publication, said publication having been made at least once a week for four successive weeks. If affidavit stating defendant resides out of the State and gives defendant's post-office address, clerk shall mail defendant copy of summons forthwith. Actions are commenced in Justice's Courts by summons stating amount of demand.

TAXES are a perpetual lien on real estate until paid. It is the duty of persons subject to taxation to attend at the Treasurer's office and pay their State and county taxes between November 1 and December 30 of each year, and after the first day of March taxes draw interest at the rate of twenty-five per cent. per annum. Real estate delinquent is advertised in April by the County Treasurer and sold on a day specified thereafter. May be redeemed in three years by payment of amount for which it was sold, with interest as above, and penalty of fifteen per cent, additional if redeemed within three months; twenty-five per cent. over three months and within a year; forty per cent. over one year and within two, and fifty per cent. if over two and within three years, with all subsequent taxes paid by purchaser, and twenty-five per cent. interest per annum thereon. All mines and mining property of the class heretofore exempted by the constitution of this State shall be assessed and taxed, and the taxes levied and enforced by sale of the property taxed in default of payment, as is provided by law in the case of other classes of taxable real estate.

CONNECTICUT.

BANKING LAW.

Every bank and trust company is required to keep in its banking office gold, silver, coin, bullion, bonds, legal tender notes of the United States or National bank currency to an amount not less than one-tenth of all its liabilities, except its capital stock; but the bonds of the United States so included in said reserve fund shall never exceed one-twentieth of said liabilities. No trust company or banking corporation shall declare any dividend except from its net earnings, after deducting all losses, over-drafts and obligations suspended or over-due, or make any loan or discount on a pledge of its own stock, or establish any branch office or agency thereof, or employ any agent or person to make loans or discount at any other place than its banking house. No bank or trust company shall give credit to any party who shall thereby become liable to it for more than 15 per cent. of its capital stock actually paid in, or discount any paper made, accepted or indorsed by its cashier or any of its clerks, or by any partnership of which either is a member. Cashiers and treasurers are required to give not less than $10,000 bonds. There are two Bank Commissioners appointed by the Governor of the State, with the advice and consent of the Senate, who examine every bank and trust company semi-annually or oftener, and who report annually to the legislature the condition of all such institutions examined by them. The cashiers of all banks and treasurers of all trust companies are required to sign and deliver to the Bank Commissioners quarterly a particular statement of the condition of their respective institutions, exhibiting their resources and liabilities and the daily average of specie and of specie funds during the three months last preceding, which statement shall be verified by oath, and published in a newspaper in the county where such bank or trust company is located; and are also required on or before the 1st day of April in each year, and oftener if required by the Bank Commissioners, to transmit to them a sworn statement of the condition of their respective institutions, making a balance sheet showing, among other things, the amount invested in real estate, the locality thereof, and its cash value, the amount invested in stocks or bonds, with the number of shares of said stock and the par value thereof, the actual cost to the institution, the actual market value at the time of said return, the number and amount of such bonds and their description, and all other investments in personal property, specifying the value thereof and the original cost, also the amount of money held in trust and on deposit on the day of the return, the average amount of loans for the year, and the actual amount of loans on the day of the return, and the security held therefor.

Savings banks may employ not exceeding half of their deposits in making loans on personal security and in the purchase of the public stock and bonds of the United States; of any of the New England States; of the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, or of the District of Columbia: in the bonds or promissory notes of counties, towns, cities, boroughs, and school districts of this State: in the authorized bonds of any incorporated city in the New England States; of the cities of New York, Brooklyn, Albany, Syracuse, Utica, Troy, Rochester and Buffalo, in the State of New York; Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania; Detroit, in the State of Michigan; Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and Cincinnati, in the State of Ohio; Chicago, in the State of Illinois; Milwaukee in the State of Wisconsin; and St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, or the authorized bonds of any other incorporated city of not less than 30,000 inhabitants, as ascertained by the United States census or State census next preceding such investment in any of the aforesaid States whose indebtedness upon its stocks and bonds, including the issue in which such investment is made, and its proportion of town and county debts does not exceed eight per centum of the valuation of such property made for the assessment of taxes next preceding such investment; provided said city has not defaulted payment of its debts within fifteen years next preceding the passage of this act; also in the first mortgage bonds of any railroad company, located in any of the States aforesaid, which has paid dividends of not less than five per cent. per annum regularly on its entire capital stock, for a period of not less than five years next previous to the purchase of such bonds: provided said capital stock equals or exceeds in amount the entire issue of said bonds, or in the consolidated mortgage bonds of any railroad company chartered by this State, authorized to be issued to retire the entire bonded debt of said company; provided said company has paid dividends as aforesaid; or of any town or borough of this State, or in the stock of any bank in this State, New York City or Boston; or in the stock of any trust company in this State; and all other loans shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate, in this State, worth double the amount of the loan secured thereon; provided, that the Stafford Savings Bank, of the town of Stafford, and the Stonington Savings Bank, of the town, may loan, the former on land located in the county of Hampden, in the State of Massachusetts, the latter on land in the county of Washington, in the State of Rhode Island.

Investments in United States bonds, in bonds of this State, in bonds of towns, cities, boroughs, school districts and counties in this State, or in the bonds of any of the States or cities whose bonds savings banks are now allowed by law to purchase, may be classed with loans upon real estate, for the purpose of determining the proportion of loans required upon such estate.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Deeds of land must be in writing, subscribed and sealed by the grantor, attested by two witnesses, and acknowledged by the grantor to be his free act and deed, if in this State, before a Judge of a court of record of this State or of the United States, Justice of the Peace, Commissioner of the School Fund, Commissioner of the Superior Court, Clerk of the Superior Court or Court of Common Pleas or District Court, Notary Public, Town Clerk or Assistant Town Clerk; if in any other State or Territory of the United States, before a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State and residing therein, or any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds in such State or Territory; and if in a foreign country, before any Consul of the United States or Notary Public or Justice of the Peace in such foreign coutry.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. Voluntary assignments in insolvency can be made by any debtor to a trustee of his own selection, subject to the substitution of another by the Probate Court, if deemed proper. Assigning debtor must lodge with Court of Probate, within five days after assignment, a list verified under oath of his creditors and schedule of his property. A creditor for over $100, having brought suit and finding no property to attach, may apply to the Probate Court for the appointment of a trustee in insolvency of the debtor's estate. A hearing is had, and, if the petition is granted, trustee takes all debtor's estate not exempt; and all incomplete levies or attachments on mesne process commenced within sixty days previous, are dissolved. Three to six months are allowed to prove claims, which are passed upon by Commissioners appointed for that purpose. The debtor receives an allowance for his support and that of his family, and if the estate pays seventy per cent. of all claims proved, he obtains a full discharge. Debtors may be arrested in actions for fraud or torts, and can give bail to the officer making the arrest, for their appearance before the court to which the writ for arrest is returnable. A debtor committed to jail on civil process can be released on taking an oath that he has not any real or personal estate in possession, reversion or remainder, of the value of $17 in the whole, or sufficient to pay hte demand for which he is imprisoned, except what is by law exempted from being taken on execution; and that he has not, directly or indirectly, sold, or otherwise disposed of, all or any part of his estate, thereby to secure the same, or to receive or expect any profit or advantage therefrom, or to defraud or deceive his creditors. The debtor will not be released if his oath is overcome by rebutting evidence. All debts due any laborer or mechanic for personal wages for labor performed within th ree months next preceding the assignment are to be paid in full to the amount of $100, before the general liabilities of the debtor are paid.

ATTACHMENT is served by attaching goods or lands of defendant, or, if none be found, by attaching the person when liable. Non-resident plaintiff must furnish bond for costs. Goods concealed in hands of agents, or debts due to the defendant, are reached by foreign attachment, which takes the place of garnishment. No assignment of future earnings will prevent their attachment when earned unless made to secure a bona fide debt, due at the date of such assignment, the amount of which shall be stated therein as nearly as possible, nor unless the term for which they are assigned shall be definitely limited in the assignment, nor unless recorded, before such attachment in the Town Clerk's office in the town where the assignor resides, or if he reside without the State in the town where the employer resides and a copy left with the employer.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Superior Court holds one term per year in each county for the trial of civil causes, and has jurisdiction in all law and equity cases exceeding $500. Court of Common Pleas in Hartford, Fairfield, New London and New Haven counties, has exclusive law and equity jurisdiction above $100 and below $500, and concurrent jurisdiction with the Superior Court above $500 and up to $1,000, and in Litchfield County has exclusive jurisdiction up to $1,000. Not less than four terms each year are held in each of the counties named, and there are City Courts in many of the cities, and a District Court at Waterbury, with limited civil jurisdiction. Probate Courts deal with the settlement of estates and insolvency proceedings, and Justices of the Peace have civil jurisdiction up to $100.

EXECUTIONS issue on the return of final judgment, and are returnable within sixty days. No execution issued in an action founded on contract merely can be levied on the body of the debtor except for breach of promise of marriage, misconduct or neglect in office or professional employment, or breach of trust. Real estate levied on must be appraised by three indifferent persons. Stay of execution only on appeal, or in special causes at discretion of court. Any judgment debtor, an execution against whom shall have been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, may be examined on oath touching his property and means of paying such judgment, and may be committed for contempt in case of neglect or refusal to attend, or to be sworn or to answer any question put to him during the examination.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead, to the value of $1,000, if declaration to hold it as such is recorded. Minor's wages not to be taken by process of foreign attachment for any debt of parent while such minor is living apart from such parent, nor in any case where the debt is not for necessaries furnished the minor or such parent.

INTEREST. Legal rate, six per cent.; no penalty for usury.

JUDGMENTS carry six per cent. interest, but are not liens, and execution may be had at any time during the life of both parties. Judgment may be obtained within the first three days of term to which suit is brought, unless debtor makes reasonable defense. Certificate of judgment may be recorded by judgment creditor or his assignee in Town Clerk's office, and such judgment from the time of filing such certificate shall constitute a lien upon the real estate described in such certificate, and if such lien be placed upon real estate attached in the suit upon which such judgment was predicated and within four months after such judgment was rendered, it shall hold from the date of such attachment. Such lien may be foreclosed or redeemed in the same manner as mortgages upon the same estate, and may also be foreclosed by decree of sale.

LIMITATIONS TO SUITS. Open accounts and contracts not under seal, six years; contracts under seal and promissory notes not negotiable, seventeen years; express contracts, except actions of book debt or actions founded on proper subjects of book debt, and of which there is no written memorandum, three years. Usual exceptions in favor of married women, minors, lunatics, and those imprisoned. The time during which the party against whom there may be such cause of action shall be without the State, shall be excluded from the computation. Title to real estate by adverse possession may be gained in fifteen years.

MARRIED WOMEN. By a law passed in 1877, neither husband nor wife shall acquire any interest in the estate of the other by force of a marriage contracted subsequent to April 20, 1877, except as to the share of the survivor in the property of the other; and in such a marriage, the separate earnings of the wife shall be her sole property, and the wife shall have power to make contracts with third persons, and to convey to them her real or personal estate in the same manner as if she were unmarried. All her property shall be liable to be taken for her debts in the same manner and to the same extent as if she was unmarried—except that the property of the husband, when found, shall be first applied to satisfy liabilities incurred for the support of the family. On the death of the husband or wife, the survivor (except where by a written contract made before marriage, or after, either party has received from the other what was intended as a provision in lieu of the statutory share) shall be entitled to the use for life of one-third in value of all the property, real or personal, owned by the other at the time of his or her decease, after the payment of all debts and charges allowed against the estate. The right to such third can not be defeated by will. Where there is no will the survivor shall take such third absolutely, and if there are no children, shall take one-half absolutely. In cases of marriages contracted prior to April 20, 1877, the husband and wife may enter into a written contract for the mutual abandonment of all rights of either in the property of the other under previous statutes, or at common law, and for the acceptance instead thereof of the rights given by act of 1877, and when such contract is recorded in the Probate Court of the district and the Town Clerk's office in the town where they reside, the provisions of act of 1877 shall apply to such marriages. In marriages contracted prior to April 20, 1877, the wife remains under the same disabilities as before the law of 1877 was passed (unless written contract is made and recorded as above mentioned), that is, her husband must join her in all conveyances of her estate, and an action can be sustained against her only for torts committed by her and upon contracts made by her, upon her personal credit, and for the benefit of herself, her family or her joint or separate estate. Contracts which by express agreement charge estate held to her sole and separate use may be enforced against such estate. Her property is not liable for her husband's debts, nor can his interest in her estate be taken for his debts during the life of the wife or of any child that is the issue of their marriage, except for debts contracted by him for the support of his wife and such issue. Any married woman may make a will subject to the marital rights of her husband. Dower exists only in real estate of which the husband was seized at his death. The husband acquires a right to the use of all the land of his wife during her life, and if he has a child by her, and survives her, then during his own life as tenant by courtesy. Personal property of any woman married since June 22, 1849, and before April 20, 1877, vests in her husband as trustee, to use the income during his life, subject to the duty of expending what may be necessary of such income for the support of his wife during her life, and of their children during their minority, and of expending any part of the principal that may be necessary for the support of the wife, or otherwise with her written assent. Upon the death of the husband the remainder to be transferred to the wife if living, otherwise as the wife may by will have directed, or in default of such will, to those entitled by law to succeed to her intestate estate. Married woman may be executrix, trustee or guardian without consent of her husband, and the husband is not liable for her acts and defaults unless such acts are by his express direction. Any married woman over the person and estate of whose husband a conservator has been appointed, while such appointment is unrevoked, may lease, sell, convey and have and exercise all rights in and concerning her estate in the same manner as if she were unmarried.

MORTGAGES of real estate are executed, acknowledged and recorded in the same manner as deeds, and are foreclosed by strict foreclosure or by a decree of sale. The equity of redemption exists for a limited time fixed by the court (usually from two to six months). Chattel mortgages to be good against third parties, where the mortgagor retains possession, must be executed, acknowledged and recorded as mortgages of land, and can only be made of the following described personal property—with or without the real estate in which the same is situated or used—namely: machinery, engines or implements situated and used in any manufacturing or mechanical establishment; machinery, engines, implements, cases, types, cuts or plates situated and used in any printing, publishing or engraving establishment; household furniture in a dwelling house used by the owner therein in housekeeping; hay and tobacco in the leaf in any building. Piano, organ, melodeon, and any musical instrument used by an orchestra or band. Brick, burned or unburned, in any kiln or brick yard. Hotel keepers may mortgage the furniture, fixtures and other personal chattels contained and used in the hotels occupied by them or employed in connection therewith. Chattel mortgages are foreclosed by sale under order of court.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Promissory notes made payable to order or bearer for the payment of money only, are negotiable. The laws of this State make no distinction between commercial and negotiable paper, and do not require that negotiable notes be made payable at a bank or any fixed place in the State, unless so stipulated in the note. No days of grace, unless specified, are allowed on non-negotiable notes, or on paper payable at sight or on demand. A negotiable promissory note payable on demand is regarded as dishonored if unpaid four months after date. Demand and reasonable notice are necessary to bind indorsers. Notes or bills falling due upon any holiday, to wit, 1st of January, 22d of February, 30th of May, 4th of July, December 25th, 1st Monday of September, known as labor day, Thanksgiving, or Fast Days, or on the Monday next following such day when such day occurs on Sunday, are presentable for payment or acceptance on the secular day next preceding such holiday. Damages for protested bills, foreign, are from two to eight per cent., according to location of State where protested.

SUITS. Process in civil actions is by writ of summons or attachment. All processes before the Superior Court, District Court, to Court of Common Pleas, must be served at least twelve days before the session of the court; in Court of Common Pleas for New Haven county, where defendants reside in town of New Haven, service made six days inclusive before the session of the court is sufficient; before a Justice, six days. Where there is process of garnishment, garnishee must be served with copy of writ twelve days before session of the court, whether Justice or other court.

TAXES. Land may be sold for delinquent taxes after due advertising, only so much being sold as is necessary to pay taxes and costs. Owner has one year in which to redeem, by paying the purchase money, with twelve per cent. interest. Any mortgagee or creditor of the owner may redeem within the year, and may hold the estate as security for the purchase money and interest as aforesaid. Taxes shall not be held to constitute a lien upon lands for a greater sum than the taxes assessed upon such lands, so far as mortgagees are concerned, whose title existed prior to the laying of said taxes.

GEORGIA.

BANKING LAW.

Banks, by a provision of the Constitution, and the Statute, are chartered only by the Legislature.

The State Treasurer is also Bank Examiner, and receives an additional salary to be paid by the banks. He is required to visit each bank chartered by this State at least twice each year, at times so irregular as to be unknown beforehand to the banks; he shall examine thoroughly and shall make report to the Governor of the result of his examinations. His report shall embrace the names of the President and Directors, and a list of the Stockholders on the day of the regular meeting of the President and Directors, next preceding the date of his report; (the list of Stockholders may be given but once a year) the amount of stock owned by each individual or company, and the amount of money actually paid in on each share; the amount of bills of other banks of the State, of gold, silver and bullion in their vaults; the amount of debts due them within and without the State, so designating them, which may be denominated specie funds; the active or running paper; the amounts in suits, under protest and not in suit, clearly stating what amount of such debts is good, what doubtful, what bad, and what lost; the amount of bills in circulation, the amount on deposit, and the highest amount due and owing by each. The penalty for failure to make returns as required by law, is a forfeiture to the State of 2 per cent. a month, from the time of default, on the capital stock of the bank. Making a false affidavit is perjury.

The Bank Examiner has the right to demand a statement of the condition of any bank at any time, and upon such demand the President and Cashier of such bank shall furnish such report within 24 hours.

By Act of 1887 it is made a misdemeanor for any officer or agent of a bank to borrow any money from the bank except by permission of a majority of the Directors or a committee of such Directors.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS may be taken within the State by a Judge or Clerk of a court of record, Commissioner of Deeds, Justice of the Peace, or Notary Public. In other States or Territories, by a Commissioner of Deeds for Georgia, or Judge of court of record; in the State where executed, with a certificate of the Clerk, under the seal of such Court, that the court is a court of record, and of the genuineness of the signature of such Judge; and in foreign countries by a Consul or Vice-Consul of the United States. Deeds to realty should be attested by two witnesses, one of whom shall be an official authorized to take acknowledgments. Deeds must be filed for record at once, in order to affect third parties.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. A debtor may prefer one creditor to another, and may create a bona fide lien, by mortgage or other legal means, may sell in payment of the debt, or transfer papers as collateral security. But every assignment made by a debtor insolvent at the time, either in trust or in behalf of creditors, is fraudulent, and null and void, when any trust or benefit is reserved to the assignor, or any person for him. There is no imprisonment for debt. Voluntary assignments shall have attached to them, sworn to by the person making assignment, "a full and complete inventory and schedule of all the assets of every kind held, claimed or owned by such insolvent person, firm or corporation" and of the creditors in detail, giving name and amount of each, and their residence at the time of making assignment. Filing false, deceptive or incomplete schedule is punished as perjury. In case any corporation (not municipal), or trader, or firm of traders, shall fail to pay matured paper and be insolvent, any one or more creditors may file a bill in equity, have a Receiver appointed, and an injunction granted to restrain interference with such Receiver. The Receiver shall collect assets, and under the direction of the Court distribute the same pro rata among creditors, recognizing, however, liens created before the filing of the creditor's bill. Any creditor may become a party to a bill of this kind. The Chancellor at the end of the suit may, if he considers it a proper case, recommend the debtor released from the remainder of his debts. It has been decided that a bill of this kind will not lie after a dissolution of the firm.

ATTACHMENT process may issue when defendant resides out of the State, is about to remove without the limits of the county, absconds, conceals himself, or resists legal arrest, attempts to remove property beyond the State, or fraudulently disposes of property, or shall threaten or prepare so to do, or creates a fraudulent lien thereon. Attachment lies at any time to recover purchase money when due, when the property purchased remains in the possession of the debtor, or of any one holding the same for the benefit of the debtor, or in fraud, against the creditor. Plaintiff must file bond in double the amount involved. First attachment levied has priority. Garnishment issues in aid of attachment or judgment, but journeymen mechanics and laborers are exempt from garnishment on their daily, weekly or monthly wages. The maker of negotiable paper in the hands of plaintiff's debtor is liable to a garnishment.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Superior Court sits in each county twice a year, and has original jurisdiction in law and equity, except in probate matters, which are passed upon by the Courts of Ordinary, which hold terms on the first Monday of each month. Justice's jurisdiction, $100.

EXECUTIONS may issue at any time after judgment is signed and filed, and may be levied at once, and are returnable at the next term of court. Stay of sixty days may be had by giving bond and security. In Justice's Courts stay is sixty days where over $30 are involved; forty days, below that sum. Property must be advertised once a week, for four weeks, before sale. No redemption of property sold under execution except for tax, when owner may redeem within one year.

EXEMPTIONS. The Constitution of 1877 provides that there "shall be exempt from levy and sale, by virtue of any process whatever under the laws of this State, except as hereinafter excepted, of the property of every head of a family, or guardian, or trustee of a family of minor children, or every aged or infirm person, or person having the care and support of dependent females of any age, who is not the head of a family, realty or personalty, or both, to the value in the aggregate of $1,600." The exceptions are for taxes, purchase money of the homestead, labor done thereon or material furnished therefor, or for the removal of incumbrances. The debtor has power to waive or renounce in writing the right of exemption thus provided, except as to wearing apparel, and not exceeding $300 worth of household and kitchen furniture, and provisions, to be selected by himself and his wife, if any; and he shall not, after it is set apart, alienate or encumber the property so exempted, but it may be sold by the debtor, and his wife, if any, jointly, with the sanction of the Judge of the Superior Court of the county where the debtor resides, or the land is situated, the proceeds to be reinvested upon the same uses.

INTEREST. Legal rate is seven per cent., but contracts in writing may be made up to eight per cent. Usury forfeits excess charged. Judgments bear lawful interest. Deeds tainted with usury are void as title.

JUDGMENTS are liens from their date, on all real and personal property of the debtor not specially exempted, except promissory notes in hands of defendant. Stocks in incorporated companies are made specially liable by statute. Judgments are rendered only at second term of Superior Court, and in the City Court of Savannah at first term. Judgments become dormant in seven years, if no execution is issued upon them, but may be revived by proceedings within three years from the time they become dormant. Judgments in United States Courts and Justice Courts must be registered in the office of the Clerks of Superior Courts within ten days to affect innocent purchasers. In counties, other than where obtained, within thirty days.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Open accounts and contracts not in writing, four years; contracts in writing not under seal, six years; bonds and instruments under seal, twenty years; foreign judgments, five years. Revivor: New promise in writing, or payment on note indorsed by debtor. Debts and contracts made, and judgments obtained outside the State prior to June 1, 1865, are barred, unless suit was brought to collect or enforce the same by or before January 1, 1870. Adverse possession of land for twenty years gives good title by prescription, except against the State, and persons under disability; and adverse possession for seven years, under written evidence of title, gives like title by prescription, unless the title be forged or fraudulent. A like title to personalty is acquired by four years adverse possession.

MARRIED WOMEN. All property of the wife in possession at the time of marriage, or afterwards acquired by her, is her separate property, and not liable for the payment of any debts, defaults or contracts of the husband. Wife can not bind her separate estate by any contract of suretyship, whether in behalf of her husband or any other person. The wife, by consent of her husband, published for one month in a newspaper, may become a free trader, in which event she is liable as a femme sole. Widow takes dower in one-third of all the lands of which her husband was seized at his death.

MORTGAGES pass no title, and are simply a security for a debt. Must be executed and proved before a Notary Public, Justice, or Clerk of the Superior Court, and should be recorded within one month. On and after January 1, 189-, mortgages will only take effect from the filing of the same in the offices of Clerks of the Superior Courts, for record in so far as they may affect purchasers and subsequent mortgagees without actual notice. Mortgages on realty require one witness besides the attesting officer. Mortgages on personal property are foreclosed instanter and ex parte. On real estate a rule nisi issues at one term, and rule absolute at next.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Notes taken for personal property delivered to purchaser, which contain reservation of title in seller, must, to make the reservation good, be recorded in thirty days from date, and be attested by Notary or other official. Deeds to realty and bills of sale to personalty, made to secure debts, should be recorded in thirty days from date of execution. Deeds in county where the land lies, and bills of sale in county of maker's residence. No days of grace are allowed on sight papers. When bills of exchange and promissory notes are made for the purpose of negotiation, or intended to be negotiated at any chartered bank, and the same are not paid at maturity, notice of the non-payment thereof and of the protest of the same for non-payment or non-acceptance must be given to the indorsers thereon within a reasonable time, either personally or by post, or the indorser will not be liable thereon; but it shall not be necessary to protest in order to bind the indorser, except in the following cases, to wit: 1st. When a paper is made payable on its face at a bank or banker's office. 2d. When it is discounted at a bank or banker's office. 3d. When it is left at a bank or banker's office for collection. And in all such cases days of grace must be allowed. The last day of grace is the day of maturity. Accommodation indorsers are sureties, and indorsers may be sued in the same county and action with the maker, drawer, or acceptor. A recent statute provides that the 1st day of January, 22d of February, 26th of April, 4th of July, 25th of December, and any day appointed by the Governor of the State, President of the United States, or the civil authorities of any city, as a fast day or thanksgiving day, held and considered as Sunday, for all purposes connected with presenting for acceptance or payment, and protesting and giving notice of dishonor, of any bill of exchange, draft, note, check or order, made after February 28, 1876, which, but for this Act (passed as above), would fall due and payable on any of the days herein mentioned, shall, when said days fall on Sunday, become due and payable on the Saturday before, and paper falling due on Monday shall be payable on Tuesday following. If a holiday fall on Saturday, paper due on Sunday payable on Monday. If holiday fall on Monday, paper due that day is payable on Tuesday. By a late act (August 30th, 1881) bills of exchange must be accepted, in writing, to bind acceptor. In this State it is usual to insert in promissory notes a clause requiring the maker to pay all cost of collection including Attorney's fees, and a waiver of all homestead exemption as against the amount promised. By act of 1887, warehouse and elevator receipts, bills of lading and other commercial paper symbolic of property, including promissory notes, may be delivered in pledge or pawn.

SUITS. Actions at law must be brought twenty days before the term of court at which they are returnable, except suits in Justice's Courts for less than $100, when fifteen days suffice. Bills in equity must be filed thirty days before return term. Claims sent to this State for collection should be accompanied by full name of each plaintiff, if a partnership, or legal style of a corporation, if plaintiff be such. Accounts and unliquidated demands should be itemized. Affidavits of correctness of accounts are valuable when the amount is $100, or less; when a greater amount is involved, they are useless as evidence.

TAXES. Owners of wild lands are required to make returns, and sales of lands for delinquent taxes may be made after sixty days' notice by newspaper publication. Such lands may be redeemed within two years, by payment of purchase money and costs, with interest at ten per cent. per annum. On other lands the time allowed for redemption is one year only.

At a creditors' meeting, held after thirty days' notice given, one or more assignees, not exceeding three, are appointed, and claims proved. Plaintiff must furnish bond, with two sufficient sureties. Garnishment process may issue in aid of attachment or execution, and the garnishee must make answer under oath. Defendant in a civil action for recovery of money or damages, under a contract, express or implied, may be arrested, when about to depart from the Territory with intent to defraud, or when the debt or obligation was fraudulently contracted.

ATTACHMENT process may issue in actions on contracts for the sale of insolvent's property. Any creditor may oppose proceedings on the ground of fraud, and if the allegation be proven, the debtor shall be forever deprived of the benefit of the insolvent laws.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. District Courts hold two terms a year in Ada, Boise, Idaho, Kootenai, Shoshone, Nez Perces, Oneida and Owyhee counties, and one term annually in other counties, and have original jurisdiction in all civil cases involving over $100. ILLINOIS.

BANKING LAW.

At the adoption of the constitution of 1848 all banks of issue created by prior laws of the State had ceased to exist. See 93 Ills. 199. No new banks of issue were authorized after that date until 1851, when a general banking law [Act of Feb. 15, 1851] was enacted. The existence of banks to be organized under this Act was limited to twenty-five years. In 1867 the organization of any more banks under the Act of 1851, and the issue of any further circulation to those already organized, were forbidden [Act of March 7, 1867]. Hence, when the constitution of 1870, now in force, was adopted, all banks of issue under earlier laws had practically ceased to exist. The Banking Act of 1851 was, as a whole, formally repealed in 1874. The constitution of 1870 prohibits the chartering of any corporation (except those for charitable, educational, penal or reformatory purposes, etc.) by special laws. It further provides as follows: "No State Bank shall hereafter be created, nor shall the State own or be liable for any stock in any corporation or joint stock company or association for banking purposes now created, or to be hereafter created. No act of the General Assembly authorizing or creating corporations or associations with banking powers, whether of issue, deposit or discount, nor amendments thereto, shall go into effect, or in any manner be in force, unless the same shall be submitted to a vote of the people at the general election next succeeding the passage of the same, and be approved by a majority of all the votes cast at such election for or against such law. Every stockholder in a banking corporation or institution shall be individually responsible and liable to its creditors, over and above the amount of stock by him or her held, to an amount equal to his or her respective shares so held, for all its liabilities accruing while he or she remains such stockholder. The suspension of specie payments by banking institutions, on their circulation, created by the laws of this State, shall never be permitted or sanctioned. Every banking association now, or which may hereafter be, organized under the laws of this State, shall make and publish a full and accurate quarterly statement of its affairs which shall be certified to under oath, by one or more of its officers), in may be provided by law. If a general banking law shall be enacted, it shall provide for the registry and countersigning by an officer of State of all bills or paper credit designed to circulate as money, and require security to the full amount thereof to be deposited with the State Treasurer in United States or Illinois State stocks, to be rated at 10 per cent. below their par value; and, in case of a depreciation of said stocks to the amount of 10 per cent. below par, the bank or banks owning said stocks shall be required to make up said deficiency by depositing additional stocks. And said law shall also provide for the recording of the names of all stockholders in such corporations, the amount of stock held by each at the time of any transfer thereof, and to whom such transfer is made." From the adoption of the constitution of 1870, until the Act of 1887 below cited, the general statutes of Illinois remained substantially silent upon the subject of banks and banking, except in the provisions of the general revenue law below referred to.

A large number of corporations authorized to exercise the usual franchises of a bank, with the exclusion of the right to issue bank notes to circulate as money, had been created by the legislature, by special charters, under various names, prior to the constitution of 1870. A number of these corporations still carry on business, subject to the restrictions of their original charters, which are far from uniform in their provisions. It is in a modified sense only that these corporations were called "State Banks," since they never had the right to issue bank notes, and were essentially private corporations under no system of general or special State or legislative supervision or control. There was, with respect to them, no statutory system of official examinations or inspection; nor were they by statute required to make public statements of their condition, nor to make reports to State officials, other than (under the general revenue law of the State, and in in common with other corporations and persons) to list, or state annually to the local Assessor, for the purpose of taxation, specified data and information touching their business and property. The revenue law provides that such statements shall be returned by the local Assessor to the local County Clerk, and shall be forwarded by the latter to the Auditor of Public Accounts, who shall annually, on the meeting of the State Board for the Equalization of Taxes, lay such statements before that board. Special statutory provision is made, however, requiring, under penalty of removal from office, the receiver or assignee of any Savings bank, or other bank or banker, upon the written request of ten depositors, to make and file in court, not oftener than once in four months, a detailed statement of all the assets.

Subsequently the General Assembly (original act approved June 16, 1887, ratified by popular vote Nov. 5, 1888; amendatory act approved June 3, 1889, ratified by popular vote Nov. 4, 1890) authorized the formation of banks and banking associations for the purpose of discount and deposit, buying and selling exchange and doing a general banking business (except the issuing of bills to circulate as money), with power to loan money on personal and real estate security, and to accept and execute trusts. These statutes provide: For the organization of such banks or associations in all cities, towns and villages, with a minimum capital stock according to their population, viz: $25,000 where inhabitants do not exceed 5,000; $50,000 where inhabitants are over 5,000 and less than 10,000; $100,000 where inhabitants are 10,000 and less than 50,000; $200,000 where inhabitants are 50,000 or more; for the full payment of stock before banking is begun; for an individual responsibility of each stockholder (over and above his or her stock and to an amount equal to such stock) for all its liabilities accruing while he or she remains such stockholder, which responsibility is not released by a transfer of stock; for a public record of stockholders and their holdings, and of all transfers of stock; for detailed reports by each bank, to the Auditor of Public Accounts, of its resources and liabilities before the commencement of business on the morning of any day chosen by the Auditor, such reports to be verified by the oath or affirmation of the president or cashier, to be called for at least once in every three months in each year, and to be published in some newspaper in the city or town where the bank is located, etc.; for a personal examination, at least once in each year, of the affairs of each bank by some suitable person (not a stockholder, officer, or employé of the bank) to be appointed by the Auditor, and for a full report thereon to the Auditor; for the intervention of the State upon the impairment of capital; for voluntary or involuntary liquidation; against indebtedness to any such bank in excess of one-tenth of its capital by any person, company, or firm; for changes in the name, place of business, amount of capital stock, or number of directors, managers, or trustees; for consolidation with another bank, etc. The act indicates no limit to the term of corporate existence which may be enjoyed by banks to be organized under it, other than the pleasure of the organizers to be expressed in their preliminary certificate. It is directed that each bank may own and carry as assets "the real estate necessary in which to do its banking business, and such other real estate to which it may obtain title in the collection of its debts, but shall not carry in its assets any real estate except its banking house for the period of more than five years after acquiring title to the same." These statutes also provide for the ratification of prior illegal changes (in name, place of business, amount of capital stock, etc.) made by banking corporations under former legislation (Act of March 26, 1872), which legislation had been held unconstitutional by a decision of the Supreme Court. This last provision is understood to have been enacted for the benefit of the earlier banking corporations above mentioned [existing under special charters] whose legal status had in many cases become insecure and anomalous under the decision last referred to. These statutes must await judicial construction to determine to what extent they are operative as a restriction of or limitation upon the previous independent franchises and privileges supposed to have been hitherto enjoyed under their special charters by the earlier corporations above mentioned. They are open to a literal and perhaps necessary construction which would subject these earlier corporations in every particular to the supervision, examination, and control provided for in these statutes, as fully as if organized under them.

An act of the legislature passed in 1887 (which remained before the Governor ten days without action on his part, and was certified under date of May 23, 1887, by the Secretary of State as having thereby become a law), embracing elaborate provisions for the organization of savings banks, was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, as a masked attempt to evade the constitutional requirement that banking legislation must be approved by a vote of the people, and it exists inoperative on the statute book.

The business of receiving savings deposits, or conducting "savings banks," so called, as well as that termed "private banking," are in Illinois [except so far as they may be carried on by corporations brought under the provisions of the acts of June 16, 1887, and June 3, 1889, above referred to] matters of personal adventure or speculation, open without hindrance to anyone who may choose to embark in them, and can manage to gain credit and deposits. As such, they are substantially, in an equal degree with any private business, free from statutory and governmental control or investigation, either in respect of the prudence or honesty with which they may be carried on, or of the use being made of the money of depositors.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of any instruments relating to the sale, conveyance or other disposition of real estate, or any interest therein, situate in this State, may be made before one of the following officers: First—When acknowledged or proved within this State, before a Master in Chancery, Notary Public, United States Commissioner, Circuit or County Clerk, Justice of the Peace, or any court of record having a seal, or any Judge, Justice or Clerk of any such court. When taken before a Notary Public or United States Commissioner, the same shall be attested by his official seal; when taken before a court or the Clerk thereof, the same shall be attested by the seal of such court; and when taken before a Justice of the Peace, there shall be added the certificate of the County Clerk, under his seal of office, that the person taking such acknowledgment or proof was a Justice of the Peace in said county at the time of taking the same. If the Justice reside in the county where the lands mentioned in the instrument are situated, no such certificate shall be required. Second—When acknowledged or proved without this State and within the United States or their Territories, or the District of Columbia, before a Justice of the Peace, a Notary Public, United States Commissioner, Commissioner to take acknowledgments of deeds, Mayor of a city, Clerk of a county, or before any Judge, Justice, or Clerk of the Supreme or any Circuit or District Court of the United States, or any Judge, Justice or Clerk of the Supreme, Circuit, Superior, District, County or Common Pleas Court, of any of the United States or their Territories. When such acknowledgment or proof is made before a Notary Public, United States Commissioner, Commissioner of deeds, Mayor of a city, or Clerk, it shall be certified by such officer, under his seal of office. If before a Mayor of the city, it shall be certified under the seal of the city. If before a Justice of the Peace, there shall be added a certificate of the proper Clerk, under the seal of his office, setting forth that the person before whom such proof or acknowledgment was made was a Justice of the Peace at the time of making the same. An acknowledgment or proof may be made in conformity with the laws of the State, Territory or district where it is made. Third—When acknowledged or proved without the United States, then before any court of any Republic, State, Kingdom or Empire having a seal; or any Mayor or chief officer of any city or town having a seal; or before any Minister or Secretary of Legation, or Consul of the United States in any foreign country, attested by his official seal; or before any officer authorized by the laws of such foreign country to take acknowledgments of conveyances of real estate, such deed to be attested by the official seal of such court or officer, if he have a seal. Where such acknowledgment or proof is taken other than before a court of record, or Mayor, or chief officer of a town having a seal, proof that the officer taking such acknowledgment was duly authorized by the laws of his country so to do, shall accompany the certificate of such acknowledgment. Such acknowledgment or proof may also be made in conformity with the laws of any foreign State, Kingdom, Empire, or country; which conformity may be shown by the certificate of any Consul or Minister of the United States in said country, under his official seal, or by other legal proof. No deed or other instrument shall be construed as releasing or waiving the right of homestead, unless the same shall contain a clause expressly releasing or waiving such right, and in such case the certificate of acknowledgment shall contain a clause substantially as follows: "including the release and waiver of the right of homestead." Acknowledgments of chattel mortgages must be made before a Justice of the Peace of the town or precinct where the mortgagor resides; or, if there be no acting Justice of the Peace in the town or precinct where the mortgagor resides, then such instrument may be acknowledged before the County Judge of the county in which the mortgagor resides; or, if the mortgagor is not a resident of this State at the time of making the acknowledgment, then before any officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds.

ASSIGNMENTS. The County Court has jurisdiction in cases of voluntary assignment for the benefit of creditors, which assignments must be duly acknowledged and recorded in the county where the assignor resides, or where the business has been carried on, and in the county or counties where land embraced in the assignment is situate. Assignee must file bond, inventory and valuation, and send notice by mail to creditors of whom he shall be informed, to present claims under oath, within three months from publication of notice. Claims not so presented do not participate in dividends until after the payment in full of all claims properly presented and allowed. Assignee is required to make equal dividends among creditors at the first term of court after the three months allowed, and to render a final account within one year. Every provision in any assignment providing for the payment of one debt or liability in preference to another is void, and all debts and liabilities within the provisions of the assignment shall be paid pro rata from the assets thereof, except claims for wages of laborer or servant earned within three months next preceding the making of such assignment, which, if allowed, are first paid, after costs, commissions, and expenses of assignment, to the exclusion of other claims. Claims may be revised or contested before the court; and assignee is at all times subject to the order and supervision of said court, or the Judge thereof. Debtor may be subjected to examination touching his estate. No provision is made for the discharge of the debtor. All proceedings may be discontinued upon the assent, in writing, of the debtor and a majority of the creditors in number and amount.

ATTACHMENT. The writ may issue out of courts of record on claims exceeding $20, when the debtor is non-resident; conceals himself, or stands in defiance of an officer, so that process can not be served on him; has departed from this State with the intention of removing his effects therefrom, or if he is about to do so; where he has, within two years preceding, fraudulently conveyed, assigned, concealed or disposed of his property, or a part thereof, so as to hinder or delay creditors; where he is about fraudulently to conceal, assign or otherwise dispose of his property or effects, so as to hinder or delay his creditors; or where the debt sued for was fraudulently contracted by statements in writing signed by the debtor, his agent or attorney. Before the writ can issue, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, must make affidavit to one or more of these facts, and give bond, with approved security, in double the amount of the claim sued on. Attachment writs may issue out of Justice's Courts, on the same grounds, on all claims not exceeding $200. Garnishment process may issue in cases of attachment, or on return of execution unsatisfied, but the wages of any person who is the head of a family and resides with the same, to the amount of $50, are exempt therefrom. Arrest on civil process lies only in case of fraud, on judgments in tort, or on refusal of debtor to surrender his estate for benefit of creditors.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts have original jurisdiction in all cases in law and equity, and hold two or more terms in each year, in each county. County Courts have probate jurisdiction (except in counties where Probate Courts are established), and have also a limited civil and criminal jurisdiction. In counties having a population of 70,000 or more, Probate Courts are established. Provision is made for City Courts of special civil and criminal jurisdiction. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction limited to $200. Appellate Courts and a Supreme Court exercise appellate jurisdiction. Cook County has a special Superior Court of jurisdiction concurrent with that of the Circuit Court, and has also a special Criminal Court.

EXECUTIONS may issue immediately after rendition of judgment, and to any county in the State. Executions issued out of courts of record are returnable in ninety days; on Justice's judgments in seventy days. Executions are liens on personal property from date of delivery of the writ to Sheriff or other officer. Real estate can not be levied upon or sold by virtue of any execution issued by a Justice of the Peace. Real estate is sold on execution, without appraisement, to the highest bidder; and, if the debtor so elects, his real estate must be exhausted before his personal property can be seized under execution issued out of a court of record. No stay law. Real estate sold under execution may be redeemed by the defendant within twelve months after the sale, on payment of the amount it was sold for, with eight per cent. interest and costs. If he fail to redeem within such time, any one of his decree or judgment creditors may redeem after that and within fifteen months from the time of the sale.

EXEMPTIONS. To every householder having a family, a homestead, valued at $1,000; and such exemption continues to the survivor, after the death of the husband or wife, so long as he or she occupies it, and to the children until the youngest is twenty-one years old. In addition, there is also allowed to every person necessary wearing apparel, Bibles, school books, family pictures, and $100 worth of other property selected by the debtor. If the debtor is the head of a family, and resides with the same, he is allowed $300 worth in addition, to be selected by him. But such selection can not be made from any money or wages due. Of wages there are $50 exempt from garnishment to any one who is the head of a family residing with the same. No exemption is allowed when the debt is for the wages of laborer or servant. Wages to amount of $50, earned within six months, are preferred debts in cases of insolvency of debtor owing such wages.

INTEREST. Legal rate, six per cent., but special agreement may be made for eight per cent. or less. Forfeiture of all interest is penalty for usury. Six per cent. interest is collectible on moneys due on all instruments in writing; on money lent or advanced for the use of another; on money due on settlement of account, from day of liquidating account and ascertaining balance; on money received to the use of another, and retained without the owner's knowledge; on money withheld by unreasonable and vexatious delay, and on judgments. In computations of time, interest and discounts upon negotiable instruments, a month is construed to mean a calendar month, and a year to consist of twelve calendar months; and for any number of days less than a month, a day is considered a thirtieth part of a month, and interests or discounts shall be computed for such fractions of a month upon the ratio which such number of days shall bear to thirty.

JUDGMENTS of courts of record are liens on the real estate of the party against whom they are obtained, situated in the county where the court is held, for the period of seven years, and may be made a lien on such real estate in any other county, by filing a transcript thereof in the office of the clerk of any court of record in such other county. When execution is not issued on a judgment within one year from the time the same becomes a lien, it thereafter ceases to be a lien; but execution may issue on such judgment at any time within such seven years, and shall become a lien on any such real estate from its delivery to the Sheriff, or other proper officer, to be executed. Judgments rendered at the same term of court, or on the same day in vacation are of concurrent lien. Judgment of court of record may be revived by scire facias at any time within twenty years. A judgment of a Justice of the Peace may be made a lien on real estate by filing a transcript thereof in the Circuit Court, but must otherwise be satisfied out of personal property only.

LIMITATION OF SUITS. Actions for slander or libel, one year. Actions for damages for an injury to the person, or for false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution, or for a statutory penalty, or for abduction, or for seduction, or for criminal conversation, two years. Actions on unwritten contracts, express or implied, or on awards of arbitration, or to recover damages for an injury done to property, real or personal, or to recover the possession of personal property, or damages for the detention, or conversion thereof, and all civil actions not otherwise provided for, including actions on foreign judgments, five years. Actions on bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, written leases, written contracts, or other evidences of indebtedness in writing, ten years; but if any payment, or new promise to pay, shall have been made in writing, on any bond, bill, lease, contract, or other written evidence of indebtedness, within or after said period of ten years, then an action may be commenced thereon at any time within ten years after the time of such payment or promise to pay. Where a cause of action has arisen in a State or Territory out of this State, or in a foreign country, and, by the laws thereof, an action thereon can not be maintained, by reason of the lapse of time, an action thereon shall not be maintained in this State. Judgments in any court of record in this State twenty years. All actions for recovery of lands are barred in twenty years; and may be barred in seven years in special cases.

MARRIED WOMEN. A married woman may sue and be sued, possess her own earnings, contract and incur liabilities, purchase, sell and hold personal property, and own and hold real estate to the same extent as an unmarried woman. Her husband is not liable for her debts or torts; except in cases where he would be jointly liable if the marriage did not exist, or for necessaries. She may not enter into a partnership without consent of her husband, unless he has abandoned her or be incapable of giving assent. No transfer of chattels between husband and wife living together is valid as against third parties, unless such transfer is in writing and is acknowledged and recorded as chattel mortgages are required to be acknowledged and recorded. A married woman may make a will as if sole. Both husband and wife are liable for family expenses. They can not testify for or against each other, except in a few exceptional cases. One may make the other his or her attorney in fact to control or dispose of his or her property. The estate of curtesy is abolished, and the surviving husband or wife is endowed of a third part of the lands whereof the deceased was seized of an estate of inheritance at any time during the marriage, unless relinquished in due form.

MORTGAGES. Mortgages on real estate are executed and acknowledged the same as deeds, husband or wife being required to join to bar dower, except in mortgages, to secure purchase money. Under an act in force July 1, 1879, no real estate within the State shall be sold by virtue of any power of sale contained in any mortgage, trust deed, or other conveyance in the nature of a mortgage, executed after the taking effect of said Act; but all such instruments must be foreclosed by judicial proceedings.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES are invalid as to third parties, if given for longer than two years, unless extended for a further term of not more than two years from maturity, in accordance with statute. Neither are they valid as to third parties, if the property mortgaged is allowed to remain in the possession of the mortgagor, unless the mortgage expressly provides that it shall so remain. The mortgagee may lose his lien, as against third parties, if he does not take possession of the mortgaged property within 24 hours after the mortgage is due. As between the parties, a chattel mortgage is good, if it is neither acknowledged nor recorded. Both husband and wife must join in chattel mortgage of household goods. Chattel mortgage of nece-sary household goods, wearing apparel, or mechanic's tools, must be foreclosed in a court of record, and no such chattels can be seized on behalf of the mortgagee, before foreclosure, except by Sheriff acting upon the order of a Judge of a court of record.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Upon bills of exchange drawn or indorsed within this State, and payable without the United States, duly protested, ten per cent. damages are collectible, together with interest, costs and charges of protest; and if payable within the United States, five per cent. damages, with interest, costs and charges, can be collected in case of suit. In this State the other rights of parties to bills of exchange and checks are governed by the law merchant; but the rights of parties to promissory notes are modified by statute. It is not vital to the negotiability of a check, bill of exchange, or note, and adds no essential to its validity, or character as commercial paper, that it should be drawn payable at a Bank, or at any fixed place. Indorsers of a note can not be held liable, unless due diligence has been used, by institution and prosecution of suit against the maker thereof, unless such suit would have been unavailing, or the maker be out of the State at the time such note became due. In order to hold a guarantor, suit against the maker is not necessary. Notes obtained by fraud or circumvention can not be collected, even by an innocent holder. If any one become the owner of a note, or any other instrument in writing, after it is due, the maker thereof can interpose the same defense as against him, that he might have set up as against the original holder. No notice of non-payment or protest is necessary in order to fix the liability of indorsers of notes. Grace is not allowed on instruments payable at sight, on demand, or on presentation, but all other instruments are entitled to the usual days of grace. January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, December 25, and any day appointed or recommended by the Governor of this State, or by the President of the United States, as a day of Fast or Thanksgiving, are made legal holidays, and as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance, and the maturity, protesting and giving notice of dishonor of negotiable or commercial instruments, are treated as Sundays. When any such holiday falls on Sunday, the Monday next following is held the holiday. All evidences of indebtedness maturing on either of such days are to be deemed maturing on the day previous; and when two or more of these days immediately succeed each other, such indebtedness is deemed to mature on the day previous to the first of such days. By an Act for regulating elections, approved June 19, 1885, it is provided that any city, village or incorporated town in this State may, by vote, adopt such Act; and that the days on which the general State, county or city elections shall be held in such city, village or town, shall be holidays, and shall be treated as Sundays, as regards days of grace on commercial paper, and the presentation for payment or acceptance, and the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, checks and notes.

SUITS. All except local actions, are brought in the county where defendant resides or is found; and where there are several defendants, suit may be brought where one resides, and process issued to any other county for the other defendant; but no judgment will be rendered against such other defendant unless he appears and defends, or unless plaintiff succeeds in getting judgment against the one who resides or is found in the county where suit is brought. Non-resident plaintiffs must give bonds for costs. Process must be served ten days before the commencement of return term. In Justice's Courts summons is returnable in not less than five, nor more than fifteen days, and must be served at least three days before the time of trial.

TAXES. State and county taxes are payable after December 1, and the delinquent list is turned over to the County Collector on or about March 10, following. Advertisement of real estate on which taxes remain unpaid, is made after April 1, following, and judgment for the sale thereof is obtained at the following May term of the County Court, or thereafter, which sale begins on the day fixed therefor in said advertisement. Delinquent taxes on real estate bear interest at the rate of one per cent. per month after May 1, fractions of a month being reckoned as a whole month. After tax sale of delinquent real estate, redemption may be made within two years. Penalty is: Within six months, 25 per cent. interest; twelve months, 50 per cent. interest; eighteen months, 75 per cent. interest; two years, 100 per cent. interest; together with all subsequent taxes paid by purchaser, with interest at 10 per cent. per annum, and all costs.

INDIANA.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution provides that no bank, banking company or moneyed institution for the purpose of issuing bills of credit, or bills payable to order or bearer, shall be established save under a general banking law to be thereafter enacted. The constitution expressly excepts a bank with branches, mutually responsible for each other's liabilities upon all paper credit issued as money, and from which no collateral security is required; as to which the constitution allows a special charter. Pursuant to the constitution, the General Assembly has enacted a general banking law. Its provisions apply to the establishment and conduct of banks of discount and deposit. The Auditor of the State, with the approbation of the Governor, as often as shall be deemed necessary or proper, must appoint a suitable person or persons to make an examination of the affairs of every bank established under the general banking laws; which person shall not be a director or other officer of the bank, and shall have power to make a thorough examination into all the affairs of the bank, and, in doing so, to examine any of the officers and agents thereof on oath, and shall make a full and detailed report of the condition of the bank to the Auditor, and the association shall not be subject to any other visitorial powers than such as are vested in the several courts of the State. The State banks must make to the Auditor of the State not less than five reports each year, according to the form which may be prescribed by him, verified by oath or affirmation of the president, cashier, or other managing agent, which reports must exhibit, in detail, and under appropriate heads, the resources and liabilities at the close of business on any past day to be by him specified, and must transmit such report to the Auditor within five days after the receipt of a request or requisition therefor from him. The report so required, in the same form in which it is made to the Auditor, must be published in a newspaper published in the place where the bank is established, or, if there is no newspaper in the place, then in one published nearest thereto in the same county or an adjoining county, at the expense of the bank; and such proof of publication shall be furnished as may be required by the Auditor. The Auditor has power to call for special reports from any particular bank, whenever, in his judgment, it shall be necessary in order to a full knowledge of its condition. Any bank failing to make and transmit any such report shall be subject to a penalty of $100 for each day, after five days, that it delays to make and transmit the same.

The investment of money deposited in Savings banks in this State is limited by law to: 1. Stocks, or bonds or Treasury notes of the United States; 2. Stocks or bonds of this State; 3. Orders or bonds of any county, city or town in this State issued pursuant to the authority of law; 4. Stocks or bonds of any State in the Union, that has, for ten years previous to such investment being made, regularly paid the interest on its legal bonded debt in lawful money of the United States; 5. Bonds or notes secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate, situate in the county where the bank is located or an adjoining county, worth, exclusive of perishable improvements, at least twice the amount loaned thereon; but not to exceed sixty per cent. of the whole amount of deposit shall be so loaned on interest.

No deed or other instrument shall be construed as releasing or waiving the right of homestead, unless the same shall contain a clause expressly releasing or waiving such right, and in such case the certificate of acknowledgment shall contain a clause substantially as follows: "including the release and waiver of the right of homestead." Acknowledgments of chattel mortgages must be made before a Justice of the Peace of the town or precinct where the mortgagor resides; or, if there be no acting Justice of the Peace in the town or precinct where the mortgagor resides, then such instrument may be acknowledged before the County Judge of the county in which the mortgagor resides; or, if the mortgagor is not a resident of this State at the time of making the acknowledgment, then before any officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds.

Debtor may be subjected to examination touching his estate. No provision is made for the discharge of the debtor. All proceedings may be discontinued upon the assent, in writing, of the debtor and a majority of the creditors in number and amount.

ATTACHMENT. The writ may issue out of courts of record on claims exceeding $20, when the debtor is non-resident; conceals himself, or stands in defiance of an officer, so that process can not be served on him; has departed from this State with the intention of removing his effects therefrom, or if he is about to do so; where he has, within two years preceding, fraudulently conveyed, assigned, concealed or disposed of his property, or a part thereof, so as to hinder or delay creditors; where he is about fraudulently to conceal, assign or otherwise dispose of his property or effects, so as to hinder or delay his creditors; or where the debt sued for was fraudulently contracted by statements in writing signed by the debtor, his agent or attorney. Before the writ can issue, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, must make affidavit to one or more of these facts, and give bond, with approved security, in double the amount of the claim sued on. Attachment writs may issue out of Justice's Courts, on the same grounds, on all claims not exceeding $200. Garnishment process may issue in cases of attachment, or on return of execution unsatisfied, but the wages of any person who is the head of a family and resides with the same, to the amount of $50, are exempt therefrom. Arrest on civil process lies only in case of fraud, on judgments in tort, or on refusal of debtor to surrender his estate for benefit of creditors.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts have original jurisdiction in all cases in law and equity, and hold two or more terms in each year, in each county. County Courts have probate jurisdiction (except in counties where Probate Courts are established), and have also a limited civil and criminal jurisdiction. In counties having a population of 70,000 or more, Probate Courts are established. Provision is made for City Courts of special civil and criminal jurisdiction. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction limited to $200. Appellate Courts and a Supreme Court exercise appellate jurisdiction. Cook County has a special Superior Court of jurisdiction concurrent with that of the Circuit Court, and has also a special Criminal Court.

EXECUTIONS may issue immediately after rendition of judgment, and to any county in the State. Executions issued out of courts of record are returnable in ninety days; on Justice's judgments in seventy days. Executions are liens on personal property from date of delivery of the writ to Sheriff or other officer. Real estate can not be levied upon or sold by virtue of any execution issued by a Justice of the Peace. Real estate is sold on execution, without appraisement, to the highest bidder; and, if the debtor so elects, his real estate must be exhausted before his personal property can be seized under execution issued out of a court of record. No stay law. Real estate sold under execution may be redeemed by the defendant within twelve months after the sale, on payment of the amount it was sold for, with eight per cent. interest and costs. If he fail to redeem within such time, any one of his decree or judgment creditors may redeem after that and within fifteen months from the time of the sale.

EXEMPTIONS. To every householder having a family, a homestead, valued at $1,000; and such exemption continues to the survivor, after the death of the husband or wife, so long as he or she occupies it, and to the children until the youngest is twenty-one years old. In addition, there is also allowed to every person necessary wearing apparel, Bibles, school books, family pictures, and $100 worth of other property selected by the debtor. If the debtor is the head of a family, and resides with the same, he is allowed $300 worth in addition, to be selected by him. But such selection can not be made from any money or wages due. Of wages there are $50 exempt from garnishment to any one who is the head of a family residing with the same. No exemption is allowed when the debt is for the wages of laborer or servant. Wages to amount of $50, earned within six months, are preferred debts in cases of insolvency of debtor owing such wages.

INTEREST. Legal rate, six per cent., but special agreement may be made for eight per cent. or less. Forfeiture of all interest is penalty for usury. Six per cent. interest is collectible on moneys due on all instruments in writing; on money lent or advanced for the use of another; on money due on settlement of account, from day of liquidating account and ascertaining balance; on money received to the use of another, and retained without the owner's knowledge; on money withheld by unreasonable and vexatious delay, and on judgments. In computations of time, interest and discounts upon negotiable instruments, a month is construed to mean a calendar month, and a year to consist of twelve calendar months; and for any number of days less than a month, a day is considered a thirtieth part of a month, and interests or discounts shall be computed for such fractions of a month upon the ratio which such number of days shall bear to thirty.

JUDGMENTS of courts of record are liens on the real estate of the party against whom they are obtained, situated in the county where the court is held, for the period of seven years, and may be made a lien on such real estate in any other county, by filing a transcript thereof in the office of the clerk of any court of record in such other county. When execution is not issued on a judgment within one year from the time the same becomes a lien, it thereafter ceases to be a lien; but execution may issue on such judgment at any time within such seven years, and shall become a lien on any such real estate from its delivery to the Sheriff, or other proper officer, to be executed. Judgments rendered at the same term of court, or on the same day in vacation are of concurrent lien. Judgment of court of record may be revived by scire facias at any time within twenty years. A judgment of a Justice of the Peace may be made a lien on real estate by filing a transcript thereof in the Circuit Court, but must otherwise be satisfied out of personal property only.

LIMITATION OF SUITS. Actions for slander or libel, one year. Actions for damages for an injury to the person, or for false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution, or for a statutory penalty, or for abduction, or for seduction, or for criminal conversation, two years. Actions on unwritten contracts, express or implied, or on awards of arbitration, or to recover damages for an injury done to property, real or personal, or to recover the possession of personal property, or damages for the detention, or conversion thereof, and all civil actions not otherwise provided for, including actions on foreign judgments, five years. Actions on bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, written leases, written contracts, or other evidences of indebtedness in writing, ten years; but if any payment, or new promise to pay, shall have been made in writing, on any bond, bill, lease, contract, or other written evidence of indebtedness, within or after said period of ten years, then an action may be commenced thereon at any time within ten years after the time of such payment or promise to pay. Where a cause of action has arisen in a State or Territory out of this State, or in a foreign country, and, by the laws thereof, an action thereon can not be maintained, by reason of the lapse of time, an action thereon shall not be maintained in this State. Judgments in any court of record in this State twenty years. All actions for recovery of lands are barred in twenty years; and may be barred in seven years in special cases.

MARRIED WOMEN. A married woman may sue and be sued, possess her own earnings, contract and incur liabilities, purchase, sell and hold personal property, and own and hold real estate to the same extent as an unmarried woman. Her husband is not liable for her debts or torts; except in cases where he would be jointly liable if the marriage did not exist, or for necessaries. She may not enter into a partnership without consent of her husband, unless he has abandoned her or be incapable of giving assent. No transfer of chattels between husband and wife living together is valid as against third parties, unless such transfer is in writing and is acknowledged and recorded as chattel mortgages are required to be acknowledged and recorded. A married woman may make a will as if sole. Both husband and wife are liable for family expenses. They can not testify for or against each other, except in a few exceptional cases. One may make the other his or her attorney in fact to control or dispose of his or her property. The estate of curtesy is abolished, and the surviving husband or wife is endowed of a third part of the lands whereof the deceased was seized of an estate of inheritance at any time during the marriage, unless relinquished in due form.

MORTGAGES. Mortgages on real estate are executed and acknowledged the same as deeds, husband or wife being required to join to bar dower, except in mortgages, to secure purchase money. Under an act in force July 1, 1879, no real estate within the State shall be sold by virtue of any power of sale contained in any mortgage, trust deed, or other conveyance in the nature of a mortgage, executed after the taking effect of said Act; but all such instruments must be foreclosed by judicial proceedings.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES are invalid as to third parties, if given for longer than two years, unless extended for a further term of not more than two years from maturity, in accordance with statute. Neither are they valid as to third parties, if the property mortgaged is allowed to remain in the possession of the mortgagor, unless the mortgage expressly provides that it shall so remain. The mortgagee may lose his lien, as against third parties, if he does not take possession of the mortgaged property within 24 hours after the mortgage is due. As between the parties, a chattel mortgage is good, if it is neither acknowledged nor recorded. Both husband and wife must join in chattel mortgage of household goods. Chattel mortgage of necessary household goods, wearing apparel, or mechanic's tools, must be foreclosed in a court of record, and no such chattels can be seized on behalf of the mortgagee, before foreclosure, except by Sheriff acting upon the order of a Judge of a court of record.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Upon bills of exchange drawn or indorsed within this State, and payable without the United States, duly protested, ten per cent. damages are collectible, together with interest, costs and charges of protest; and if payable within the United States, five per cent. damages, with interest, costs and charges, can be collected in case of suit. In this State the other rights of parties to bills of exchange and checks are governed by the law merchant; but the rights of parties to promissory notes are modified by statute. It is not vital to the negotiability of a check, bill of exchange, or note, and adds no essential to its validity, or character as commercial paper, that it should be drawn payable at a Bank, or at any fixed place. Indorsers of a note can not be held liable, unless due diligence has been used, by institution and prosecution of suit against the maker thereof, unless such suit would have been unavailing, or the maker be out of the State at the time such note became due. In order to hold a guarantor, suit against the maker is not necessary. Notes obtained by fraud or circumvention can not be collected, even by an innocent holder. If any one become the owner of a note, or any other instrument in writing, after it is due, the maker thereof can interpose the same defense as against him, that he might have set up as against the original holder. No notice of non-payment or protest is necessary in order to fix the liability of indorsers of notes. Grace is not allowed on instruments payable at sight, on demand, or on presentation, but all other instruments are entitled to the usual days of grace. January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, December 25, and any day appointed or recommended by the Governor of this State, or by the President of the United States, as a day of Fast or Thanksgiving, are made legal holidays, and as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance, and the maturity, protesting and giving notice of dishonor of negotiable or commercial instruments, are treated as Sundays. When any such holiday falls on Sunday, the Monday next following is held the holiday. All evidences of indebtedness maturing on either of such days are to be deemed maturing on the day previous; and when two or more of these days immediately succeed each other, such indebtedness is deemed to mature on the day previous to the first of such days. By an Act for regulating elections, approved June 19, 1885, it is provided that any city, village or incorporated town in this State may, by vote, adopt such Act; and that the days on which the general State, county or city elections shall be held in such city, village or town, shall be holidays, and shall be treated as Sundays, as regards days of grace on commercial paper, and the presentation for payment or acceptance, and the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, checks and notes.

SUITS. All except local actions, are brought in the county where defendant resides or is found; and where there are several defendants, suit may be brought where one resides, and process issued to any other county for the other defendant; but no judgment will be rendered against such other defendant unless he appears and defends, or unless plaintiff succeeds in getting judgment against the one who resides or is found in the county where suit is brought. Non-resident plaintiffs must give bonds for costs. Process must be served ten days before the commencement of return term. In Justice's Courts summons is returnable in not less than five, nor more than fifteen days, and must be served at least three days before the time of trial.

TAXES. State and county taxes are payable after December 1, and the delinquent list is turned over to the County Collector on or about March 10, following. Advertisement of real estate on which taxes remain unpaid, is made after April 1, following, and judgment for the sale thereof is obtained at the following May term of the County Court, or thereafter, which sale begins on the day fixed therefor in said advertisement. Delinquent taxes on real estate bear interest at the rate of one per cent. per month after May 1, fractions of a month being reckoned as a whole month. After tax sale of delinquent real estate, redemption may be made within two years. Penalty is: Within six months, 25 per cent. interest; twelve months, 50 per cent. interest; eighteen months, 75 per cent. interest; two years, 100 per cent. interest; together with all subsequent taxes paid by purchaser, with interest at 10 per cent. per annum, and all costs.

INDIANA.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution provides that no bank, banking company or moneyed institution for the purpose of issuing bills of credit, or bills payable to order or bearer, shall be established save under a general banking law to be thereafter enacted. The constitution expressly excepts a bank with branches, mutually responsible for each other's liabilities upon all paper credit issued as money, and from which no collateral security is required; as to which the constitution allows a special charter. Pursuant to the constitution, the General Assembly has enacted a general banking law. Its provisions apply to the establishment and conduct of banks of discount and deposit. The Auditor of the State, with the approbation of the Governor, as often as shall be deemed necessary or proper, must appoint a suitable person or persons to make an examination of the affairs of every bank established under the general banking laws; which person shall not be a director or other officer of the bank, and shall have power to make a thorough examination into all the affairs of the bank, and, in doing so, to examine any of the officers and agents thereof on oath, and shall make a full and detailed report of the condition of the bank to the Auditor, and the association shall not be subject to any other visitorial powers than such as are vested in the several courts of the State. The State banks must make to the Auditor of the State not less than five reports each year, according to the form which may be prescribed by him, verified by oath or affirmation of the president, cashier, or other managing agent, which reports must exhibit, in detail, and under appropriate heads, the resources and liabilities at the close of business on any past day to be by him specified, and must transmit such report to the Auditor within five days after the receipt of a request or requisition therefor from him. The report so required, in the same form in which it is made to the Auditor, must be published in a newspaper published in the place where the bank is established, or, if there is no newspaper in the place, then in one published nearest thereto in the same county or an adjoining county, at the expense of the bank; and such proof of publication shall be furnished as may be required by the Auditor. The Auditor has power to call for special reports from any particular bank, whenever, in his judgment, it shall be necessary in order to a full knowledge of its condition. Any bank failing to make and transmit any such report shall be subject to a penalty of $100 for each day, after five days, that it delays to make and transmit the same.

The investment of money deposited in Savings banks in this State is limited by law to: 1. Stocks, or bonds or Treasury notes of the United States; 2. Stocks or bonds of this State; 3. Orders or bonds of any county, city or town in this State issued pursuant to the authority of law; 4. Stocks or bonds of any State in the Union, that has, for ten years previous to such investment being made, regularly paid the interest on its legal bonded debt in lawful money of the United States; 5. Bonds or notes secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate, situate in the county where the bank is located or an adjoining county, worth, exclusive of perishable improvements, at least twice the amount loaned thereon; but not to exceed sixty per cent. of the whole amount of deposit shall be so loaned on interest.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. All conveyances of land must be in writing, and acknowledged and recorded within forty-five days from their execution. Within the State acknowledgments may be taken before a Judge or Clerk of a court of record, Justice of the Peace, Auditor, Recorder, Notary Public or Mayor of a city, and in other States and Territories before the like officers, or a Commissioner of Deeds for Indiana. In any foreign country, before a Minister, charge d'affaires or Consul of the United States. Husband must join in deeds to wife's lands, and wife in deeds to husband's lands. Wife takes inchoate interest in husband's lands. No separate acknowledgment of wife necessary in order to convey her inchoate interest in husband's lands.

ASSIGNMENT FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS. Any debtor in embarrassed or failing circumstances, may make a general assignment of all property in trust for benefit of all bona fide creditors. To be valid this must be by indenture duly signed and acknowledged, and filed with the Recorder of the county in which assignor resides, for record within ten days after the execution thereof. Indenture to contain full description of real estate and be accompanied by schedule of personal property, and assignor to make oath that the indenture and schedule contains a full statement of all his property, etc. Trustee makes oath and files bond in Circuit Court, and must file copy of assignment, etc., in office of Clerk of that court within fifteen days after execution of indenture. Trustee named failing to act, Court may appoint a substitute upon petition. The Trustee to make under oath complete inventory of all property coming to his hands, and file in Court within thirty days after entering upon his trust; also, cause same to be appraised by two reputable householders; set off to the assignor, if a resident householder, such property as he may select to the value of six hundred dollars; and proceed to collect the rights and credits, and to sell the property, after giving thirty days' notice of time and place, at public auction, or at private sale, for cash, or upon credit, not exceeding two years, subject to approval of the Court as to such sales. Dividends are declared pro rata upon all claims allowed by Trustee or the Court. Trustee's compensation to be fixed by the Court. No provision for discharge of debtor from his liabilities.

ATTACHMENT may issue against the property of non-residents or foreign corporations, and against all who have disposed of, or are about to dispose of, their property, to cheat, hinder or delay creditors, or against a creditor who conceals himself so that summons can not be served upon him. An affidavit is required, which may be made by the creditor or some one on his behalf, and a bond to answer damages if the proceedings are wrongful or oppressive. All creditors who file under the original attachment, before final judgment, share pro rata in the proceeds of the attached property. Defendant in a civil action may be arrested and held to bail in double the amount of debt or damages claimed, at any time before judgment, on affidavit showing that he is about to leave the State, taking with him property subject to execution, or money, with intent to defraud the plaintiff. The wages of a person, not exceeding one month, are exempt from garnishment or proceedings supplemental to execution, so long as such person remains in such employment. It is a misdemeanor to send claims out of the State to be collected by proceedings in attachment, garnishment, or the like, when creditor, debtor, and person owing for earnings intended to be reached are all within the jurisdiction of the courts of this State. Courts of this State are prohibited from taking jurisdiction of such proceedings to reach wages, when plaintiff and principal defendant are non-residents.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Chattel Mortgage on personal property left in the hands of the mortgagor with power to sell must stipulate that the money received by the sale be applied to the payment of the mortgage debt, and should be drawn in the form of an absolute bill of sale; must be acknowledged in the same manner as prescribed for the acknowledgment of deeds, and recorded within ten days from execution, and in the county where the mortgagor resides. An assignment of goods, by way of mortgage, where such goods are not delivered to the mortgagee, shall not be valid against any other person than the parties thereto, unless such mortgage shall be acknowledged, as prescribed in deeds of conveyance, and recorded within ten days after the execution thereof.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. The Circuit Court is the only Court of original general civil jurisdiction in the State, and has full probate powers. From three to four terms are held annually in each county. Superior Courts have been established in Marion, Tippecanoe, Allen, Vigo, and Vanderberg counties, and hold from four to ten terms each year. The jurisdiction of Marion Superior Court is concurrent with that of the Circuit Court in all civil cases except probate matters and slander and libel; of Tippecanoe Superior Court is concurrent with the Circuit Court in all civil cases and in all actions by or against executors and administrators; of Vigo Superior Court is concurrent with the Circuit Court in all causes, including actions by or against guardians, executors and administrators, but no jurisdiction in probate matters and in the settlement of decedents' estates. Other Superior Courts have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court except in probate matters, the settlement of decedents' estates, and in actions for slander and libel. City Courts (which may be established in all cities having over 6,000 population) have concurrent jurisdiction with Circuit Courts up to $1,500, except in probate matters, suits for libel, slander, or divorce, or where title to real estate is at issue. Justice's jurisdiction, $200. Party may confess judgment for $300.

EXECUTIONS may issue at any time within ten years after judgment rendered, and are returnable in 180 days. From a court of record may issue to any county in the State. Are a lien on personal property within the county from the time they are placed in hands of officer. The liens upon personal property attach in the order in which the officer receives them. When levy is upon real estate the dates of the judgments control the right to participate in the proceeds, and they must be applied according to their priority. Personal property taken in execution may be left with execution defendant by the giving to the officer of a delivery bond with sufficient surety. After judgment is rendered, the debtor may, by giving sufficient freehold sureties, have a stay of execution on any sum exceeding $100, for six months. Where the sum is less than $100, the stay is not so long, varying with amount of judgment. Lands sold under execution may be redeemed within one year by the owner, mortgagee or person having a lien thereon, the owner retaining possession during the redemption year and being liable for reasonable rents and profits in case of failure to redeem.

EXEMPTIONS. There is no homestead law. Real or personal property up to $600 is exempt where debtor is a resident householder. Resident householder is entitled to exemption as well when in transit with his family and property as when permanently settled. No right of exemption under chattel mortgage. Pension money in transit to pensioner is exempt, but when received by him and invested in other property is no more so than any other property.

INTEREST. The recent "Act concerning interest and usury," approved March 10, 1879, made considerable changes in the law, which are herein embodied. The legal rate of interest on loans or forbearance of money, goods or things in action, is six per cent., as heretofore, but interest may be taken yearly or for a shorter period in advance. No agreement to pay a higher rate is valid unless the same be in writing, and in such case it is not lawful to contract for more than eight per cent. per annum. When a greater rate is contracted for, the contract is void as to the usurious interest, and in an action on a contract affected by such usury, whether it be directly or indirectly charged, all excess over six per cent. is usurious and illegal, and the excess over the legal interest may be recouped by the debtor whenever it has been reserved or paid before the bringing of the suit. Interest on judgments rendered after March 10, 1879, runs from the date of the verdict or finding, at the rate specified in the original contract, not exceeding six per cent., and if no contract has been made, six per cent. is allowed. The act applies to all contracts made within the State, although they are to be performed without it, and where contracts made out of this State provide for a higher rate of interest, and are secured by mortgage upon lands within it, such lands are no liable for a higher rate than is allowed by the laws of Indiana.

JUDGMENTS of courts of record are a lien upon all real estate of defendant within the county for ten years. Judgment may be obtained at the first term of the Court, after process has been served on debtor ten days prior to the first day thereof. By law of 1877, plaintiff, by indorsement on complaint, can summon the defendant to appear and answer after service had ten days, and in default can take judgment, where no good cause of defense is shown, and it operates as a lien upon the real estate of the judgment debtor situated in the county. Transcript of judgment in Justice Court becomes a lien on real estate of judgment defendant from time of filing same in office of the Clerk of Circuit Court. Judgment taken by default, before Justice of the Peace, may be set aside upon the filing of an affidavit by the defendant, showing good defense, provided defendant pay all the costs of previous suit.

LIMITATIONS TO SUITS. Open accounts and contracts not in writing, for use, rents and profits of real estate, injuries to and detention of property, recovery of personal property and relief against frauds, six years; upon promissory notes, bills of exchange and other written contracts for payment of money, ten years; actions not limited by statute, fifteen years; other written contracts, judgments of courts of record and real actions, twenty years, Revivor: Part payment or new promise in writing.

MERCANTILE ASSOCIATIONS. Any number of persons may voluntarily associate themselves by written articles, to be signed by each person who may be a member at the time of organization, specifying the objects of the same, the corporate name they may adopt, the names and places of residence of each member or stockholder, with an impression and description of the corporate seal, and in what manner persons shall be appointed or elected to manage the business and prudential concerns of any such association, for the purpose of buying and selling merchandise and conducting mercantile operations. Amount invested in any one association shall not at any time exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

MARRIED WOMEN retain their real and personal property owned by them at time of marriage or acquired during coverture. The husband is liable for the debts of his wife contracted before marriage to the extent of the personal property he may receive from or through her, or derive from sale or rent of her lands, and no further, and her lands are liable for such indebtedness. A married woman may devise by will her separate estate; may sell and transfer her separate personal property; carry on any business, labor, or service, and receive the earnings accruing therefrom; enter into any contract in regard to her separate personal estate, business, labor or service, and her separate estate, real and personal, be liable therefor, the same as a femme sole; and her husband is not liable for such debts, nor for indebtedness created by the wife for improvement of her separate real estate. She can make leases of real estate for terms of three years or less, and execute mortgages to secure purchase money, without husband joining. Is bound by covenants of title in conveyances of her separate real estate. Her deed conveying her real estate, her husband not joining, is absolutely void. May sue as a femme sole for any damage to her person or character. Is bound in like manner as principal on her official bond. She can not enter into any contract of suretyship whether as indorser, guarantor, or in any other manner, and such contract, as to her, is wholly void; and therefore a mortgage on her separate property for a debt for which she is mere surety, indorser or guarantor, is void: but if she makes a sworn statement that contract or mortgage is for her own benefit, in respect to her separate estate, and upon the strength of such statement another signs, she is estopped from alleging her mere relation of surety, indorser or guarantor. Is entitled to hold as exempt from execution her wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment purchased by herself to the amount of $200 in value, all jewelry, ornaments, books, etc., which may have been given her as presents; and other property to the amount of $300, except as against indebtedness for the purchase money therefor. No tenancy by the curtesy or dower. A widow takes one-third of her deceased husband's real estate in fee, and free from all demands of creditors, where the estate does not exceed $10,000; one-fourth, if under $20,000, and one-fifth, if above that amount. She also takes a child's interest in the personalty where the number of children does not exceed two, and where there are more than two her interest shall not be less than one-third of the whole of personalty after payment of debts, and in all cases takes $500 without accounting, and may occupy the dwelling and forty acres of land for a year, rent free. But the one-third of her deceased husband's real estate which the widow takes in fee, can not, upon her marrying again, be effectively conveyed or mortgaged by her, if there be a child or children, or their descendants, alive by the previous marriage. Real estate which husband and wife hold by title made to them as husband and wife, can not be taken for the debt of either: is not subject to the lien of a judgment against either, except in case of the death of either or upon divorce granted, when the estate by entireties is destroyed and becomes subject to levy and sale; and a mortgage thereof by them both for a debt of the husband has no legal validity.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Three days of grace are allowed on all bills of exchange payable within the State, whether sight or time bills. Damages for protest on bills upon any person at any place out of this State, but within the United States, five per cent.; on bills drawn upon any person at any place without the United States, ten per cent. Promissory notes payable to order or bearer at a bank in this State, and bills of exchange, are governed by the law merchant. Promissory notes not payable at a bank are subject to any set-off maker may have against payee, or any subsequent holder, accruing before notice of assignment. On these, maker must be exhausted before indorser can be sued. Protest is not necessary to hold indorsers of such notes, but to hold them maker must be sued at first term of Court after maturity, unless it can be shown that he was insolvent at the time of such maturity. For all purposes of presenting for payment or acceptance, for the maturity and protest, and giving notice for the dishonor of bills of exchange, bank checks, promissory notes, or other negotiable or commercial paper, the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday; the first day of January, commonly called New Year's day; the fourth day of July; the twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas day; and any day appointed or recommended by the President of the United States or the Governor of the State of Indiana as a day of public Fast or Thanksgiving. The 22d day of February, commonly called Washington's birthday, and the 30th day of May, commonly called Memorial day, the day of any general, National, or State election, are made holidays by statute; and the statute expressly provides that all notes, drafts, checks, or other negotiable or commercial paper, falling due or maturing on either of said holidays, shall be deemed as having matured on the day previous, and when any of said holidays come on Monday they shall be deemed as having matured on the Saturday previous, and when the legal holiday comes on Sunday the day following shall be the holiday.

SUITS. No distinction between law and equity, as to pleading and practice, except that there is no jury trial in equity causes as a matter of right. Civil actions are commenced by filing complaint with Clerk of court, and every action must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except suits by executors, administrators, guardians of idiots or lunatics, trustees of express trusts, or person expressly authorized by statute.

TAXES. State, county, township, municipal, school and road taxes attach as a lien on real estate, on April 1 of each year, and penalties attach on third Monday of same month in the next year. One half of all taxes may be paid without penalty, if paid before third Monday of April each year; other half, if paid before first Monday of November each year. Sales of real estate for taxes are held on the first Monday of March, and all lands on which taxes are delinquent for two years are offered. Owner has two years in which to redeem, by paying the amount set forth in the certificate of purchase, with all subsequent taxes paid, and ten to twenty-five per cent. upon the whole sum, with legal interest from the date of purchase or payment. Lands are sold for one year's delinquency, but the following year's tax, not yet delinquent), is embraced in the amount sold for.

WILLS. Nuncupative wills, where property of more than the value of $100.00 is bequeathed, are not valid, except as to the personal property and wages of soldiers and sailors in actual service. A nuncupative will must be reduced to writing within fifteen days after it shall have been declared and proved by two competent witnesses who shall have heard the testator request some of those present to bear witness thereto.

No will in writing shall effect an estate, unless it be signed by the testator, or by some one for him in his presence, with his consent, and attested and subscribed by two or more witnesses, at his request and in his presence and that of each other.

INDIAN TERRITORY.

BANKING LAW.

NATIONAL BANKS. It is provided by act of Congress that the National Banking law shall be given the same force and effect in Indian Territory as elsewhere in the United States.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

The laws of Arkansas, not locally inapplicable, are extended over and given force in Indian Territory until Congress shall otherwise provide.

ATTACHMENTS and EXECUTIONS shall not be issued against improvements on real estate while the title to the land is vested in any Indian nation, except improvements made by persons operating mines, railroads, or other industries under lease or permission of law of an Indian national council, or charter, or law of the United States. Otherwise attachment and execution are the same as in Arkansas.

COURTS. The United States Court has jurisdiction in all civil suits where the amount in controversy is $100 or over, except between two citizens of the same Indian tribe. It also has probate and criminal jurisdiction. It must hold, annually, at least two sessions in each of the following places: Muscogee (Creek Nation), McAllister (Choctaw Nation), and Ardmore (Chickasaw Nation). The jurisdiction which justices of the peace have in Arkansas is given to court commissioners in Indian Territory. These commissioners have jurisdiction in cases where the amount involved is less than $100; are appointed by the Court, and their number is limited to nine.

NOTARIES PUBLIC are appointed by the United States Court.

NOTES and BILLS OF EXCHANGE, and other commercial law, see Arkansas.

OKLAHOMA TERRITORY.

By act of Congress approved May 2, 1890, the Territory of Oklahoma was created. It includes No-Man's-Land and all of Indian Territory except the five civilized tribes (Cherokee, Creek, Choctaw, Seminole, and Chickasaw), but the Cherokee Strip is only included for judicial purposes

By the same act it is provided that the five civilized tribes, including the Quapaw reservation in the northeast corner of the Cherokee nation, shall for certain purposes be known as Indian Territory.

BANKING LAW.

NATIONAL BANKS can be incorporated in Oklahoma the same as elsewhere, with the additional advantage that persons otherwise qualified to act as directors are only required to have been residents of Oklahoma for three months (instead of a year, as elsewhere) immediately preceding their election.

TERRITORIAL BANKS. The Nebraska law is in force in Oklahoma until the adjournment of the first legislature.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

The law creating Oklahoma Territory put the Nebraska laws in force there until the adjournment of the first session of the Oklahoma legislature. There is now in Oklahoma a complete set of officers, territorial and county, including district and county judges, justices of the peace, notaries, and sheriffs, all acting under the laws of Nebraska.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, ETC. See laws of Nebraska.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution provides that any act creating banking associations must be submitted to a vote of the people; and, subject to this provision, the General Assembly may provide for State banks and branches. Stockholders are responsible to the amount of their stock over the stock held. In case of insolvency, bill holders are to be preferred. Suspension of specie payment is not permitted. The General Assembly, by a two-thirds vote, may amend or repeal any law, and no special or exclusive privileges shall be given. A full and accurate statement, verified by the oath of the president or vice-president, or cashier, or two directors, must be made quarterly to the Auditor of the State. The Auditor may cause to be made four examinations per year of each bank. The quarterly statement must be published for one day, in a daily newspaper published in the county where the bank is located; and, if there is no daily paper, it must be published in a weekly paper for one week. All banks other than Savings banks shall have the word "State" made a part of their name.

Savings banks are not to be incorporated under the general incorporation law, but under the provisions of Chapter 60, Section 15, of Acts of General Assembly. They must have a capital of not less than $10,000, which may be increased in the same manner as the original organization was formed. Upon a sworn statement of the officers of the bank, the State Auditor shall grant a certificate authorizing the bank to commence business. Articles of incorporation are to be filed with the Recorder of Deeds in the court whose jurisdiction includes the bank's principal place of business, and also filed with the Secretary of State. An announcement of organization must be published in a county newspaper for four consecutive weeks. The period of incorporation shall not exceed 50 years. Such banks shall be managed by a board of directors or trustees, numbering not less than five nor more than nine, who shall make oath to faithfully perform their duties, which oath shall be filed with the State Auditor. Elections are to be held annually by person or proxy of shareholders. (See chapter, Senate file, 83, about vote by directors.)

Savings banks may receive deposits ten times larger than the amount of paid-up capital stock; a bank of $10,000 capital may receive deposits of $100,000; of $25,000 capital, may receive $250,000, and other sums in like proportion. Investment of funds may be made in stocks or bonds, or interest-bearing notes or certificates, of the United States, or of this State, and of any city, town, county, village, or school district of this State; but the assets of the bank shall not exceed 25 per cent. of town, village, or school district bonds or warrants. Notes or bonds must be secured by mortgage or deed of trust upon unincumbered real estate, in this State, worth at least twice the amount loaned. Such banks are empowered to make loans and discount, purchase and sell commercial paper, notes, bills of exchange, drafts, and other personal or public securities; but they shall not purchase, hold, or make loans upon the shares of their capital stock. In loans upon real estate, all expenses shall be paid by the borrowers, and insurance policies shall be assigned to the bank for its benefit. They may hold real estate to do business in, and also that purchased at foreclosure or other judicial sales for debts due it; but some of the real estate last purchased shall be sold within ten years after this title is vested in the bank.

The capital stock shall be $100 per share, par value, shall be deemed personal property, and shall be transferable, but must be paid for before acquired. All shareholders shall be severally liable, over and above the stock held, for an amount equal to their respective shares, and no transfer of stock shall affect such liability for the period of six months thereafter. Such banks shall not issue circulation, or contract debts except for deposits and for the necessary expenses of transacting business. The capital stock and assets of these banks shall be security to depositors. The limit of liability of any person, company, corporation, or firm, to the bank, shall not exceed 25 per cent. of its capital stock actually paid in. The unauthorized use of the term Savings banks is prohibited under penalty. All banks shall make quarterly reports of condition, and transmit the same to the Auditor of State. The Auditor is also to examine each banking association four times a year. When a bank is violating the law or doing an unsafe business, the Auditor is to direct a discontinuance of the same; and upon a refusal to report to the Attorney General, the Auditor may appoint examiners at the expense of the bank. False statements and intentional fraud are prohibited under severe penalty. The capital stock is subject to the same rates of taxation as other taxable property. Mortgages and other securities are exempt from taxation. Banks may reorganize under the law, but are prohibited from advertising more capital than has been paid in, under a penalty of fine.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds to land made within the State, before some Court having a seal, or Judge or Clerk thereof, or Deputies, or some Justice of the Peace, or Notary Public, or County Auditor or his deputy, in the United States or Territories, must be made before some court of record, or officer holding the seal thereof, or by a Commissioner of Deeds, appointed by the Governor of the State, Notary Public, or Justice of the Peace; in the case of the latter official, his authority to take the acknowledgment should be certified to by a Clerk of a court of record, under seal of the court, as also his official character, and the genuineness of his signature. In foreign countries deeds may be acknowledged before any officer authorized by the laws of such country to certify to acknowledgments, or any Ambassador, Minister, Consular Agent, or other officer of the United States properly authorized to receive acknowledgments of deeds, but the certificate of acknowledgment by a foreign officer must be authenticated by one of the above named officers of the United States, by his official written statement that full faith and credit is due to the certificate of such foreign officer. Witnesses are not required.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. No insolvent law. Assignments not valid unless for benefit of all creditors, when assent of creditors is presumed. Debtor must furnish sworn inventory and list of creditors; and the assignment, which vests in the assignee title to all property of the debtor, must be recorded. Assignee must give bonds, prepare an inventory and valuation, and notify creditors by mail to file claims within three months. All claims not filed within three months after notice published can not be paid until all claims filed within said three months are paid. Claims objected to may be passed upon by a jury, and the assignee is in all respects subject to order of court, and renders a final account thereto. All personal property must be disposed of within six months and all real estate must be disposed of and final settlement made within one year from date of assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court. An assignment does not discharge the debtor from his debts and liabilities, but only entitles creditors to share equally in his estate. Earnings by creditor for personal services rendered at any time within ninety days preceding assignment, is a preferred claim, and to be paid in full. All claims filed must be sworn to, and claims not filed within three months from the date of the first publication will not be paid until claims filed within that time have been paid in full. The assignment is docketed as a case in court. Special assignments under the common law valid.

ATTACHMENT process will issue against all property not exempt from execution on filing of a sworn petition, alleging, 1st, that the defendant is a foreign corporation, or acting as such; or 2d, that he is a non-resident of the State; or 3d, that he is about to remove his property out of the State, without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of his debts; or 4th, that he has disposed of, or is about to dispose of, his property (in whole or in part) with intent to defraud his creditors; 5th, that the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors; 6th, that he has absconded so that ordinary process can not be served upon him; 7th, that he is about to remove permanently out of the county and has property therein not exempt from execution, and that he refuses to pay or secure the plaintiff; 8th, that he is about to remove permanently out of the State, and refuses to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff; 9th, that he is about to remove his property, or a part thereof, out of the county, with intent to defraud his creditors; 10th, that he is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; 11th, that he has property or rights in action which he conceals; 12th, that the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses. Attachment may be brought before the debt is due when the 4th, 5th, 7th or 12th of the above causes can be alleged under oath. The first attachment levied becomes the first lien, and there is no pro-rating. The penalty on an attachment bond is three times the amount of debt. No person may be imprisoned for debt in any civil action on mesne or final process, except in case of fraud. No judgment shall be rendered in any garnishment proceeding condemning the property or debt in the hands of the garnishee until the principal defendant shall have ten days' personal notice of such proceedings in a court of record and five days' personal notice if before a Justice of the Peace, if defendant is a resident of the county. If a non-resident of the county or State, the same notice shall be given as is required for the service of original notices. Pension money exempt from, whether deposited, loaned or invested.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. After January, 1887, the Circuit Court will be abolished, and the District Court will have and assume all the jurisdiction of all suits civil and equitable, and have criminal and probate jurisdiction. Superior Courts may be established by the vote of the people in any city of 7,000 inhabitants, and, when so established shall be a Police Court, with jurisdiction to try all violation of city ordinances, and the same criminal jurisdiction as Justice of the Peace Courts. Has no probate jurisdiction. Has the same jurisdiction as the District Court to try all suits in law and equity, save and except granting divorces, and the transcript of Superior and Justices' Courts will have to be filed in District Court to create a lien on real estate, and are then enforced as judgments of the District Court. Terms of Supreme Court, January, May, and October. Justice's jurisdiction, $100, or, by consent of parties, $300. No appeal from a Justice unless amount exceeds $25. No appeal to Supreme Court unless the amount in controversy exceeds $100, unless upon certificate of Trial Court.

EXECUTIONS may issue immediately upon the rendition of the judgment, and are returnable in seventy days from the date of issue. On the judgment debtor entering good and sufficient security on the proper court records for the amount of such judgment, interest and costs—accrued and to accrue—he can have a stay of execution as follows: under $100 three months, above that sum, six months by giving bond, which shall be filed and recorded and have the effect of a judgment. Stay must be taken within ten days from the date of entry of judgment, and the party taking such stay, if he has been personally served with process, shall not afterward be allowed to appeal. If the judgment is not fully paid at the expiration of the stay, judgment is entered against the surety, and execution may be issued forthwith. After stay, judgment draws ten per cent. interest by operation of law. There can be no stay for wages due mechanic or laboring man, nor by a surety on stay bond. Defendant may redeem real property sold under execution at any time within twelve months, meantime remaining in possession of the property, but where he has taken an appeal or stay of execution he can not redeem. During the first six months he has exclusive right of redemption, but after that time, and before the expiration of nine months, any creditor having a lien can redeem.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead of 40 acres in country and half an acre in city or town, with buildings, without regard to value. Homesteads are exempt to any widow of a soldier or sailor, who died of disease or wounds contracted while in the service of the United States, or after discharge. Pension money, or homestead procured by pension money, exempt from attachment or execution. Pension money, whether in possession, or loaned or invested. Personal property exempt includes tools, instruments, library, necessary team, etc., of mechanic, farmer, teacher, or professional man; wearing apparel, household and kitchen furniture, $200; certain farm animals and necessary food for six months. Foregoing relates only to residents, being heads of families; unmarried persons and non-residents being only entitled to retain their own clothing and trunks, save and except pensioners. Where debtor is a printer, the printing press and types, furniture and material up to $1,200, are exempt. Earnings of debtor within 90 days of levy are exempt. One sewing machine exempt to seamstress. No exemptions waived by failure to except to levy of execution or to designate or select exempt property.

INTEREST. Legal rate, eight per cent.; parties may contract, in writing, for eight per cent. Judgments draw six per cent., or if a higher rate not exceeding ten per cent. is expressed in the original contract, then such higher rate. Open accounts draw six per cent. after six months from date of last item. Contract for more than ten per cent. forfeits ten per cent. on amount of contract, and all interest and costs.

JUDGMENTS in the District and Superior Courts may be obtained at first term after suit commenced, if undefended, and are liens on real estate owned by the debtor at the time of such rendition, save and except judgments of Superior Courts. If the lands lie in the county where judgment was rendered, the lien attaches from its date; if in any other county, from the time of filing therein an attested copy of the judgment. Lien also covers all lands which defendant may acquire within ten years from date of judgment. Judgments of Superior Courts and Justices of Peace Courts become liens on real estate by filing transcript in District Court within County where obtained, and become liens in other countries in the same manner as if rendered in the District Court.

LIMITATIONS TO SUITS. Actions for injuries to person or reputation, or to recover a statutory penalty, must be brought within two years; to enforce a mechanics' lien, two years; on unwritten contracts, five years; on written contracts, ten years; on judgments of courts of record, twenty years; to recover real estate, ten years. Revivor: Admission of debt or new promise to pay, which must be in writing, and signed by the party to be charged.

MARRIED WOMEN may own in their own right real and personal property acquired by descent, gift or purchase, and may manage, sell, convey and devise the same by will in the same manner as the husband can property belonging to him. Neither husband nor wife is liable for the debts or liabilities of the other incurred before marriage, and, except as herein otherwise declared, they are not liable for the separate debts of the other, nor are the wages, earnings or property of either, nor the rent or income of such property, liable for the separate debts of the other. Contracts may be made by a wife and liabilities incurred, and the same enforced by or against her, to the same extent and in the same manner as if she was unmarried. But both are liable for the expenses of the family, and the education of the children, whether contracted for by one or the other. They may be sued jointly or separately therefor. Dower and the estate of curtesy are abolished, but the surviving wife or husband takes one-third in value of all the legal and equitable estate possessed by the other during marriage.

MORTGAGES must be subscribed by the parties and acknowledged and recorded same as deeds; are foreclosed by civil action. Mortgagor has one year in which to redeem. Chattel mortgages to be valid against existing creditors or subsequent purchasers without notice must be recorded immediately in the county where the holder of the property resides. A chattel mortgage may include all kinds of personal property, and the creditor may enter into possession of the mortgaged property at any time after the execution of the instrument.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Grace is allowed upon all negotiable bills or notes payable within the State according to the law merchant, except those drawn payable on demand, and notice of non-acceptance, or non-payment, or both, is required according to the rules of commercial law. Damages allowed on protested paper: three to five per cent. To hold indorser note must be duly presented, payment refused, and indorser notified. Open accounts are assignable. Paper falling due on Sunday, 1st day of January, 30th of May, 4th of July, the 25th day of December, and any day appointed by the Governor or by the President as a day of fasting or thanksgiving, shall be considered and treated as falling due on the preceding day. Defenses to non-negotiable paper and accounts accrued after notice in writing of assignment to maker invalid as against assignee. Providing that if negotiable paper be obtained by fraud, the holder thereof shall recover no greater sum than he paid with interest and cost.

SUITS. But one form of action in this State, known as a civil action and regulated by a Code of Procedure. Actions are commenced by serving defendant with notice, stating generally the nature of the claim, and filing a petition in court, ten days before the term. Actions generally are prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, and in the county where defendant resides, or property in question is situated, or cause of action arose. Process must be served in Justices' Courts on debtor at least five and not more than fifteen days, and in the District Court and Superior Courts at least ten days, before the first day of term. If defendant is served outside of his county, but inside of judicial district, process must be served fifteen days: elsewhere there must be twenty days' service for every 1,000 miles or fraction. Service short for first term is good for next term.

TAXES become due and payable on first Monday of January, and one-half thereof may be paid before the first day of March succeeding the levy, and the remaining one-half before the first day of September following: provided, where the half has not been paid before the first day of April succeeding the levy, the whole tax shall become delinquent from the first day of March following the levy. If the second installment be not paid before the first day of October succeeding the levy, it shall be delinquent. All delinquent taxes draw interest at the rate of one per cent. per month until paid. Personal property is liable to distress and sale for all taxes, and the tax list is the warrant therefor. Taxes on personal and real property are made a perpetual lien on real property. Lands are sold on the first Monday in December after taxes become delinquent. Three years are allowed in which to redeem by payment of amount for which lands were sold, with ten per cent. penalty, and ten per cent. per annum interest upon the whole amount: provided, after two years and nine months from the tax sale, notice must be given to the person to whom the said land is assessed, and the person in actual possession, that deed will be taken ninety days hence. Where land is assessed unknown and is unoccupied, no notice is necessary: provided, that a non-resident may file with the Treasurer of the county a written appointment of some resident of the county where the land is situated, upon whom service shall be made. Taxes become a lien as between vendor and vendee December 31st of each year.

KANSAS.

BANKING LAW.

There is no constitutional provision in regard to banks, except banks of issue. The incorporation of Savings banks is provided for in the general incorporation law. Under the provisions of that law, such banks are authorized "to carry on the business of receiving money on deposit, and to allow interest thereon, giving to the person depositing credit therefor; and of buying and selling exchange, gold, silver, coin, bullion, uncurrent money, bonds of the United States, the State of Kansas, and of the city, county and school district in which any association shall be organized; of loaning money on real estate and personal security, at a rate of interest not to exceed 12 per cent. per annum; and of discounting negotiable notes and notes not negotiable; and on all loans may keep and receive the interest in advance." Five persons in any county can organize the association, the capital stock of which shall not be less than $50,000 nor more than $500,000, divided into shares of not less than $100 each, of which 10 per cent. upon each share shall be paid at the time the subscription is made, and the remainder as it may be called for by the directors. The association is managed by a board of directors, not less than five nor more than nine in number, out of which number the president and secretary are to be chosen. Before the bank can commence business, a majority of the shares must be subscribed for, the first payment of 10 per cent. thereon paid in, and the president and secretary execute and acknowledge a certificate which shall specify: First, the corporate name; second, the city or town in which it is located; third, the amount of its capital stock, and the number of shares into which it is divided; fourth, the names and residences of the stockholders and the number of shares held by each; fifth, the time when the corporation was organized. This certificate must be recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the county in which the bank is located, and a copy thereof and of the by-laws of the bank filed with the Secretary of State. A bank is required to make a statement semi-annually in the months of January and July, verified by the oath of the president or secretary, setting forth "its actual financial condition, and the amount of its property and liabilities," and publish the same in one or more newspapers in the county within which it is located, under a penalty of $500. A copy of this statement, verified as aforesaid, must be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State at Topeka, and copies of such statement can be obtained from that officer. Stockholders are individually liable to creditors of the bank to an extent equal in amount to the amount of the stock held by them, together with any amount unpaid thereon. Any officer or director assenting to the reception of deposits after he has knowledge that the bank is insolvent or in a failing condition, is individually liable for the amount of such deposit. He is also liable to prosecution for larceny under such circumstances. It is made the duty of officers and directors to examine into the condition of the bank, and a failure so to do is held to be equivalent to actual knowledge of its condition. There is no system of official examination.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

Acknowledgments within the State must be made before a Judge or Clerk of a court having a seal, a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, County Clerk, Register of Deeds, or Mayor or Clerk of an incorporated city. Every Notary Public shall add to his official signature the date of the expiration of his commission as Notary Public. In cases where the acknowledgment is made out of the State it must be made before a court of record, a Clerk, or other officer having the seal thereof, a Commissioner of Deeds for Kansas, Justice of the Peace or Notary Public, or before any Consul of the United States, resident in any foreign country or port. When the acknowledgment is made before a Justice of the Peace, some Clerk of a court of record must certify to his official position. (See Conveyances.)

Aliens have the same rights in regard to property as citizens. But the constitutional provision guaranteeing such rights has been repealed, and the Legislature now has the power to regulate the holding and descent of property by aliens.

Assignments and Insolvency. Assignments must be for benefit of all creditors, and do not discharge the debtor. Must be executed and recorded like conveyances of real property. Creditors (above ten dollars) are notified by Clerk of District Court, and at the meeting held for choice of assignee, a majority of such creditors must be present, otherwise appointment rests with the court. Creditors who fail to appear are precluded. Assignee must pay out funds in his hands within one month of allowance of demands. Property must be appraised, and assignee is in all respects subject to order of court, and his accounts are passed upon by a Commissioner before his discharge.

Attachment. The creditor in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the debtor, where the debtor or one of several debtors is a foreign corporation or non-resident of the State (but no attachment shall be granted on the ground or grounds in this clause stated, for any claim other than a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment or decree, unless the cause of action arose wholly within the limits of this State, which fact must be established on the trial), or where the debtor or one of several debtors has absconded with intent to defraud his creditors; or has left the county of his residence to avoid the service of a summons; or so conceals himself that a summons can not be served upon him; or is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; or is about to convert his property or a part thereof into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or has property or rights in action which he conceals; or has assigned, removed or disposed of, or is about to dispose of his property or a part thereof, with the intent to defraud, hinder or delay his creditors; or fraudulently contracted the debt, or fraudulently incurred the liability or obligation, for which suit is about to be or has been brought; or when the damages for which the action is brought are for the injuries arising from the commission of some felony or misdemeanor, or the seduction of some female; or when the debtor has failed to pay for any article or thing delivered, for which by contract he was bound to pay on delivery. Garnishment. When the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make oath in writing that any person or corporation has property of the defendant, or is indebted to him, a garnishment summons may issue to such person, and copy of order of attachment with notice that he appear and answer. When suit is brought before a Justice of the Peace, if affidavit is made that any person or corporation is indebted to defendant, or has property belonging to him, and that plaintiff is likely to lose his claim unless garnishee summons issue, the Justice of the Peace will issue such summons at the commencement of the suit. (See Exemptions.)

Contracts. All contracts which, by the common law, are joint only, shall be construed to be joint and several. Any person jointly or severally liable with others for the payment of any debt may be released from such liability by the creditor, and such release shall not discharge the other debtors beyond the proper proportion of the debt for which the person released was liable. The use of private seals in written contracts (except seals of corporations) is abolished.

Conveyances. All instruments of writing for the conveyance or incumbrance of real estate within this State, executed and acknowledged, or proved in any other State, territory, or country, in conformity with the laws of such State, territory, or country, or in conformity with the laws of this State, shall be as valid as if executed within the State. Husband and wife must join in conveyance of real estate. Grantors need not attach any seal or scroll to their signatures and no witnesses are necessary, unless grantors are unable to write. Corporations convey by deed sealed with the corporation seal and signed by the president, vice-president, presiding member or trustee.

Courts. Terms and Jurisdiction. District Courts, holding two to three terms a year in nearly every county, have general original jurisdiction in law and equity. Regular terms of the Probate Court are held in each county on the first Monday in January, April, July and October, and special or adjourned terms may be held as business may require. Justice's jurisdiction in civil actions for the recovery of money, $300; to recover specific personal property, $100.

Descent and Distribution. The homestead is the absolute property of the widow and children—one-half in value to the widow, and the other half to the children, when both survive. The homestead can not be divided or sold by an action for partition until all the children attain majority. One-half of all real estate owned by husband during coverture, and not conveyed by husband and wife, nor sold at judicial sale, goes to the wife in fee simple; except of land sold by husband whose wife never resided in the State. Remaining estate goes to the children in equal shares, or, if none, to the widow. For want of wife or child the whole estate goes to the parents. Any child being dead, its share descends to its heirs. The rules applicable to widow of deceased husband apply to husband of deceased wife. Illegitimate children inherit from the mother, and also from the father, if his recognition has been general and notorious, or in writing. When a child would inherit from either parent, such parent will inherit from the child. Where land is conveyed to husband and wife the survivor inherits the whole.

Executions may be ordered as soon as judgment is obtained. It is the duty of the Justice, without any order, to issue execution within ten days from rendition of judgment. Executions are made returnable within thirty days. Personal property levied on must be appraised, and advertised for ten days, and sold at auction to the highest bidder. There is no stay of execution in the District Court, except where a case is taken to the Supreme Court on appeal, and then only upon the giving of proper bonds. In judgments upon notes or mortgages when the written instrument contains the words "appraisement waived," no execution or order of sale can issue until the expiration of six months after the date of judgment. Executions out of District Court are returnable in 60 days. In Justice's Courts, by filing bond, stays of execution are granted as follows: On any judgment for $20 and under, thirty days; over $20 and under $50, sixty days; over $50 and not exceeding $100, ninety days; over $100, one hundred and twenty days. There is no redemption of land sold under execution or other legal process in this State.

Exemptions. Homestead of 160 acres of farming land, or of one acre within an incorporated town or city, with buildings thereon, unlimited in value. Every person residing in this State, and being the head of a family, shall have exempt from seizure upon attachment or execution, or other process issued from any court in this State: family Bible, school books, and family library; family pictures and musical instruments used by the family; all wearing apparel of the family, all beds, bedsteads and bedding used by the debtor and his family, one cooking stove and appendages, and all other cooking utensils, and all other stoves and appendages necessary for the use of the debtor and his family; one sewing machine, spinning wheel, and all other implements of industry, and all other household furniture not herein enumerated, not exceeding $500; two cows, ten hogs, one yoke of oxen and one horse or mule, or in lieu of one yoke of oxen and one horse or mule, a span of horses or mules, and twenty sheep and their wool; necessary food for the support of such stock for one year; one wagon, two plows, drag, and other farming utensils, not exceeding $300; grain, meat, vegetables, groceries, etc., for the family for one year; the tools and implements of any mechanic, miner, or other person, kept for the purpose of carrying on his business, and in addition thereto stock in trade not exceeding $400 in value; library, implements, and office furniture of any professional man. Also personal earnings of the debtor earned during three months preceding the garnishment or attachment, and three months' pension money where such earnings or pension money is necessary for the support of the debtor's family. A lien on the homestead may be created by husband and wife joining in the mortgage, also for material used in improvements thereon. Residents, not the head of a family, have tools, implements, and stock in trade up to $400, exempt from execution.

INTEREST. Legal rate, six per cent., but ten per cent. may be agreed upon. Excess of ten per cent. is forfeited, and in addition thereto there shall be deducted from the amount due for principal, with lawful interest, an amount equal to the interest contracted for in excess of ten per cent. The legal interest originally contracted for continues until the debt is paid, and no additional interest can be charged by way of penalty for default. A purchaser of a negotiable note for value before maturity, without notice, takes the note free of the usurious taint, the remedy of the maker being against the original holder. (Took effect May 25, 1889).

JUDGMENTS of courts of record are liens on real estate of debtor within the county, but lose their priority over subsequent judgments unless execution is issued and levied within one year after judgment. The lien can be extended to other counties by filing certified copies of judgment. Lien continues for five years, and may be revived within one year thereafter; but the issuance of execution prevents the judgment from becoming dormant until the expiration of five years from date of issue of each execution. Justices' judgments become liens on filing transcript in District Court of the county in which they were rendered.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. An action for the recovery of real property, sold on execution or by executors, administrators or guardians, brought by the execution debtor, or the heirs, ward or guardian, or any claiming under them after the date of the judgment or order of sale must be within five years after the deed is recorded. To recover by holder of tax deed within two years, and against holder of tax deed within five years after recording of tax deed. Other actions for recovery of real property, within fifteen years after cause of action accrues. On official bonds and contracts in writing, five years. Contracts not in writing, three years. Trespass, detinue, replevin, injuries not arising on contract, and relief on the ground of fraud, two years.

MARRIED WOMEN have same rights as men concerning property and business, and may carry on trade, sue and be sued, and sell or convey their real estate, precisely as their husbands can. The estates of dower and curtesy have been abolished. Homestead is absolute property of widow and children, and widow takes in fee simple one-half of all other real estate owned by the husband during coverture, unless she joined in the conveyance thereof.

MORTGAGES and conveyances of real estate, to be valid against subsequent bona fide purchasers, must be duly acknowledged and recorded within the county. Are foreclosed by suit only, in which all parties in interest are made parties defendant. Chattel mortgages are absolutely void as against creditors and subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith, unless possession of the property actually passes to and remains in the mortgagee, or the instrument be forthwith filed of record. Such mortgages expire within one year, as to creditors or purchasers, unless renewed by affidavit, showing interest, filed during the last thirty days of the year. In case of exempt personal property both husband and wife must unite in executing the mortgage to make it effectual.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. All bonds, notes and bills of exchange, except bank checks and sight drafts, made negotiable, shall be entitled to three days of grace in the time of payment. All bonds, notes, and bills of exchange, foreign and inland, drawn for any sum or sums of money, certain, and made payable to any person or order, or to any person or bearer, shall be negotiable by indorsement thereon if payable to order, and by delivery if payable to bearer, so as to absolutely transfer and vest the property thereof in each and every indorsee or holder, successively; but nothing in this section shall be construed to make negotiable any such bond, note, or bill of exchange, drawn payable to any person or persons alone, and not drawn payable to any order, bearer or assigns. [See General Statutes, 1868.] By the laws of 1875 it was provided that no person or persons, bank or body corporate, residing or doing business within the limits of this State, can be held liable for protest damages on any bond, note or bill protested heretofore or hereafter for non-acceptance or non-payment. Whenever the third day of grace falls upon a Sunday, July 4, December 25, or January 1, or upon any day appointed for a public Fast or Thanksgiving, the next preceding day is the last day of grace.

SUITS are commenced in the District Courts by filing a petition and precipe, and causing a summons to issue thereon. Actions concerning real estate must be brought in the county in which the land or a part of it is situated, and all other actions in the county in which defendant resides or may be summoned, except where defendant is non-resident or a foreign corporation, when action may be brought in any county where defendant has property. Divorces must be brought in county where plaintiff resides.

TAXES. One-half the annual levy becomes due December 20, and if not paid all becomes due and there is a penalty of five per cent. added. If not paid by March 20 another five per cent. is added, and on June 20 still another five per cent. The tax is then delinquent, and property is subject to sale on the first Tuesday in September following. After sale it bears interest at the rate of twenty-four per cent. per annum, and the same rate on all subsequent taxes. Lien attaches on November 1 in the year in which tax is levied, and lands sold for taxes are redeemable within three years from day of sale.

WILLS must be in writing and signed at the end thereof by the party making the same, or by some other person in his presence and by his express direction, and be attested and subscribed in the presence of the testator by two or more competent witnesses, who saw the testator subscribe or heard him acknowledge the same. The husband can not devise to persons other than the wife more than one-half of his real estate without her consent. A devise of one-half the real estate will not be avoided by the widow refusing to take under the will. A will executed, proved, and allowed in another State, according to the laws of that State, relative to property in this State, may be admitted to record in the Probate Court of the county in which the property is situated by producing an authenticated copy, and thereupon has the same validity as if made in this State.

KENTUCKY.

BANKING LAW.

State banks are chartered by special acts of the legislature. These charters contain the usual banking powers, and in some instances clauses limiting the right of taxation are found. Such charters, if granted prior to 1856, are held to be beyond the power of repeal by the legislature.

EXAMINATIONS. There is no provision for State examinations, but all banks doing business under the laws of the State are required to make and publish, semi-annually, sworn statements of their condition.

TAXATION. The rate of taxation on banks, State and National, (when not controlled by State charters beyond the reach of amendment) is seventy-five cents upon each share of $100, and forty-seven cents upon each $100 of surplus or undivided profits in excess of ten per cent. of its capital stock. This is in full of all tax, State, county or municipal, except county and municipal taxes upon the property used as a bank building.

DEPOSITORS. Married women and minors may make deposits in any incorporated institution authorized to receive deposits, and may check against same as if unmarried or of full age.

BONDS. All banks are authorized to accept as surety upon bonds of officers or employees any guarantee company holding a certificate from the Commissioner of Insurance authorizing it to do business in this State.

DISCOUNTS. (See Negotiable Instruments.)

ACTIONS. Actions are commenced by filing in Court a petition setting forth the cause of action. Non-residents of the State are required to give security for costs.

AFFIDAVITS. Affidavits may be used to verify a pleading, to obtain an attachment, arrest, or other provisional remedy, and in certain cases as proof. It may be made by the party in interest, or in his absence from the County in which the suit is pending, by his agent or attorney. They may be sworn to before any officer authorized to take depositions. (See Depositions.)

ARREST AND BAIL. The defendant in a civil action may be arrested and held to bail if the affidavit of the plaintiff be filed with the Clerk, showing:

1st. The nature of the plaintiff's claim; 2d. That it is just; 3d. The sum or value which the affiant believes the plaintiff ought to recover; 4th. That the affiant believes either that the defendant is about to depart from this State, and, with intent to defraud his creditors, has concealed or moved from this State his property, or so much thereof that the process of this Court, after judgment, can not be executed; or that the defendant has money or securities for money, or evidences of debt, in the possession of himself, or of others for his use, and is about to depart from this State without leaving property therein sufficient to satisfy plaintiff's claim.

Upon the filing of the affidavit, and execution of bond, with good sureties, to the effect that the plaintiff shall pay to defendant all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest if the order be wrongfully obtained, not exceeding double the amount of plaintiff's claim, the order may be issued by the Clerk of the Court in which the action is pending.

Under the order the defendant is committed to jail until he gives bail, or takes the insolvent debtor's oath, or pays the debt.

ATTACHMENT. The plaintiff in an action to recover money may obtain an attachment against: 1st. A defendant who is a foreign corporation or a non-resident of the State; 2d. Who has been absent therefrom for four months; 3d. Who has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors; 4th. Who has left the county of his residence to avoid the service of a summons; 5th. Who so conceals himself that a summons can not be served upon him; 6th. Who is about to remove or has removed his property or a material part thereof out of this State, not leaving enough therein to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, or the claims of said defendant's creditors; 7th. Who has sold, conveyed, or otherwise disposed of his property, or suffered or permitted it to be sold, with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder, or delay his creditors; 8th. Who is about to sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of his property with such intent. But an attachment shall not be granted on the ground that the defendant is a foreign corporation or a non-resident of this State, for any claim other than a debt or demand arising upon a contract, express or implied, or a judgment or award.

In an action for the recovery of money, due upon a contract, judgment or award, if the defendant have no property in this State subject to execution, or not enough thereof to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

In an action to recover personal property, which has been ordered to be delivered to plaintiff, and which property or part whereof has been disposed of, concealed or removed, so that the order for its delivery can not be executed by the Sheriff.

AFFIDAVIT AND BOND. Affidavit must be filed, showing: 1st. The nature of the claim; 2d. That it is just; 3d. The grounds of attachment. Bond must be given, with good sureties in double the amount of the claim.

CORPORATIONS. Banking, Insurance and Railroad corporations, can only be created by special Act of the legislature. Other corporations may be formed by articles of association, acknowledged by the corporators, and recorded in the County Clerk's office, as deeds are required to be recorded.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts are held twice a year in nearly every county; and in Jefferson county (Louisville) Law and Chancery Courts, except during about two months' vacation in summer, continuously. Have original jurisdiction in all civil cases, both in law and equity. But in several counties Common Pleas Courts have been established with similar common law jurisdiction, and in Kenton, Campbell, Bracken and Pendleton counties there are Chancery Courts with exclusive equitable jurisdiction. Jefferson county has a Court of Common Pleas and a Chancery Court, with jurisdiction in the city of Louisville and county of Jefferson. County Courts in each county deal with probate and guardianship matters. Quarterly Courts have jurisdiction up to $200, and Justice's Courts up to $100; Justices of the Peace in Jefferson county up to $100, exclusive of interest and costs. The Appellate Courts have no original jurisdiction. All cases may be appealed where the amount in controversy is $100 or more.

DEEDS. Any land not in the adverse possession of another, may be conveyed by the owner by deed. Deeds (other than those of married women) when executed in this State, may be acknowledged before the Clerk of a County Court, or before two subscribing witnesses. When executed out of this State and within the United States, they may be acknowledged before the Clerk of a Court or his deputy, or a Notary Public, or Mayor of a city, or Secretary of State, or Commissioner to take acknowledgment of deeds, or a Judge of a Court. When executed out of the United States, they may be acknowledged before any Foreign Minister, or Consul, or Secretary of Legation of the United States, or any Secretary of Foreign Affairs, or Judge of a Superior Court of the Nation where the deed is executed.

MARRIED WOMEN may convey by joint deed, with their husbands or by separate deed, but in the latter case the husband must previously have conveyed. The conveyance must be acknowledged before some one of the officers previously named (but an acknowledgment before witnesses will not suffice) and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the County Court, where the lands lie.

CERTIFICATE. The certificate of a married woman's acknowledgment, if taken in this State, need only show that the deed was acknowledged by her. If taken out of this State, the following form must be substantially complied with:

"I, ——— ———, do certify that this instrument of writing from C. D. and wife E. F. (or from E. F., wife of C. D.) was this day produced to me by the parties, and the contents and effect of the instrument being explained to the said E. F. by me separately and apart from her husband, she thereupon declared that she did freely and voluntarily execute and deliver, the same to be her act and deed, and consented that the same might be recorded.

Given under my hand and seal of office.

——— ———"

If the husband joins in the deed, his acknowledgment should be certified by inserting after the word "parties" the following words: "Which was acknowledged by the said C. D. to be his act and deed."

RECORDING is necessary to give validity to the deed of a married woman. As to other persons, recording is necessary in order to make the deed valid against creditors and purchasers for value.

DEPOSITIONS. Proof may be taken by depositions in all equitable actions and in ordinary or common law actions, where the witness resides twenty miles or more from the place where the Court is held, or is absent from the State and in many other cases enumerated in the statute where the witness is privileged.

NOTICE. Depositions are taken either on notice to the opposite party or upon written interrogatories. The ordinary method of taking is upon notice, but where the place of taking is more than one day's travel by ordinary methods from the place of sitting of the Court, the party receiving notice may require the deposition to be taken upon interrogatories. Depositions are also required to be taken on notice where the opposite party is under disability, or before the Court on constructive summons.

OFFICERS. The officers authorized to take depositions out of this State are: A Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State, a Judge of a Court, a Justice of the Peace, Mayor of a city, Notary Public, or any other person empowered by commission issued to him by consent of parties.

WHO PRESENT. If the deposition is taken upon interrogatories, neither party is allowed to be present, either in person or by agent or attorney.

CERTIFICATE. The officer's certificate must state when and where the deposition was taken; that the witness was duly sworn before giving it, and that it was written and subscribed by him in the officer's presence, or was written by the officer in the presence of the witness and read to and subscribed by the witness in the presence of the officer.

The certificate must also state whether or not either of the parties, and, if either, which of them was present in person or by agent or attorney during the examination of the witness.

TRANSMISSION. The officer may transmit the deposition in a sealed envelope addressed to the Clerk of the Court, with an indorsement showing the style of the action and that the envelope contains depositions. This may be sent by mail or by private person, in which case the person must make oath that they have not been opened in transit.

INSOLVENT LAWS. There are two statutory provisions on the subject of insolvency. 1st. Any assignment, mortgage sale, judgment or other device resorted to by a debtor in contemplation of insolvency and with a design to prefer one or more creditors, if assailed by petition, filed within six months after the transfer is recorded, shall inure as a general assignment of all the debtor's effects for the equal benefit of all creditors.

2d. Assignees for the benefit of creditors are required to execute bond with surety to be approved by the County Court, and to take an oath faithfully to execute the trust. He must also return an inventory within sixty days, and a report of sales within two years from qualification.

INTEREST. The lawful rate of interest is six per cent. per annum, and contracts for a greater rate are void as to the excess of interest.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS. The following are the periods within which actions must be brought, the time commencing to run from the accrual of the cause of action. 15 years.—Actions to recover real property, actions upon judgments and upon written contracts, except negotiable instruments. 7 years.—Actions by senior patentees against junior patentees, who have held possession for seven years. 5 years.—Actions upon verbal contracts, upon a liability created by statute; actions for trespass to real or personal property or for damages for withholding same; for the specific recovery of personal property; actions upon negotiable instruments; actions upon accounts between merchants, and actions for relief from fraud and mistake. 2 years.—Actions upon merchants' accounts for goods sold. 1 year.—Actions for injuries to person or character, and for breach of promise of marriage.

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS. All Bills of Exchange are negotiable, but notes are only made so when "payable and negotiable at any Bank incorporated under any law of this Commonwealth, or organized in this Commonwealth under any law of the United States, which shall be indorsed to and discounted by the Bank at which the same is payable, or by any other of the Banks in this Commonwealth as above specified."

Non-negotiable instruments are assignable so as to vest a right of action in the assignee, but any defense good against the payee and arising before notice of assignment is good against the assignee.

Indorsers of unnegotiable notes can only be held after suit and return of "no property" against the maker commenced and prosecuted with due diligence. What is "due diligence" has not been exactly determined but it is safe to say that suit should be brought within ten days from maturity.

WILLS. Any person of sound mind and over twenty-one years of age may make a will, except a married woman who can only make a will to operate upon her separate estate, or in pursuance of a power given her by deed or will. Married women may also be given power to make a will by a decree empowering her to act as a femme sole.

Wills must be in writing with the name of the testator subscribed thereto either by himself or by some other person in his presence and by his direction. If not wholly written by the testator, the subscription must be made or the will acknowledged by the testator in the presence of two witnesses, who shall subscribe their names in the presence of the testator.

The will of a person domiciled out of this State is valid as to personalty, if executed according to the law of the domicile; but to be valid as to lands it must be executed as required by the law of this State.

LOUISIANA.

BANKING LAW.

All the banks that have special charters from the legislature are doing business under those charters. The other banks were turned into National banks. There is no official examination. The State banks make quarterly statements of their condition. They are not required to report to any official. Since the adoption of the constitution of 1879, banking corporations must be organized under the general free banking laws adopted in 1855. The number of persons organizing must exceed five. No special acts of incorporation can be passed. There are no laws requiring Savings banks to invest in any particular class of bonds. There are seven banks in the city of New Orleans still doing business under State charters—the Citizen's Bank, the Canal Bank, and the People's, Bank of Commerce, Germania Savings, Metropolitan, Traders. The others are National banks. Three or more persons may form a corporation for carrying on commercial business, but the word limited must be published with the name.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

The laws of this State are found in the Louisiana Civil Code Code of Practice, and Revised Statutes of the State, adopted in 1870, and the Constitution, adopted in 1879—as interpreted by the decisions of the Supreme Court of the State, published in its Law Reports from the 1st Martin's Reports in 1811, to the 40th Annual Reports published in 1888, inclusive.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds executed within the State may be made before a Notary Public, Parish Recorder or his deputy, in the presence of two witnesses. In other States, before a Commissioner of Louisiana, or any officer authorized to take depositions in the State where he resides, but the official character of such officer must be properly verified. A Louisiana Commissioner may certify to the official position of any public officer in the State for which he is appointed. An account or claim cannot be proved by the ex-parte affidavit of creditor. No seal or scroll of private individuals is authorized or required by the laws of this State. When a married woman executes a deed with her husband, she must be examined by the officer separate and apart from her husband.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. Under the State laws insolvent debtor may make surrender of property to creditors, or an involuntary surrender may be forced by any creditor who shall have issued an execution which is returned unsatisfied. Surrender vests all property of debtor in creditors, and stops all legal proceedings against him. Debtor must file sworn schedules of assets and liabilities. Creditors elect a syndic, who gives bond and manages the estate. Mortgage or privilege creditors are not bound by the decision of the majority of the creditors if they wish to sell the property, but may ask for the sale of sufficient to pay the mortgage or privilege debt. Debtor can only obtain final discharge by consent of a majority of creditors in number and amount, and where discharge is not granted, debtor can be forced to make a new cession, when he can be shown to have acquired property, but debts subsequently contracted are entitled to preference. Where a jury find the debtor guilty of fraud, he is deprived of the benefit of the insolvent laws, and is liable to imprisonment. A debtor cannot make a volunteer extra judicial assignment of his property and obtain his discharge without the consent of all of his creditors. No time limited for applying for discharge. Respite—A debtor alleging that he can not meet his obligations, but that he has assets sufficient to pay his debts in full if given time, may, on filing a schedule of his assets and liabilities, on his ex-parte application, obtain a stay of proceedings against him, and call a meeting of his creditors before a Notary. The vote of a majority in number and amount of these may give him an extension of time not to exceed two years. Creditors opposing may require security.

ATTACHMENT. Writs of attachment issue on application of creditor, under oath, when the debtor resides out of the State; when he conceals himself to avoid being cited; when he has mortgaged, assigned or disposed of, or is about to mortgage, assign, or dispose of his property, rights, or credits, or some part thereof, with intent to defraud his creditors or give an unfair preference to some of them; and when he has converted, or is about to convert, his property into money or evidences of debt with intent to place it beyond the reach of his creditors, or, if debt not due, is about to remove his property out of the State. Creditor must furnish bond equal to the amount claimed to be due, with at least one solvent surety, residing within the jurisdiction of the court, conditioned for payment to any party injured by issuance of writ of all damages sustained by him in case it is decided that the attachment was wrongfully obtained. Arrest of the debtor is allowed, but is of little practical value, as it only secures the person of the debtor to answer the suit, and he can not be held for the payment of the debt. Corporations may be sued in place where damage or trespass is done, before magistrate's court. [Act No, 7, 1888.] Garnishment may be had as an accessory either to a writ of attachment or fieri facias.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. The courts of original jurisdiction are: In parishes other than Orleans: (1) Justices' Courts—Exclusive jurisdiction up to $50, and, concurrent with the District Courts, between $50 and $100. (2) District Courts—Concurrent with Justices' Courts, between $50 and $100; exclusive for all civil matters over $100, and in all probate matters. B. In Orleans Parish: (1) City Courts—Exclusive jurisdiction up to $100. (2) Civil District Courts—Exclusive over $100. Justices and City Courts open at all times. In parishes other than Orleans, District Courts have four terms in each parish. In parish of Orleans, Civil District Court sits from first Monday in November to 1st of July. On amounts from $100 to $2,000 inclusive, an appeal may be taken to the Court of Appeals, and on errors of law alone on amounts under $500, and on all amounts over $2,000, to the State Supreme Court.

EXECUTION. Property taken under a writ of fieri facias must be advertised and appraised, and can not be sold for less than two-thirds of the appraised value, until it has been re-advertised. Advertisements of movables for ten days—of real estate for thirty. If two-thirds of appraised value is not bid, property must be re-advertised for fifteen days, and sold on a credit for twelve months for whatever it will bring. There is no redemption of property sold under execution or mortgage. No stay of execution is given except on appeal, and execution may issue at any time after the delay for appealing suspensively has expired. Embezzlement punished by imprisonment not exceeding seven years. [Act 1888.]

EXEMPTIONS. To head of family, real estate if owned and occupied as a residence, together with certain furniture, stock, implements, provisions, etc.; the property not to exceed $2,000, and no exemption if wife has separate property worth over $2,000. Widow surviving is entitled to $1,000 out of deceased husband's estate, if in necessitous circumstances, by preference over even a first-mortgage creditor.

INTEREST. Legal rate is five per cent., but eight per cent. may be agreed upon. If higher than eight per cent. is charged, such charge forfeits entire interest. If paid, it may be sued for and recovered within twelve months. But a higher rate may be recovered if included in the principal of the note.

JUDGMENTS recorded in the office of the Parish Recorder become mortgages from date of record upon all real estate of the debtor, and may be thus recorded in any parish where debtor owns real estate.

LIMITATIONS TO SUITS. Prescription—Accounts stated and acknowledged in writing are prescribed only by ten years. [Act of 1888.] Personal actions one year: Action for torts of all kinds; for injury to or non-delivery of merchandise shipped on vessels; for fees of justice, notary or constable; for innkeepers' accounts; for accounts of retailers of liquors; for wages of laborers or sailors; for freight and for tuition by month. Three years: Action for arrearages of rent charges, or hire of movables or immovables for money lent; for salaries of overseers, clerks, or tuition by quarter or year; for fees of physicians, apothecaries, attorneys, sheriffs, clerks and recorders; on open accounts of merchants, whether wholesale or retail, and others. Four years: Actions by minors against their tutors, counting four years from majority. Five years: Actions on bills of exchange or promissory notes, counting from maturity, and for nullity of contracts or wills; for recision of partitions; to set aside public and judicial sales for informalities. Ten years: All other actions; the right to a usufruct or servitude; all judgments, whether rendered within or without the State, but judgments may be revived before lapse of ten years, and are then good for ten years from date of revival. Real actions—Ten years: Where possessor holds in good faith, and under an apparently good title, his title is perfect by ten years' possession. Thirty years: Possessor, whether in good or bad faith, even without title, acquires title by thirty years' possession. Renunciation of an acquired prescription can be proved only by writing, signed by debtor, or his agent; interruption, if debtor living, may be proved by parole, but if he be dead, must be proved by signed writing. A sale of real estate may be rescinded for non-payment of the price within ten years after the last payment becomes due. Prescription does not run against minors or persons under interdiction. Husband and wife can not prescribe against each other.

MARRIED WOMEN. Separate property of wife may be controlled by her; revenues of all separate property administered by the husband, and all property acquired by either husband or wife after marriage constitute part of community, unless bought with the separate means of either and as a separate acquisition. A married woman can not sue without the concurrence of her husband or the authorization of the Court, and she can not bind herself or her property for his debts. Wife has no dower in her husband's real estate. The wife can have no claim upon the property of the husband to the prejudice of third parties, unless recorded. Where one of the spouses is agent for the other, he or she may be witness for the other in a matter connected with that transaction. After dissolution of marriage by death the survivor is entitled to one-half of all property remaining after payment of debts, acquired during marriage, and the usufruct of the other half, unless this half is disposed of by will of deceased spouse.

MORTGAGES can be foreclosed at any time after maturity of the debt, by instituting a regular suit and obtaining judgment thereon, or, if the act imports a confession of judgment in favor of the holder, he can apply to the court for an order directing the Sheriff to seize and sell the property. All mortgages must be recorded before they can have any effect as against third parties. Trust deeds are not legal, and chattel mortgages are unknown to the laws of Louisiana. There is no redemption of property sold under mortgage. All tacit mortgages have been abolished since 1870. In making sales or giving a mortgage upon his property, it is not necessary for the husband to obtain the signature of the wife. A mortgage resulting from recording a judgment cannot have that effect until after adjournment of Court. [Act 1888.]

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. The laws of the State of Louisiana, in relation to commercial paper, as well as most other commercial matters, are taken from the English common law. Smith's Commercial Law, Biles, Edwards and Parsons are the standard authors upon the subject. Commercial paper may be defined to be the written evidence of a debt transferable by delivery. It may be a bill of exchange or promissory note. The promissory note is a written promise to pay a certain sum of money, at a future time, unconditionally. It is not necessary to state the place of payment, or that it be made payable at a bank, or at any fixed place of payment in the State. If no place is named, it will be presumed to be payable at the place where it is made. If none is stated, then at the domicile of the maker. Three days' grace are allowed upon bills of exchange and notes, or other obligations made negotiable by law, but no grace is allowed on sight bills or orders for money on demand. All negotiable instruments are due and payable on the day following the third day of grace, when the third is a Sunday or legal holiday, and if this day be a Sunday or legal holiday, then such instruments are due and payable on the following day, not a Sunday or legal holiday. Whenever a promissory note is indorsed for the benefit of the maker thereof, if caused by the maker to be discounted in any bank in operation within the State, or if the maker obtain any money in consideration of said note from any person, the indorser shall be bound to the holders of the note as if it had been discounted or negotiated for his own use or benefit. Bills and notes, or other obligations for the payment of money, to be evidence of a debt, must express the whole sum in writing. The cents may be in figures. Days of public rest are January 1, January 8, February 22, March 4 in New Orleans, July 4, December 25, Sundays, Good Friday and Shrove Tuesday. An administrator appointed by another State Court cannot sue here upon a claim due the deceased. In all cases the succession must be regularly open in this State. The heirs of a deceased creditor may, however, bring the suit in a court of this State. The death of the drawer of a check before payment, does not revoke its payment. [Gordon & Gornilla, case 34 on 604.]

SUITS. Actions are commenced by petition setting forth cause of action, etc., and signed by plaintiff or his attorney. Plaintiff must, in Orleans, if required, give resident security; in other parishes, must make a deposit to cover costs. Full names and residences of parties should be supplied. An affidavit of the correctness of the claim by the creditor is of no value whatever in suit. All testimony must be taken contradictorily after notification to the opposite party.

TAXES. The Collector is required to give ten days' public notice of his readiness to receive taxes, and after ten days from the expiration of such notice, must give written notice to each resident delinquent; non-resident delinquents are notified by publication in parish paper. If taxes are not paid within ten days more, Collector may seize and sell property, after twenty days' advertisement. Lands sold for taxes are redeemable within one year, by the owner, his agent or heirs, or any creditor, on payment of the purchase money, with 20 per cent. interest and costs, and all subsequent taxes paid. Lands sold for taxes due prior to 1880 are not redeemable. State taxes are six mills on the dollar, and parish taxes not exceeding ten mills; city tax 2.02 per cent.

Succession.—Donations cannot exceed two-thirds if the donor leaves at his death a legitimate child, one-half if he leaves two, and one-third if he leaves three or a greater number. The wife has no dower right, but is entitled to one-half of the estate, after payment of debts. If she is left penniless she may claim the marital fourth.

WAREHOUSES.—A certificate from Clerk of Court necessary before transaction of business by public warehouseman. [Act 1888.]

WILLS.—There are four different kinds of wills, viz.: The olographic, nuncupative by public act, nuncupative by private act, and mystic (or sealed) will.

MAINE.

BANKING LAW.

Discount and savings banks created only by special charter; subject to examination by the Bank Examiner, who may, at any time, call for statements and make examination; may institute proceedings to wind up; makes an annual report to the Governor and Council. Capital stock of discount banks must be paid, one-half in six months and one-half in twelve months from the date of charter; they can not go into operation until one-half of the stock has been paid in; can not circulate bills in excess of fifty per cent of their capital stock without one dollar in specie for every three dollars of such excess; nor, at any time, more than capital stock paid in and specie on hand; must keep five per cent of the capital stock in specie reserve; must not owe more than twice the amount of the capital stock, aside from deposits. Directors incurring illegal debts or illegally impairing capital are liable therefor. Stockholders are liable for an additional sum equal to the amount of stock. Officers are, president, directors, and cashier. Report to Examiners when required; tax of ½ per cent on capital if issuing bills. No bills to issue by persons or foreign banks.

MARYLAND.

BANKING LAW.

Prior to the Act of 1870, the State banks were incorporated by special act of the legislature. The Act of 1870, Chap. 206, is a general act, under which all banks must be incorporated. It provides that all banks incorporated under its provisions, if located in Baltimore city, shall have a capital stock of not less than $300,000, and, if anywhere else in the State, of not less than $50,000. It further provides: (1) Stockholders must own stock four months before they can vote it for any purpose; (2) Directors must be stockholders and citizens of the State; (3) no one can be director in two banks at the same time; (4) statements must be made annually by the directors to the stockholders; (5) statements of the condition of the bank must be made to the Treasurer of the State on the 1st of January and July in each year. Said statements must be published in the papers of the city or county where the bank is, and must be verified by the affidavit of the president or cashier; (6) the issue of notes is not to exceed the capital stock paid in, and no note of less than $5 to be issued, nor of any amount intermediate between $5 and $10; (7) the debts are at no time to exceed the capital stock, and the directors are liable for such excess; (8) if dividends are declared which impair the capital stock, the directors are liable; (9) no director can be paid for his services; (10) a bank can hold land for its immediate accommodation in its business, and such as may come in payment of debts due, but must get rid of such land as it acquires for debts, in three years; (11) no loans must be made to the State or the United States to exceed $50,000; (12) banks must not pay out any funds or money other than the legal currency of the United States, notes issued by the authority of their charter, and notes issued by other banking incorporations received at their par value by the banks so paying them out; (13) all State banks, whether incorporated under the provisions of this act or not, must pay annually to the State twenty cents on every $100 of the issue of notes then in actual circulation, which such bank may have lawfully issued, to be applied to the augmentation of the free school fund of this State. There is no system of official examination, other than the statements made to the State Treasurer.

1886, Chap. 501, continues this act in force till January 1, 1905. There are no laws restricting Savings banks as to the class of bonds they may invest in.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of conveyances of any interest in real or leasehold property, may be made within the State, and in the county or city in which the land, or any part of it lies, before a Justice of the Peace, a Judge of the Orphans' Court, a Judge of the Circuit Court of any county, or a Judge of the Superior Court, Court of Common Pleas or Circuit Court of Baltimore City. If within the State, but out of the county in which the estate conveyed lies, they may be made before a Judge of any Circuit Court for the circuit where the grantor may be, or a Justice of the Peace; the official character of the Justice must be certified by the Clerk of the Circuit, County, or Superior Court (Baltimore City), under his official seal, or Judge of the Superior, Common Pleas or Circuit Court, if grantor be in Baltimore City. If without the State, they may be made before a Notary Public, a Judge of any Court of the United States, or of any State or Territory Court having a seal, or a Commissioner of Deeds for this State. The seal of the officer or court to be affixed to the certificate of acknowledgment in all cases. If acknowledged without the United States, the acknowledgment may be made before any Minister, Consul General, Vice or Consular Agent or Deputy, or a Notary Public, or a Commissioner to take acknowledgments for State of Maryland. [Act of 1882, Chap. 63.] Every deed conveying any interest in real estate, must be signed and sealed by the grantor, and attested by at least one witness. A scroll seal is sufficient. No words of inheritance are necessary to create an estate in fee simple, and no separate examination of a married woman is required.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. A debtor may be declared insolvent upon his own application or upon a petition filed by one or more creditors, the aggregate of whose debts amount to the sum of $250—alleging some of the causes specified in the statute (1886, Ch. 298, Sec. 23). No preferences are allowed except to employes for wages contracted not more than three months anterior to deed or application in insolvency. A discharge releases the claims of all creditors living in the State, but does not affect the claims of non-resident creditors unless they are filed in the proceedings. Voluntary deeds of assignment for the benefit of creditors, providing for an equal distribution of the assets among the creditors, are valid, but deeds with preferences (except to employes as already stated), or exacting releases, are void in all cases if the debtor is proceeded against in insolvency within four months after the recording of the deed; otherwise valid.

ATTACHMENTS for debt, or for unliquidated damages, sounding either in contracts or torts, can be obtained in all cases when the defendant is a non-resident or has absconded, affidavit being first made by the plaintiff to the correctness of his claim and the fact that the defendant is a non-resident or has absconded. They may be also obtained in connection with an original process when the creditor or some one in his behalf shall give bond in double the amount of the debt, with sureties to be approved by the Clerk, and make affidavit before the Clerk of the Court where the suit is brought that the defendant is bona fide indebted to the plaintiff in the sum claimed, and that the plaintiff knows or has good reason to believe that the debtor is about to abscond from the State, or that the defendant has assigned, disposed of or concealed, or is about to assign, dispose of or conceal, his property, or some portion thereof, with intent to defraud his creditors, or that the defendant fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation; or that the defendant has removed or is about to remove his property, or some portion thereof, out of this State, with intent to defraud creditors. A claimant may have the attached property released by filing a bond in double the amount of the appraisement. Any kind of property or credits belonging to the defendant, in the plaintiff's own hands or in the hands of any one else, and shares of stock in a corporation, may be attached. Credits not due may be attached, but wages, hire or salary not due can not be attached, and the sum of one hundred dollars of such wages, hire or salary, shall always be exempt from attachment. Imprisonment for debt is abolished.

Defendant may be sued wherever he does business. [Acts 1886, Ch. 456.]

In addition to attachments against non-residents or absconding debtors for debt (i.e., a liquidated sum), as heretofore, attachments may now be issued against such debtors in cases arising from contracts when the damages are unliquidated, and in actions for wrongs independent of contract, but in such cases no attachments can be issued until a declaration is filed setting out specially and in detail the breach of the contract complained of or the tort actually committed, verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff or some one in his behalf, and until a bond shall be filed similar to the bond required in attachments for fraud. (See Attachments, ante.) [Acts of 1888, Ch. 507.]

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. The Circuit Courts in the counties have jurisdiction at common law in cases involving more than $50, and equity in all cases involving more than $20. They hold from two to four regular terms in each county at which they have a jury; there are, however, intermediate terms fixed by the rules, to which process may be made returnable. The Circuit Court and Circuit Court No. 2 (a new Court created by the last legislature) of Baltimore City, have exclusive equity jurisdiction in the city. The Superior Court, the Court of Common Pleas and Baltimore City Court have concurrent common law jurisdiction in cases involving more than $100. The Court of Common Pleas has exclusive jurisdiction in insolvency, and the Criminal Court in criminal cases. The Orphans' Courts in Baltimore City and in the counties have probate jurisdiction. Justice's jurisdiction, $100. The Common Law Courts have three terms in the year, and rule days every month in the year, to which process may be returnable. The Equity Courts have six terms in the year, beginning the first Mondays of January, March, May, July, September and November.

EXECUTIONS may issue at any time within twelve years from date of judgment or from the expiration of any stay, and may be therein levied on any property of the defendant. In the Circuit Courts for the counties there is a stay until the first Thursday of the term succeeding the rendition of the judgment, provided the judgment is obtained at the second term after the defendant is summoned. There is no stay upon judgments rendered in the courts of Baltimore City or by Justices of the Peace in the city or counties, but execution may issue forthwith. The defendant may stay the execution by superseding with sureties for six months.

EXEMPTIONS. No homestead law. Wearing apparel, books and tools (not kept for sale) and $100 of property in addition, are exempt from execution, except on judgments for breach of promise to marry and seduction, not applicable to any but actual bona fide residents of this State. Equitable interests in personal property can not be sold under execution, but may be levied upon, and the lien thus acquired may be enforced in equity. Choses in action may be attached.

INTEREST. The legal rate of interest is six per cent. per annum. Judgments bear interest from their date. A person proved guilty of usury forfeits the excess over the real sum or value of the goods and chattels lent, and legal interest thereon. Since 1876, where the whole debt, including the usury, is paid, the usurious interest can not be recovered back.

JUDGMENTS are liens for twelve years from date of rendition on any interest of the defendant in real or leasehold property within the county where rendered. They can be transferred from one county to another by sending an execution to the Sheriff and a copy of the docket entries to the Clerk. The lien commences in the county to which execution is issued from the date of the entry of the docket entries by the Clerk. Judgments are not liens on personal property until execution has issued and the writ is in the hands of the Sheriff.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Accounts and notes are barred after three years, sealed instruments and judgments after twelve years. A verbal promise or acknowledgment will revive a debt barred by the statute.

MARRIED WOMEN. The property of a married woman, real or personal, acquired by her at any time since 1860, remains her separate estate and is not liable for the debts of her husband. Wife must convey real or personal property by joint deed with the husband, but may devise the same by will as if she were sole. Where husband is found a lunatic by inquisition she may convey property as if she were femme sole. She may sue in her own name. She may be sued on any instrument executed jointly with her husband subsequent to April 1st, 1872, and on any contract made in the prosecution of business under a license to trade, or on a covenant as lessee. A married woman can not enter into articles of copartnership, and contracts made with a copartnership in which there is a married woman are not binding upon the parties. Husband is not now liable for debts of wife dum sola, but for such debts husband and wife can be sued and judgment obtained against the wife. Widow is entitled to dower in real estate and one-third of the personal estate if there are children; one-half if none.

MORTGAGES are executed, acknowledged and recorded same as deeds, and are not valid against creditors unless recorded within six months. There must be an affidavit made by the mortgagee or his agent at any time before recording, that the consideration is true and bona fide. If made by agent, he must, in addition, make oath that he is the agent of the mortgagee. A like affidavit is required to chattel mortgages, and absolute bills of sale, both of which must be recorded within twenty days. The lien of a mortgage may, by ceasing to pay interest or any installment of the principal for twenty years, be barred. They may be foreclosed at any time after the debt becomes due and before the lien is barred.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper is such paper as is negotiable by the law merchant. It is not payable at any particular place, unless so specified on its face. The maker of a promissory note or the acceptor of a bill of exchange will be held liable to an innocent holder who takes the same before maturity for value and in good faith, even though the note was made or the bill accepted without consideration. Three days' grace are allowed on all negotiable paper except sight or demand drafts. A bill of exchange, draft or promissory note, purporting to be payable at sight or at presentation, is for all purposes deemed payable on demand without grace. A seal to a promissory note makes it a single bill and therefore not negotiable. Bills of lading are by statute negotiable in the same manner and with the benefit of the same rules as promissory notes. Legal holidays are: Christmas, New Year's day, February 22, Good Friday, July 4, all days of general and congressional elections throughout the State and any day of public thanksgiving or humiliation and prayer proclaimed by the Governor or legislature. Bills and notes maturing on such day are payable on day preceding, unless that be Sunday, when they are payable on the Saturday preceding. Notice of dishonor to be given on day after the holiday, unless that be Sunday, when notice to be given on succeeding Monday. When holidays fall on Sunday, paper maturing on following Monday, payable on preceding Saturday. Notice of dishonor to be given on following Tuesday.

SUITS. Actions are at common law. Pleadings have been simplified, but forms of actions remain as at common law. Service of writs must be made by the return day, which, in the counties, is the first day of each term, and in Baltimore City of each rule day.

The plaintiff in any action at law (except ejectment and replevin) may claim a mandamus directing the defendant to do any act that he may be bound to do, or forbidding him to do any act it may be his duty to refrain from doing, either by contract or otherwise. [Acts 1888, Ch. 456.]

The defendant in any action at law in which, if judgment was obtained, he would be entitled to relief in equity against such judgment, may plead the facts which entitle him to such equitable relief by way of defense in such action at law. The plaintiff in his replication may, in reply to such plea, allege such facts as avoid the plea on equitable grounds and so on. [Acts 1888, Ch. 547.]

A court shall not refuse to issue a mandamus or injunction on the mere ground that the plaintiff has a remedy at law, unless the party against whom the writ is asked shall show to the Court's satisfaction that he has the property from which the damages can be made or shall give a bond to pay such damages. [Acts 1888, Ch. 260.]

MASSACHUSETTS.

BANKING LAW.

In this State most banking institutions and trust companies are incorporated under special act of the legislature. Under the general law ten or more persons and their successors may form a corporation for the purpose of carrying on the business of banking. The General Court may, by special act, annul or dissolve any such corporation; but its dissolution shall not impair any remedy against the same for liability previously incurred. The capital stock of each bank shall not be less than $100,000 nor more than $1,000,000, in shares transferable only at the banking house, and on the books of the bank. The stock shall be paid in gold or silver money, one-half before the bank goes into operation, and the remainder within one year thereafter. Three Commissioners who are appointed by the Governor, at the expense of the bank, are required to examine and count the money actually in the vaults, and ascertain by the oath of a majority of the stockholders that the amount deposited there shall remain as part of the said capital. Before commencing business the president and directors shall make a certificate specifying the corporate name, which shall be different from any previously organized in the Commonwealth; the location of said bank; the amount and number of shares of its capital stock; name and residence, and number of shares of each stockholder, and the time when it is to go into operation; a copy of which certificate shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth. No part of the capital stock can be sold or transferred, until the whole amount thereof is paid up. No person can hold more than half the capital stock, exclusive of that held as security. In addition to the capital stock to which a bank is entitled, the Commonwealth may subscribe thereto an amount not exceeding 50 per cent. of its authorized capital, when provision is made therefor by law. Said Commonwealth shall be entitled to its proportionate share of profits and dividends. Upon the vote of three-fourths of its stockholders, a bank may increase its capital stock to an amount not exceeding $1,000,000, the payment to be made in gold and silver, in not more than four installments of the amount of the increase. No bank shall have less than seven or more than twelve directors. The cashier is required to give bond in not less than $20,000, with two or more sureties, before entering upon his duties. The debts of a bank shall at no time exceed twice the amount of capital stock paid in exclusive of deposits not bearing interest, nor shall there be due the bank more than double the amount of capital stock paid in. Every bank is required to keep a reserve in lawful money of the United States, equal to 15 per cent. of its liability for circulation and deposits. The circulating notes held by the bank shall at all times be secured in full by public stocks, which shall never be less in amount than $50,000. The property and effects of every bank shall be first applied to the redemption of its notes in circulation. Stockholders of a bank are liable in their individual capacity for the payment of all the circulating notes remaining unpaid in proportion to the stock they respectively hold when it stops payment.

Every bank doing business in Boston, except in those portions which were formerly Brighton, Charlestown, Dorchester, Roxbury, and West Roxbury, shall on every Monday morning transmit to the Secretary of the Commonwealth a statement, under oath of the president or cashier, of the amount of capital stock, assets and liabilities in the bank, including amount in the Boston Clearing House, which statement shall be based upon the condition of the bank on the day of the week next preceding said Monday. Monthly reports are required from every bank in the State, not included in those above mentioned, to be made to the Secretary of the Commonwealth. These reports are published in one or more of the daily papers in Boston on the Wednesday after same has been received. Every bank is required to make an annual report to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of the condition of its affairs at 7 o'clock on any Saturday afternoon which the Governor may direct, within fifteen days from the time designated, certified by the cashier and a majority of the directors. Any committee appointed by the General Court may examine into the affairs of any bank, and shall have free access to its books and vaults. One-eighth of the stockholders may choose a committee from their number to investigate the affairs of the bank at any time. When a Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court is satisfied that a bank is insolvent, he may prohibit the transaction of any business, and may appoint agents or receivers to take possession of the property and effects of the bank. Commissioners of Savings Banks shall visit once in every year, and as much oftener as they may deem expedient, all such banks, and examine all their affairs, and make such inquiries as may be necessary to ascertain their condition, and make a report of such investigation to the General Court.

Savings Banks in Massachusetts can invest 70 per cent. of their deposits in first mortgages on real estate in this Commonwealth to an amount not exceeding 60 per cent. of valuation of such real estate; in public funds of the United States, of any of New England States, or States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and District of Columbia; and in the authorized bonds for municipal purposes of any city of the aforesaid States which has more than 30,000 inhabitants, and whose net indebtedness does not exceed 5 per cent. of the valuation of taxable property, and in bonds or notes of any county or town in Massachussets, whose net indebtness does not exceed 5 per cent. of valuation, or of any county or town of the State of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island or Connecticut whose net indebtedness does not exceed 3 per cent of valuation; in first mortgage bonds of any railroad company incorporated under authority of New England States, and whose road is located in whole or in part in the same, and has earned and paid regular dividends for two years next preceding such investment, on all its issue of capital stock, notwithstanding the road of such company may be leased to some other railroad company; or in first mortgage bonds guaranteed by such railroad company; or in bonds and notes of any railroad company incorporated under laws of Massachusetts, whose road is located wholly or in part therein, and is unincumbered by mortgage, and has paid a dividend of 5 per cent. per annum for two years next preceding such investment; but Street Railroad Company shall not be considered Railroad Company within meaning of this statute. They may invest in the notes of any citizen of this State, with a pledge as collateral of any of aforesaid securities, or secured by shares of capital stock of any of aforesaid New England railroads incorporated and located as above, and has earned and paid regular dividends of 5 per cent on its capital stock for five years next preceding date of such note. They may invest not more than 35 per cent. of deposits and income in, stocks of any bank incorporated under authority of Massachusetts or any banking association located in New England and incorporated under laws of the United States, provided it shall not hold more than 3 per cent. of capital stock of any one of such banks; also, in bonds and notes of incorporated districts in Massachusetts; in bonds and notes of Fitchburg Railroad Company; in bonds and notes of Boston & Lowell Railroad: in bonds of New York & New England Railroad issued to pay for certain terminal bonds in Boston; in notes of depositors of the bank secured by their deposit and book. They may invest in bonds or personal securities with at least two sureties, if principal and sureties are all citizens of Massachusetts, and reside therein. Ten per cent of deposits, and not exceeding $200,000. may be invested in erecting a building for transaction of its business. They may hold real estate acquired by foreclosure or upon judgments for debts due them, but it must be sold within five years after title vests in the corporation.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS may be made before any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate or Notary Public, or Commissioner appointed for that purpose by the government of this Commonwealth within the United States. Acknowledgments of deeds may be made before any Consular officer under the laws of the United States, in any foreign country to which he is accredited. Within Massachusetts acknowledgments may be taken by any Justice of the Peace or Notary Public. In any other portion of the United States where the acknowledgment is taken by any official other than a Commissioner for Massachusetts, a certificate of the official's appointment and authority under which he acts, made by the Secretary of State, or a Clerk of a court of record, should be attached. Deeds must be under seal, a scroll being insufficient. No subscribing witness is necessary. Release of dower must be explicitly stated in deed, wife's joining in deed merely being insufficient. In case of several grantors acknowledgment of one is sufficient.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. The insolvent law is in many respects similar to the United States bankrupt law, repealed in 1878, and has no jurisdiction over debts contracted outside the State unless the same are proved in the insolvency proceedings. But an assignment to trustee to divide property among creditors can not be avoided by attaching creditor and only by assignee in insolvency. Any person owing $100 or more may obtain relief; and any creditor may apply within ninety days after commission of act of insolvency for seizure and distribution of estate. Assignee is chosen by majority in value, and may be required to give bond. Proof of debts must be substantially according to statute form, mere affidavit of indebtedness not allowable. Original notes and bills of exchange must be annexed to proof. The oath may be made before Justice of the Peace, Notary Public or Commissioner. Assent of majority in number and value filed within six months from date of assignment necessary for discharge if assets do not pay fifty per cent. or more, otherwise discharge granted without assent. Attachments made more than four months prior to first publication of notice of issuing warrant in case of voluntary proceedings and more than four months prior to first publication of notice of filing petition in involuntary proceedings are not dissolved by assignment in insolvency. The insolvent may file an offer of composition with creditors, and will be confirmed if assented to by a majority in number and value of creditors, if it be for payment of not less than fifty per cent., or if less than fifty per cent., of three-fourths in number and value.

ATTACHMENT. All real estate, goods and chattels not exempt, may be taken in attachment on the original writ and held as security for judgment, except that lands and tenements can not be attached in suits involving less than $20. Debtor may dissolve attachment by furnishing bond with sureties to pay judgment obtained or value of property attached determined by appraisement. Upon affidavit by the creditor or some one in his behalf, that he has reason to believe that the debtor intends to leave the State and has property not exempt from attachment which he does not intend to apply to the payment of plaintiff's claim, the debtor may be arrested and held to bail. Debtor against whom judgment is rendered for over $20 may be subjected to sworn examination touching his property, and if he refuses to deliver up such property (not being exempt from attachment), an order for arrest will issue and he can then apply and be examined to take the poor debtor's oath.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Trial Justices may severally hold Courts within the counties for which they are appointed, and shall have original jurisdiction, exclusive of the Superior Court; and of all actions of contract, tort or replevin, where the debt or damages demanded or value of the property alleged to be detained does not exceed $100. Police and District Courts may in their respective counties exercise the same powers, shall have the same jurisdiction, civil and criminal, and shall perform the same duties and be subject to the same liabilities as Trial Justices. The Supreme Judicial Court has original and concurrent jurisdiction with the Superior Court, in actions for recovery of debt to the amount of $4,000 or over in Suffolk county (Boston) and $1,000 or over in the other counties of the State. Superior Court has jurisdiction where the amount claimed exceeds $20. Municipal Court of the city of Boston has jurisdiction concurrently with the Superior Court in the county of Suffolk, in actions where the debt does not exceed $1,000, provided one or more of the defendants resides or has his usual place of business in the city of Boston. The other Municipal, District, Police Courts and Trial Justices throughout the State have, as a rule, concurrent jurisdiction up to $300.

EXECUTIONS can not issue until twenty-four hours after judgment rendered, and an original execution must be issued within one year after plaintiff is entitled to sue out the same. Executions from all courts are returnable within sixty days. There is no stay of execution, except by special order of court.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead, if recorded, to the value of $800. Necessary wearing apparel of family, certain specified articles of household furniture, and $300 worth in addition thereto; library, $50; tools and implements, $100; stock, $100; boats and fishing tackle, etc., $100; one cow, six sheep, one swine and two tons of hay, sewing machine, necessary wearing apparel, pew in church, etc.

INTEREST. Legal rate, six per cent., which is allowed on judgments. There are no usury laws, except on loans less than $1,000, and any rate may be reserved or contracted for in writing, and rate reserved in note is payable after maturity of note as before; loans less than $1,000, shall be dischargeable upon payment or tender of the sum actually borrowed and interest at rate of 18 per cent. per annum, together with a sum for actual expenses of making the loan, not exceeding $10; all payments in excess of said rate shall be applied to discharge of the principal.

JUDGMENTS may be entered within four days of default, but do not constitute a lien upon realty or personalty of debtor not attached on the original writ. Are not outlawed for twenty years.

LIMITATION OF SUITS. Contracts or liabilities, express or implied and not under seal, six years; real actions, those upon an attested note, if suit is brought by original payee or his executor or administrator, and personal actions on contracts not limited, twenty years. Revivor: Part payment by the party sought to be charged or new promise to pay in writing. Absence from the State prevents the running of the statute of limitations as to a defendant until he comes into the State. The statute does not run against infants, married women during coverture, insane persons, those imprisoned and those absent from the State.

MARRIED WOMEN. The real and personal estate of a married woman, acquired at any time, remains her sole and separate property, not subject to the control of her husband, nor liable for his debts. Married women may carry on trade or business, make contracts, sue and be sued, in all matters relating to their separate property, and such contracts are not binding upon the husband. Wife can not deprive her husband of more than half of her personal property by will, nor can she impair his interest in her real estate as tenant by the curtesy without his written consent, or of her real estate not exceeding $5,000 in value, and a life estate in one-half of the balance, where no issue survives her. Widow takes dower as at common law, in one-third of her husband's real estate, and if there be no issue and husband dies intestate, she takes his real estate, in fee, to an amount not exceeding $5,000 in value, and a life estate in one-half of the balance. If husband dies intestate and leaves no kindred, she takes the whole of his real estate in fee. Wife carrying on business on own account must record certificate with City or Town Clerk; neglect to do this renders her property so employed liable for husband's debts, and renders husband liable for her debts thus contracted.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper means negotiable paper, such as bills of exchange, promissory notes and bank checks, given in due course of business for the payment of money. It need not be paid at a bank or any fixed place. Three days of grace are allowed on all negotiable paper payable at sight or at a future day certain, except that no day of grace shall be allowed upon any bill of exchange, note or draft, payable on demand, nor upon a check drawn upon a bank. The drawee of a bill or draft requiring acceptance has till two o'clock P.M. on the next business day after presentment, to decide whether he will accept. Bills of exchange, drafts, promissory notes and contracts, due and payable, or to be executed, on Sunday or any Fast day or Thanksgiving Day appointed or recommended by the Governor or by the President, first Monday of September (Labor's Holiday), or Christmas Day, twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, or on the following day when either of the four days last mentioned occurs on Sunday, shall be payable or performable upon the business day next preceding said days; and in case of non-payment or non-fulfillment may be noted and protested upon such preceding day; but the holder or holders of such obligations need not give notice of the dishonor, non-payment or non-fulfillment thereof until the business day next following the days above specified. To charge indorsers of a promissory note payable on demand, a demand made at the expiration of sixty days from the date thereof, without grace, or at any time within that term is necessary to fix liability of indorser, and shall be deemed to be made within a reasonable time. No presentment of such note to the promissor and demand of payment will charge the indorser, unless made on or before the last day of said term of sixty days. Orders and drafts for money payable within this State, in which no time of payment is expressed, shall be deemed to be payable on demand. All persons becoming parties to promissory notes payable on time by a signature in blank on the back thereof, shall be entitled to notice of the non-payment thereof the same as indorsers.

SUITS. Civil actions in general, except those concerning land (if one of the parties lives in the State), must be brought in the county where one of them lives or has his usual place of business. Where all parties are non-resident, action may be brought in any county. Attachment of property owned by defendants residing out of State sufficient to give jurisdiction in suit after notice published by order of court. Such notice to be given within one year from the entry of the suit. Persons commorant in State may also be arrested on mesne process and held to bail.

TAXES assessed on real estate are a lien for two years after they are committed to the Collector; but the Collector may sell real estate for taxes after two years have elapsed, unless the estate has been alienated prior to the giving of the notice of such sale. If not paid on demand, Collector may sell after advertisement. Owner, his heirs or assigns, may redeem within two years by paying or tendering to the Collector when he exercises the power of taking, or to the purchaser of the sum paid by him, with ten per cent. interest and all necessary intervening charges, and person having title may redeem in two years after notice if property is taxed to a person unknown, or to tenant or occupant not owner, or wrong person or mortgagee of record.

MICHIGAN.

BANKING LAW.

Act No. 205 of Public Acts, 1887, "to revise the laws authorizing the business of banking, and to establish a banking department for the supervision of such business," was submitted to the electors of this State at the last general election, in November, 1888, and was duly approved. It provides that any number of persons, not less than five, may associate to establish:

1. Offices of discount and deposit to be known as Commercial banks.
2. Offices of loan and deposit to be known as Savings banks.
3. Banks having departments for both said classes of business.

The aggregate amount of capital stock of any such bank shall not be less than $100,000, except that in any city or village the population of which does not exceed five thousand inhabitants the capital may be not less than $25,000, and in cities and villages with population not exceeding twenty thousand the capital may be not less than $50,000. These provisions as to capital not to apply to banks heretofore organized and doing business.

Banks shall not take as security any lien upon any of its capital stock for any loan; the same security in kind and amount shall be required of stockholders and of persons not stockholders; shall not be the holder or purchaser of any portion of its capital stock, unless such purchase is necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith, and stock so purchased shall in no case be held longer than six months if it can be sold for what it cost, and must be sold for the best price obtainable within one year.

PERSONS ASSOCIATING to execute articles of incorporation, specifying:

1. Name assumed, which must not be similar to name of any other State bank.
2. County, city, or village where located, and to conduct business.
3. Nature of its business relative to class aforesaid.
4. Amount of capital stock which shall be in shares of $100 each.
5. Names and residences of stockholders; number of shares held by each.
6. Period of organization, not to exceed thirty years.

Such articles to be acknowledged before an officer of this State authorized to take acknowledgments, and to be executed in triplicate, one of which shall be recorded in the County Clerk's office of the county where bank is to be located, one filed with the Commissioner of the Banking Department, and one with the Secretary of State. Copies certified by either of said officers admissible in evidence for or against such bank in all Courts.

Such bank shall thereupon become a body corporate, and have powers to adopt and use a corporate seal; to have succession for the specified period of years; to make contracts; to sue and be sued; to elect and appoint directors who shall choose a president and vice-president, and appoint a cashier or treasurer and other officers, define their duties, require bonds, dismiss such officers at pleasure and elect others in their places, prescribe by-laws regulating the transfer of stock, the election of directors and other officers, regulate the special meetings of stockholders, transfer of its property, the conduct of its business, and the exercise and enjoyment of its privileges.

Such bank shall exercise by its Board of Directors or duly authorized officers or agents, subject to law, all such powers as are necessary to carry on business of banking, discounting and negotiating promissory notes and other commercial paper and evidences of debt; receiving deposits; buying and selling exchange, coin and bullion, and loaning money on personal and real security, but they shall not take or receive more than the rate of interest allowed by law in advance on its loans and discounts. This restriction not to authorize any transaction for less than fifty cents.

Fifty per cent. at least of the capital stock shall be paid in before such bank is authorized to commence business, and the remainder shall be paid in by monthly installments of at least ten per cent. of the whole capital stock, payable at the end of each succeeding month from the time it shall be authorized to commence business; such payments shall be certified to the Commissioner under oath by the President, Cashier or Treasurer.

On failure to pay any installment when required, the directors shall sell the stock of delinquent stockholder at public sale as they deem best, on twenty days' notice, served personally or by mail at his last known address. If no bidder will pay the amount due with costs, the amount paid in on the stock shall be forfeited to the bank and such stock shall be sold as directors may order within six months thereafter; and if not sold it may be canceled and deducted from the capital. If sold before cancellation any surplus realized shall be returned to original stockholder, his heirs or assigns. If such cancellation reduces the capital stock below the minimum, such capital shall be increased within thirty days from the date thereof to required amount by subscriptions. When authorized as aforesaid to commence business, the Commissioner of Banking Department shall examine into the condition of such bank, as to whether it has complied with all the provisions of the Act required to entitle it to engage in the banking business, and if so entitled the Commissioner shall, within thirty days after receiving notice of the payments of the fifty per cent. of its capital, give to such bank a certificate under his hand and official seal, that such bank is authorized to commence business, etc.; he may withhold such certificate by consent of Attorney General whenever he has reason to believe that such organization is for any other than legitimate business under this Act. The certificate shall be published for six weeks in the city, village, or county where the bank is located, for the first publication within ten days after the receipt of such certificate.

The shares of stock deemed personal property and transferable on the books of the bank as its by-laws may direct; but no transfer shall be valid so long as registered holder of stock shall be liable to the bank as principal debtor, surety or otherwise, for any debt due and unpaid, and in such case no dividends, interest, or profits shall be paid on such stock, but the same shall be retained and applied to discharge of such liabilities.

The capital may be reduced or increased at any time by two-thirds vote of the stockholders. A certificate thereof, executed by its officers, including a majority of the directors to be filed as required for articles of incorporation; but no increase shall be valid unless it is subscribed and paid in; and no reduction shall be to a less amount than the required capital, or be valid or warrant cancellation of stock, or diminish liability of stockholders, until approved by said Commissioner, based on his finding that security of existing creditors will not be impaired.

Banks may purchase, hold and convey real estate for the following purposes, only: Such as is necessary for convenient transaction of its business, including with its offices other apartments to rent which shall not exceed fifty per cent. of its capital; such real estate conveyed to it for debts to the bank; and such as it shall purchase at sale under judgments or decrees upon its securities; but the bank at such sale shall not bid a larger amount than to satisfy its debt; no real estate so acquired in satisfaction of debts, or at a sale upon its judgments or decrees, shall be held longer than five years, and within thirty days thereafter must be sold at private or public sale.

DIRECTORS. Bank to be managed by a Board of not less than five; hold office for one year and until successors are chosen and Directors must own and hold not less than ten (10) shares of the stock, and shall take and subscribe specified oath. The board declares dividends, so much of net profits as they deem expedient. Before any dividend is declared, not less than ten per cent. of net profits for preceding half year shall be carried to surplus fund until such fund amounts to twenty per cent. of its capital.

The Act defines certain criminal offenses; prescribes penalties, fines, and imprisonment on conviction for certain specified frauds of any officers, or directors, or clerks, etc. Requires keeping list of stockholders' names and filing copies of same second Monday of April each year in said County Clerk's and Commissioner's offices. Authorizes any State bank re-organized under laws of United States as a National bank to retain and hold the assets acquired during existence of such State bank subject to its liabilities.

National Banks, duly dissolved, may organize under the Act with the approval of said Commissioner, and with authority of its stockholders, which must be set forth in the articles; and the assets of such National bank be vested in such State bank subject to the unliquidated liabilities of such National bank. Violations of the said Act by the Board of Directors constitutes ground for forfeiture of the charter, etc., of such bank, and it is made the duty of the Commissioner to institute proceedings therefor.

Reports of every State bank four times a year shall be made under oath to the Commissioner, according to forms which he shall prescribe and furnish, to show resources, assets, and liabilities of any past day's business. Such reports to be published in newspapers in the respective localities of any such bank; special reports may be required whenever deemed necessary; reports of dividends and amount carried to surplus to be made within ten days after such dividends are declared.

Commercial Banks, not to lend to exceed fifty per cent. of their capital on real estate security, and then only by resolution and two-thirds vote of the directors, except to secure certain debts. Interest may be allowed on accounts or certificates of deposit, deposits payable on demand and without notice, except otherwise provided by contract. Such banks shall keep on hand at least fifteen per cent. of deposits; in cities of over 100,000 inhabitants twenty per cent., one-half in lawful money, the other half in funds payable on demand deposited in designated approved banks. If any such bank gets below the required reserve it must stop increase of liabilities and Commissioner may notify to make good its reserve.

All deposits of such banks shall be paid to depositors, when required, at such time or times, with such interest and under such regulations as the Board of Directors from time to time prescribes; shall keep on hand fifteen per cent. of its total deposits in money in its vaults or on deposit, payable on demand, with approved National or State banks, or invested in U. S. bonds; three-fifths of the remainder shall be invested by the directors in bonds of U. S. or of this or any other State of the U. S. (provided any such State has not in ten years repudiated its debt or failed to pay same or the interest) or in bonds of any municipal corporation of any State of the U. S., subject to certain provisions relative to the financial standing of such municipalities, also on notes secured by such bonds, or on mortgages on unincumbered real estate worth double amount loaned and interest; or may be deposited in any National bank or Trust Company in Cities in this or any other State approved by the said Commissioner; and a portion of the remainder, not exceeding the capital and additional liability of stockholders, may be invested in negotiable paper, approved by Board of Directors. If reserve falls below required per cent. it must be restored and maintained; the Commissioner shall require it on thirty days' notice, and on default, shall proceed to wind up the bank. Pass-books shall be issued to depositors in savings department, containing rules, etc.

Banks, combining Commercial and Savings Banks, shall keep separate books of account for each class, to be governed respectively by the provisions of this Act applicable to each class; shall not issue any bill, or note, or certificate to circulate as money, nor issue post bills.

Existing State Banks are abridged, modified, or enlarged to conform to provisions of this Act. As to all future transactions, no renewal or extension of any existing loan or investment shall be made, unless necessary to avoid loss or embarassment. All past due notes, etc., of existing banks, not secured by mortgage, remaining unpaid for six months, shall be charged off to the profit and loss account.

Stockholders of every bank shall be individually liable, equally and ratably, and not one for another, for the benefit of depositors in said bank to the amount of par value of their stock, except persons holding stock as executors, administrators, guardians or trustees, or as collateral security. All such shall not be personally liable, but trust and estate assets and funds shall be liable, and persons pledging stock shall be liable. Such liability may be enforced in suit at law or in equity by any bank in liquidation, or by any receiver, or other officer succeeding to the rights of such bank. All transfers of notes, securities or other property, and payments of money after acts of insolvency, or in contemplation thereof, with a view to prevent application of assets, as prescribed, or to the preference of one creditor over another, shall be held null and void.

Total Liabilities of any bank shall at no time exceed one-tenth part of the capital and surplus of such bank. By two-thirds vote of the Directors it may be increased not to exceed one-fifth. Any bank under this law may go into liquidation and be closed by a vote of its stockholders owning two-thirds of its capital. Any bank refusing to pay deposits as agreed, or becoming insolvent, may be wound up by the Commissioner.

Taxation. All real estate of the bank may be taxed as other realty; the residue of its capital and surplus shall be taxed as personal property. The provisions of this Act govern all existing State banks, and such banks must file with the Commissioner a certificate, executed by the officers of each bank, conforming to requirements relative to articles of incorporation, or reorganize under this Act. Banks may issue bills of exchange on foreign countries, payable with customary usance, at or within thirty days' sight. Such paper not to be used to circulate as money.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Deeds and mortgages of lands or any interest therein, executed within this State, must be witnessed by two persons, and may be acknowledged before any Judge or Commissioner of a court of record, a Notary Public, or a Justice of the Peace. When an instrument in writing is executed and acknowledged in any other State, Territory or District of the United States, it may be done before any Judge of a court of record, a Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, Master in Chancery, or other officer authorized by the laws of such State to take the acknowledgment of deeds therein, or before any Commissioner appointed by the Governor of Michigan for that purpose; and unless such acknowledgment be taken before a Commissioner for Michigan, the instrument should have attached thereto a certificate of the Clerk or other proper certifying officer of a court of record of the county or district within which such acknowledgment is taken, under the seal of his office, or of the secretary of the State or Territory where taken, that the person whose name is subscribed to the certificate of acknowledgment was, at the date thereof, such officer as he is therein represented to be; that he believes the signature of such person subscribed thereto to be genuine, and that the instrument is executed and acknowledged according to the laws of such State, Territory or District; and if such instrument be executed in any foreign country, it shall be executed in the presence of two witnesses who shall subscribe their names to the same as such (Act No. 217, P.A. 1889), and may be acknowledged before any Notary Public therein, or before any Minister Plenipotentiary, Minister Extraordinary, Minister Resident, Charge d'Affaires, Commissioner or Consul of the United States appointed to reside therein. Such acknowledgment to be certified thereon by the officer under his hand, and if by a Notary, his seal of office shall be affixed to such certificate.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. Assignments for the benefit of creditors may be made by any debtor, without preference, and must be of all property of assignor not exempt from execution. (Preferences by way of payments or security not in the assignment itself, though made at the same time with the assignment, will be sustained if received by creditors in good faith. Whipple vs. Stebbins, 12 Western Rep., p. 83.) Assignee must give approved bond in double the amount of property assigned. The bond, the instrument of assignment, or a duplicate thereof, inventory of the assigned property and a list of the creditors of the assignor, must be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court in the county where the assignor resides, or, if he is not a resident of this State, then in the county where the assignee resides, and if neither are residents of this State, then in the county where the assigned property is principally located. No assignment shall be effectual until such bond shall be executed and filed as above stated and approved by said Clerk. No attachment or execution levied upon assigned property after the assignment and before the expiration of the time for filing bond shall be valid. The assignment must be acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments. The bond shall be to the assignor for the joint and several use and benefit of himself and all creditors of such assignor, and shall be signed by the assignee and sufficient sureties, who shall justify before said Clerk or a Circuit Court Commissioner under oath. Notice shall be given by the assignee personally or by mail to each creditor; such notice shall require creditors to prove their claims within ninety days thereafter by affidavit to be filed in said Clerk's office, or in default the assignee or receiver will proceed to distribute said estate, as soon as practicable thereafter without reference to claims not proven. Before making a dividend assignee shall serve personally or by mail, on each creditor whose name appears on schedule filed, a complete list of all creditors. The Court may remove an assignee and appoint another in his stead on application of a majority in number and value of unsecured creditors. Assigned estate may be advertised and sold as a whole, unless majority of creditors request assignee to sell in parcels. If a bid of at least fifty per cent. is made sale must not be postponed. The assignee shall retain in his hands a sum to provide for all contested claims. Every proof must state the actual amount unpaid and owing, the actual consideration thereof, when contracted, when due or to become due, whether any and what payments have been made thereon, that the sum claimed is justly due from assignor to claimant, and that claimant has not nor has any other person for his use received any security or satisfaction whatever other than that by him set forth. Assignee shall cause appraisement to be made, by two competent appraisers under oath, of the property assigned to him, and file the same with the assignment. He shall also file a report of the condition of the estate and his doings under the assignment within three months thereafter in the said Clerk's office. In case of fraud in the assignment or in the execution of the trust, or failure to comply with the law, or failure to promptly and faithfully execute the trust, any person interested may file a bill in chancery for the enforcement of the trust and the appointment of a receiver. Assignee or receiver may contest any claim. Any creditor may request in writing the assignee or receiver to contest any claim, and such request will operate to stay payment of any dividend on such contested claim. If assignee or receiver refuse to make such contest, creditor may petition the Circuit Court for an order requiring it. The Circuit Court in Chancery of the proper county shall have supervisory power of all matters, questions and disputes arising under such assignment.

ATTACHMENT. Process will issue on affidavit that there is a debt due upon express or implied contract, and showing either that debtor has absconded, or is about to abscond from the State; has assigned, removed, or concealed his property with intent to defraud; or fraudulently contracted the debt; or is non-resident, or a foreign corporation. Attachment may now be sued out for debt to become due in future upon showing reasons satisfactory to Circuit Judge, but judgment cannot be rendered until debt is due. Actions of tort against non-residents may be commenced by attachment. An affidavit must be made describing the cause of action, and showing that defendant is carrying on business in the State, or owns property therein. Garnishee process may be issued from any Court in which the original suit is commenced, and in such proceeding indebtedness to the principal defendant or property in hands of fraudulent transferee, or property of any kind subject to execution in garnishee's hands, may be reached for the satisfaction of any judgment recovered in the suit, but the wages of any householder, having a family, to the extent of $25, are exempt from garnishment. Arrests of debtors may be made in all personal actions other than those arising on contract, and in actions when the claim is for money collected by any public officer, or for misconduct or neglect in office or professional employment, or upon promise to marry. No woman can be arrested on civil process.

CORPORATIONS. Banks, mining and manufacturing, insurance—fire, marine and life, printing and publishing, mercantile, railroad, co-operative mutual benefit associations, co-operative and savings associations, religious societies, and municipal corporations, may be organized under general laws existing for the purpose.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts, holding from two to four terms a year in each county, have original jurisdiction in actions on contract where damages claimed amount to $100 and upward, and exclusive jurisdiction in actions of tort where damages alleged exceed $100, appellate jurisdiction from Justice's and Probate Courts. The Superior Court of Grand Rapids has original and concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court in all civil actions where the debt or damages exceed $100, and in which the defendants, or one of them, shall have been served with process in the said city, and where the parties, or one of them, reside in said city, which must appear in the process or pleadings. Justice's Courts have original jurisdiction when the debt does not exceed $100, and concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court when the debt does not exceed $300, except in actions of tort, where the limit is $100. There is a Probate Court in each county, with the usual powers. The Supreme Court of this State is the final appellate tribunal to which all appeals from the Circuit and Superior Courts of the State are taken, at law and in equity. United States Courts, "Sixth Circuit" and Eastern and Western District, Detroit, Bay City, Port Huron, Marquette, and Grand Rapids, Mich.

DEEDS AND MORTGAGES of real estate must be recorded within the county wherein the land is situate, and if not so recorded are void as against subsequent purchasers or encumbrancers for a valuable consideration who have not received actual notice of such deed or mortgage. Foreclosure of by advertisement, or in Court of Chancery in county where property is situate. Chattel mortgages and bills of sale intended as security, are absolutely void as against creditors or subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith, unless the mortgage or a true copy thereof be filed in the City or Township Clerk's office where the mortgagor resides. Such mortgages made and withheld from the files are postponed to all indebtedness contracted after their date, and prior to date of filing such mortgages. Chattel mortgages are held to be securities for the debt—give no legal title until foreclosed by sale of the property, under power of sale, or by proceedings in equity; and such mortgages cease to be valid after one year, unless within thirty days before the expiration of that time they are renewed by affidavit, showing the actual amount of mortgage debt; and the filing of this affidavit in such Clerk's office. By Act No. 18, Public Acts of 1889, the fraudulent removal, disposition, concealment, and appropriation of mortgaged chattels constitutes a criminal offense, felony, or misdemeanor according to the value of property so disposed of, and Act No. 17 makes it a felony to embezzle, remove, conceal, or dispose of leased chattels, or chattels held under contract of purchase, if their value amounts to $25 or more; if under $25 in value it is a misdemeanor. All mortgages are liable to taxation, same as money or other personal property, for State and County and municipal taxes against the holders of such securities where they reside.

EXECUTION may issue at once in Circuit Courts, and within five days from rendition of judgment in Justice's Courts. Executions are returnable not less than twenty days, nor more than ninety days. Stay in Justice's Courts may be obtained by giving secured bond for payment of judgment, costs and interest; the time allowed being four months when the judgment does not exceed $50, and six months when above that sum. Lands sold under execution may be redeemed by the debtor, his heirs, devisees, representatives or assigns, within one year, by payment of the purchase money, with interest borne by the judgment, and may be redeemed by any judgment creditor having subsequent levy at any time within fifteen months from the date of such sale. Executions may issue at any time during the life of a judgment. Levy on real estate ceases to be any lien thereon at the expiration of five years.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead of any householder not exceeding forty acres, if in the country, or a house and lot in a city, town or village, the value in either case not to exceed $1,500. Can not be alienated or incumbered without consent of the wife, where such relation exists, and cannot be sold by probate license to pay debts, unless appraised to exceed $1,500, and that amount is paid. Personalty exempt includes household furniture to amount of $250; stock in trade, a team, or other things which may be necessary to carry on the pursuit of particular business, up to $250, and partners of a firm are each entitled to such exemption, except for the purchase money thereof, and any sale of same after suit for the price shall be void, provided notice is filed in Clerk's office in the town where owner resides; library and school books not exceeding $150; to a householder, ten sheep, two cows, five swine, provisions, fuel, spinning wheels, looms, stoves put up for use in dwelling, cemetery tombs and rights of burial, library and school books of every individual and family, family pictures, one cow, provisions and fuel for comfortable subsistence for one month, household goods, furniture and utensils to the value of $500 under any execution issued upon judgment for work and labor other than professional services, etc.

INTEREST. Six per cent. per annum is the legal rate of interest, but parties may contract in writing for a higher rate, not exceeding ten per cent. Interest payable semi-annually, annually, or at any other period falling due will bear interest computed to date of payment. The penalty for usury is a forfeiture of the excess, but no action can be maintained to recover back such excess after the voluntary payment of the same. A bona fide purchaser of negotiable paper is not affected by its being usurious, unless appearing on the paper. Judgments bear the same rate of interest as the instrument or contract upon which such judgment was founded.

JUDGMENTS are not liens until execution has been issued thereon and a levy made, and notice thereof recorded in the Register of Deeds' office of the County where such lands are located—executions issue to Sheriff of any County in the State. Judgments can be obtained in the Circuit Court in from forty-five to sixty days, depending on return day, time of service, term of court, etc. In Justice's Courts, if defendant makes default, judgment can be obtained on return day of process.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Judgments of courts of record exist ten years; of Justice's Courts, six years. On accounts and notes and other simple contracts actions can not be brought unless within six years from the time the action accrued, as also all civil actions for injuries to person or property. On sealed instruments and judgments, ten years. Revivor: Part payment, or promise in writing to pay. Writs of Error from Supreme Court must be issued in one year after final judgment of court below, except said Supreme Court may grant further time, not to exceed six months. Questions of law only can be reviewed in law cases, but both questions of fact and law will be heard on appeals in equity cases. Proceedings to foreclose mortgages must be commenced within fifteen years after they become due and payable, or within fifteen years after last payment on mortgage; and as to mortgages fifteen years or more past due, within five years after the statute takes effect. [See Session Laws, 1879.] After such limitations have expired, mortgages may be discharged by application to the Circuit Court of the County where property is situated. For the recovery of real property—within five years where the claim arises against executor's, guardian's, or sheriff's deed; within ten years where defendant claims under deed made by some officer of this State or of the United States for taxes; within fifteen years in all other cases.

MARRIED WOMEN may make contracts in respect to their own property, and may have, hold and enjoy the same, and have the same rights and remedies as though they were unmarried. They may carry on business in their own name with their own property by consent of their husbands. But a married woman's contract to pay or to become liable for or to secure payment of the debt of her husband or other person is voidable by her. She may, however, charge her real or personal property to secure such indebtedness, by mortgage. A mortgage upon a homestead is void unless signed by the wife. Widow takes dower; the use during her natural life of one-third part of all the lands whereof her husband was seized of an estate of inheritance at any time during coverture, except non-residents of the State. Mortgage indebtedness on the real estate for part of purchase price will be deducted from the value of such real estate in setting off and assigning dower. Conveyances to husband and wife of lands they have title to by entirety not liable to execution against both or either of them.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Negotiable promissory notes and bills of exchange, including acceptances, are "commercial paper." Not necessary that such paper be made payable at any bank or other place. The persons primarily liable to pay any such paper must seek the holder and pay to such holder when the paper is due. If there are indorsers or drawers entitled to notice, of course the holder is bound to present the paper to the makers and demand payment; and, if he wishes to hold such indorsers and drawers to their liability, notice must be given them in their order promptly by due course of mail or by personal service of notice of such presentment, demand for payment, and refusal to pay the paper. On all bills of exchange and negotiable notes and acceptances payable within this State, three days of grace are allowed, but not in case of any bill of exchange, note or draft payable on demand. All checks, bills of exchange or drafts drawn on any bank, are payable without grace, and it is not necessary to protest the same for non-acceptance. In all other cases demand, protest for non-payment, and the sending notices of protest to the indorser, at his reputed place of business or residence, are necessary to bind the indorser. Parties other than payees to paper, being such before or at its inception, are held as joint makers, and not entitled to notice of non-payment. Damages on domestic bills protested, three to ten per cent. Holidays to be observed in the acceptance and payment of bills of exchange and promissory notes, in the holding of courts, etc., are the following: 1st day of January (New Year's Day), 22d of February (Washington's Birthday), 4th of July, 25th of December (Christmas Day), 30th of May (Decoration Day), and any day appointed by the Governor or the President of the United States as a day of thanksgiving, or a day of fasting and prayer. In case any of said holidays shall fall on Sunday, then the Monday following shall be considered as the said holiday. When the last day of grace falls on Sunday, or on any legal holiday, the day previous is considered as the last day of grace.

SUITS. Practice and proceedings of courts are in accordance with the rules of common law and courts of equity in England, with some statutory modifications. Actions survive as by the common law, and in addition thereto actions of replevin, trover, assault and battery, false imprisonment; for goods taken and carried away; negligent injuries to the person; actions for damages to real or personal estate.

TAXES assessed against real estate become a charge against the owner on the second Monday of May, and a lien on the real estate from first Monday in December of same year. City taxes are governed by charter.

All suits may be brought in the name of the assignee or receiver. Appeals from orders of assignees or receivers disallowing claims may be made to the District Court. The assignee must, within ten days after disallowing a claim, notify the creditors. Assignees and receivers may be removed upon a petition of two-thirds of the creditors, in number and amount. No creditor is entitled to share in the distribution of the estate, unless he shall first file a release of his claim; provided that creditors may allege fraud and can then come in and share in proceeds without filing release; but if he fails to file and release claim the same is not barred by settlement, but creditor can take judgment and collect against personal or real estate in future. The assignee or receiver shall publish notice of his appointment, and shall mail notice to each creditor, and the creditors shall file their claims within twenty days after notice published. The assignee or receiver shall distribute the estate in the following order: 1st. Cost of proceeding. 2d. Debts due the United States. 3d. Debts due the State of Minnesota. 4th. Taxes and assessments. 5th. Clerks, servants and laborers, for labor performed within three months, in full, not exceeding $50 to each. The balance shall be distributed pro rata between the creditors.

ASSIGNEE OR RECEIVER FEES.—Fees to be allowed to assignee or receiver shall not, in ordinary cases, exceed ten per cent. upon amount received up to $1,000; five per cent on excess of $1,000 up to $5,000; and two per cent on excess of $5,000. Allowances for attorney's fees shall not exceed $150 when gross proceeds do not exceed $3,000, and when they do exceed $3,000 or in cases of extraordinary litigation the court shall allow reasonable amount.

ASSIGNMENTS. Under act of co-partnership where minor partner, signed by co-partner of full age carries all the property of the adult partner and all of the co-partnership property of minor, same with special partner, court may appoint receiver in same manner as for other co-partnerships.

ATTACHMENTS may issue from Justice's Court upon filing bond in double the value of the property, and affidavit of plaintiff or some person in his behalf that he has good reason to believe: 1st, that defendant is a non-resident corporation; 2d, that defendant is not a resident of this State and has not resided therein for three months preceding the time of making the affidavit; 3d, that defendant has absconded or is about to abscond from the State; 4th, that defendant has removed or is about to remove his property out of the State with intent to defraud his creditors; 5th, that defendant resides in any other county and more than 100 miles from the residence of the Justice; 6th, that defendant contracted the debt under fraudulent representations; 7th, that defendant so conceals himself that the summons can not be served upon him; 8th, that defendant has, or is about to, fraudulently convey or dispose of his property so as to hinder, delay and defraud his creditors. In attachments in District Courts plaintiff's affidavit must state facts and can not be made on information and belief as in Justice's Courts. Arrest for debt is not allowed in this State. No distress for rent.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. District Courts, holding one or two terms a year in each organized county (one every month in Ramsey and Hennepin counties), have original jurisdiction in all civil actions involving over $100; in all actions where a Justice has not jurisdiction, without regard to amount; and in all equitable actions and proceedings, and may issue process in term time or vacation throughout the State, returnable to the proper county. A Probate Court with usual powers is established in each organized county, and holds term on the first Monday of each month. Justice's jurisdiction, $100. A Municipal Court is established in the cities of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Stillwater, Mankato, Duluth, Brainard, Waseca and Winona, which is a court of record, with jurisdiction co-extensive with the counties in which they are severally situated, and possessing general powers of Common Law Courts, excepting equity jurisdiction, in matters in controversy where the amount involved does not exceed $500. St. Paul Municipal Court issues no execution, but judgments are transcripted to District Courts and enforced by its process.

EXECUTIONS may issue from District Courts at any time within ten years after judgment, and to any county where a transcript has been docketed. Executions are returnable in sixty days, but may be renewed for sixty days at a time for any length of time, upon the request of judgment creditor or his attorney. Personalty is first levied on, and is sold on ten days' notice; real estate after six weeks' publication. In Justice's Courts execution may issue ten days after entry of judgment, returnable in thirty days, and renewable from time to time for periods of thirty days. Executions in Municipal Courts the same as in Justice Courts, except that they may issue at once. In courts of record six months' stay is granted on defendant filing bond with two free-hold sureties, approved by the court, conditioned to pay amount of judgment with costs, and interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum. Stay in Justice's Courts may be had in same manner, where judgment is under $10, one month; $10 to $25, two months; $25 to $50, three months; $50 to $75, four months; over $75, six months. Real estate sold on execution is subject to redemption for one year from date of sale. Attorney of Record can satisfy judgment at any time within two years after entry.

EXEMPTIONS. Surviving husband or wife holds homestead free from debts of deceased for life of survivor. Homestead of eighty acres in country; half an acre if in city, town or village not incorporated, and of less than 5,000 inhabitants, and one lot if in larger cities, towns or villages, with buildings thereon, without regard to value. Wearing apparel, books, pictures and furniture, up to $500; three cows, ten swine, twenty sheep, and wool from the same, a yoke of oxen and a horse, or, in lieu thereof, a span of horses or mules; necessary food for stock for one year; wagon, plows and farming utensils up to $300; necessary seed grain for the actual personal use of the debtor for one season, to be selected by him; not, however, in any case to exceed the following kinds and amounts respectively: viz., fifty bushels of wheat, fifty bushels of oats, fifteen bushels of potatoes, three bushels of corn, and thirty bushels of barley, and binding material sufficient for use in harvesting the crop raised from the seed grain above specified. The tools and instruments of a miner, mechanic or other person, and stock in trade up to $400; library and instruments of a professional man; $25 wages of laboring man or woman, for services rendered within thirty days preceding the issue of process. Also, where the debtor is a printer, publisher or editor of a newspaper, all the presses, stones, type, cases and other tools and implements not exceeding $2,000, and stock in trade up to $400.

INTEREST. Seven per cent. is the legal rate of interest upon every legal indebtedness, including judgments and accounts. Since July 1, 1879, the highest rate of interest allowed to be taken by special contract is ten per cent. The penalty for usury is forfeiture of the entire amount of the interest or other premium received, to be recovered in a civil action, half to go to party bringing action, and half to go to County Treasurer for benefit of Public Schools, with all interest.

JUDGMENTS. If no defense is made, judgments can be obtained at the expiration of twenty days in District Court, and upon being docketed in the office of the Clerk of the court, they become liens upon all real estate of the debtor in the county where docketed, owned by him at that time or afterwards acquired, for ten years after date of docketing, and can be enforced during that time by execution against the real or personal property of judgment debtor. Judgments in Municipal Courts may be had at general term, which are held twice each month, where action is begun at least six days previous to term, and may be docketed in District Court and become a lien when the amount exclusive of cost exceeds $10. Also judgments of United States Court become liens, as above, when docketed in pro er court.

LIENS. Statute gives lien for work and labor performed or skill furnished by mechanic on any building, boat or vessel, and for materials furnished for the erection, alteration or repairing of any building, boat or vessel, or on anything manufactured or repaired to the extent of the amount of repairs or material; also gives to servants and clerks a lien on personal property, not to exceed $200 in amount, for work performed within six months next preceding filing of lien. All liens must be filed within ninety days from date of last item of work or labor or material furnished.

LIMITATIONS TO SUITS. On contracts, express or implied, six years; on judgments or to foreclose mortgages, fifteen years; real actions, twenty years. Revivor: Part payment or new promise in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN. All property acquired by wife before or after marriage remains her separate estate, neither controlled by nor liable for the debts of her husband. Married women are held on their contracts and bound by them the same as if unmarried; except, a married woman can not sell her real estate, or make any conveyance of land other than a mortgage for the purchase money or a lease for three years or less, without her husband joins in the conveyance. The deed of a married woman to her husband, or vice versa, is absolutely void. Estates in dower and by the curtesy are abolished, and the surviving wife or husband is entitled to the homestead for life free from debts of the deceased, and to one equal undivided one-third of all other lands of which the deceased was seized during coverture, subject to payment of lawful debts of the deceased, but free from any testamentary or other disposition.

MORTGAGES on real estate must be recorded, acknowledged and have two witnesses, and are foreclosed by action or publication. A year is allowed for redemption. Chattel mortgages are void as against creditors and subsequent mortgagees and purchasers in good faith, unless acknowledged and filed with the Town or City Clerk, both where property is situated and where mortgagor resides. They are then valid, but cease to be notice after two years from date of maturity, but may be renewed by filing affidavit, stating mortgagee's interest and amount unpaid, which renewal operates to extend mortgage for one year from date of filing affidavit. Interest of mortgagor subject to sale on execution, and purchaser is substituted in place of mortgagor, and acquires rights of redemption.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper is that class of paper usually designated as such by the law of merchants; viz., notes, bills, drafts, etc. Paper need not be made payable at any particular place. On all bills of exchange payable at sight, or at a future day certain, and on all negotiable promissory notes, orders and drafts payable at a future day certain, within this State, in which there is no express stipulation to the contrary, grace is allowed of three days. No grace on demand paper. Damages five per cent. on domestic and ten per cent. on foreign paper protested. Notes obtained by fraudulent representation without negligence on part of maker void; question of negligence one of fact for jury. Bills of exchange, drafts, promissory notes and contracts due or payable, or to be executed on Sunday, Thanksgiving day, Good Friday, Christmas day, New Year's day, the 22d day of February, the 4th day of July or on the following day, when either of the four days last mentioned occurs on Sunday, shall be payable or performed upon the business day next preceding such days, and in case of non-payment or non-fulfillment shall be noted and protested upon such preceding day, but notice of dishonor, non-payment, or non-fulfillment need not be given until the business day next following the days above specified. February 22d and 30th day of May are the only statutory legal holiday.

RIGHT TO HOLD PROPERTY. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons not citizens of the United States, or who have not lawfully declared their intention to become such citizens; or for any corporation not created by or under the laws of the United States, or some State or Territory, to hereafter acquire, hold or own any real estate so hereafter acquired, or any interest therein, in this State, except such as may be acquired by devise or inheritance, or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts hereafter created, or to the foreclosure of mortgages. The above prohibition does not apply in cases where right to hold land in the United States is secured by existing treaties to citizens of foreign countries, nor to actual settlers upon farms of not more than 160 acres, who may settle thereon before January 1st, 1889. No corporation or association, twenty per centum of the stock of which is or may be owned by any person or persons, associations or corporations not citizens of the United States, shall hereafter acquire, hold or own any real estate in this State. No corporation, other than those organized for construction or operation of railways, turnpikes or canals, shall acquire, hold or own over 5,000 acres of land so hereafter acquired in this State, and that no railroad, canal or turnpike corporation shall hereafter acquire, hold or own other than may be necessary for the proper operation of its railway, canal or turnpike, except lands granted by United States or State. All lands acquired, held or owned in violation of the provisions of this act shall be forfeited to this State. It is the duty of the Attorney General to enforce any such forfeiture by due process of law.

SUITS. There is only one form of action, and all civil actions must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except suits by administrators, etc. Full name of plaintiff must be furnished. Process to commence suit in the District Court must be served on the debtor twenty days before judgment can be taken by default, except action for divorce, when summons must be served at least thirty days before defendant will be in default, and summons in divorce may be personally served outside of the State. A deposit of $3 with Clerk of Court for costs in all civil actions hereafter begun is required before entry of action on docket (Hennepin and Ramsey county excepted). Process in Justice's Courts must be served not less than six nor more than twenty days before return day. Summons in Municipal Court must be served at least six days before term.

A penalty of 10 per cent. attaches to real estate June 1. On the first Monday in January an additional 5 per cent. attaches to delinquent real estate taxes. Real property sold on first Monday in May; two years redemption allowed; a notice must be served upon owner 90 days before time of redemption expires. Redemption by minor heirs two years after obtaining majority.

MISSISSIPPI.

BANKING LAW.

There are no provisions in regard to banks in the constitution, and such institutions are governed by their charters and the common law. There are, however, some statutes to prevent insolvent banks from continuing business. There is no system of official examination, but all banks, except National banks, are required by statute to make a report, not less than four times each year, to the Auditor of the State. And the Auditor of the State shall make requisition on all banks for these reports to be made on dates prior to the date of the requisition and such date to be known only to himself. Such reports shall be verified and besides being furnished the Auditor shall be published in full in a newspaper of the town or city where the bank is located. Their resources and liabilities shall be stated in such form as the auditor shall determine. (Acts 1888, p. 29.)

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS in the State may be before any Judge of the Supreme or Circuit Court, any Chancellor, Clerk of a court of record under his seal, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or member of the Board of Supervisors. Acknowledgments in another State may be certified and proven before any of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, or any District Judge of the United States, or a Judge of the Supreme or Superior Court in any State or Territory, any Justice of the Peace, or Notary Public whose official character shall be certified to under the seal of some court of record in his county, or by any commissioner residing in such State or Territory, appointed by the Governor of Mississippi, or a Notary Public or a Clerk of a court of record having a seal of office. [Code, 1880, sec. 1219.]

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. No insolvent law. Debtor may make assignments to secure creditors, and may prefer one creditor over the remainder, but the assignment must be bona fide, and no benefit, direct or indirect, may be reserved to the debtor. All conveyances or assignments made with intent to defraud creditors are void. There is no provision for the discharge of a debtor on his making an assignment.

ATTACHMENT. The property of a debtor who is a non-resident, or who removes or is about to remove himself or property, who absconds or conceals himself, or who incurred the debt in conducting the business of a ship, steamboat or other water craft, in some of the navigable waters of this State, or who assigns or disposes of his property, or some part thereof, or is about to assign or dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, or who has property or rights in action which he conceals and unjustly refuses to apply to the payment of his debts, or who has converted or is about to convert his property into money or evidences of debt, with the intent to place it beyond the reach of creditors, or who has fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which suit has been or is about to be brought, may be attached. Attachments for debts not due allowed for last three grounds—or when the creditor makes affidavit that he has just cause to believe that the debtor will remove himself or his effects out of State before debt will be due with intent to defraud. Non-resident creditors have the same rights of attachment as resident creditors, whether the debtor be resident or non-resident. Attachments constitute liens on the property in the order in which the writs are levied, and are to be satisfied in that order. Plaintiff must furnish bond and make affidavit as to one or more of the grounds of attachment specified above. The suit as well as the writ abates on verdict for defendant, on a plea denying grounds of attachment. Any of the other creditors may intervene and contest ground of attachment, if defendant omits to do so. Garnishee process will issue in aid of attachment or execution. No arrest or imprisonment for debt in Mississippi.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts, holding at least two terms a year in each county, have jurisdiction for the collection of all claims over $150. The State is divided into seven Chancery Court districts, and the Chancery Courts have full equity and probate jurisdiction and are held twice a year in each county. Justice's Courts have jurisdiction for the collection of debts up to $150, and shall hold terms at least once each month.

ESTATES OF DECEDENTS. All claims against a deceased person, whether due or not, must be registered within one year after the first publication of notice to creditors to present their claims; otherwise they will be barred; provided creditors failing to register claims shall not be barred as to surplus after registered claims are paid, if claim is presented and proven before distribution. The presentation of a claim and the registration thereof, as required by law, stops the running of the general statute of limitations as to such claim, whether the estate be solvent or not.

EXECUTIONS issue in courts of record within twenty days after the adjournment of court for the term, unless otherwise ordered by the plaintiff, and in Justice's Courts after the lapse of five days from judgment rendered, unless recovering party makes affidavit that he is in danger, by delay, of losing his debt or demand, in which case execution issues forthwith. There is no stay law in Circuit Courts, but executions issued by Justices may be stayed for sixty days on sums over $50, and for thirty days on less amounts, by defendant giving secured bond, such stay operating as a waiver of appeal and all errors of the judgment. No redemption of lands or other property sold under execution or mortgage.

EXEMPTIONS. Residence of householder having a family, 160 acres in country, or residence and lot in city, town or village, in no case exceeding, with improvements, $2,000 in value. The proceeds of insurance on property exempt by law, and the proceeds of the sale of exempt property. Tools, farming implements, wearing apparel, libraries of attorneys, physicians, and ministers, and instruments of surgeons and dentists, $250; sewing machine, two horses or mules, or one yoke of oxen, two cows and calves, five swine, five sheep with certain food and provisions, fifty bushels of cotton seed, forty gallons of molasses, 1,000 stalks of Louisiana cane, one bridle and saddle, wagon or cart $100, household furniture $100, and wages of daily, monthly or yearly laborer $100. (A clerk is a laborer—Sup. Ct.) A householder having a family, residing in a city, town, or village, entitled to $250 worth of personal property to be selected by him, or the other articles specified and enumerated above. No property exempt as against purchase money, but the same liable to seizure at the suit of the vendor while in the possession of the first vendee.—(Acts 1884, p. 84.)

INTEREST. The legal rate of interest is six per cent. per annum, but parties may contract in writing for ten per cent.; when more than ten per cent. is stipulated for, all interest shall be forfeited.

JUDGMENTS when enrolled in Circuit Clerk's office become liens on defendant's property within the county, and may be extended to other counties by filing certified abstracts of the judgment. A junior judgment creditor may obtain priority as to property levied on by him, if, after ten days notice, the senior judgment creditors have failed to issue executions and point out the property. Lien of judgment continues seven years.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Open accounts, accounts stated and verbal contracts, express or implied, three years; on all other contract, six years; and awards of arbitrators, six years; judgments and decrees rendered in another State against resident of this, three years; rendered in this, seven years; real actions, ten years. Revivor: An acknowledgment of the debt or new promise in writing. Private seals dispensed with, except as to corporations.

MARRIED WOMEN retain their estate, real and personal, however acquired. The common law disabilities of married women are abrogated, and married women have same capacity to make contracts and do all acts in reference to property which single women have. Married women may dispose of property by will, in same manner as single women. Dower and curtesy are abolished. If husband dies intestate, leaving no children nor descendants of children, his widow inherits entire estate, both real and personal; but if husband have child or children, or descendants of same, widow inherits a child's part. The same rules of descent regulate both realty and personalty.

MORTGAGES AND TRUST DEEDS do not take effect as to creditors or purchasers in good faith and without notice until they are delivered to the Clerk for record. Mortgages without power of sale are foreclosed by bill, and there is no provision for redemption. Chattel mortgages must be recorded, or possession of the property must pass.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE must be protested, and notice of non-payment given substantially as at common law, to bind parties entitled to notice. Promissory notes in this State are not required to be protested, but demand and notice are necessary to fix liability of parties thereto. There is no law defining commercial paper. All notes, bills, drafts, etc., are assignable, and suit may be maintained in the name of the assignee; but defendant can make all defenses which he had against payee before notice of assignment. Foreign bills of exchange payable out of the United States, protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, draw ten per cent. damages and legal interest; bills drawn payable in the United States, protested for non-acceptance, draw damages at the rate of five per cent. besides legal interest. Checks, drafts and notes payable on demand, are not entitled to any days of grace; while notes, bills and drafts, foreign, as well as inland, drawn payable at sight or time, are by the laws of this State entitled to the usual days of grace, and in this respect are the same as by the law merchant. Where a bank check is expressly made payable on a future day, or where, by the way it is drawn, it takes on the character of a draft or bill of exchange, the weight of authority is that it is entitled to days of grace. Domestic bills of exchange drawn on and payable in this State for twenty dollars or upwards, must be protested for non-acceptance or, if accepted for non-payment, they are governed by the same customs and usages as foreign bills of exchange, but no damage accrues. When the day on which any bill of exchange or promissory note should be presented for acceptance or payment, according to its terms, shall fall on Sunday, New Year's Day, Fourth of July, or Christmas Day, it shall be presented on such day next before the day on which, by its terms, it is presentable, as shall not be one of the days herein specified.

BILLS OF LADING. By statute, bills of lading, and warehouse receipts or instruments in the nature thereof, are made conclusive evidence in the hands of every bona fide holder, as against the person or corporation issuing the same, that the property was actually received for shipment or storage.

SUITS. All forms of action are abolished in this State. Service must be had both in Circuit and Justice's Courts five days before the court sits. All actions ex contractu in the Circuit Court, where defendant is personally served at least thirty days before court, are triable at the return term unless defendant files affidavit that he has meritorious defence setting forth its nature and extent. If only partial defence is set up, plaintiff may dismiss as to that and take judgment for the balance. In all such actions, except actions against estates of deceased persons, the plaintiff may verify his declaration by affidavit, in which event the plea or answer shall also be under oath, and such portion of a verified pleading as is not denied under oath shall be taken as true. (Acts 1888, p. 82.) This applies to Justice Courts.

TAXES. Personal property is assessed once a year; real estate every four years, and taxes constitute a prior lien on both real and personal property. Taxes are due on or before December 15 of each year and personalty can be sold on five days' notice. Where there is no personalty, land of the tax-payer is sold by the Collector on the first Monday of March following. The owner or any one interested in any lands sold for taxes, may redeem within one year after the day of sale, on the payment of all taxes, costs, fees and 25 per cent. damages, and interest at the rate of 10 per cent. on amount paid by purchaser, and cost of the conveyance and registration.

MISSOURI.

BANKING LAW.

Missouri Laws makes president, director, manager, cashier, or other officer of bank receiving or assenting to receipt of money or other valuable thing, or creating or assenting to the creation of any debt, knowing the bank to be insolvent, guilty of larceny, and the failure of the bank is prima facia evidence of such knowledge.

The Revised Statutes of 1889 provide that five or more persons in any county, who have associated themselves together by articles of agreement in writing for the purpose of establishing a bank of discount, or of both discount and deposit, may be incorporated under a name or title designating such business. In no case shall the cash capital be less than $10,000, nor more than $5,000,000. In cities of 150,000, or more, the capital shall not be less than $100,000 The stock shall be divided into shares of not less than $100 each. One-half of the capital stock subscribed must be paid up before a certificate of incorporation can be issued; the remaining half to be paid within one year from the date of the certificate. Twice a year the Secretary of State is required to call for a report from every institution doing a banking business under the provisions of this act; but a statement may be called for oftener if desired. No person shall engage in banking business with less than $5,000 capital, and until he has made statement under oath of this fact.

Laws of 1889 fully defines rights and powers of Savings banks, and provides, among other things, that such banks shall be allowed by law "to buy, sell, and discount negotiable and non-negotiable paper of all kinds as well as all kinds of commercial paper." All business corporations organized under statute must first pay up one-half of capital subscribed.

"Trust companies" and "Saving societies" may be organized under special statute defining powers and providing manner of conducting business.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

If out of Missouri, but in United States, by a Notary Public, State or Federal court, having a seal, or Clerk of such court, or Commissioner appointed by Governor. In cities of over 25,000 population, reserve fund must equal 20 per cent. of aggregate deposits and immediate liabilities. Reserve fund of exclusively Savings Banks must equal 5 per cent. of deposits and immediate liabilities. Reserve fund required to be cash or balances due from solvent banks. No dividend of profits can be made while reserve fund is below requirements, nor can liabilities be increased otherwise than by purchase and discount of sight paper. Auditor may notify delinquent bankers to make good required reserve fund at once. Failure to comply with such notice for 30 days is cause for the appointment of a receiver.

INDEBTEDNESS. Total liabilities of any bank to any one corporation and its members, or any one partnership and its members, or to any individual, shall not at any time exceed 20 per cent. of bank's capital. In no case shall the total liabilities of the stockholders of any bank to such bank exceed 50 per cent. of the paid-up capital of such bank. Bills discounted and exchange drawn in good faith against actual values and discounts of commercial paper, actually owned by negotiator, not to be regarded as money loaned.

RECEIVER. If any bank appears to the Auditor, Treasurer, and Attorney-General, or any two of them, from any report or examination to be delinquent in any requirement, or to be conducting business in an unsafe manner, they shall require the Attorney-General to apply for a receiver and wind up its affairs. Expressly provided that this act does not apply to National Banks.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS may be made within the State before Judges, Clerks of the Court or Deputies, County Clerks or Deputies, Register of Deeds, Justices of the Peace, and Notaries Public. In other States of the Union acknowledgments must be made according to the laws of the State or Territory where taken, or in accordance with the law of this State, and may be by Commissioner appointed by Governor of this State for that purpose, or by any officer authorized to take acknowledgments by the laws of the State or Territory where taken. Full authority and jurisdiction is conferred on County Courts to execute and carry out the provisions of the Act. Sheriff of county where assignor resides to be first assignee. Assignment to be filed with County Clerk for record within twenty-four hours after its execution. Sheriff as assignee to be responsible on his official bond. Within ten days after such assignment, assignor shall file with County Judge a sworn inventory showing names and residences of all creditors; amount and nature of each debt or liability, and how arising; the true consideration of each debt, and when and where it arose; every mortgage, judgment, or other security for the payment of any debt or liability; all property exempt by law from execution, and all other property of every kind and nature, and its value. Within three months after date of inventory, Court to order distribution of all funds in hands of assignee. If no assignee elected, Sheriff to continue as, and discharge the duties of, assignee.

ATTACHMENTS. Attachment process will issue when defendant is a non-resident or a foreign corporation, when the claim is on debt or demand arising on contract, judgment or decree; and in other cases when he is about to remove, assign or dispose of property, has absconded, etc. In all cases of attachment an affidavit must be filed before the order of attachment issues, and a bond must be filed in double the amount of the debt, except when the debtor is a non-resident of the State. Right to attach body of debtor repealed 1887. Garnishee process may be had either in aid of attachment or execution.

COURTS. Term and Jurisdiction. District Courts have original jurisdiction in all matters exceeding $100, and concurrent jurisdiction with Justice's and County Courts, under $100. Regular terms of County Court begin on first Monday of each calendar month, lasting to third Monday, when all causes not disposed of go over to the next regular term. County Courts are courts of record, and given a civil jurisdiction up to $1,000, and Justices of the Peace are given a jurisdiction up to $200. County Courts are courts of probate.

EXECUTIONS for the enforcement of judgment may issue at any time. Executions on all judgments rendered may be stayed as follows: On judgments of $10 and under, sixty days; on judgments over $10 and not exceeding $50, ninety days; over $50 and not exceeding $100, six months; over $100, nine months. (Except error and appeal cases and against persons for money received in a fiduciary capacity, or for breach of official duty in which no stay is allowed.) Stay bond has the force and effect of a judgment confessed against the property of sureties. In all cases of stay of execution, an undertaking with sureties must be entered into by the party desiring the stay, conditioned for the payment of the judgment, interest and costs. In case of foreclosure of mortgage a stay of the order of sale will be granted for nine months from the date of the decree, upon the written request of the defendant, filed within twenty (20) days from the date of the decree, without undertaking. She may bargain and sell and enter into contracts with reference to any of her separate property in the same manner, to the same extent, and with like effect as a married man in relation to his real and personal property. Provided, that when any of these days shall occur on Monday, any paper due on such Monday shall be due and payable the day thereafter.

SUITS. The distinction between actions at law and suits in equity has been abolished, and there is but one form of action, known as a civil action, and commenced by filing petition and causing summons to be issued thereon. The code is very similar to that of Ohio. A non-resident person or corporation having any interest in land, may appoint an agent resident therein by instrument acknowledged as a deed filed with County Clerk in the county where the land lies. Service in such case is made upon the agent, as in other cases of residents, and any publication of service against such non-resident owner is invalid.

TAXES upon realty are a lien from and including the 1st day of April in the year in which they are levied until the same are paid, and become delinquent on May 1 of the following year, except city taxes in cities of the first class. Taxes upon personalty become a lien from the time the tax books are received by the Tax Collector (Oct. 1, in the year in which they are levied), and become delinquent February 1st thereafter. Persons holding tax liens may foreclose the same in same manner as a mortgage, any time within five years from date of tax sales. Redemption from tax sale may be made at any time within two years from sale upon payment of principal sum and interest at 20 per cent. per annum, and the limitation of recovery is three years from date of tax deed.

NEVADA.

There are no requirements to make public statements showing the condition of banks, and none are made. Nor are the banks obliged to make returns to any official. Bankers may do as they please in Nevada. Integrity in the banker is the only safeguard.

In an action by a resident of the State for the recovery of the value of property where such property has been converted by a defendant without the consent of the owner. Where the defendant has absconded, or is about to abscond, with intent to defraud his creditors. Where the defendant conceals himself so that service of summons can not be made upon him. Where a defendant is about to remove his property, or any part thereof, beyond the jurisdiction of the court with the intent to defraud his creditors. Where a defendant is about to convert his property, or any part thereof, into money with intent to place it beyond the reach of his creditors. Where a defendant has assigned, removed, disposed of, or is about to dispose of his property, or any part thereof, with the intent to defraud his creditors. Where a defendant has fraudulently or criminally contracted a debt or incurred the obligation for which suit has been commenced. Garnishee process may be had in aid of attachment. A fraudulent or absconding debtor, or one who conceals his property, or removes or disposes of it with intent to defraud his creditors, may be arrested on affidavit of the fact made; surety in not less than $500 being given by the plaintiff. The Clerk of the Court shall issue the writ of attachment upon receiving and filing an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff, showing the nature of the plaintiff's claim, that same is just, the amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff is entitled to recover, and the existence of any one of the grounds for an attachment above enumerated.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. District Courts have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity, also in law, when the title or possession of land or mining claims may be involved, or legality of any tax, etc., also in actions to foreclose mechanics' lien; and in all cases in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy exceeds $300; also in all cases relating to estates of deceased persons, and persons and estates of minors, insane persons, etc. Justice's jurisdiction, $300, exclusive of interest, and concurrent jurisdiction with District Courts in foreclosure of mortgages and liens, not exceeding $300, exclusive of interest.

The above applies to contracts before March 2d, 1877; to contracts since that date (the above periods), two years extended to four, and four and five respectively to six years. Revivor: Acknowledgment or new promise in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN. All property of the wife, owned by her before marriage, and that acquired afterwards by gift, bequest, devise or descent, her separate property. In Nevada, under the statute of 1873, the wife has absolute power over her separate property, and may dispose of the same without the consent of her husband. All other property acquired during coverture by husband or wife, common property, but controlled by husband. Upon a dissolution of the community by the death of the husband, the homestead set apart by the husband and wife, or either of them, goes to the wife and minor children, and if there are no minor children, to the widow. The husband may dispose of one-half of the common property by will, exclusive of the homestead. The other half of the community property goes to the wife, subject to administration and debts of the husband.

MORTGAGES must be recorded. No mortgage of personal property is valid unless possession is delivered to and retained by the mortgagee, except that growing crops and other personal property may be mortgaged by the execution, acknowledgment and recording of a mortgage instrument without such possession. Mortgages of real estate can only be foreclosed by action for foreclosure.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper includes promises to pay to order, or bearer, without conditions, for a sum certain and at a time certain. No requirement respecting place of payment; but, if place of payment is named, demand should be made before protest at place named. Protest and notice will hold the indorser, and the general statute of limitation, six years, is the limitation of the right of action. Fifteen per cent. damages are allowed on domestic, and twenty per cent. on foreign bills protested. Grace is not allowed on sight drafts.

SUITS. Practice is under a Code, and there is but one form of action, known as a civil action, and commenced by filing complaint with the Clerk of the Court, and the issuance of a summons. Service on non-residents may be had by publication.

TAXES are a lien upon the property assessed and the real estate of the owner thereof from the first Monday of March in each year. Suits for delinquent taxes may be commenced by direction of the County Commissioners, and there is redemption of real estate sold at tax sale in the same manner as realty sold under ordinary execution.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

BANKING LAW.

Banks can be chartered only by a special act of the legislature. Building and Loan Associations may be organized as voluntary associations. Once at least in every year, and as much oftener as the Governor may direct, an examination shall be made into the condition of every bank, Building and Loan Associations and trust companies in the State, and into the management of its affairs, by one of the three Bank Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council. Such Commissioner shall inspect all its books, papers, notes, bonds and other evidences of debt, ascertain the quantity of specie and other money and funds on hand, and make all inquiries necessary to learn its ability to perform all its engagements, and whether it has violated any provision of law. The Commissioners shall, as soon as practicable, and in all cases on or before the 1st day of May, annually, report the result of such examination to the Governor, which report shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. They shall give in their report a detailed statement of all the items of expense of all Savings banks, with the names of the treasurer and clerks, the salary of each, with the kind and amount of stocks and bonds held by each of said Savings banks, with the par value thereof, and the cost and the market value at the date of examination, which report the Secretary of State shall have printed, and copies sent to the Attorney General, each solicitor to each town, and to every member of the legislature. The cashiers of every State bank, and every association or partnership formed for the purpose of loaning money or dealing in money, receiving deposits, buying or selling exchange, or transacting such other business as is usually transacted by banks, shall, on the first Monday of March, June, September and December in each year, make a statement of its condition on said day, specifying in separate columns the capital stock actually paid in; debts due the bank secured by pledge of its stock; value of real estate belonging to the bank; amount of debts due from directors; amount of specie in the vaults; amount of bills of other banks on hand; amount of deposits in the bank; amount on deposit in other banks for the redemption of its bills; and the amount of bills of the bank then in circulation; which statement shall be signed and sworn to by the cashier, and returned to the Secretary of State within ten days. The trustees of Savings banks shall make a thorough examination of the affairs of their respective banks once in every six months, and banks having an average deposit exceeding $500,000, every January, April, July and October; and a report of such examination, signed by a committee of the trustees, shall be returned to the Bank Commissioners, and a copy of the report published in a newspaper published in the place where such bank is established; or, if there be no newspaper in such place, then in a newspaper at the nearest place. Savings banks may invest in any class of securities.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds or other conveyances of real estate must be made before a Justice, Notary Public or Commissioner, or in foreign countries before a Minister or Consul of the United States. The signature of the grantor must be attested by two or more witnesses.

Debtor given a full discharge from all his debts upon the written approval of three-quarters of his creditors in number and amounts, and without such approval upon paying seventy per cent. of his debts.

ATTACHMENTS of all real and personal property may be made on the original writ, and constitute a valid lien on the property for thirty days after judgment, within which period the execution must be levied to preserve and perfect the lien. All attachments take precedence in order of priority, except in case of liens of builders, contractors, etc., when they take precedence in the order of priority of the lien. Trustee process (analogous to garnishment in other States) may be used to reach money or credits of the defendant in the hands of another. Save as against claims for necessaries the wages of the defendant up to $20 are exempt from such process. In actions on contracts where debt exceeds $13.33, defendant may be arrested on affidavit of plaintiff that he (defendant) has concealed his property or is about to leave the State to avoid payment of his debts.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Supreme Court, holding from two to four terms a year in each county, has original jurisdiction of all actions, and full equity powers. There are Probate Courts with the usual jurisdiction in every county, and jurisdiction in cases of assignment. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction up to $13.33, and can render judgment upon confession up to $200. Police Courts have jurisdiction to the amount of $100.

EXECUTIONS may be taken twenty-four hours after judgment, and are returnable before Justice's and Police Courts in sixty days; before Supreme Court, at the next trial term of court. INTEREST. At the rate of six per cent. per annum, unless a lower rate is stipulated. If any person, upon any contract, receives interest at a higher rate than six per cent., he forfeits three times the excess to the person aggrieved and suing therefor; but no contract is invalidated by reason of any stipulation for usurious interest; the money actually advanced may be recovered with legal interest. Interest upon all judgments is at the rate of six per cent. per annum. Interest upon unpaid taxes is at the rate of ten per cent. after the 1st day of December following their assessment, until sale of property taxed, and twelve per cent. thereafter until time of redemption. Upon current accounts interest commences from date of demand for payment, unless controlled by the custom of trade, which is a question of fact to be determined by a trial thereof.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Accounts and simple promissory notes six years after maturity; judgments, sealed instruments, and notes secured by mortgage, twenty years. Time of debtor's absence from the State is excluded. Verbal acknowledgment and promise to pay is sufficient to revive the debt.

MARRIED WOMEN retain all property owned by them before marriage, or acquired afterwards in any way except through property of the husband, to their sole and separate use, as if unmarried. All their contracts in relation to such property are valid and binding, and all their other contracts are binding, except those made with their husbands, or as sureties or guarantors for their husbands, or for and in behalf of their husbands. Upon the death of wife, the husband is entitled to substantially the same share of her estate as she would be of his estate in case of his death. They are liable for debts contracted while single, and their property may be attached to pay them. They are also liable for their torts before marriage in relation to their separate property. The husband is not liable for the wife's ante-nuptial debts, and can not convey his improved real estate so as to bar his wife's right of dower and homestead without her consent. Married women of the age of twenty-one years may dispose of their property by will, but not to affect husbands' rights, nor can they convey so as to deprive the husband of his right.

MORTGAGES must be recorded, or in case of chattel mortgages possession must pass to and remain in the mortgagee. Conditional sales must be evidenced by a memorandum of lien, stating the essential particulars of the sale under oath of both parties, to be recorded in the Town Clerk's office, to render the sale valid as against subsequent attaching creditors or vendees without notice. The law is not applicable to furniture leases.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. No particular form of words necessary to constitute a negotiable promissory note. The words "value received" not essential. Bills of exchange must be absolute as to amount, event, fund and person. No requirements as to place of payment. Demand notes must be protested within sixty days from day of their indorsement to hold indorsers. All negotiable paper, save that payable on demand, is entitled to three days of grace; and all such paper maturing on February 22, May 30 or July 4, or on the following day if either of these days occur on the Sabbath or on Sunday, Thanksgiving, Fast, Christmas Day, election day for members of the Legislature, is due and payable on the next preceding day, not being one of these days, and must be so noted and protested.

NEW JERSEY.

BANKING LAW.

There are no provisions in the constitution as to banks; but the statute provides that any number of persons, not less than seven, citizens of the State, may associate to establish offices of discount, deposit and circulation, on the terms and conditions, and subject to the liabilities prescribed in the act; and said association shall be denominated a "bank" or "banking company;" but the aggregate amount of the capital stock of any such association shall not be less than $50,000, nor more than $2,000,000. The persons so associating shall, under their hands and seals, make a certificate, by the terms of which such association shall be bound, which shall specify the name assumed to distinguish such association; the place where the business is to be carried on; the amount of the capital stock, and the number of shares; the names and places of residence of the shareholders, and the number of shares held by each of them, and the period at which such associations shall commence and terminate, which shall not be for a longer term than twenty years. This certificate shall be proved or acknowledged in the same manner as deeds, and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State and in the Clerk's office of the county where the office of such association shall be established; but it shall not be lawful for any association to locate their office in any other than one of the county towns, or incorporated cities, boroughs, or towns, unless such association shall have first procured the certificate in writing of the Governor and Attorney General, setting forth that some other place proposed by the association is a fit place, and the consent of the Board of Bank Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State, and Attorney-General must first be had and obtained. The legislature may dissolve any company created by virtue of this act. Official examination is made by the Governor, Secretary of State, and Attorney General. The Chancellor may order an examination on application of creditors or stockholders. Banks usually publish a statement; but the act does not seem to require it. They make annual reports to the State Treasurer. Savings banks may invest in United States bonds, bonds of this State; bonds of any State, city or county which has not defaulted on principal or interest within ten years; and in case of city or county, that the total indebtedness is limited to ten per cent. of assessed value. Bonds secured by mortgages, which shall be a first lien on real estate.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds are made within the State before the Chancellor or a Justice of the Supreme Court, a Master in Chancery, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Commissioner of Deeds, Surrogate of County, or Register of Deeds: without the State, before a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, or a District Judge of the same, or a Judge or Justice of the Supreme or Superior Court of the State, District or Territory, or before any Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city, or before a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas or County Court of such State, District or Territory, or Commissioner for New Jersey, or by any officer in some other State in the Union, authorized at the time of such proof or acknowledgment, by the laws of the State wherein the same shall be made or taken, to take the acknowledgment of deeds of lands lying and being in such State. In case the acknowledgment is made before a Mayor or chief magistrate, the certificate must be attested by the seal of the city; if before a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas or County Court, or other officer, it must be attested by seal of such court, and certified by the Clerk of the court. In foreign countries acknowledgment or proof may be made before any court of law, Notary Public, Mayor, or chief magistrate, or any Ambassador, Consul, Consular Agent, or other representative of the United States.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. The insolvent laws provide for the discharge of a person under arrest for debt or damages on his delivering up all his real and personal property to his creditors. Assignments by debtors for the benefit of creditors must be without preference, and all others are void. Debtor must annex sworn inventory. Wages of servants, clerks and laborers up to $300 each are preferred claims. Assignee must file list of creditors at the end of three months, and make dividends at the next term of court. Creditor not presenting claim does not share in the dividend, but retains his right of action against the debtor.

ATTACHMENT. A creditor may attach the property of a non-resident or absconding debtor by making oath to the fact, and to the amount of his claim, before any officer authorized to administer oaths or affirmations. Attachments are for the benefit of all applying creditors. Debts not due may be proved under any attachment issued, and receive their pro rata dividend. No attachment can issue against the members of a copartnership, where one of them resides in the State, nor of the wages of a non-resident employe at the suit of a non-resident creditor. Garnishment can be effected only in attachment cases. Discovery in aid of, where executions have been returned unsatisfied, if the sum due on a judgment amounts to $50 or upwards, the Court out of which said executions issued may, on application of the judgment creditor, make an order compelling the debtor to appear before the officer named and make discovery on oath concerning his property. The judgment creditor shall present to the Court a petition verified by oath in which he shall state the amount due on said execution, the return made, and his belief that the debtor has property in his own right over and above that which is reserved by law. Arrest on a capias can only be had in case of fraud or attempted removal or disposal of property with intent to defraud creditors.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts and Courts of Common Pleas, holding three terms a year in each county, have jurisdiction in all civil cases, but to carry costs must recover at least $100, except that the Court of Common Pleas has no jurisdiction where title to lands comes into question. The Supreme Court, holding three terms a year at Trenton, has also original jurisdiction in all cases, but must recover $200 to carry costs. Court of Chancery has exclusive equity jurisdiction, and sits at Trenton three times a year. Justice's and City District Court jurisdiction, co-extensive with County, $200. The Court of Errors and Appeals has no original jurisdiction, but hears appeals from Court of Chancery, and Prerogative Court, and writs of error from Supreme Court and Circuit Courts.

EXECUTIONS issue immediately upon a rendition of judgment, and are returnable either in term or vacation. A sale under execution, issued upon a junior judgment, discharges the lien of a prior judgment on which no execution has been issued and levy taken. The proceeds are applied to the payment of the execution upon which the sale is had. There is no stay of execution, except on those which are issued out of Justice's Courts. In these courts thirty days are allowed on sums up to $15; three months up to $60, and six months on all sums over $60, by debtor giving good security. There is no redemption after sale in any case.

EXEMPTIONS. The lot and building thereon, owned and occupied by the debtor, being the head of a family, to the value of $1,000, providing that in the debtor's deed it is set out that the property is intended for a homestead, or else that notice to such effect is filed in the County Clerk's office. Personal property to the amount of $200, besides wearing apparel, owned by a resident head of a family, appraised by three persons appointed by the sheriff; and the widow or administrator of a deceased person may claim the same exemption of $200 as against the creditors.

INTEREST. Legal interest on debts and judgments, six per cent. Usury is punishable by forfeiture of all interest and costs. Interest on an open account accrues on each item from its date, as at common law.

JUDGMENTS become a lien on lands from time of actual entry, and so remain for twenty years, unless cut out by an execution issued on a younger judgment, under which a levy is taken. Where there are several judgments, that under which the first levy is taken, takes priority. Judgments recovered or docketed in the Supreme Court, are a lien on all lands of defendant within the State.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Contracts not under seal, six years; real actions and judgments, twenty years; notes secured by mortgage and contracts under seal, sixteen years. Revivor: Part payment or new promise or acknowledgment in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN hold and control their property, real and personal, precisely as if unmarried. But a married woman can not become an accommodation indorser, guarantor, or surety, nor can she convey or incumber real estate without her husband, except she is living in a state of separation from her husband, and there has been no issue of such marriage. A married woman may make a will of her separate estate as if she were sole, but can not defeat her husband's interest in her real estate, although she can make absolute disposition of her own private personal property without regard to her husband. Widow takes dower in one-third of real estate of which her husband was seized at any time during coverture, to which she has signed no deed of release.

MORTGAGES must be under seal, and the wife must join. Foreclosure is by suit in equity. Chattel mortgages, unless accompanied by immediate delivery and followed by continued change of possession of things mortgaged, are absolutely void as against creditors and subsequent bona fide purchasers and mortgagees, unless said mortgage has been acknowledged or proved according to law, and recorded in a book for that purpose. Chattel mortgages must have an affidavit annexed, setting out the interest of the mortgagee, consideration of the mortgage, and the amount due and to grow due thereon; said affidavit to be made by the holder.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Promissory notes, bills of exchange, checks and drafts, are on the same footing. May or may not be payable at fixed place. Due diligence must be used to find the maker, if no place is stated. Inland bills of exchange are, in general, subject to the law of foreign bills; they must be protested. Sight bills or drafts, except those on banking associations, have three days' grace. The action required to hold indorser is the same as under the general mercantile law. Drafts and notes due on a legal holiday are payable the day after such holiday, and notice of non-payment may be given within twenty-four hours later. If the legal holiday should fall upon a Sunday or Monday, bills are payable on Tuesday, and notice may be given on Wednesday. Legal holidays are: January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, first Monday in September (to be known as Labor Day), December 25, Thanksgiving Day, and all days on which a general election for members of Assembly may be held. If any of these days happen on Sunday the holiday is kept Monday.

SUITS are commenced by writs of summons, capias, warrant or attachment. Service by publication may be made in equity only, and in common law courts, in case of a foreign corporation, if service can not be made on officers or agents, directors, clerks or engineers.

TAXES are a lien for two years from the time they become payable, and lands may be sold for taxes delinquent one year. There is a right to redemption for one year after the time of sale.

NEW MEXICO.

BANKING LAW.

An act of the Legislative Assembly provides that any number of persons not less than three may associate to establish a bank; that the capital stock shall be not less than $30,000, of which at least 50 per cent. shall be paid in at once, and the remainder within a year; and that statements shall be sent to the Territorial Treasurer of the condition of the bank on the first Monday in January and July, and be published for three successive weeks in a newspaper. It is provided that the officers and stockholders of every bank formed under the provisions of the act, shall be individually liable for all debts contracted during the term of their being officers or stockholders of such corporation, equally and ratably, to the extent of their respective shares, except that when any stockholder shall sell and transfer his stock, such liability shall cease at the expiration of one year from the date of the transfer. But it is also provided that the stockholders, collectively, of any bank, shall at no time be liable to such bank, either as principal debtors or sureties, or both, to an amount greater than two-fifths of the amount of the capital stock actually paid in and remaining undiminished by losses or otherwise.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds are made, if taken in the Territory, before any Judge or Clerk of a court of record having a seal, or before a Justice of the Peace or Notary Public. If made without the Territory, and within the United States, before any United States court, or any court of any State or Territory having a seal, or before the Clerk or Judge of any such court, the genuineness of the signature and official character of such Judge to be certified to under the seal of his court by the Clerk thereof, or before a Commissioner of Deeds for New Mexico, or before a Notary Public having an official seal or before the clerk of any court of record having a seal.

ASSIGNMENTS. Voluntary general assignments may be made for the benefit of creditors. Deed of assignment, and inventory must be promptly recorded in the county or counties where the assignor or assignors reside. Every sale, mortgage, or assignment made by debtors, and every judgment suffered by any defendant, or any act or device, done or resorted to in contemplation of insolvency or with the view of giving a preference, shall operate as an assignment and transfer of all the real and personal property of the debtor for the general benefit of creditors; but this shall not vitiate or affect any mortgage made in good faith to secure any debt or liability created simultaneously with such mortgage, which must be recorded forthwith. Assignments shall not become operative until the assignee shall have executed a good and sufficient bond. If the assignee shall fail to settle up the estate within twelve months and distribute the same, any creditor may file a bill of complaint and compel settlement, as provided by the act. The assignee shall give notice to all creditors to come in and prove up in the usual manner. First dividend must be declared within thirty days, and as often thereafter as five per cent can be paid, after deducting accrued expenses. Previous exemptions under the law are reserved and maintained.

ATTACHMENTS. Creditors whose demands amount to fifty dollars or more may sue debtors by attachment, issued out of District Court; when debtor is non-resident of the Territory; when debtor has concealed himself or absconded, or absented himself from his usual place of abode, so that ordinary process of law can not be served upon him; when debtor is about to remove his property out of the Territory, or is fraudulently concealing or disposing, or has concealed or disposed of the same; when debt is contracted out of Territory and property secretly moved into the Territory; when defendant is a corporation, whose office is out of Territory and not having agent in Territory, upon whom to serve process; when debt was fraudulently contracted or credit obtained by false pretenses. Attachment will also lie upon actions founded upon a tort. Money or property due the defendant, and held by others, may be collected by garnishment. Attachment may issue upon a claim or demand not matured. A capias will issue on affidavit that defendant is about to abscond. Plaintiff must furnish bond as in case of attachment.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. District Courts hold two terms a year in all the counties, and have unlimited common law and chancery jurisdiction. There are Probate Courts with the usual powers, holding six terms a year. Justice's jurisdiction, $100.

EXECUTIONS may issue at any time within five years from rendition of judgment, and to any county in the Territory. From District Courts are returnable in sixty days from delivery to Sheriff, and from Justice's Courts in thirty days from date of issue. No stay of execution except by appeal. A writ of error will stay execution of a judgment in District Court, if such writ is applied for within three months from date of rendition of judgment and bond is given for double the amount of such judgment. The Supreme Court may assess ten per cent. damages where appeal is taken without reasonable cause. Real estate sold under execution, and subject to liens and incumbrances, may be redeemed within one year.

EXEMPTIONS. Real estate up to $1,000, where debtor is head of family. Bedsteads and all necessary to use of same; one cook stove and pipe, one stove and pipe for warming dwelling; and sixty days' fuel. One cow, or household furniture $40 in value; two swine or pork thereof, or, in lieu, household furniture $15 in value: six sheep or their wool, or the cloth thereof, or, in lieu thereof, household furniture $20 in value; and sixty days' food for animals. Religious and school and secular books and family pictures. Provisions, value $50, and additional household furniture, value $200. One sewing machine, one knitting machine, one gun or pistol, and tools of the trade or occupation of the debtor $50. The personal earnings of the debtor, and of his or her minor children, for three months. All specimens and cabinets of natural history. Business draymen or wagoners, one horse and wagon for a living, in addition to foregoing. If debtor, head of family, is in agriculture, then two horses, or one yoke of cattle, and one wagon and harness; and if in practice of medicine, one horse, saddle and bridle, books and instruments, $100 value; all in addition to exemptions in previous sections. Any resident not owning homestead may select real or personal property, value $500, in lieu thereof, in addition to all the previously stated exemptions. Unmarried women—wearing apparel $50 in value, one sewing machine, one knitting machine, religious and other books $50, and if teacher of music, piano or organ. Lawyer (being head of family), books of his profession, $500. Mutual benefit funds, paid or set aside for debtor under rules, $5,000, and all previous exemptions. Homestead liable for purchase money or mortgage thereon. Property of benevolent societies, and property for extinguishing fires.

INTEREST. It is unlawful to charge, collect or receive a higher rate of interest than twelve per cent. per annum. Where no rate is expressed, then the law allows six per cent. per annum. All open running accounts bear six per cent. from six months after the date of delivery of last article. Judgments bear six per cent. per annum when no other rate is expressed; but the same rate of interest as the obligation or contract sued on when so expressed in the judgment; but no judgment will bear more than twelve per cent. per annum. Usury is punishable as a misdemeanor, and the party also forfeits double the amount of interest collected.

JUDGMENTS are a lien on real estate within the county from date of docketing, and may be extended to other counties by filing transcript with the Clerk of the Probate Court. Judgments also become a lien on live stock ranging at large, when it would be impossible and impracticable for Sheriff to round up, upon his filing with Clerk of Probate Court in the counties where such live stock is ranging, a certified copy of execution.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Ten years' adverse possession of lands under color of title bars all actions. Infants, femes covert, persons of unsound mind, imprisoned, or beyond the limits of the United States, are not within this statute. All other actions must be brought as follows: Upon judgments of courts of record within fifteen years; on bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, or other contracts in writing, and upon judgments of any court not of record, within six years; on open accounts and unwritten contracts, injuries to property, conversion of personal property, relief on account of fraud, within four years; against sureties on official bonds, and against sheriffs and public officers, within two years. Actions of replevin must be brought within one year after right of action accrued. Accounts against the estate of deceased persons must be presented within one year after the death of deceased, and no action can be commenced after two years.

MARRIED WOMEN retain the separate property which they inherit. They can also hold property of all descriptions free from liability of their husbands.

MORTGAGES. All deeds, mortgages, United States patents, and other writings affecting the title to real estate, shall be recorded, to give validity, in the office of the probate clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate affected thereby is situated. All personal property except growing crops may be mortgaged. Instrument or a true copy thereof must be recorded, and must be renewed within thirty days of the expiration of one year by mortgagee's affidavit showing interest in mortgagee. That hereafter all chattel mortgages, or other instruments of writing having the effect of a mortgage or a lien upon personal property, shall be acknowledged by the owner or mortgagor and recorded in the same manner as conveyances affecting real estate. Upon the receipt of such instrument the recorder shall indorse on the back thereof the time of receiving it and when recorded; the party in whose favor the mortgage is executed shall have the right to withdraw the same. The recorder shall keep a book, properly indexed, in which shall be recorded affidavits of renewal of chattel mortgages, and shall indorse on the back thereof the time of filing the same, and shall refer on the margin of the record of the same to the book and page in which the mortgage is recorded which the affidavit is intended to renew, when such mortgage is acknowledged and recorded in the manner herein prescribed, or when such affidavit of renewal is recorded as herein required, and it shall be shown to the Court by the oath or affidavit of the party wishing to use the same (or either of them), or any one knowing the fact that such mortgage or affidavit is lost or not in the possession of the party wishing to use the same, or either of them; the record thereof or the transcript of such record certified by the recorder under the seal of his office may be received in evidence without further proof.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. In absence of any designated place of payment the common law prevails. Any promissory note, or order for the payment of money at some future time, which by its terms becomes due and payable on Sunday or on any legal holiday, shall be construed to fall due and become payable on the next business day thereafter; and for the purpose of this act, the fourth day of July, the twenty-fifth day of December (Christmas), the first day of January (New Year's Day), and all days designated by public proclamation of the Governor as fast days or thanksgiving days, shall be deemed legal holidays.

SUITS. All transitory actions must be brought in the county where the plaintiff or defendant resides, or where the contract is to be performed, or the cause of action originated, or in any county where defendant may be found within the judicial district in which he has his residence. Suits resulting from damage to sheep herds on public domain, or injuring or killing any person in charge of the same, may be brought in any county of the Judicial District in which the cause of action occurs. Suits to recover real estate must be brought in the county where such real estate or any portion thereof is situate. Actions against non-residents or transient persons may be brought in any county.

NEW YORK.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution provides (Article VIII., Section 4), that the legislature shall have no power to pass any act granting any special charter for banking purposes; but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws. Chapter 409, Laws of 1882, entitled "An Act to revise the statutes of the State relating to banks, banking and trust companies," provides a complete plan for the organization of the banking department, whose chief officer is denominated the "superintendent of the banking department." The act contains 328 sections, and covers the subject matter of banks and banking in the State. Under it banks may be organized with a capital of not less than $100,000, though in places of not more than 30,000 inhabitants a minimum capital of $50,000; and in places of not more than 6,000 inhabitants, a minimum capital of $25,000 is permitted. In addition to the deposit required to secure the circulating notes, a deposit of $1,000, as a pledge of good faith and guaranty of compliance with the banking laws, is required to be made in the department, and the Superintendent is authorized to apply the same or any part thereof in payment of any penalty incurred by or assessment imposed on the bank or bankers making the deposit.

Circulation and the deposit of security therefor is provided for in the act. The State constitution provides that stockholders in banks issuing bank notes shall be liable to the amount of their respective shares for all debts and liabilities; and also that bill holders, in case of insolvency, shall be entitled to a preference in payment over all other creditors of the bank. Quarterly reports are required to be made to the Superintendent on the first day of February, May, August and November, and such reports are to be published in the newspapers. The Superintendent makes an annual report to the legislature. It is made the duty of the Superintendent, in his discretion, if he shall deem it proper, to personally examine the books, etc., of any bank, or he may designate some competent person to make the examination. The examiner is authorized to administer oaths, and may summon persons and examine them on oath. Willful false swearing is perjury. (As amended by Chapter 47, Laws 1884.) The act (Chapter 409, Laws 1882) referred to also provides for the organization and management of SAVINGS BANKS.—Supervision over these is given to the State banking department. Each savings bank is to be examined at least once in every two years by the department. Interest-drawing deposits are limited to $3,000 (excepting as to deposits arising from judicial sales, or trust funds).

The following is an abstract from the law relative to investments, as amended by Chapter 373 of the Laws of 1888:

SEC. 260. It shall be lawful for the trustees of any Savings bank to invest the moneys deposited therein only as follows:

1. In the stocks or bonds, or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith of the United States is pledged to provide for the payment of the interest and principal, including the bonds of the District of Columbia, commonly known as the Three-sixty-five Bonds.

2. In the stocks or bonds or interest bearing obligations issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State.

3. In the stocks or bonds of any State in the Union that has not, within ten years previous to making such investment by such corporation, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any debt authorized by any legislature of such State to be contracted.

4. In the stocks or bonds of any city, county, town or village, school district bonds, "and union free school district bonds issued for school purposes," or in the interest bearing obligations of any city or county of this State, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State.

5. In bonds and mortgages on unincumbered real estate situate in this State, and worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon, but not to exceed sixty per centum of the whole amount of deposits, shall be so loaned or invested; but in case the loan is on unimproved and unproductive real estate, the amount loaned thereon shall not be more than forty per centum of its actual value; and no investment in any bond and mortgage shall be made by any savings bank, except upon the report of a committee of its trustees charged with the duty of investigating the same, and who shall certify to the value of the premises mortgaged or to be mortgaged, according to their best judgment, and such report shall be filed and preserved among the records of the institution.

6. In real estate, subject to the provisions of Section 263 of this act. (This section limits the holding of real estate: 1. To a banking house, at a cost not over 50 per cent. of the surplus. 2. Real estate purchased at foreclosure of its mortgages.)

SEC. 261. It shall be the duty of the trustees of any such corporation, as soon as practicable, to invest the moneys deposited with them in the securities named in the last preceding section of this act, except that, for the purpose of meeting current payments and expenses in excess of the receipts, there may be kept an available fund of not exceeding ten per centum of the whole amount of deposits with such corporation, and the same may be kept on hand, or on deposit in any bank or banking association in the State of New York, organized under any law or laws of this State, or of the United States, or with any trust company incorporated by any law of this State, but the sum so deposited in any one bank or trust company shall not exceed twenty-five per cent. of the paid-up capital and surplus of such bank or trust company; or such available fund, or any part thereof, may be loaned upon pledge of the securities, or any of them, named in subdivisions one, two, three and four of the last preceding section of this act, but not in excess of ninety per centum of the cash market value of such securities so pledged; and, should any of the securities so held in pledge depreciate in value, after making any loan thereon, it shall be the duty of the trustees to require the immediate payment of such loan, or of a part thereof, or additional security therefor, so that the amount loaned shall at no time exceed ninety per centum of the market value of the securities pledged for the same.

Accounts which have been dormant for twenty-two years and upwards, in Savings Banks, defined as accounts which have not been increased or diminished by deposits or withdrawals, exclusive of interest credits, must be reported to the Banking department annually, which is to keep an index of the names of such depositors. The sum to the credit of such dormant accounts are not required to be stated. (Chapter 414, Laws of 1889.)

Trust Funds. By Chapter 65, of the Laws of 1889, executors, administrators, guardians and trustees and others holding trust funds for investment may invest the funds so held by them, in bonds or stocks of any of the States, issued pursuant to the authority of any Law of the State.

Note.—The Attorney General has decided that savings banks may not lawfully invest their deposits in the bonds of the State of Georgia; default having been made by that State in payment of interest on its guaranteed bonds of the Brunswick & Albany Railroad.

The question having been presented to the Attorney General, as to the bonds of the States of Missouri and Indiana, he decided that savings banks might invest in the bonds of those States.

Banks may change their corporate name and corporate location by an application to the Supreme Court. (Chapters 517 and 518, Laws of 1887.)

COMMERCIAL LAW.

Acknowledgments must be made within the State, before a Judge of a court of record, Surrogate, Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, Mayor, Recorder or Commissioner of Deeds. (No special form, separate and apart from her husband, etc., now required for married women.) If made without the State, they may be taken by Judges of United States Courts, Judges of the Supreme, Circuit or Superior Court of any other State or Territory, within the jurisdiction of their courts; by the Mayor of any city, or by a New York Commissioner. When made by any person residing out of the State, and within any other State or Territory, they may be taken before any officer of such State or Territory authorized by its laws to take acknowledgments.

Arrest. A debtor may be arrested in certain classes of civil actions, among which is an action to recover for fraud in contracting the debt, or where the debtor has disposed or is about to dispose of his property, with intent to defraud his creditors

Assignments and Insolvency. Statutory provisions exist, regulating the making of general assignments in trust, for the benefit of creditors: Preferences are allowed for the wages or salaries of employés, and to the amount of one third in value of the assigned estate after deducting such wages or salaries and the costs and expenses of executing the trust. (Chapter 503, Laws of 1887); also, regulating the filing of inventory, the giving of bonds and accounting by the assignee. The court has power to remove assignees, and may require creditors to present claims within a period to be prescribed, notice whereof is to be given by advertisement, etc.

Attachments may issue in actions for damages for breach of contract, wrongful conversion of personal property, or injury thereto caused by negligence or fraud, or where defendant is non-resident or has left the State, or conceals himself to avoid service, or has sold, assigned, secreted or is about to sell, assign, or secrete his property with intent to defraud creditors. Bonds are to be given on the procurement of attachments.

Courts. Terms and Jurisdiction. The Supreme Court has unlimited jurisdiction. The Court of Common Pleas and the Superior Court of the City of New York, the City Court of Brooklyn, and the Superior Court of Buffalo, have jurisdiction to an unlimited amount where the defendant resides within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, or is served with the summons therein, or where the cause of action arose therein. The jurisdiction of the New York Marine Court is limited to $2,000, except in certain actions upon bonds, etc. There is a County Court for each county, having jurisdiction to the amount of $1,000, in actions where the defendant is, or if there is more than one, where all of the defendants are, residents of the county. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction in actions on contract where the sum claimed does not exceed $200, and District Courts of the City of New York, where the sum does not exceed $250, and the City Court of the City of Albany, where the sum does not exceed $500.

Deeds. The legislature has provided for short forms of deeds and mortgages. A schedule of authorized forms is appended to the Act. (See Chap. 475, Laws of 1890.)

Executions will issue at any time within five years from date of judgment; after five years, leave must be obtained from the Court. Executions may issue to two or more counties at the same time. There are no stay laws, unless an appeal is taken, when an undertaking securing the judgment can be given. On a judgment, in any case, after execution is returned unsatisfied, defendant and others may be examined as to the judgment debtor's property in proceedings supplementary to execution, and required to apply any not exempt in payment. In certain cases a debtor may be imprisoned on execution; provision is made for the giving of bail to remain within the jail limits. The debtor may be discharged upon making assignment of his property (if debt is $500 or over, only after three months' imprisonment).

Exemptions. Homestead, $1,000 (to secure such exemption, deed, or notice designating that the property is to be used as a homestead, must be recorded); necessary furniture, tools, team, etc., $250. Even in supplementary proceedings, the judgment debtor can not be ordered to apply upon the judgment his earnings for his personal services within sixty days preceding the order, if such earnings are necessary for the support of a family wholly or partly supported by his labor.

False Pretenses. A purchase of property by means of a false pretense is not criminal, where the false pretense relates to the purchaser's means or ability to pay, unless the pretense is made in writing, and signed by the party to be charged.

Interest. The legal rate of interest (which was formerly, until January 1, 1880, seven per cent.) is fixed at six per cent. All notes, bonds, contracts, securities, etc., whereby a greater rate is reserved, or taken, or agreed for, are absolutely void, and the lender can recover neither principal nor interest in such cases, but corporations can not plead usury as a defense. Usury is also punishable as a misdemeanor by fine or imprisonment, or both. State banks have been placed on the same footing as National banks as regards usury, and are thereby exempt from the extreme penalties mentioned above. By chapter 237, Laws of 1882, on demand loans of $5,000 and over, made with warehouse receipts, bills of lading, certificates of stock, certificates of deposit, bills of exchange, bonds, or other negotiable instruments, pledged as collateral, it is lawful to receive and collect, as compensation for making such advances, any sum, to be agreed upon in writing by the parties to the transaction.

Limitations of Suits. Contracts, express or implied, except those under seal, six years; recovery of real estate upon judgments of courts of record and sealed instruments, twenty years. Revivor: Part payment or new promise in writing.

Married Women can take, hold, mortgage and convey real and personal property. A married woman may contract to the same extent, with like effect, and in the same form as if unmarried, and she and her separate estate shall be liable thereon, whether the contract relates to her separate estate or otherwise, and in no case shall a charge upon her separate estate be necessary. This act shall not affect nor apply to any contract that shall be made between husband and wife. (Chap. 381, Laws 1884.) A married woman can convey real estate directly to her husband, and the husband can convey directly to his wife. Widows have right of dower.

Mortgages must be executed and recorded same as deeds. Where containing a power of sale, may be foreclosed by an action brought for the purpose, or without intervention of court (by advertisement). There is no redemption under a mortgage sale. Chattel mortgages, except where the possession of the property mortgaged passes to, and is retained by, the mortgagee, must be filed forthwith, or are void as against creditors and innocent purchasers. Such mortgage ceases to be valid in one year, except as to the mortgageor or his representatives, unless a copy thereof is re-filed annually with a certificate of the mortgagee as to the amount unpaid thereon, and this copy, mortgage and certificate constitutes a renewal of the mortgage for one year.

Notes and Bills of Exchange. Commercial paper is not defined by statute. It is not necessary that paper should be made payable at a bank or any fixed place. Bills of exchange (foreign), drafts, checks, and promissory notes payable to bearer, the maker or his order, or the order of any third party, are negotiable. Bills of exchange or drafts drawn payable at sight at any place within the State, are made due at presentation, without grace. Checks, bills of exchange or drafts, drawn on banks or bankers, and which are payable on a specified day, or in any number of days after the date or sight thereof, are payable without grace, and it is not necessary to protest the same for non-acceptance. (The Courts have decided that grace is not abolished on bills payable a specified number of months after date.) If not paid when due they may be protested, and the certificate of protest is prima facie evidence of presentation and non-payment. To charge indorser, notice of non-payment must at once be given to him. Chapter 289, Laws of 1887, as to acceptance and payment of checks and notes provides: § 1. The following days, and half days, namely: The first day of January, commonly called New Years Day; the twenty-second day of February, known as Washington's birthday; the thirtieth day of May, known as Decoration Day; the fourth day of July, called Independence Day; the first Monday of September, to be known hereafter as Labor Day; the twenty-fifth day of December, known as Christmas Day; any general election day in this State; every Saturday, from twelve o'clock at noon until twelve o'clock at midnight, which is hereby designated a half-holiday; and any day appointed or recommended by the Governor of this State or the President of the United States as a day of thanksgiving, or fasting and prayer or other religious observance, shall, for all purposes whatever, as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance and of the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, bank checks and promissory notes, made after the passage of this act, be treated and considered as the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, and as public holidays or half-holiday; and all such bills, checks, and notes otherwise presentable for acceptance or payment on any of the said days, shall be deemed to be payable and be presentable for acceptance or payment on the secular or business day next succeeding such holiday; but in the case of a half-holiday, shall be presentable for acceptance or payment at or before twelve o'clock noon of that day. Provided however, that for the purpose of protesting or otherwise holding liable any party to any bill of exchange, check or promissory note, and which shall not have been paid before twelve o'clock at noon on any Saturday, a demand of acceptance or payment thereof may be made and notice of protest or dishonor thereof may be given on the next succeeding secular or business day. And provided further, that when any person shall receive for collection any check, bill of exchange or promissory note due and presentable for acceptance or payment on any Saturday, such person shall not be deemed guilty of any neglect or omission of duty, nor incur any liability in not presenting for payment or acceptance or collecting such check, bill of exchange or promissory note on that day. And provided further, that in construing this section every Saturday unless a whole holiday as aforesaid, shall until twelve o'clock noon be deemed a secular or business day. And the days and half days aforesaid shall be considered as the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday and as public holidays or half-holidays, for all purposes whatsoever as regards the transaction of business in the public offices of this State or counties of this State. On all other days or half days, excepting Sundays, such offices shall be kept open for the transaction of business. § 2. Whenever the first day of January, the twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, or the twenty-fifth day of December shall fall upon Sunday, the Monday next following shall be deemed a public holiday for all or any of the purposes aforesaid; provided, however, that in such case all bills of exchange, checks and promissory notes made after the passage of this act which would otherwise be presentable for acceptance or payment on the said Monday shall be deemed to be presentable for acceptance or payment on the secular or business day next succeeding such holiday. Chapter 461, Laws of 1887, provides as follows: § 1. All bills of exchange and promissory notes made after the passage of this act, except those payable at sight or on demand, which shall be otherwise payable on any half holiday Saturday, shall be deemed to be and shall be payable on the next succeeding secular or business day. § 2. All bills of exchange which by terms thereof shall be payable on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, shall be deemed to be and shall be payable on the next succeeding secular or business day. The Governor in issuing a proclamation for days of thanksgiving, fasting and prayer, may in his discretion, limit or restrict the effect and operation to any city or county to be designated in the proclamation. Laws 1889, Chapter 198.

SUITS in civil actions must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except that an executor, administrator, trustee of an express trust, or person specially authorized by statute, may sue in his own name. A married woman can now sue and be sued in an action in tort without joining her husband. (Chap. 51, Laws of 1890.) The practice is under a Code, known as the "Code of Civil Procedure."

TAXES. Lands may be sold for taxes when two years delinquent. Publication of sale is made for twelve weeks in the county paper, and two years after sale are allowed for redemption, the owner having the right to redeem by paying the purchase money and interest at ten per cent. per annum. A mortgagee (where the instrument is duly recorded) has a similar right of redemption and upon filing a notice of his mortgage, its date, record etc., with the Comptroller, is entitled to notice before the tax title can cut off his mortgage. Special provisions for sales of lands for taxes exist in several cities and counties. In cities, assessments for local improvements may be enforced, by sales of the houses and lots assessed.

NORTH CAROLINA.

BANKING LAW.

Trustees, guardians, etc., are not relieved from liability by bank charters permitting deposits. Laws of 1889, Chapter 470.

All banking institutions incorporated under the laws of the State, may receive and pay out the lawful currency of this State or of any of the States of the United States, deal in exchange, gold and silver coin, bullion, uncurrent paper, bonds and stocks, and public or other securities, manufactured goods, cotton or other products of the country; may purchase and hold real estate for the transaction of business, or such as may be conveyed to secure debts to said banks, or for other purposes, and may sell and convey the same; and may also hold such personal property as may be conveyed to secure debts, or acquired for other purposes, and at pleasure sell or exchange the same; may discount notes, and other evidences of debts, and lend money at the legal rate of interest of this State, which interest may be taken in advance at the time of loan in discount. It may receive on deposit moneys on terms to be agreed on between the officers and depositors, not exceeding the rate allowed by law. The bank may also receive on deposit moneys held in trust by administrator, executor, guardians and others, may issue certificates of deposit bearing interest not exceeding the legal rates. Bills, notes, certified checks, or other obligations, when signed by the proper officers of the bank, shall be as binding as if under the seal of the bank; those payable to order shall be assignable by indorsement, and those payable to bearer shall be negotiable and payable by delivery only. Savings banks may be organized under the "General Corporation Law," and the investments of said banks are regulated by statute. Acts 1887, ch. 412. There are no laws restricting the class of bonds Savings banks may invest in. Banking corporations can not be formed under the "General Corporation Law," but must apply to the legislature for their charters.

All joint stock companies organized under the laws of the State, for the purpose of conducting a banking business, and all private banks and bankers that solicit or receive deposits, are required to make to the State Treasurer statements of their financial condition at such times as National banks are required to make statements to the Comptroller of the Currency. Statements are to be published as in case of National banks, and shall be made in accordance with the form to be prescribed by the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer is required to appoint some one to make special examination, in person, into the condition of such institutions annually, at a time unknown to any person except the State Treasurer and the Examiner, and report same to him. Expenses of examination to be borne by the bank examined. The statements required by this Act are to be certified under oath by the President or Cashier of the bank, and attested by at least three of the Directors of said bank. Heavy penalties are prescribed for failure of bank or banker to comply with the Act, and notice of the default is to be published by the State Treasurer. Any officer knowingly making false statement is guilty of felony. Laws of 1889, Chapter 453.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS may be taken within the State by any Judge or Clerk of a court of record, or any Justice of the Peace or Notary Public. In other States by any Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State, and Clerks of courts of record in such States, and in foreign countries by a Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, of any Minister, Consul or Commercial Agent of the United States.

ARREST AND BAIL. Defendant may be arrested in a civil action in the following cases: 1. In an action arising on contract where defendant is a non-resident of the State, or is about to remove therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, and in an action for the recovery of damages on a cause of action not arising out of contract, where the action is for injury to person or character, or for wrongfully taking, detaining or converting property. 2. In an action for a fine or penalty, or for money received, or for property embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, by a public officer or by an attorney, solicitor or counselor, or by an officer or agent of a corporation or banking association, in the course of his employment as such, or by any factor, agent, broker, or other person in a fiduciary capacity; or for any misconduct or neglect in office, or in a professional employment. 3. In an action to recover the possession of personal property unjustly detained, where the property, or any part thereof, has been concealed, removed or disposed of, so that it can not be found or taken by the sheriff, and with the intent that it should not be so found or taken; or with the intent to deprive the plaintiff of the benefit thereof. 4. When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property for the taking, detention or conversion of which the action is brought; or when the action is brought to recover damages for fraud or deceit. 5. When the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors. Provisions of the act do not apply to proceedings for contempt, and no female shall be arrested in any action, except for willful injury to person, character or property. Defendant arrested is at any time, before judgment, entitled to a jury trial on motion to vacate order of arrest. Laws of 1889, Chap. 497.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. An insolvent debtor may be discharged by filing petition and making assignment of property to a trustee for benefit of all creditors. But his subsequently acquired property (not exempt) is liable for the satisfaction of his debts. No creditor not having received notice is bound by the discharge. Any creditor may suggest fraud, and on fraud or concealment being found by jury, judgment will be that debtor be imprisoned until a full and fair disclosure of all his money, property or effects be made. Voluntary assignments are only good against creditors from registration. A debtor may in an assignment prefer one creditor to another.

ATTACHMENT process may issue against the property of a non-resident debtor, or one who has departed from the State to defraud his creditors or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent; or against a foreign corporation, or if such person or corporation has removed, or is about to remove, any of his or its property from this State with intent to defraud his or its creditors, or has assigned, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete any of his or its property with the like intent, whether such debtor is a resident of this State or not. The creditor procuring warrant of attachment must, within ten days, file affidavits in the Clerk's office, or before a Justice of the Peace, if the warrant is taken out in his court, stating the grounds on which the warrant of attachment is asked. The creditor is also required to give good bond and security for costs and damages in case the proceeding by attachment is wrongful or oppressive. Garnishee process is not known under the statute. In actions arising on contract for recovery of money only, or in an action for the wrongful conversion of personal property, attachment process may issue at the time or after the issuing of the summons. Service of summons must be made personally or commenced by publication within thirty days after obtaining warrant of attachment. Within thirty days after obtaining such warrant from a Justice of the Peace, plaintiff shall cause publication thereof to be made for four successive weeks.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Superior Court, holding at least two terms a year in each county, has exclusive original jurisdiction in all civil actions involving over $200. In some counties eight terms a year are held, but only one-half of them are appearance terms. The Clerk of the Superior Court is Judge of Probate. Justice's jurisdiction, $200.

EXECUTIONS from Superior Court may issue immediately after the term at which judgment was rendered, and are returnable at the next term. Issue as of course at any time within three years after rendition of judgment; after three years have elapsed, issue only upon notice and leave obtained. From Justice's Courts they issue at once; returnable in sixty days. Stay of execution is granted as follows: Under $25, one month; $25 to $50, three months; $50 to $100, four months; above $100, six months. There is no redemption on property sold on execution or mortgage. Notice of sale of real estate under execution to be posted at four public places, including Court House, and advertisement to be made in county newspaper.

EXEMPTION. Every homestead, and dwellings and buildings used therewith, not exceeding in value $1,000, to be selected by the owner thereof; or in lieu thereof, at the option of the owner, any lot in any city, town or village, with the dwellings used thereon, owned and occupied by any resident of the State, and not exceeding the value of $1,000. Personal property of the value of $500. This law does not apply to debts contracted prior to August 20, 1868, or to taxes, payment of purchase money or laborers' or mechanics' lien. The exemptions allowed when debt was contracted prior to August 20, 1868, are those that were in force at the time the debt was contracted.

INTEREST. Six per cent. is the prescribed usual rate. Eight per cent. may be stipulated for in writing. Rate on judgments and open accounts, six per cent., unless parties contract for higher rate up to eight per cent., which they may do. Taking—knowingly—a greater rate of interest, is forfeiture of the entire interest, and in case a greater rate has been paid, the person who has paid it, or his legal representatives, may recover back, in an action in the nature of an action of debt, twice the amount of interest paid. Interest, if not paid when due, bears simple interest—"starts on a career of its own," i. e., when a time for payment of interest is specified, as, for instance, annually.

JUDGMENTS in the Superior Court are a lien from the time they are docketed, on all real property of defendant within the county, and can be transferred to other counties by filing transcript. Judgments from Justices' Courts are not a lien until levy is made. Lien continues ten years from time of docketing. Justice Court and Supreme Court judgments may be made judgments of the Superior Court in all respects by docketing them in said court. Judgments and decrees of United States Circuit and District Courts may be docketed in Superior Courts for purpose of creating liens. Laws of 1889, Chapter 439.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Actions on accounts and contracts not under seal must be commenced in three years, and on a note under seal must be commenced within ten years, or the statute of limitation may be pleaded against recovery. In cases of fraud or mistake cause of action does not accrue until the discovery by the aggrieved party of the facts constituting such fraud or mistake. Revivor: Part payment or new promise in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN retain their real and personal property acquired before or after marriage, as their separate estate, not liable for the debts or obligations of their husbands. But no woman under coverture, unless she be a free trader, can make a binding contract, except for her necessary personal expenses, or for the support of the family, or for such as may be necessary in order to pay her debts existing before marriage, without the written consent of her husband. Widow's dower is one-third in value of all the lands and real estate of which her husband was seized during her coverture. Statute also allows widow a "year's allowance" out of the personal property of the husband.

MORTGAGES must be registered within the county to be valid as against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration. Mortgages are foreclosed by action, except when a power of sale is given. Chattel mortgages and lien bonds must be registered. All conditional sales of personal property in which title is retained by bargainor must be reduced to writing, and registered in same manner and with same legal effect as chattel mortgages. After December 1st, 1885, absolute deeds are only good against creditors or purchasers from registration. Title does not pass if purchaser has notice of prior unregistered deed. In all mortgage sales under power of sale in mortgage deed, notice of sale must be posted at Court House door. Laws of 1889, Chapter 70.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. There is no statute defining commercial paper. Bills of exchange and promissory notes are what are known as "commercial paper." There is no fixed place of payment, unless parties fix it in the instrument itself. If this is not done by the parties, the old rule prevails that the debtor must seek the creditor, though in practice the exact reverse obtains. Grace is allowed on all drafts except those payable on demand. All bills and notes bear interest from maturity, unless otherwise stipulated. An indorser of a note is deemed a surety, and no demand on the maker is necessary before commencing suit against surety or indorser; but this does not apply to bills of exchange. Where a bill is drawn or indorsed in this State upon any person or corporation in any other of the United States or any of the Territories and is protested, it shall bear damages; viz., three per cent. on the principal sum. A bill or note may be protested by a Notary Public, Justice of the Peace or Clerk of a court of record. Bills of exchange and promissory notes—both those under seal and those not—are negotiable; and all notes and bonds with more than one obligor are by statute joint and several. To charge indorser of bill of exchange, notice of non-payment must be given him. The 1st of January, 22d of February, 10th of May, 20th of May, 4th of July, the day appointed by the Governor as Thanksgiving Day, and the 25th of December of each and every year, are public holidays. Whenever such holiday falls upon Sunday the Monday following shall be a public holiday. Papers falling due on Sunday or any of the above holidays are due the day before. If a holiday falls on Sunday, papers falling due on that day are due on preceding Saturday, and those which would otherwise be due on Monday are payable on the Tuesday thereafter. Whenever either of these holidays falls on Saturday, papers due on Sunday following are payable on the Monday succeeding, and whenever either of them shall fall on Monday, the papers which should otherwise be payable on that day shall be payable on the Tuesday succeeding.

SUITS. Process in court must be served ten days before first day of term. The action is commenced by issuing a summons and filing a complaint in the Clerk's office. Actions before Justices are commenced by issuing summons to be served on the debtor, which is made returnable at some time and place within the county to be designated by the Justice. Judgment can usually be obtained in two days. Complaint must be filed in courts of record within the first three days of term, and answer or demurrer within the term to which the summons is returnable. Pleadings before a Justice may be either oral or written. Practice is under a Code known as the "Code of Civil Procedure."

TAXES. The Act of 1879 provides that the tax list shall constitute a lien from June 1, of each year. Sales for delinquent taxes are made after notice given. Delinquent may remain on the land one year, and may redeem within that time by paying the amount bid by the purchaser and interest thereon at the rate of twenty per centum per annum from the date of purchase. When land is sold for taxes Sheriff gives purchaser a certificate, which is assignable, and may be foreclosed as a mortgage, provided foreclosure proceedings are begun within two years. Purchaser can also demand a deed after one year from sale day.

LOANS ON STOCK. No bank acting under this act shall make any advances on its own stock, nor shall it purchase any, or hold any shares, unless absolutely necessary to prevent loss by a debt previously contracted.

THE BANK EXAMINER. The bank examiner is to be known as the Public Examiner of North Dakota. Act approved February 20, 1890.

OHIO.

BANKING LAW.

The question of State banking is of very little importance in this State, although it occupies fifty-two pages of the Revised Statutes, pages 1833 to 1886. There are provisions for a "State bank" and branches, "independent banking companies" and "free banking." The Revised Statutes, Section 3817-18, provide: "Every banking institution or corporation engaged in the business of banking, organized under the laws of this State, shall make a report to the Auditor of the State, showing the condition at the opening of business on the first Monday of April and October of each year. The report must be verified by oath or affirmation of the officers, and published in a newspaper. There is no examiner for the State banks. Article XIII., Section 7, of the constitution, says: "No act of the General Assembly authorizing associations with banking powers shall take effect until it shall be submitted to the people at the general election next succeeding the passage thereof, and be approved by a majority of all the electors voting at such election."

Savings and loan associations may invest their funds in the purchase of stocks, bonds, or other evidences of the indebtedness of the United States, stocks and bonds of the State of Ohio, bonds of any municipal corporation of this State, or school bonds of any municipal corporation, special school district, or body politic in this State, issued pursuant to law, to such an amount as may be deemed proper; or in bonds issued by County Commissioners within this State in pursuance of law; or the stocks or bonds of any State of the United States that has for five years, immediately preceding such investment, paid the interest on its bonded debt in lawful money of the United States; but no such association shall at any time have an investment of a greater amount than one-tenth of its paid-in capital in either of the last two named securities; or in bonds or notes secured by mortgages on incumbered real estate situate in the county where the association is located, or in an adjoining county in this State, worth, exclusive of buildings, at least double the amount loaned thereon.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. A deed, mortgage, or lease of any estate or interest in real property, shall be signed by the grantor, mortgagor, or lessor, and such signing shall be acknowledged by the grantor, mortgagor, or lessor in the presence of two witnesses, who shall attest the signing and subscribe their names to the attestation, and such signing shall also be acknowledged by the grantor, mortgagor, or lessor before a Judge of a court of record in this State, or a Clerk thereof, a County Auditor, County Surveyor, Notary Public, Mayor, or Justice of the Peace, who shall certify the acknowledgment on the same sheet on which the instrument is written or printed, and subscribe his name thereto. When executed, acknowledged and proved out of this State, in accordance with the laws of the place where executed, they will be as valid as if executed in this State. A deed, mortgage, or lease of any estate or interest of a married person in real property, shall be signed, attested, acknowledged, and certified in the manner prescribed in the preceding section.

ASSIGNMENTS. An insolvent debtor may make an assignment in trust for the benefit of creditors. Assignee must, within ten days after delivery of assignment to him, produce the original assignment, or copy thereof, in the Probate Court, file same and enter into a bond in such sum and with such sureties as court shall approve. Notice of appointment, for three successive weeks, in newspaper of general circulation, shall be given after bond entered into, and creditor shall within six months after publication of notice present claim with affidavit that said claim is just and lawful, the consideration thereof, and what, if any, set-offs or counter-claims exist thereto; what collateral or personal security, if any, the claimant holds for same, or that he has no security whatever. Any surety or person jointly liable with assignor is allowed to present and prove his claim on which he is bound. Suit must be brought on rejected claims within thirty days. Assignment made in contemplation of insolvency, with intent to prefer one or more creditors, inures to the benefit of all creditors. Assignment made with intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors, shall be declared void at the suit of any creditor, and such assignment, after having been declared void, or a preferred assignment, is cause for the appointment of trustee. No assignment shall be construed to include property exempt, unless the exemption is expressly waived. Preferred claims are: Taxes of every description assessed against assignor, and wages for all labor performed by any one in the assignor's service within twelve months preceding the assignment, not exceeding $300.

ATTACHMENT in a civil action for the recovery of money may be had when defendant is non-resident or a foreign corporation, or has absconded or concealed himself, or is about to remove, convert or assign, or has concealed his property with intent to defraud creditors, or where the debt was fraudulently contracted. Plaintiff must give bond in double the amount at issue, except where defendant is a non-resident, when a bond is not required. Defendant can be arrested in a civil action on all except the first two grounds given above. Garnishee process may be had in aid of attachment against any debtor of the defendant. A citizen of this State may be enjoined from prosecuting an attachment in another State against a citizen of this State, to subject to the payment of his claim the earnings of the debtor, which by the laws of this State are exempt from being applied to the payment of such claim. Attachment before debt due. A creditor may bring an action on his claim before it is due and have an attachment against the property of his debtor: First. When a debtor has sold, conveyed, or otherwise disposed of his property with the fraudulent intent to cheat or defraud his creditors or to hinder or delay them in the collection of their debts; or, Second. Is about to make such sale, conveyance or disposition of his property with such fraudulent intent; or, Third. Is about to remove his property, or a material part thereof, with the intent to cheat and defraud his creditors, or to hinder and delay them in the collection of their debts. The plaintiff must give bond as in other cases of attachment, and must by himself, his agent or attorney, before the action is brought or attachment issued, make an oath in writing, showing the nature and amount of his claim; that it is just; when it will become due, and the existence of any of the grounds above mentioned.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Justice's Courts have exclusive original jurisdiction of any sum not exceeding $100, and concurrent jurisdiction with the Court of Common Pleas of any sum from $100 to $300. If either plaintiff or defendant, in an action before a Justice of the Peace, claims more than twenty dollars in his bill of particulars, the case may be appealed to the Court of Common Pleas; but if neither party demand a greater sum than twenty dollars, and the case is tried by a jury, there shall be no appeal. If the items constituting the cause of action or defense be set out in the bill of particulars, counter claim or set off, and is verified by the affidavit of the party, his agent or attorney, the party so doing shall be entitled to judgment without further proof upon failure of the other party to appear. Superior Courts of Cincinnati and Cleveland have the same general jurisdiction within those cities respectively, in actions for debt, that is exercised by the Courts of Common Pleas. Common Pleas Courts have original jurisdiction where the amount in controversy exceeds $100. The Circuit Courts and Supreme Court have no original jurisdiction of commercial importance.

DEEDS. All deeds and instruments of writing for the conveyance or incumbrance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, except mortgages, shall be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the county in which the premises are situated; and, until so recorded or filed for record, the same shall be deemed fraudulent, so far as relates to a subsequent bona fide purchaser, having at the time of purchase no knowledge of the existence of such former deed or instrument.

DOWER. A widow or widower who has not relinquished or been barred of the same, shall be endowed of an estate for life in one-third of all the real property of which the deceased consort was seized as an estate of inheritance at any time during the marriage, and in one-third of all the real property of which the deceased consort, at decease, held the fee simple in reversion or remainder; and also in one-third of all the title or interest that the deceased consort had, at decease, in any real property held by article, bond, or other evidence of claim; and the widow or widower may remain in the mansion house of the deceased consort, free of charge, for one year, if dower is not sooner assigned; but dower shall not be assigned to any widow or widower in any real property of which the deceased consort, at decease, held the fee simple in reversion or remainder, until the termination of the prior estate.

EXECUTIONS issue from the Court of Common Pleas to any county. Execution against the person will only issue when the Judge of one of the Superior Courts is satisfied of the existence of cause—such as concealment of property by the debtor—or where debtor was arrested before judgment and not discharged under the law. Lands levied on must be appraised by three disinterested freeholders, and can not be sold for less than two-thirds of such appraisement. Executions are stayed before Justices, by entering into a bond to adverse party within ten days after rendition of judgment, on judgments for $5 and under, sixty days; $5 and under $20, ninety days; $20 and under $50, 150 days; $50 and upward, 240 days. No stay on judgment in favor of any person for wages due for manual labor performed.

EXEMPTIONS. Every person who has a family, and every widow, may hold the following property exempt from execution, attachment or sale for any debt, damages, fine or amercement: First. The wearing apparel of such person or family, beds, bedsteads and bedding necessary for the same, one cooking stove and pipe, one stove and pipe used for warming the dwelling, and fuel for sixty days, actually provided, and designed for the use of such person or family. Second. One cow, or if the debtor owns none, household furniture to be selected by such debtor not exceeding $35 in value; two swine or the pork therefrom, or if the debtor owns no swine, household furniture to be selected by such debtor not exceeding $15 in value; six sheep, their wool and the cloth or other articles manufactured therefrom, or in lieu thereof household furniture, to be selected by the debtor, not exceeding $15, and food for such animals for sixty days. Third. Bibles, hymn books, psalm books, testaments and school books used in the family, and all family pictures. Fourth. Provision actually provided and designed for the use of such person or family not exceeding $50 in value, and other articles of household or kitchen furniture necessary for such person or family, not exceeding $50 in value. Fifth. One sewing machine, one knitting machine, and all the tools and implements of the debtor necessary for carrying on his or her trade or business, whether mechanical or agricultural, not exceeding $100 in value. Sixth. The personal earnings of the debtor and of his or her minor child or children for three months, when it is made to appear by affidavit that such earnings are necessary for such person or family. Seventh. All articles, specimens and cabinets of natural history or science, except such as are intended for show or exhibition for money or pecuniary gain. Eighth. Every drayman, who is the head of a family, in addition to the above exemptions, shall hold one horse, harness and dray exempt from execution. Every agriculturist who is the head of a family, in addition to the exemptions specified in clauses one to seven inclusive, shall hold exempt from execution one horse or one yoke of cattle with the necessary gearing for the same, one wagon; and every practitioner of medicine, the head of a family, in addition to the exemptions specified in clauses one to seven inclusive, shall hold exempt one horse, one saddle and bridle, and also books, medicines and instruments pertaining to his profession, not exceeding $100 in value. Every unmarried woman may hold the following property exempt from execution, attachment or sale: First Wearing apparel not exceeding $100. Second. One sewing machine. Third. One knitting machine. Fourth. A Bible, hymn book, psalm book and any other books not exceeding in value $25. Any beneficiary fund, not exceeding $5,000, set apart, appropriated or paid by any benevolent association or society according to its rules and regulations to the family of any deceased member, or to any member of such family, shall not be liable to be taken by any process or proceedings, legal or equitable, to pay any debt of such deceased member. The regalia, insignia of office, journals of proceedings, account books and the private work belonging to any benevolent society in this State, shall be exempt, etc. All property used by any municipal corporation or fire company for the purpose of extinguishing fire shall be exempt, but the owner may create liens thereon by mortgage, etc. Husband and wife living together, a widower living with an unmarried daughter or minor son, every widow and every unmarried female having in good faith the care, maintenance and custody of any minor child or children of a deceased relative, residents of Ohio, and not the owner of a homestead, may, in lieu thereof, hold exempt from levy and sale real or personal property to be selected by such person, his agent or attorney, at any time before sale, not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) in value, in addition to the amount of chattel property otherwise by law exempted. No exemption runs against claim for labor amounting to less than $100.

HOMESTEAD. Husband and wife living together, a widow or a widower living with an unmarried daughter or unmarried minor son, may hold exempt from sale on judgment or order a family homestead not exceeding $1,000 in value; the wife may make demand if the husband refuse, but neither can make such demand if the other has a homestead. Where the homestead is sold for the payment of liens thereon, after payment of such liens, the owner may claim $500 out of the balance of the proceeds of sale, if any, in lieu of a homestead.

INTEREST. The legal rate is six per cent. Parties may contract in writing for eight per cent. No penalty is attached for the violation of the law. If a contract is made for a higher rate than eight per cent., the contract as to interest is void, and the recovery is limited to the principal sum and six per cent. Interest is computed upon judgments and decrees at the rate specified in the instrument upon which said judgment or decree is rendered. Interest is not recoverable on open running accounts, when there are no circumstances from which an agreement to allow interest can be inferred, and there has been no vexatious delay of payment. Open accounts draw interest after statement is made and account rendered. Interest from and after maturity may be allowed on items of wages or salary, payable monthly.

JUDGMENTS are a lien on real property of defendant within the county, which lien continues for five years. If execution be not levied within one year from the rendition of the judgment, said judgment shall not operate to the prejudice of any other bona fide judgment creditor.

LIENS. Laborers and employés of any persons, association of persons or corporation, whether such employment be at agriculture, mining, manufacture, or other manual labor, have a lien upon the real property of their employers for their wages. Such lien is declared to be superior to the following liens taken or attaching during the existence of such unpaid labor claims, to-wit: liens of attachment, liens of mortgage given or taken at a time of actual insolvency of the debtor, or with a view of preferring creditors, or to secure a pre-existing debt, and superior to all claims of homestead or other exemptions, except exemptions allowed to the head of a family and to a widow. The lien is deemed waived by the laborer or employé as to any portion of such labor, unless within thirty days from the expiration of three months from the performance of such portion, he files with the recorder of the county where the labor was performed, an itemized statement, verified by affidavit, of the amount, kind and value of the labor performed within said period, with all credits and offsets, and the amount then due him therefor, which verified statement, when so filed and recorded in a book kept for that purpose, becomes a lien upon the real property of the employer, without any specific description thereof, for the period of one year from and after the filing thereof; and, if action be brought to enforce the lien within that time, it continues in force until finally adjudicated.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. On contracts not in writing, express or implied, six years; specialty or any agreement in writing, fifteen years; real actions, twenty-one years. An action may be taken out of the statute by part payment, acknowledgment, or promise in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN. A married woman shall sue and be sued as if she were unmarried, and her husband shall be joined with her only when the cause of action is in favor of or against both her and her husband. When a married woman sues or is sued, like proceedings shall be had and judgment rendered and enforced as though she were unmarried, and her property and estate shall be liable for any judgment against her, but she shall be entitled to the benefit of all exemptions to heads of families. Any estate or interest, legal or equitable, in real or personal property, including rights in action, belonging to a woman at her marriage, or which may come to her during coverture, by conveyance, gift, devise or inheritance, or by purchase with her separate money or means, or due as the wages of her personal labor, or growing out of any violation of her personal rights, shall, together with the rents, incomes, issues and profits thereof, be and remain her separate property. The separate property of the wife shall be under her sole control, and shall not be taken by any process of law for the debts of the husband, or be in any manner conveyed or incumbered by him, and she may, in her own name, during coverture, contract to the same extent and in the same manner as if she were unmarried, and she may convey the same without her husband joining with her in the deed; but if the husband does not join, he is not barred of his dower. Neither husband nor wife, as such, is answerable for the acts of the other.

MORTGAGES must be executed as deeds, and the first mortgage recorded has the preference. Are foreclosed by suit in the Court of Common Pleas, and there is no redemption of lands sold under foreclosure after confirmation of sale by the Court. Chattel mortgages, or a true copy thereof, must be deposited with the Clerk of the township where the mortgagor resides at the time of the execution thereof, if a resident of the State, and if not such resident, then with the Clerk of the township in which the property so mortgaged is situated at the time of the execution of the instrument; but when the mortgagor is a resident of a township in which the office of County Recorder is kept, or when he is a non-resident of the State and the property is within such township, the mortgage shall be filed with the County Recorder. Every mortgage so filed shall be void, as against the creditors of the person making the same, or against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith, after the expiration of one year from the filing thereof, unless, within thirty days next preceding the expiration of the said term of one year, a true copy of said mortgage, together with a statement verified, exhibiting the interest of the mortgagee in the property at the time last aforesaid, claimed by virtue of such mortgage, is again filed in the office where the original was filed.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. All bonds, notes and bills payable at a day certain after date, or after sight, are entitled to three days of grace in the time of payment. When the third day of grace is the first day of the week, the demand shall be made on the next preceding business day. The 1st day of January, the 30th day of May, the 4th day of July, the 25th of December, 22d of February, and any day appointed or recommended by the Governor of Ohio, or the President of the United States, as a day of Fast or Thanksgiving, is treated and considered as the first day of the week. When the 1st day of January, 4th day of July, or the 25th day of December shall be the first day of the week, the succeeding Monday is also treated and considered as the first day of the week. When made payable to order or bearer, they are negotiable by indorsement thereon, and vest the title thereof in indorsee. They need not be payable at a bank, or any particular place, to be negotiable.

PARTNERSHIPS. Limited partnerships for the transaction of mercantile, mechanical, manufacturing or mining business within this State, may be formed by two or more persons in accordance with statute, in which one or more partners are generally liable, and the special partner or partners are liable only for the amount of capital contributed. The style is the names of the general partners, followed by "& Co." Limited partnership associations may be formed, in accordance with the statute, by any number of persons, not less than three nor more than twenty-five, for conducting any lawful business, except banking and dealing in real estate, by subscribing and contributing capital thereto. Any member thereof shall be liable only to the extent of his capital stock therein for the debts of such association. The name of such association shall end with the word "limited."

SUITS. There is but one form of action, known as a civil action, which must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except as to administrators, trustees, etc. In certain cases service may be made by publication.

TAXES are due on December 20 of each year, but the party charged may at his option pay one-half then and the remainder on or before June 20 following. Lands delinquent for three semi-annual installments are sold by the County Treasurer. Owner can redeem within two years by paying amount for which the land was sold, all subsequent taxes and interest, and a penalty of fifteen per cent. if redeemed within one year, and twenty-five per cent. if within two years. Lands offered for sale by the County Treasurer, and not sold for want of bidders, become forfeited to the State, and are again offered once in each two years until sold for the delinquent and accrued taxes. The owner of forfeited lands may redeem the same at any time within six months by depositing with the Treasurer the amount of sale and costs, together with fifty per cent. penalty thereon.

OREGON.

BANKING LAW.

There are no State banks, and no laws regulating banks or banking.

Section 1 of Article XI, of the constitution of Oregon, provides that: "The Legislative Assembly shall not have the power to establish or incorporate any bank, or banking company or money institution whatever; nor shall any bank, company, or institution exist in the State with the privilege of making, issuing, or putting into circulation any bill, check, certificate, promissory note, or other paper, or the paper of any bank, company or person to circulate as money."

The business of banking is carried on by National banks, private corporations, firms, and individuals without any restrictions on the part of the State as to what investments they may make, or how their business shall be conducted.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS may be taken in the State by any Judge of the Supreme Court, County Judge, Justice of the Peace, or Notary Public. Out of the State before any officer authorized by the laws of the State, Territory or district where made, or by a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State for such purpose. If not taken before such Commissioner, it must have attached thereto a certificate of the Clerk or other proper certifying officer of a court of record of the county or district within which it was taken, under the seal of his office, that the person whose name is subscribed to the certificate of acknowledgment was, at the date thereof, such officer as he is therein represented to be, and that he believes the signature of such person subscribed thereto to be genuine; and that the deed is executed and acknowledged according to the laws of such State, Territory or district. (See Deeds.)

ARREST. The defendant may be arrested before judgment in an action, either for the recovery of money or damages arising out of contract when he is a non-resident or is about to remove from the State, or for an injury to person, character or property, or detaining or converting property; or for a fine, penalty, or promise to marry; or for money received or property embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, or converted by a public officer, or by an attorney, or by an officer or agent of a corporation, or by any person in a fiduciary capacity; or for misconduct or neglect in office or in professional employment; or to recover personal property fraudulently removed or concealed; or where he has been guilty of fraud in incurring the obligation, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so with intent to defraud his creditors. The plaintiff must make affidavit and give bond similar to those in attachment. No female can be arrested except in an action for injury to person, character or property. The defendant may be released on bail. A defendant may be arrested after judgment on execution in the above classes of actions. Every person confined in jail on execution may be discharged at the end of ten days upon showing that he has no property not exempt from execution and none conveyed or concealed. After being discharged, the debtor is forever exempt from arrest upon that debt.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. There is no insolvent law. There is an act governing assignments. No general assignment by an insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, for the benefit of creditors, is valid unless made for the benefit of all his creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective claims. The assent of creditors is presumed. The debtor selects his assignee. If not satisfied with the assignee chosen by the debtor, two or more creditors may apply by petition to the Judge of the Circuit Court of county within thirty days from the making or recording of the assignment, and the Judge will order a meeting of the creditors to choose an assignee in lieu of the one selected by the debtor. The assignee elected by the creditors must be a resident of the same county as the assignor. Creditors may appear at the meeting in person or by proxy, but, before being entitled to vote, must present to the County Clerk, who presides at the creditors' meeting, a verified statement of their claims. A majority, in number and value, of the creditors attending the meeting, elect an assignee or assignees. All assignees must give bonds in double the value of the estate. An assignment discharges all attachments on which judgment has not been had at the time of the assignment. The assignee must give notice by publication and mailing to creditors, who have three months in which to present claims. Debts to become due, as well as debts due, may be presented. Exceptions may be filed to the demand of any creditor, and the Court will pass upon them. The assignee has full power to dispose of the estate, real and personal, and distributes the proceeds among the creditors pro rata, under the order of the Circuit Court, which has exclusive jurisdiction of assignments. When it appears that the debtor has acted fairly and justly, and has been guilty of no fraud, or concealment of his property, and that his estate has been made to realize the fullest amount possible, and not less than fifty per cent. of his indebtedness over and above all expenses, the Court will, upon the allowance of the final account of the assignee, make an order discharging the debtor from all debts existing against him prior to the assignment. A debtor can prefer a creditor by confessing judgment, giving a mortgage or transferring specific property in payment.

ATTACHMENT process may be had in actions upon contracts for the direct payment of money, if the contract is not secured by mortgage, lien or pledge upon real or personal property, or, if so secured, the security has been rendered nugatory by the act of the defendant. Also in actions upon contract against a defendant not residing in this State. An affidavit must be made showing the existence of the facts, and a bond given equal to the amount of the judgment demanded. Debts owing the defendant may be garnisheed.

CORPORATIONS. Private corporations are formed under a general law by three or more persons making, subscribing and acknowledging, as in the case of deeds, written articles of incorporation in triplicate—filing one copy with the Secretary of State, one with the County Clerk of the County where the principal office or place of business of the corporation is to be, and retaining the third in the possession of the corporation. The articles must specify: (1) the name assumed by the corporation and by which it should be known, and the duration of the corporation, if limited; (2) the enterprise, business, pursuit or occupation in which the corporation proposes to engage; (3) the place where the corporation proposes to have its principal office or place of business; (4) The amount of the capital stock of the corporation; (5) the amount of each share of such capital stock; (6) if the corporation is formed for the purpose of navigating any stream or other water, or making or constructing any railroad, macadamized road, plank road, clay road, canal or bridge, the termini of such navigation, road or canal, or the site of such bridge. After filing the articles of incorporation, the corporators open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock. After one-half or more of the capital stock is subscribed, the stockholders meet and elect directors. A director must be a stockholder in the corporation and a resident of the State of Oregon; except, that in corporations for the purpose of constructing railroads or military wagon roads, canals or flumes, or carrying on mining enterprises, or publishing newspapers, or conducting institutions of learning, a minority of the board of directors may reside out of the State. Directors must take an oath of office. The directors elect a president and secretary, and such other officers as are required. The corporation has authority by the name assumed in the articles: (1) to sue and be sued; (2) to contract and be contracted with; (3) to have and use a corporate seal, and the same to alter at pleasure; (4) to purchase, possess and dispose of such real and personal property as may be necessary and convenient to carry into effect the objects of the corporation, and to take, hold, possess and dispose of all real and personal property donated to such corporation by the United States, or by any State, territory, county, city, or other municipal corporation, or by any person, firm, association or private corporation, for the purpose of aiding in the objects of such corporation; (5) to appoint such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation may require, and prescribe their duties and compensation; (6) to make by-laws not inconsistent with any existing law for the sale of any portion of its stock for delinquent or unpaid assesments due thereon; which sale may be made without judgment or execution, provided that no such sale shall be made without thirty days' notice of the time and place of sale in some newspaper in circulation in the neighborhood of such company; for the transfer of its stock, for the management of its property, and for the general regulation of its affairs; (7) in case the object or purpose for which any such corporation is incorporated is in whole or in part to construct, or construct and operate a railroad, to lease any part or all its road to any other company incorporated for the purpose of maintaining and operating a railroad, and to lease or purchase, maintain and operate any part or all of any other railroad constructed by any other company upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between said companies respectively. Any two or more railroad companies whose lines are connected may perfect any arrangement for their common benefit to assist and promote the object for which they were created, provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the leasing of any railroad line to any company or corporation owning a road which forms a competing or parallel line to its railroad. The stockholders meet annually and elect directors, who hold their office for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The stock in private corporations is personal property and subject to attachment, execution, levy, and sale as such. All sales of stock, whether voluntary or otherwise, transfer to the purchaser all rights of the original holder, and subject such purchaser to the payment of any unpaid balance due on such stock; but if the sale be voluntary, the seller is still liable to existing creditors for the amount of said balance, unless the same be paid by the purchaser. A corporation failing to elect directors and commence the transaction of business within one year from the filing of the articles of incorporation, or ceasing to carry on business for six months, forfeits its corporate existence. The capital stock may be increased or diminished, or the amount of the shares changed by a majority vote of the stock at a stockholder's meeting called for that purpose. The directors may file supplementary articles of incorporation when authorized by vote of the stockholders, for the purpose of engaging in any new enterprise, etc. The stockholders are liable for the indebtedness of the corporation to the amount of their stock subscribed and unpaid, and no more. Corporations organized for constructing railroads, etc., may exercise the right of eminent domain. Land is condemned to their use, and the compensation to be paid by them fixed by action in the Circuit Court. Foreign corporations, upon complying with the laws of the State, may do business therein as like domestic corporations. Municipal corporations are created by special Acts of the Legislature.

COURTS. There is in each voting precinct a Justice of the Peace with limited criminal jurisdiction and civil jurisdiction up to $250. These courts are always open. Their process cannot reach land. A County Court in each county has exclusive probate jurisdiction and civil jurisdiction up to $500. They meet from four to twelve times a year. Circuit Court has unlimited jurisdiction both in civil and criminal, and holds from one to three terms a year in each county. Supreme Court with a prelate jurisdiction only meets at Salem twice a year, and at Pendleton once a year.

DEEDS executed in the State must have two witnesses and be signed and sealed by the grantors. A scroll by a pen is sufficient seal. Out of the State deeds may be executed according to the laws of the State, Territory or district where made. (See Acknowledgments.) Deeds are recorded in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which the land is situated. If not so recorded within five days, they are void against any subsequent purchaser in good faith, and for a valuable consideration whose conveyance is first recorded.

EXEMPTIONS. There is no homestead law. Personal property exempt includes books, pictures and musical instruments to the value of $75; wearing apparel to the value of $100, and if a householder, to the value of $50 for each member of the family; tools, implements, apparatus, team, vehicle, harness or library when necessary in the occupation or profession of a judgment debtor, to the amount of $400; if the judgment debtor be a householder, ten sheep with one year's fleece, two cows, five swine, household goods, furniture and utensils to the value of $300; the seat or pew occupied by a householder or his family in a place of public worship; all property of the State in any county, incorporated city, town, or village therein, or of any other public or municipal corporation. No article of property is exempt from execution issued upon a judgment for the purchase price. The judgment debtor must select and reserve such property as he claims as exempt at the time of levy.

INSURANCE. The Secretary of State is Insurance Commissioner, and no company can do business without his license. Companies formed under the laws of the State must have at least five directors who are residents and property owners in the State and stockholders in the corporation, and a paid up, unimpaired, cash capital stock of $100,000 invested in the State in U. S., State, city, county or school-district bonds, or notes secured by first mortgage on unincumbered real estate of double the value of the mortgage. They can not invest in mining stocks, nor make any loan to a stockholder, nor a stockholder be interested in any loan, pledge, security or property of the company, except to be a stockholder. Foreign companies must deposit with the State Treasurer $50,000 in money, or in interest bearing U. S., State, county, city or school-district bonds, the market value of which is at or above par, or bonds or notes secured by first mortgages upon unincumbered real estate within the State, of double the amount of the loan; or in lieu of such deposit, make an investment in real estate in the State of not less than $65,000 to be approved by the Commissioner, the title to be vested in the State Treasurer as Trustee. The company receives the interest or income from the deposit or investment. No deposit can be withdrawn without six months publication of notice. Foreign corporations must also execute and record in each county where they have a resident agent, a power of attorney to some person, a resident and citizen of the State and United States, constituting him its attorney-in-fact upon whom service may be made, so as to give the courts jurisdiction of the company; and must show by the insurance reports or certificate of the Insurance Commissioner of some other State that they possess a paid up, unimpaired, cash capital of at least $200,000. Companies not incorporated in the United States, except marine companies, must have deposited or invested for the benefit of policy holders within the United States, in at least one State, a sum equal to $200,000 in excess of its liabilities in the United States. Orders, secret societies and benevolent and co-operative associations, such as Masons, Odd Fellows, Druids, Knights of Pythias, Ancient Order of United Workmen, Grangers, Firemen, etc. are not insurance companies under this act. In the event of total destruction of insured property where the amount of appraised loss shall be less than the total amount of insurance, the company must return the unearned premiums for the excess of insurance over the amount of appraised loss. Fire insurance companies must pay an annual license of $50, and life and accident companies $100. Insurance brokers a quarterly license of $15.

INTEREST. Legal rate, eight per cent.; contracts may be made in writing for ten per cent. Usury works forfeiture of principal and interest, but judgment will be rendered against defendant for the principal of the debt to be paid into the Common School Fund of the county in which suit was commenced.

JUDGMENTS are a lien from the date of docketing on all defendant's real property within the county or counties where same is docketed, and on all which he may subsequently acquire during the life of the judgment. If ten years are allowed to elapse without issuance of execution on the judgment the lien ceases.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. On contracts not under seal, express or implied, six years; on judgments or decrees of any court and sealed instruments, ten years; recovery real property, ten years. Revivor: Part payment or new promise in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN retain their real and personal estate owned by them at time of marriage or afterwards acquired by gift, devise or inheritance, free from the debts and control of their husbands. A married woman may make contracts in her own name, buy goods, and give notes in settlement, and her real and personal property may be sold to satisfy the same. She may dispose of her real estate by will, subject to any rights which her husband may have as tenant by the curtesy. She is entitled to receive and hold the wages of her personal labor, and sue therefor in her own name, and she can prosecute and defend all actions for the preservation or protection of her property and rights as if unmarried. The expenses of the family and education of the children are chargeable upon the property of both husband and wife or either of them, and in relation thereto they may be sued jointly or separately. All laws imposing or recognizing civil disabilities upon the wife not imposed or recognized upon the husband (excepting the right to vote and hold office) have been repealed. The wife's dower and the husband's curtesy in real property are preserved.

MORTGAGES of real property are executed and recorded in the same manner as deeds, and foreclosed by suit in equity. Chattel mortgages, or copies thereof, must be immediately filed with the County Clerk, and cease to be valid as against creditors or purchasers after the expiration of one year, unless within thirty days next preceding the expiration of said year there is an affidavit made and filed therewith, that the debt which it secures is unpaid and the mortgage still in force. A chattel mortgage, where the mortgagor is allowed to remain in possession and dispose of the property in the usual course of his business, is void as to purchasers and attaching creditors.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. All negotiable instruments are commercial paper. They are not required to be paid at any particular place unless a place of payment is specified in the instrument. Three days of grace are allowed on all bills of exchange and negotiable promissory notes, orders and drafts, payable at a future day certain within this State, where there is not an express stipulation to the contrary in the instrument. This does not apply to any bill of exchange, note or draft payable at sight or on demand. No person can be charged as an acceptor of a bill of exchange, unless the acceptance be in writing, signed by himself or his lawful agent. Indorsers, if properly charged by protest, are liable as long as the maker. Damages allowed on protested bills of exchange: domestic, five per cent.; foreign, ten per cent. Negotiable instruments falling due on a Sunday or a holiday become due on the next business day. Legal holidays are every Sunday, first day of January, twenty-second day of February, thirtieth day of May, first Saturday in June, fourth day of July, twenty-fifth day of December, every day on which a general election is held, and every day appointed by the executive authority of the United States or this State as a day of fasting, thanksgiving or holiday.

SUITS. Practice is under a Code similar to that of New York, but the distinction between law and equity is retained. Suits and actions in the Circuit and County Courts are commenced by filing a verified complaint with the Clerk of the Court. Summons is served by personally delivering to the debtor or leaving at his residence, with a white person over fourteen years of age, a member of his family, a copy of the summons and a certified copy of the complaint, and if debtor does not appear or answer within ten days, if served in the county in which action is brought, or within twenty days, if served in any other county in the State, the creditor may take judgment. In case of non-resident debtors who have property in the State, of which the Court has acquired jurisdiction by attachment or other lien, the Court may order service by publication of the summons, and a judgment obtained upon such service is valid to the extent of the attached property.

TAXES. Lands sold for taxes may be redeemed within one year, on payment of the purchase money and twenty per cent. thereon; within two years, thirty per cent.

PENNSYLVANIA.

BANKING LAW.

Any person or association of persons, not less than five, may establish banks of discount, deposit, and circulation, with a capital of not less than $50,000 nor more than $1,000,000. Whenever a person or association desires to establish a bank, or increase the capital, a certificate to that effect must be made for at least six months in at least three newspapers, one published at the seat of government and the other two in the city or county where such a bank is located. If a paper is published in German in the county, notice must be given in that language. When a copy of this certificate containing the name, place of business, amount of capital stock, with the number of shares into which the same shall be divided, is certified by the Attorney General, it is recorded after the manner of deeds, and the Governor, upon a certified copy of such certificate being produced before him, causes letters patent to be issued.

Every person or corporation to whom letters patent may be granted, is authorized to carry on business for twenty years from the date of patent. The Auditor General is required to report annually to the legislature, within three days of the commencement of the session, a summary of the condition of every incorporated bank, with an abstract of the amount of banking capital returned by them. The capital stock of each bank is divided into shares of $50 each. It is the duty of every cashier to publish in the newspapers a statement giving the amount of assets and liabilities, circulation, deposits, gold and silver, with all evidences of debt, with the personal and real property of the bank; and semi-annual reports are required. The Auditor General is to require quarterly statements from cashiers of the condition of banks, and one of the statements shall be made in November. Stockholders are individually liable for the notes issued by the bank. Under the general laws a savings bank can invest in any good bonds or securities; but nearly all savings banks have special charters, and the regulations as to investments in them differ. By an act passed by the legislature of 1889, and not yet published, the organization of savings banks is facilitated, and their management carefully controlled.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds of land in Pennsylvania taken elsewhere, may be made in the United States before any Mayor or Chief Magistrate, or Officer of any town or city where the deed is made, certified under the seal of such city or town, any Judge of any court of record, any Judge of a Federal Court, under the hand of the Judge and seal of the court, Commissioner for Pennsylvania, any officer in any State authorized by laws of said State to take acknowledgments, the authority to be proved by certificate of Clerk of any court of record, under seal of court, or Notary Public; if made out of United States, any Ambassador and all persons exercising public ministerial functions appointed by United States, or Notaries Public.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. A debtor may make a voluntary assignment in trust for the benefit of all creditors, which must be recorded in thirty days. The assignment does not relieve the debtor from the debt. The assignee must file his inventory and appraisement within thirty days and must file his accounts in the Court of Common Pleas, under whose direction he is, and thereupon the court appoints an auditor to distribute the fund, to whom all claims must be presented or they will not receive part of the estate. Imprisonment has been abolished in all civil actions founded on any contract, express or implied, except in proceedings as for contempt, to enforce remedies, actions for fines or penalties, or on promises to marry, on moneys collected by public officer, or for any misconduct or neglect in office or in any professional employment. The insolvent laws in cases where imprisonment is still permitted allow a person to be discharged from prison, but do not relieve him from the debt.

ATTACHMENT. Property of resident debtors may be attached, when debtor is about to remove his property out of the jurisdiction of the court in which the attachment is applied for, with intent to defraud his creditors; when he has property which he fraudulently conceals; when he has disposed of or is about to dispose of his property, with intent to defraud his creditors; when he has fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which the claim is made. In this attachment the creditor must make affidavit to prove the existence of a debt in excess of $100, and one or more of the acts of fraud specified, and must give bond conditioned that, if he fails to prosecute his action with effect and to recover a judgment against the debtor, he shall pay to the debtor all legal costs and damages which the debtor may sustain by reason of said attachment. Attachment can also be had to seize and hold property of non-resident, and will be dissolved on entering security. A defendant may be arrested after suit brought, upon proof that he is about to remove his property to defraud his creditors or has done so, or that he fraudulently conceals his property, or that he fraudulently contracted the debt; he may be committed unless he pays the debt, or gives security to do so within sixty days, or gives bonds to take the benefit of the insolvent law. Attachment of defendant's property in the nature of an execution may issue at any time after judgment.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Courts of Common Pleas in the several counties have original jurisdiction in all sums over $100. Orphans' Courts have full probate powers and entire control of decedents' estates. Justice's jurisdiction, $300. In Philadelphia there are Magistrates supplying the place of Justices of the Peace, but having civil jurisdiction only to the amount of $100.

EXECUTIONS may be issued as soon as judgment is obtained, or at any time within five years. The writ of execution is made returnable to the first Monday of the following term; but it is the duty of the Sheriff to make his levy at once, and he may proceed to sell personal property upon six days' notice, and distribute the proceeds. Stay of execution upon suits in Court can be taken, by giving security, or under claim of freehold, on all sums of $200 and under, six months; between $200 and $500, nine months; over $500, twelve months. In suits before Justices of the Peace on sums between $5.33 and $20, three months; between $20 and $60, six months; and over $60, twelve months. The stay is computed from the first day of the term to which the action was commenced.

EXEMPTIONS. No homestead law. Real or personal property to the value of $300, in addition to wearing apparel, Bibles, and school-books, and a sewing machine, are exempt, but the privilege is personal only and can be waived at any time.

INTEREST. The legal rate is six per cent.; usurious interest can not be collected, and if paid may be recovered back, provided suit is brought therefor within six months after final payment of the debt. Most of the savings banks are by special statute authorized to loan money at higher rates of interest, but by act of 1878 all banking companies are prohibited from taking more than six per cent. Commission merchants and agents may contract with parties outside the State for seven per cent. It is not usury for a borrower to contract to pay the taxes upon the money lent, nor to pay a reasonable attorney's fee in case suit is brought for its collection. Interest is due upon every debts from the time it becomes due and payable. The rate is the same on all debts, whether secured by judgment or not.

JUDGMENTS bind all the interest of defendant in real estate within the county where the judgment was entered, and under the Act of March 23, 1877, a verdict of a jury for a specific sum (unless a new trial is granted) is also a lien on real estate. Lien exists for five years, and may be continued by revival of the judgment. Justice's judgments become liens by filing transcripts in the Court of Common Pleas.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Contracts, notes, and instruments not under seal, trespass, detinue, replevin, six years; action for trespass, to person, two years; for slander, one year; judgments, mortgages and sealed instruments will be presumed to be paid after twenty years, but this presumption may be rebutted. Revivor: Acknowledgment, coupled with promise to pay; promise may be implied, if acknowledgment is plain, express, and nothing to negative such implication.

MARRIED WOMEN. All property of wife, except earnings, acquired before or after marriage, held and enjoyed as her separate estate, but may be charged for necessaries contracted by her for herself and family. As a general rule, a married woman can not make a valid contract, except for necessaries, or sell or convey her real estate without her husband joining in the deed. She may make a will, subject to her husband's right as tenant by the curtesy, and may transfer railroad stock, State or Philadelphia city loans, and loans or stock of any corporation created under the laws of Pennsylvania. She may also keep a bank account, and draw money on her own check, without consent of her husband, but her earnings belong to her husband, unless secured to her own use by order of the Court of Common Pleas. Under the Act of 1887, she may engage in business and make contracts relative thereto as if she were single; and may be sued on such contracts without the joinder of her husband. Widow takes as dower one-third of the income of all lands owned by her husband during marriage, and one-third of personal property absolutely, and may take statutory dower in contravention of any will left by her husband.

MORTGAGES are executed and acknowledged same as deeds, and lien inheres from time of recording except where given for purchase money, when the mortgage is a lien from its date, if recorded within sixty days. Chattel mortgages may be given on mining property, lumber, petroleum, iron and other articles specified; must be for not less than $500, and must be filed of record. The lien thus created continues one year, and must be revived within thirty days of the expiration of that period, or it becomes void.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. The Act of March 30, 1875, allows days of grace on all bills of exchange, drafts, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments, excepting sight bills and drafts, and checks on banks or bankers, whether payable on presentation or upon some day or time subsequent to the date of issue. Notes, etc., falling due on a holiday are due the secular day preceding. Holidays are January 1, February 22, July 4, December 25, Good Friday, Decoration Day (May 30), and any day appointed by Governor, or President of the United States as a day of fasting, thanksgiving or general cessation of business.

SUITS may be commenced at any time. All writs of summons are returnable on certain days set by rule of court (and which are in most counties monthly) and in default of an appearance and affidavit of defense judgment may be entered against defendant generally in ten or fifteen days after service. A summons from a Justice of the Peace is returnable on a day named therein, which must not be less than five nor more than eight days after the date of the writ, and must be served on the debtor at least four days before the date fixed for the hearing of the case.

TAXES. Improved lands may be sold for taxes two years delinquent, and "Unseated" lands may be sold for taxes delinquent one year, and are redeemable within two years by payment of taxes and costs and twenty-five per cent. thereon.

RHODE ISLAND.

BANKING LAW.

There are nine of these institutions, all chartered before National banks were created by Congress, total capital, $1,766,685; bills in circulation, $3,138. Banks, like all business corporations, are, under the constitution of Rhode Island, chartered by special act presented to one legislature, and, after public notice, granted by a succeeding legislature. In most charters now in force is a provision making stockholders liable for all debts of the bank. The legislature, or the Governor, when the legislature is not in session, may at any time appoint a special commission to examine one or more banks; and, if three or more officers, stockholders or creditors of any bank, make a written complaint, the Governor shall appoint such a commission. Banks are not required to make public statements of their condition, but must report to the State Auditor on a day between November 15 and December 15 in each year, the day to be subsequently designated by him. These reports are quite full, covering substantially what is reported by National banks. An abstract of all the reports is published by the State Auditor as soon as may be. There are no restrictions to the class of bonds Savings banks may invest in. See Chap. 153, Sec. 50, Public Statutes of R. I.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. No estate of inheritance or freehold can be conveyed by deed unless the same be signed, sealed and delivered by the grantor, and acknowledged before a Senator, Judge, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, Mayor or Town Clerk, and recorded in the office of the Town Clerk where the land lies. Instruments relating to lands within this State, executed elsewhere in the United States, may be acknowledged before a Judge, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, Mayor, or before any Commissioner appointed by the Governor, and duly qualified thereunto. In foreign countries before a Minister, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Commercial Agent of the United States, or any properly qualified Commissioner within such country.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. There is no general insolvent law. Assignments for equal benefit of all creditors are allowed; all preferences are void. Any resident debtor whose property, real or personal, is attached may dissolve the attachment by a general assignment for the equal benefit of his creditors. One or more creditors, representing, collectively, one-fifth in amount of all claims against any debtor, may, within sixty days of any attachment of his property, or any transfer by him of property in the way of preference, secure the setting aside of such assignment and transfer and the appointment of a Receiver to convert the debtor's property and assets into money, and distribute equally among all creditors. Such proceedings do not entitle the debtor to a discharge, which is only obtained by actual release from each creditor.

ATTACHMENT process will issue on creditor making affidavit as to his claim, and that debtor is a corporation established out of the State, or has left the State and is not expected to return in season to be served with process returnable to the next term of such court, or has committed fraud in contracting the debt on which suit is brought, or in the concealment or disposition of his property, or since contracting the debt on which suit is brought, has been the owner of property or in the receipt of an income which he has refused or neglected to apply toward the payment of said debt, though requested by the creditor so to do. Personal property of the debtor (unless secured by bill of exchange or negotiable promissory note), in the hands of any person, partnership, or corporation, is subject to garnishment.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. The Supreme Court has full equity powers. This Court and the Common Pleas hold each two terms in each county annually. The Court of Common Pleas also holds two terms for criminal trials in Providence each year. Court of Common Pleas has jurisdiction where the claim amounts to $100 and upwards. Supreme Court has concurrent jurisdiction with the Court of Common Pleas where the amount claimed is $100 and upwards, excepting in the county of Providence, where said Court has jurisdiction concurrent with the Court of Common Pleas, where the amount claimed is $300 and upwards. The State is divided into twelve districts, in each of which is a District Court, having jurisdiction in civil causes when the sum sued for does not exceed $300. The Town Councils are Courts of Probate within their respective towns, and the Municipal Court of Providence is the Court of Probate of that city. Any town may, however, elect a Probate Judge at its annual election.

EXECUTIONS are returnable at the next term of court after they issue, and can only be stayed by order of the court. There is no redemption of property sold under execution. In default of goods and chattels or real estate on which to levy, execution may issue against the body of the debtor in cases where fraud is alleged.

EXEMPTIONS. No homestead law. Necessary wearing apparel of debtor and his family; working tools, not exceeding $200; and household furniture and family stores, $300, are exempt from attachment and execution, where the debtor is a householder.

INTEREST. The legal rate of interest is six per cent., but any rate of interest agreed upon between the parties may be taken. Rates on judgments, notes, or open accounts, etc., is six per cent., unless a different rate be stipulated by the parties. Interest begins to run on accounts from the expiration of stipulated term of credit, or at a time fixed by usage of trade.

JUDGMENTS are not a lien on real estate.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Accounts, six years; simple promissory notes, six years; sealed instruments and judgments, twenty years. An oral promise and partial payment revive the debt.

MARRIED WOMEN. The property of a married woman is secured to her separate use, and is not liable for debts of her husband. She can not transact business as a trader. The rights of dower and curtesy are fully preserved.

MORTGAGES must be executed in the same manner as deeds, and recorded [see ante]. No chattel mortgage is good against purchaser or attaching creditor unless recorded, or the mortgagee has possession, or can prove actual notice.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. No statutory laws as to what constitutes commercial paper. All bills of exchange drawn at sight, due and payable within this State, and in which there is not a provision to the contrary, shall be allowed three days' grace. Any person upon whom a bill of exchange or draft is drawn which requires acceptance, shall have until two o'clock in the afternoon of the business day next succeeding the first presentation thereof in which to decide whether or not he will accept the same; provided, however, that all bills of exchange or drafts which may be for cause held over one day, shall, when accepted, date from day of presentation. Legal holidays are July 4, Christmas, February 22, May 30 (if coming on Sunday, the day following), and any day of Fast, Thanksgiving, or Arbor day appointed by authority.

SUITS. All actions and suits at law and in equity relating to realty, must be brought in the county where the land lies; all other actions and suits, where plaintiff or defendant resides, or where defendant may be found.

TAXES are a lien on real estate, and lands may be sold for taxes delinquent after due notice given. Owner, or his heirs or assigns, may redeem within one year by paying purchase money with twenty per cent. in addition.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

BANKING LAW.

The 6th Section of Article 12 of the constitution provides as follows: The General Assembly shall grant no charter for banking purposes, nor renew any banking corporations now in existence, except upon the condition that the stockholders shall be liable to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in any such banking institution, for all its debts and liabilities, upon note, bill, or otherwise; and upon the further condition that no director or other officer of said corporation shall borrow any money from said corporation; and, if any director or other officer shall be convicted upon indictment of directly or indirectly violating this section, he shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, at the discretion of the Court. The books, papers and accounts of all banks shall be opened to inspection, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

General Statutes, Part 1, Section 547, says: "The Comptroller General shall collate the various statements in the monthly returns made to him by the banks, so as to present a comparative view of all the items thereof, and shall publish the same in some public newspaper, for general information. Every bank failing to make such returns shall forfeit to the use of the State, to be recovered by the Comptroller by action, $25 for each and every day's neglect." Section 548 provides: "The Comptroller General shall, at least once in every month, collect the accounts of the weekly state of their circulation and specie, rendered by the several banks of issue, in conformity with law, and publish the same, so collected, in some newspaper, in the following form:

Weekly Statement of Circulation and Specie of Banks of Issue in South Carolina, from the.....day of.....to the.....day of .....eighteen hundred and.....
Name of Bank.....
Date Circulation Specie.....

And any bank, the officers whereof shall neglect to transmit to the Comptroller General any such account aforesaid, shall forfeit $100 for each and every day during which the same shall be neglected, to be recovered by action at the suit of the State." Section 549: "It shall be the duty of the Comptroller General, whenever it appears that any bank, or any officer of a bank, has incurred any forfeiture for any official misconduct, to cause suit to be brought against such bank or officer, by the Attorney General or the solicitor of the circuit in which such bank is situated, for the recovery of the same. And in case he shall, at any time, have cause to suspect that a false or incorrect account has been rendered to him by any bank, he shall have authority, and it shall be his duty, to make a personal examination of the books of such bank, in order to as certain the truth; and any officer of a bank who shall refuse to submit the books of said bank to the Comptroller General for such examination, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the Court." There are no laws restricting Savings banks incorporated by the State as to the class of bonds or securities in which they may make investments.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. All deeds for the conveyance of real estate must be signed and sealed by the grantor in the presence of two witnesses, and recorded within the county in which the land lies, within forty days from the time of delivery or execution. Before any deed or other instrument in writing can be recorded in the proper office within the State, the execution thereof shall first be proved by the affidavit, in writing, of a subscribing witness to such instrument, taken before some officer within the State competent to administer an oath, or before a Commissioner or Commissioners appointed by dedimus, issued from the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the instrument is to be recorded; or, if taken without the limits of the State, and within the United States, before a Commissioner of Deeds of the State, or before a Clerk of a court of record, who shall certify the same under his official seal, or before a Notary Public, who shall affix thereto his official seal, and accompany the same with a certificate as to his official character from a Clerk of a court of record of the county in which the affidavit is taken; or, if taken without the United States, before a Consul or Vice-Consul of the United States of America.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. An embarrassed debtor may assign his property for the benefit of creditors, who have the right to appoint an agent or agents equal to the number of assignees. Where none are appointed, assignee can act alone and must report to creditors every three months. The compensation of assignee and agent is five per cent. for receiving, and two and a half per cent. for paying out money. The assignment of all his property by a debtor under arrest effects his discharge from such arrest. Only the claims of creditors participating in dividends are affected by these assignments. The debtor, however, can make no preferences or priorities other than as to debts due the public and to such creditors as shall release under the assignment, and all transactions within ninety days before assignment, with a view to give fraudulent preference to any creditor or creditors are null and void.

ATTACHMENTS will issue in an action arising on contract for the recovery of money, or in an action for the wrongful conversion of personal property, or for the recovery of property, whether real or personal, and damages for the wrongful conversion and detention of personal property or in an action for injury done to either person or property, or against a corporation created by or under the laws of any other State, government or country, or against a debtor who has absconded or concealed himself, or whenever any person or corporation is about to remove any of his or its property from the State, or has assigned, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete any of his or its property, with intent to defraud creditors; the creditor, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time thereafter, may have the property of such debtor or corporation attached as a security for the satisfaction of such judgment as the creditor may recover. Proceedings in case of attachment are prescribed by the Code. Garnishee process can be had in aid of attachment.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Courts of Common Pleas are held three times a year in each county, and have jurisdiction in all civil cases not cognizable by the Trial Justices. There is a Probate Court in each county, holding monthly sessions and possessing the usual powers. Justice's jurisdiction, $100. Actions to be tried in the county where land lies, or in which the defendant resides.

EXECUTIONS may issue five days after the adjournment of each Court, and are returnable within sixty days. Stay is only granted on appeal given. Executions may issue at any time within three years from date of judgment. The Clerk shall not, without special leave of the court, enter any judgment until the expiration of five days after the court has adjourned for the term.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead, $1,000. The homestead right can not be waived or alienated. Personal property exempt includes household furniture, carts, wagons, farming implements, and domestic animals up to $500, and in addition thereto all necessary wearing apparel. But no right of homestead shall exist or be allowed in any property, real or personal, aliened or mortgaged, by any person or persons whomsoever, as against the title or claim of the alienee or mortgagee, or his, her or their heirs or assigns.

INTEREST. No greater rate of interest than seven per cent. per annum can be charged upon any contract arising in the State, except upon written contracts, wherein, by express agreement, a rate of interest not exceeding eight (8) per cent. in lieu of ten (10) per cent. may be charged. Any person or corporation receiving a greater rate of interest than ten per cent. shall not only forfeit the interest, but also double the sum received, to be collected by a separate action or allowed as a counter-claim to any action brought to recover the principal.

JUDGMENTS are a lien on lands within the county for ten years from the time of entry, which lien may be extended to other counties by filing transcript, and may be renewed within three years so as to extend lien for ten years more.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Upon contracts not under seal, sealed notes or personal bonds, six years; judgments or decrees of any court, and upon sealed instruments (except as above), twenty years; to recover real property, ten years; actions for libel, slander, assault, battery, or false imprisonment, and actions upon a statute for a forfeiture or penalty to the State, two years.

MARRIED WOMEN. The real and personal property of a married woman, whether held by her at the time of her marriage or acquired thereafter, either by gift, grant, inheritance, devise, purchase or otherwise, is not subject to levy and sale for her husband's debts; and a married woman can bequeath, devise or convey her separate property in the same manner and to the same extent as if she were unmarried. A married woman can also purchase any species of property in her own name and take conveyance therefor, and contract and be contracted with, in the same manner as if she were unmarried. The Supreme Court has recently decided that a married woman can only execute a mortgage to secure a debt for the benefit of her separate estate and by a recent act of the Legislature the intention so to bind her separate estate, must be declared in the mortgage or other investment in writing.

MORTGAGES. All mortgages, whether of real estate or chattels, must be recorded within forty days. Mortgages of realty are foreclosed by ordinary suit of complaint and summons, and chattel mortgages are enforced by mortgagee taking possession of the goods and selling them. Different books must be provided by Clerks and Registers of Mesne Conveyances of the several counties, for the recording of chattel mortgages and mortgages on real estate.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Bills of exchange and promissory notes, drawn in the usual form, are recognized as commercial paper. No protest is needed on an inland bill for less than $100. On all bills of exchange drawn on persons resident within the United States, and without this State, and returned protested, the damages on such protested bill shall be ten per cent. on the sum drawn for. On all bills drawn on persons resident in any other part of North America or in the West India Islands, and protested, the damages shall be twelve and one-half per cent. Actions relating to real property or for the recovery of specific personal property are brought within the county where the land or property is situated. In all other cases in the county of the defendant's residence; and, if he resides out of the State, then in any county.

TAXES for State purposes are a lien from November 1 of each year, and payable by 15th December of the following year. Immediately upon the expiration of the time allowed by law for the payment of taxes in any year, the County Treasurer of each County shall issue in the name of the State an execution against each defaulting taxpayer in his County, under which sufficient personal or real property shall be sold to pay said taxes, the sheriff's deed under such sale shall be prima facie evidence of good title in the purchaser. Insolvent debtor may in good faith make assignment in trust for benefit of creditors which may provide for any subsisting liability of the assignor, whether absolute or contingent. Such assignment is subject to provisions of the code relative to trusts and fraudulent transfers. Any debtor may make assignment, without preference of creditors, but is not relieved from liability for any unpaid balance to his creditors.

ATTACHMENT process issues at the time of granting the summons or at any time afterward in actions on contracts for the recovery of money only, or for wrongful conversion of personal property, against a foreign corporation or non-resident defendant, or when defendant has absconded or concealed himself, or has assigned, disposed of, or secreted his property, or is about to do so with intent to defraud creditors, or that the debt was incurred from property obtained under false pretenses. Real and personal property, debts, moneys, credits and bank-notes may be attached or levied on under execution or attachment, but there is no process of garnishment as such.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts have exclusive chancery and common law jurisdiction above $100, and where title to real property is concerned. Courts sit twice a year in nearly all the counties. County Courts hold two terms a year, and are always open for business. They have exclusive probate jurisdiction, and in counties of a population of 10,000, civil jurisdiction concurrent with the Circuit Courts to $1,000; in counties of a less population, $500. Same provisions apply in Justice's Courts as to levy, etc., on personal property. There is no stay law, and execution can only be stayed by order of the court for irregularity, by injunction, or by appeal with security given. Real estate sold under execution may be redeemed within one year.

MORTGAGES of realty must be in writing, with the formalities required in case of a grant of real estate. Wife need not join except in mortgage of homestead. If containing power of sale, may be foreclosed by advertisement without intervention of court. Mortgagor has possession of the premises during the year of redemption after sale. Chattel mortgages are void as against creditors and subsequent purchasers in good faith unless filed in office of Register of Deeds within the county. A chattel mortgage taken by Insurance company is void unless written on paper distinct from application.

Three days of grace allowed on all bills of exchange or sight drafts, whether foreign or domestic, and on all promissory notes, bills of exchange and drafts, on the face of which time is specified, and notes on demand for payment of same. Lands are sold after 1st of November following, and may be redeemed within two years, by payment of purchase money and interest at the rate of thirty per cent. per annum and all taxes subsequently paid. TENNESSEE.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution provides that the State shall not be a stockholder. All persons and partnerships paying taxes for the use of money, as money dealers, may receive deposits, issue checks or bills of exchange, or discount bills, notes, etc., but shall not be allowed to charge on bills a greater discount than legal interest and exchange.

State banks may be chartered at any time in same manner as other private corporations, and, if they so choose, may couple with the usual banking business, a safe deposit and trust company. They deal in exchange, gold, silver and bullion; buy and discount notes and bills of exchange, advance money upon a pledge or mortgage of real and personal estate, and sell the same; and perform all acts usually performed by banks, except issue notes as a circulating medium; they may allow three per cent. interest on deposit; and, if the safe deposit and trust feature is added, may take on deposit jewelry and other valuables and guarantee the safety, preservation, and delivery of same; guarantee the titles to real estate and the payment of bonds and mortgages; may execute trusts of every description; and may own a vault, and rent out boxes for the keeping of valuables, but shall not be liable for loss by fire, theft, or other cause. Stockholders not liable, except for payment of stock subscribed by each. Every six months banks must publish a statement of their condition. The Secretary of State is made a Bank Examiner, and required to examine each bank quarterly and report to the Comptroller, and each bank is subject to legislative inspection. There is no law regulating the class of bonds in which Savings banks may invest.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS within the State must be taken before a Judge, or Chairman or Clerk of a County Court, or his deputy, or a Notary Public. In other States before any court of record, or before the Clerk of any such court, Notary Public or Commissioner of the State of Tennessee. The acknowledgment of a Notary Public or a Commissioner under his seal of office is sufficient, without further proof of his official character. The certificate must be in the form prescribed by statute. In case the deed is acknowledged by both husband and wife, the privy acknowledgment of the wife is taken in addition to the above. If made out of the United States, must be under seal before a Commissioner of Tennessee appointed for such country, a Notary Public, or an Ambassador, Minister or Consul of the United States.

ADMINISTRATION. Letters of administration are granted: 1. To the husband or widow; 2. To the next of kin; 3. To the largest creditor; 4. To the public administrator, if no one applies in six months. All property, real or personal, are assets for payment of debts. Preferred debts are, funeral expenses, expenses of administration, and debts due the State, and none others are allowed.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. No insolvent law. No preferences allowed. Insertion of such clause does not render a general assignment invalid, but that clause is nugatory, and all the creditors shall share ratably. General assignment must be accompanied by sworn schedule of assets and liabilities; if not, it is fraudulent and void. A general assignment nullifies all mortgages, etc., of a portion of debtor's property made within three months, and in contemplation of making a general assignment, except those to secure the payment for property bought or money loaned, or for necessary advancements to enable owners of crops to make and save them; provided the instrument is executed at time of buying the property or borrowing the money on making the contract for said advancements to be made, and fixes the amount. Same in respect of judgments by confession or collusion. Assignee or trustee entitled to all assignor's property not exempt by law, whether same be included in assignment or not. Assignee must give secured bond when value of property exceeds $500. Such assignment does not operate as a discharge from liabilities.

ATTACHMENT process will issue where the debtor resides out of the State; is about to remove or has removed himself or property from the State; has removed or is removing himself from the county privately; is concealing himself, so that the ordinary process of law can not be served upon him; absconds or is absconding or concealing himself or property; has fraudulently disposed of or is about fraudulently to dispose of his property; or when any person, liable for any debt, residing out of the State, dies, leaving property in the State. Attachment will also issue on demands not due, in all the above cases except the first; also in above cases at suit of surety or accommodation indorser on paper due and not due. When debtor and creditor are non-residents of this State and are residents of the same State, the creditor shall not attach unless the property has been fraudulently removed to evade process in their State. Debts due and not due owing to the defendant, and property of the defendant of any kind in the hands of a third person, are subject to garnishment. There is no imprisonment for debt on civil process.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Circuit Courts hold three terms annually, and have general common law jurisdiction in all cases involving over $50. Chancery Courts, holding two terms annually, have full equity jurisdiction above $50, and concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Courts of all civil causes, except actions for injuries to person, property, or character, involving unliquidated damages. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction in equity up to $50; on all unsettled accounts, obligations, contracts, etc., to and for recovery of property, and for damages, except for libel and slander, up to $500; upon all notes and upon indorsement of negotiable paper where demand and notice are expressly waived in the instrument, up to $1,000.

DEEDS. Until registered, deeds are not good, except between parties and privies. Lands held by unregistered deeds are subject to debts of both vendor and vendee. Wife must join in deed to convey homestead.

EXECUTIONS may issue forthwith, and from Circuit Courts are returnable to the succeeding term; from Justice's Courts in thirty days. Stay of eight months may be had in judgments of a Justice by furnishing security. Debtor has two years in which to redeem realty sold under execution.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead, $1,000. Personal property consisting of household goods, supplies, tools and stock, etc., amounting in all to about $1,200.

INTEREST. Legal rate, six per cent. Contract for more is void as to excess, and an instrument showing usury on its face can not be sued on.

JUDGMENTS. From court of record are a lien from date of rendition for one year on all lands then owned by defendant, and on after-acquired lands for one year after acquirement.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Upon bonds, notes, accounts and contracts generally, six years; judgments or decrees of courts of record and other cases not expressly provided for, ten years. Revivor: Acknowledgment, expressed willingness to pay or promise; part payment not in itself sufficient. All demands against administrators and executors must be presented or sued on in two years and six months, if a resident, and three years and six months if a non-resident.

MARRIED WOMEN can hold real and personal property exempt from the husband, and not liable for his debts. Widow takes dower in one-third of the lands of which her husband died seized, and where the husband dies intestate and without heirs, she takes his entire real estate absolutely; subject, however, to the payment of his debts. She takes one-third of the personalty, but if there are more than two children, then a child's part only. Rents and profits of wife's lands not subject to husband's debts, nor can husband's life interest in wife's land be sold during her life. The husband is not liable for the ante-nuptial debts of his wife, but his marital rights do not so attach to her property as to defeat the collection of same. Married women can not make power of attorney to sell land.

MECHANICS' LIEN. Upon any ground upon which a house is constructed or repaired, or fixtures, etc., put in, in favor of the person doing the work. Covers the lands of married women. Benefit extends to any workman or furnisher of material giving notice to owner within 30 days after the completion of building, or his discharge, or the completion of his contract.

MERCHANTS. Corporations are chartered to carry on the trade of merchants, with no personal liability to stockholders.

MORTGAGES and deeds of trust take effect as to third parties only from registration. Can be foreclosed without intervention of court when power of sale is conferred in the instrument. Chattel mortgages are good as to the contracting parties without registration, but not as against purchasers without actual notice, and creditors. It is a felony for maker of registered mortgage of personal property to dispose of same with purpose of depriving beneficiary of same.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Days of grace are not allowed on bills of exchange payable at sight. Negotiable paper falling due on January 1, July 4, December 25, February 22, Good Friday, Decoration Day, Memorial Day, (and when any of these days fall on Sunday then the following Monday to be substituted); also all county, State or National election pays or any duly appointed day of fasting or thanksgiving, is due on the previous day, unless such previous day is Sunday, in which case it is due on the Saturday preceding.

SUITS. Actions in courts of record are commenced by summons issued by the Clerk of the court, and non-residents may be served by publication.

TAXES are a lien on the real estate on which they are levied, and as between vendor and vendee they are a lien from January 10th of the year for which they are assessed; as between the State, county, city and the owner, they are a lien for six years from January 10th of year for which they accrued, after which they are barred. Payable first Monday in October of the year they are assessed. After first Tuesday in February following taxes bear interest, and distress warrants are issued for collection. After default to first Monday of July of the following year bills are filed in Chancery Court, and the property is sold. State tax is 45 cents on the $100. Counties may levy same amount for general purposes. Merchants pay 45 cents on each $100 of the average capital invested, and a privileged tax of 30 cents on each $100 worth of taxable property.

TEXAS.

BANKING LAW.

The constitution of 1875 says: "No corporate body shall hereafter be created, renewed or extended with banking or discounting privileges." There is no provision of law for the official examination of State banks, nor are such banks required to make any public statements of their condition, or to make reports to any State official.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACCOUNTS, How Sworn to. Open accounts should have attached the affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, to the effect that such account is, within the knowledge of affiant, just and true, that it is due, and that all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits have been allowed. If made by agent or attorney, the body of the affidavit should allege the fact. Affidavit prima facie evidence only where account results from general course of dealing; not isolated transactions based on special contracts.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of Instruments for Record may be made without the State, but within the United States, or Territories, before Clerk of some court of record having a seal, Commissioner of Deeds for Texas, Notary Public; without the United States, before a Minister, Commissioner, or Charge d'Affaires, Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, Commercial Agent, Vice-Commercial Agent, Deputy Consul, or Consular Agent of the United States, Notary Public.

AFFIDAVITS, without this State, and within the United States, may be taken before any Clerk of a court of record, having a seal, a Notary Public, or Commissioner of Deeds for Texas.

ALIENS may acquire property rights under either of two provisions of law. (1.) They shall enjoy such rights as are or shall be accorded to citizens of the United States by the laws of the nation to which such aliens belong, or by the treaties of such nation with the United States. (2.) Aliens who become residents of this State, and shall have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, have all the property rights in this State of citizens of United States.

APPEALS to the Supreme and Appellate Courts for delay, will be affirmed, with ten per cent. on the amount in dispute, as damages, together with interest and costs.

ATTACHMENTS issue, on bond in double amount of debt being given, and affidavit of plaintiff: that defendant is justly indebted to plaintiff, and the amount of the demand; that attachment is not sued out for purpose of injuring or harassing defendant; that plaintiff will probably lose his debt unless such attachment is issued; and stating, further, either of following grounds, that the defendant (1.) Is not a resident of the State, or is a foreign corporation, or is acting as such. (2.) Is about to remove permanently out of the State, and has refused to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff. (3.) Secretes himself so that the ordinary process of law can not be served on him. (4.) Has secreted his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. (5.) Has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud his creditors. (9.) Is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors. (10.) Is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors. (11.) That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses. Suit for damages growing out of attachment proceedings may be brought in any county from which the writ issued, or where the levy was made in whole or in part. This gives the debtor the option of place of trial.

WRITS OF GARNISHMENT may also issue on application and affidavit to persons owing defendant, or holding effects of his in possession. If sued out before judgment, bond in double amount of debt is required; if after judgment, no bond required. In garnishment as in attachment, defendant may, before judgment, replevy whatever is garnisheed by filing bond with two good sureties, and may then make any defense which the garnishee could make in such suit.

BANKS. The Constitution of 1875 provides: "No corporate body shall hereafter be created, renewed or extended, with banking or discounting privileges." There is no provision of law for the official examination of State banks, nor are such banks required to make any public statements of their condition, or to make reports to any State official.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES, to be valid as to creditors, and as to purchasers without notice, must be accompanied by immediate delivery, followed by actual and continued change of possession of property, unless the same, or a true copy thereof, is filed in the County Clerk's office of county where property situated, or in county of residence of mortgagor. And all reservations of the title to chattels as security for the purchase money thereof (by a recent statute which took effect ninety days from March 31, 1885) shall be held to be chattel mortgages, and shall, when possession is delivered to the vendee, be void as to creditors and bona fide purchasers, unless such reservation be in writing, and filed as required of chattel mortgages. This statute destroys the effect of a Conditional Sale as security for purchase money. Mortgages held to be mere security for the debt, and must be enforced by sale of property; sale of property, upon death of mortgagor, must be enforced through Probate Court.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELER. Tax Upon. Every commercial traveler must pay an annual tax of $35 to the State Comptroller, which may be transferred once on the books of the officer issuing the same; no county, city or town can levy any such tax; and persons soliciting for religious, library or historical books or maps, or for nurseries, are exempt from the State tax. The constitutionality of this tax, as affecting travelers in the State for firms outside of it, has been denied by the United States Supreme Court so that the law does not affect this latter class of travelers.

CORPORATIONS. In suits by. Not required to prove corporate existence, unless defendant deny same by sworn plea. Private corporations for all general purposes of business except banking, may be created under the provisions of the general law. Corporations created outside of this State desiring to transact business in it are required, as a pre-requisite thereto, to file with Secretary of State certified copy of its articles of incorporation, accompanied by a fee, proportioned to their capital, of from $25 to $200.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Federal Court, two terms each year, at Dallas, Waco, Graham, Galveston, Tyler, Jefferson, Brownsville, San Antonio, and Austin; jurisdiction, where matter in dispute exceeds sum or value of $2,000. The State Courts are as follows: District Court, two terms each year, generally; in Harris county three; in Dallas county four, and in Galveston and Bexar, five terms; jurisdiction exclusive as to land titles, and where value or sum over $1,000, exclusive of interest; and concurrent with County Court from $500 to $1,000. County Court, four to six terms a year, fixed by Commissioner's Court of particular county; jurisdiction exclusive from $200 to $500, except in a number of less populous counties, where its civil jurisdiction has been abolished—leaving it a Court of Probate only—and the District Court has jurisdiction instead. Justice's Court, term each month; jurisdiction to $200. Clerks of Courts and Justices may require security for costs before issuing process, but shall file and enter suit.

EXECUTIONS, from District and County Courts, issue after adjournment, and may, on application of successful party, issue twenty days after judgment, if no supersedeas bond has been filed and approved; from Justice's Court, eleven days after judgment; in latter, may be stayed three months upon filing proper affidavit and bond; in all, upon plaintiff, his agent or attorney, making affidavit to certain facts, shall issue forthwith. No redemption of land sold under execution.

EXEMPTIONS. By the constitution of 1875 (became the organic law third Tuesday of April, 1876), the homestead of a family not in a town or city consists of two hundred (200) acres of land, which may be in one or more parcels, with improvements thereon. In a city, town or village it consists of a lot or lots not to exceed $5,000 in value at the time of their designation as the homestead, exclusive of improvements, provided the same be used as a home, or as a place to exercise the calling or business of a head of a family. The homestead is protected from forced sale except for taxes, or for the purchase money, or for improvements thereon, and in this last case, only when the work and materials are contracted for in writing, with the consent of the wife, given in same manner as required in making a sale of homestead. In case of death of the husband, the widow and children have one year's support from the estate, allowance therefor in no case to exceed $1,000, and if the property exempt by law does not exist in kind, a sufficiency of the estate may be sold for cash, to raise allowance for homestead, not to exceed $5,000, and for other exempt property not to exceed $500. All household and kitchen furniture, all implements of husbandry, all tools and apparatus belonging to any trade or profession, all books, five milch-cows and calves, two yoke of work oxen, two horses and one wagon, one carriage or buggy, twenty hogs, twenty sheep, all provisions and forage on hand for home consumption, and sundry other articles, are also exempt.

FUTURES, DEALINGS IN, with no intention of actual delivery, made a misdemeanor.

INSOLVENT AND ASSIGNMENT LAWS. A general assignment, by insolvent debtor, must be recorded; have annexed an inventory, under oath, of all creditors; their residence; sum, and consideration due each; how evidenced; place created; collateral securities held by creditors; with statement of debtor's entire estate, giving values. Insolvent debtors may make assignments for benefit of such creditors only as will accept their pro rata in discharge of all liability; provided, the creditor receives as much as one-third of the amount due him. Any creditor having reason to believe such debtor has concealed his property, may have him summoned before District or County Judge, and examined under oath, etc. Any attempted preference of one or more creditors shall be deemed fraudulent and without effect. Concealment by debtor of his property from assignee, or transfer of property previous to and in contemplation of assignment, with intent to defraud creditors, is made a felony. The assignee must within 30 days after his appointment give notice of same by publication in newspaper for three weeks, and, as far as he can, by personal notice, or by mail to each of the creditors of said debtor, and creditors consenting to the assignment must file their consent in writing with the assignee within four months after publication of notice of his appointment; and within six months from date of first publication of such notice must file with the assignee a statement of amount and nature of claim, with affidavit that it is true, that the debt is just and that there are no credits or offsets that should be allowed against the claim except as shown by the statement. Failure to comply with above precludes him from taking under the assignment.

INTEREST: legal, eight per cent; conventional up to twelve per cent. Open accounts, no rate agreed upon, legal interest from January 1st thereafter. Judgments bear rate stipulated in contract sued upon, and eight per cent. when none stipulated for. Usury forfeits all interest: not indictable.

JUDGMENT LIEN. In Federal, District, County and Justice Courts, judgment is a lien on debtor's real estate in any county where an abstract of judgment shall be filed and recorded in a book kept for that purpose, in the office of County Court Clerk. Lien takes effect from date record and index of abstract, and continues for ten years, unless plaintiff fails to have execution issued within twelve months after judgment. A transfer of a judgment when acknowledged, as required for deeds, filed with the Clerk of Court in which recovered and by him noted in the minute book of the Court, is constructive notice to, and valid and binding on all persons subsequently dealing with reference to the cause of action or judgment.

LIMITATION TO SUITS. Written contracts, four years; accounts, other than open accounts between merchant and merchant, their factors and agents, two years. Mortgage lien barred with the debt, but new promise which revives debt, and which must be in writing, revives mortgage.

MARRIED WOMEN can not bind themselves, nor their separate estate, by making, drawing, accepting, or indorsing negotiable instruments. Her separate estate is not liable for husband's debts; nor for her own contracts, except for expenses incurred for its benefit, or for necessaries for herself and children. Property owned by wife before marriage, or acquired afterwards by gift, devise, or descent, remains her separate property. That acquired after marriage, except as above, or by sale or exchange of separate property, is community property, as is also the increase of any of the wife's separate property, as rents, crops, increase of cattle, interest on notes, etc.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper is anything that is recognized as such by the law merchant, and it is not required that it shall be payable at a bank or any fixed place in the State. Unless otherwise provided in the paper, it will be considered payable at the residence of the maker or acceptor, or other person bound. The liability of any drawer or indorser may be fixed by instituting suit against the acceptor or maker, before first term of District or County Court, to which suit can be brought, or before second term, showing good cause why not brought at first term; within jurisdiction of Justice, suit must be brought within sixty days. Protest: Such liability may also be fixed by protest, according to the custom of merchants. The holder of a protested draft or bill, drawn by a merchant in this State, upon his agent or factor without the State, may recover ten per cent. damages thereon, besides interest and costs. Days of grace (three) allowed on all negotiable instruments. The legal holidays in Texas are: January 1, February 22, March 2, April 21, July 4, December 25; all days appointed by the President of the United States, or by the Governor, as days of fasting or thanksgiving; and every day on which an election is held throughout the State. All such days shall be considered as Sunday, for all purposes regarding the presenting, for payment or acceptance, of negotiable paper, and of protesting and giving notice of non-payment or non-acceptance. If any of the days named shall occur on Sunday, the next day thereafter shall be observed as a holiday; but negotiable paper may be presented for payment or acceptance on the Saturday preceding such holiday. Paper falling due on Sunday, or one of said holidays, must be presented for payment or acceptance on the preceding day.

PRIVATE SEALS. Abolished February 2, 1858.

SUITS, Where brought. A defendant may be sued in the county in which the contract sued on by its terms is to be performed, or in county of his residence, at option of plaintiff. Thus a note, payable at Dallas, may be sued on in Dallas county, though defendant reside in another county. This enables parties to concentrate their collections.

TAXES. Non-residents may pay State and county taxes to the Comptroller of the State, at Austin, on or before December 31st, next after assessment. Taxes are a lien upon land until paid. Taxes become delinquent, and forced collections of same begin on and after 1st day of January next succeeding the year for which they are assessed. Owner has two years within which to redeem land sold for taxes, by paying to purchaser double the amount paid for the land. All lands sold for taxes and bought in by the State, and not subsequently alienated by it, may be redeemed by the owner by paying double the amount of taxes for which sold, and all subsequent accrued taxes, with eight per cent. interest thereon from date of accrual of each year's taxes.

ARREST. Defendant in a civil action may be arrested on an order from the Judge of the Court in which the action is brought, in the following cases: First. In an action for the recovery of money or damages on a contract express or implied, when the defendant is about to depart from the Territory with intent to defraud his creditors, or when the action is for willful injury to person, to character, or to property, knowing the property to belong to another. Second. In an action for a fine or penalty, or for a breach of promise to marry, or for money or property embezzled or converted to his own use by a public officer in the course of his employment as such, or by any other person in a fiduciary capacity. Third. In an action to recover the possession of personal property unjustly detained when the property or part thereof has been concealed, removed or disposed of so that it can not be found. Fourth. When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt for which the action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property for the taking, detention or conversion of which the action is brought. Fifth. When the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with the intent to defraud his creditors. Plaintiff must furnish undertaking with sufficient sureties in at least $500. Defendant may be admitted to bail.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. No statutes on the subject; governed by the common law.

ATTACHMENT may issue in an action upon a contract or judgment which is not secured by mortgage, lien, or pledge, upon real or personal property situated in this Territory, or if so secured, after the security has, without any act of the plaintiff or the person to whom the security was given, become worthless, against a non-resident defendant, or against a defendant who has departed or is about to depart from the Territory to the injury of his creditors, or who stands in defiance of an officer or conceals himself so that process can not be served on him, or has disposed of or is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, or who has fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation respecting which the action is brought. Process issued by Clerk on receipt of affidavit made by or on behalf of plaintiff, and on the filing of an undertaking on the part of the plaintiff with sufficient sureties in a sum not less than $200.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Supreme Court of the Territory having general appellate jurisdiction. District Courts having general common law and chancery jurisdiction in all cases, said jurisdiction being exclusive in all equity cases and in all law cases involving $300 or more, or in which the title to real estate is at issue. The District Courts hold four terms each year in Beaver City, two in Provo City, four in Salt Lake City, and two in Ogden. Each county has a Probate Court with the usual probate jurisdiction. Justices' jurisdiction, any sum less than $300.

EXECUTIONS may issue at any time within five years after judgment. Property sold under execution may be redeemed within six months after sale on payment of the amount paid therefor, with six per cent. thereon and all charges, etc.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead, not exceeding $1,000, to head of family, and the further sum of $500 for his wife, and $250 additional for each other member of the family. Also necessary household furniture, tools of trade, farming implements, certain domestic animals, and provisions for sixty days, one sewing machine and the instruments and libraries of professional men.

INTEREST. Legal rate is eight per cent. Parties may agree on any rate. No usury laws.

JUDGMENT rendered in District Court becomes a lien on all the real property of debtor within the judicial district from time of docketing, and so continues for five years therefrom. Lien may be extended to counties of other districts by filing transcript of judgment with County Recorder of such counties.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS. Within two years, an action upon a contract, obligation or liability not founded upon an instrument of writing; also, on an open account for goods, wares and merchandise, and for any article charged in a store account, and after the last charge is made or the last payment is received. Within four years, contracts or obligations founded in writing. Within five years, judgment or decree of any court of the United States, State or Territory.

MARRIED WOMEN retain all their property, both that owned at the time of marriage and that acquired thereafter, as their separate estate, free from any right or control of the husband, and not subject to his debts. Married women can contract with reference to their separate property and control the same as if they were femmes soles. The surviving wife is endowed of a third part of the lands whereof the deceased husband was seized of an estate of inheritance at any time during the marriage, unless relinquished in due form.

MORTGAGES of real estate must be acknowledged as deeds, and must be foreclosed by proceedings in equity. Every mortgage of personal property is void as against creditors or subsequent purchasers unless accompanied by an actual and continued change of possession to the mortgagee, or unless the mortgage provide that the property may remain in possession of mortgagor, and be accompanied by affidavit of the parties that the same is made in good faith to secure the amount named therein, and without any design to hinder or delay creditors. Mortgage of personal property must be witnessed and acknowledged in the same manner as mortgage of realty, and, together with the affidavit and acknowledgment, must be filed for record in the office of the Recorder of county where mortgagor resides. The lien of the mortgage exists for a period of three months after maturity of debt, provided that the entire duration of the lien shall not exceed fifteen months.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE are governed by the statutes of the Territory. Notice of dishonor may be given by the holder or any party to the instrument who may be called on to pay it, and must be in writing. Days of grace are not allowed. The 1st of January, 22d of February, 30th of May, 4th of July, 24th of July, 25th of December and Thanksgiving and Fast days, are legal holidays. The apparent maturity of a negotiable instrument payable at a particular time, is the day on which by its terms it becomes due, or when that is a holiday the next preceding business days except when such preceding day is also a holiday, in which event it becomes due on the next succeeding business day. The apparent maturity of a bill payable at sight or on demand is, first, if it bears interest one year after its date; or second, if it does not bear interest ten days after date in addition to time necessary to forward it for acceptance. The apparent maturity of a promissory note payable at sight or on demand is, first, if it bears interest one year after its date; or second, if it does not bear interest six months after date. When a note is payable a certain time after sight or demand, such time is to be added to the periods above mentioned. Damages instead of interest to time of dishonor are allowed on dishonored bills drawn or negotiated within this Territory as follows: One per cent. on principal sum if drawn on person within this Territory; if drawn on any person without this Territory but within the United States, two and one-half per cent. on said principal sum; if drawn on any person in any place without the United States, five per cent. on said principal sum.

SUITS. There is but one form of civil action, and all suits must be prosecuted in the name of the real party at interest. Service on non-residents may be had by publication.

VERMONT.

BANKING LAW.

Any number of persons, not less than five, at least three-quarters of whom shall be residents of the State, may associate to establish banks of discount, deposit and circulation. The aggregate amount of the capital stock must not be less than $50,000, nor more than $500,000. No association can commence the business of banking until its entire capital stock is paid in. Examinations of the condition of a bank may be had by order of a Chancellor, upon application of creditors or shareholders whose debts amount to $1,000, stating the cause, verified by affidavit. There may be appointed biennially a joint committee of the legislature to examine the sureties deposited by the bank with the Treasurer, and such books and papers as may be thought necessary to enable the committee to report the condition of that department to the legislature. The treasurer of every Savings institution and trust company is required, on or before the 10th of July of each year, to report to the Inspector of Finance, showing accurately its condition at the close of business on the 30th of June. This report is to include the name of the institution, place of business, amount of deposits, number of depositors, and all other particulars relative to the condition of the institution.

Savings banks, saving institutions and trust companies can only invest their funds in the public funds of the United States, or public funds for which the faith of the United States is pledged to provide for the payment of; and in the public funds of the New England States, Ohio and New York, including bonds or notes of counties, cities, towns, villages, and school districts of the same; and in the stock of any National bank in the New England States and in New York, or banking association or trust company located in and incorporated under the laws of Vermont; and in the municipal bonds of cities and counties of 10,000 inhabitants or more in the States of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri; also in cities and counties of 15,000 inhabitants or more in the States of Nebraska and Kansas.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. All deeds must be signed and sealed in the presence of two witnesses. They may be acknowledged in this State before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public or Master in Chancery. Outside the State, before a Justice, Notary Public or Commissioner for Vermont, or any other officer authorized by the laws of such other State to take acknowledgments of deeds.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. There is an insolvent law (passed in 1876), but its provisions are of no effect as regards non-resident creditors. The Probate Courts have jurisdiction in insolvency. All assignments must be for the benefit of all creditors. Non-resident creditors can prove their claims and take their dividends; but the discharge has no effect upon a non-resident creditor, who does not prove his claim.

ATTACHMENTS may issue on mesne process, and trustee process will reach goods, effects or credits of defendant in the hands of a third party when the judgment, exclusive of costs, against defendant and the amount in the hands of trustee each exceed $10. Defendant in a civil action may be arrested when about to leave the State with intent to defraud.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. Justice's Courts have jurisdiction of all actions of a civil nature, except actions for slanderous words, false imprisonment, replevin for goods and chattels where the value thereof exceeds $20, and where the title to land is concerned—where the matter in demand does not exceed $200; and of actions of trespass on the freehold where the sum in demand does not exceed $20. County Courts have jurisdiction of all actions for the collection of debts exceeding $200.

EXECUTIONS are issued from County Courts at the close of term, and from Justices' Courts immediately after judgment rendered, and are returnable in sixty days. Can only be stayed by order of court. Six months allowed for redemption of real estate levied upon. The land may be sold, or, if the debtor so directs, it may be set off at a certain value, and becomes plaintiff's if not redeemed in six months.

EXEMPTIONS. Homestead, $500; necessary wearing apparel, household furniture and tools, one cow, one swine or meat of one swine, ten sheep, either one yoke of oxen or two horses (horses not to exceed in value the sum of $200), as the debtor may select, with forage for one winter, one sleigh, two sets of harness, two halters and some other small articles. Ten cords of firewood or five tons of coal, twenty bushels of potatoes, the arms used by a soldier in the service of the United States, growing crops, ten bushels of grain, one barrel of flour, two swarms of bees and their produce in honey; live poultry, not exceeding in value the sum of $10; one two-horse wagon or ox cart, as the debtor may select, with whiffletrees and neck-yoke, two chains, one plow. Also a sewing machine, and instruments and libraries of professional men to the value of $200.

INTEREST. The legal rate is six per cent. per annum. Judgments bear legal rate. Only the excess paid is forfeited, and that may be recovered back or set up in reduction of claim, if such action is brought or defense made within six years after payment of the usury.

JUDGMENTS do not of themselves create a lien on property not attached upon mesne process.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Simple promissory notes are barred in six years, but notes signed in presence of an attesting witness are not barred until fourteen years next after the right of action shall accrue thereon. Accounts are barred after six years from the last credit; sealed instruments and judgments, after eight years. A verbal promise to pay will not revive a debt, but must be in writing. A partial payment will revive the debt; but, in case of a note, the payment can not be shown by the indorsement of the payment alone unless in the handwriting of the party making the payment.

MARRIED WOMEN hold their own property separate from that of their husbands, and are not liable for their debts, except for debts contracted while doing business for themselves and in their own name, and a married woman doing business herself and in her own name, may sue and be sued without her husband being joined with her. The husband must join in the conveyance of his wife's real estate. A married woman may make a will and thereby devise her real and personal property. Widow takes dower in one-third of all real estate of which her husband died seized.

MORTGAGES are foreclosed by process of law, and the premises may be redeemed within one year of the date of decree of foreclosure. Conditional Sales are not valid as against bona fide purchasers or subsequent attaching creditors without change of possession of the property, except they are in writing and put on record, and except in the case of machinery in use. In the latter case the instrument must be executed, acknowledged and recorded in the same manner as mortgages of real estate, and must be foreclosed, assigned and discharged in the same way. By an act passed in 1878, mortgages of personal property, properly recorded in the Town Clerk's office of the town where the mortgagor resides, are valid, and hold the property without change of possession; a provision for sale of the property after condition has been broken thirty days is made, and sales are by public auction.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE are entitled to three days' grace, unless payable on demand or at sight, or in any way but in money. Negotiable paper need not be made payable at any particular bank or place. Notes payable on demand are considered overdue after sixty days from date. Whenever any bill or note, or other contract not subject to grace, shall fall due on Sunday, the 1st day of January, 4th day of July, 25th day of December, or the 30th day of May, called Decoration Day, or any day appointed by the Governor or President as a day of fast or thanksgiving, the same shall, for every purpose of protest and notice, be taken and considered as due on the first day next following. The maker and indorser of a promissory note can not be joined in one suit. The note of a married woman, unless secured by mortgage, is void as against her, except she be doing business for herself in her own name and give her note in the course of that business.

SUITS before the County Court are brought in the county where plaintiff or defendant resides—if both are non-resident, then in any county. Actions of ejectment and trespass on the freehold must be brought in the county where the land lies, and actions of replevin where the goods are detained.

TAXES. Lands sold for taxes may be redeemed within one year on payment of the full sum for which they were sold, with legal costs and twelve per cent. interest.

But the discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing values, and the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. Since the repeal of the Bankrupt law, assignments may be made in trust for any special number of creditors or for all the creditors.

ARRESTS. In aid of remedy in civil action, arrest does not lie, but capias can be taken out against debtors about to quit the State.

ATTACHMENTS. Where an action is brought to recover specific personal property (replevin) for debt or for damages for breach of contract, and the defendant is a non-resident of the State, or where he is removing his effects out of the State, an attachment may issue to seize the property of the defendant. Whether claim be payable or not, an attachment may be sued out against debtor removing, or about to remove, his effects out of the State; also in certain cases for rent, and in certain others against vessels, boats, river craft, etc.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES can be made, but are void as to creditors, etc., unless recorded.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Where a bill of exchange drawn or indorsed within this State is protested, the party liable for the principal of such bill shall, in addition, pay damages upon the principal at the rate of three per cent. if the bill be payable out of Virginia and within the United States, and ten per cent. if payable without the United States. On all negotiable notes and bills payable at a future day, grace is allowed according to custom of merchants. No grace on sight drafts. Legal holidays are: January 1, February 22, July 4, December 25, and any day appointed by the President of the United States or Governor of the State as a day of thanksgiving, fasting and prayer, or other religious observance, shall, for all purposes as regards presenting for payment or acceptance and of the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills, bank checks and promissory notes, be treated as the first day of the week (Sunday) and as public holidays. Whenever one of these legal holidays falls on Sunday, the Monday next following shall be a legal holiday. All bills, notes, checks, and which, by their tenor, are presented on a legal holiday, shall become due and be presented on the secular or business day next preceding.

EXECUTIONS may issue at any time within one year, and scire facias to revise judgments within ten. When an execution has issued within the year and return made thereon, scire facias to revive judgment may issue within twenty years, except that against the personal representative of a decedent it must be be sued out within five years after qualification as such.

EXEMPTIONS. Bible, family pictures, and books to value of $100, pew in church, burial lot, beds and bedding for family, and also various articles of housekeeping, and sewing machine. Mechanics' tools to value of $100. Farmer one yoke of oxen or pair of mules and farming utensils. A householder, the head of a family, is entitled to have real and personal property exempt from sale under execution to the value of $2,000, excepting for a debt incurred upon the purchase of such real or personal property. Rent, services rendered by a laboring person or mechanic, liabilities incurred by any public officer or officer of court, or any fiduciary or attorney for money collected, and taxes; and in case of householder or head of a family, all wages not exceeding $50 a month. The homestead claimed to be exempt must be described in the Deed-book in the office of the Clerk of the County.

GARNISHMENT. By garnishment the debts owing defendant may be collected and the proceeds held to answer any judgment which may be obtained.

INSOLVENCY. There is no insolvency law in this State.

INTEREST. Six per cent. per annum; all contracts for more are void, except as to principal sum.

JUDGMENTS are liens on real estate possessed by debtor at or after the date of judgment, or if judgment be rendered in term, at or after the commencement of the term. Are liens as against purchases without notice, if docketed within sixty days from their date, or fifteen days before conveyance made. Where the liens of two or more judgments commence the same day, the creditors share ratably.

JUSTICE COURTS have jurisdiction to extent of $100; but action, if for over $20, may be removed into the County Court or Corporation Court, and appeals are allowed to said Courts in all amounts exceeding $10, upon security being given. After judgment, if between $10 and $20, execution may be stayed forty days; if between $20 and $50, for sixty days, and if over $30, for ninety days—security in all cases being required.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. Upon an indemnifying bond, or bond of executor, administrator, guardian, curator, committee, sheriff or sergeant, clerk or deputy clerk, or any other fiduciary or public officer, within ten years. On sealed instruments, within twenty years. On an ordinary contract, within five years, excepting on a retail store debt it must be brought within two years. If the creditor is an infant, a married woman, or insane, the period of such condition is additional, excepting that in all cases the action must be brought within twenty years; all real actions within fifteen years, east of the Alleghany Mountains; within ten years west of same. No new promise will take an obligation out of these periods unless in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN. The real and personal property of any female married after April 4, 1877, owned at the time of her marriage, and the rents, issues and profits thereof, and any property, real or personal, acquired by a married woman as a separate and sole trader, is not subject to the disposal of her husband nor liable for his debts, but is her separate and sole property. Any such married woman has power to contract in relation thereto or for the disposal thereof, and may sue and be sued as if she were a femme sole, except that her husband must join in any contract in reference to her real or personal property, other than such as she may acquire as a sole trader, and must be joined with her in any action by or against her.

MECHANICS' LIENS. Any person performing labor or furnishing materials for the construction, repair or improvement of any property or building is entitled, under the law of Virginia, to a lien on the whole of same, or sufficient to cover value of labor performed or material furnished. The contract, in writing, is required to be recorded in County of corporation wherein the land lies. Liens remain in force but six months from time the money to be paid is due, unless suit in equity is instituted within the six months. In suit in equity the lien also inures to the benefit of persons to whom the holder of the lien is indebted for materials or labor, provided they jointly or severally file petitions at any time before final decree making themselves parties to the suit. Crop liens must be recorded in office of the Clerk of the County.

MORTGAGES. Mortgages on real estate must be recorded in office of Clerk of County or City.

WASHINGTON.

BANKING LAW.

The basis of the banking law is found in Sections 2421, 2430, and 2434 of THE CODE, which relate to Corporations.

These sections have been amended, and the law, generally, as to banking in Washington, may be summarized as follows:

CAPITAL STOCK. Minimum stock, $25,000; shares, $100 each; all of which shares shall be subscribed, and three-fifths of such capital stock shall be paid in before commencement of business; the remainder to be subject to the call of the trustees.

DUTY OF TRUSTEES. It shall be the duty of the trustees of any bank to file with their articles of incorporation their affidavit, that three-fifths of the capital stock of such bank has been actually paid in.

RESPONSIBILITY OF STOCKHOLDERS. Stockholders are held individually responsible, equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts, and engagements accruing while they remain stockholders, to the extent of the par value of their stock, in addition to the amount invested.

REPORTS. Banks are required to file, on the first Monday in June, each year, with the Auditor, a report, sworn to by the president, vice-president, or cashier, of its resources and liabilities, stating the amount of deposits, the aggregate of loans, and the amount upon each class of securities; the names and residences of the shareholders and number of their shares; the trustees or officers for the time being, and any other matters affecting the safety of their deposits or interests of their creditors.

BANKING POWERS. The usual banking powers, extended to authority to loan on real estate security, and to accept trusts.

THE SIGN NAME, "BANK." It is made a misdemeanor to put up or exhibit the sign "Bank" over the place of business, or to attempt to do business under a corporate name, when not incorporated.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACTIONS. All distinctions in forms of actions are abolished, except that pleadings in actions in equity are to be addressed to the Judge of the Superior Court (Code 2. 73, 74). Every action must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest; except that an Administrator, Executor, Guardian or Trustee of an express trust may sue without joining the person for whose benefit the action is prosecuted; and any Assignee of any judgment, bond, specialty, book account or other chose in action, for the payment of money by assignment in writing, signed by the person authorized to make the same, may, by virtue of such assignment, sue and maintain an action in any court of law or equity as the case may require, in his or her name, against the obligor, or debtor, therein named, notwithstanding the assignor may have an interest in the thing assigned; provided, that any debtor may plead in defense any counter-claim or any off-set, if held by him against the original owner, against the debt assigned, save that no counter-claim or off-set shall be pleaded against negotiable paper assigned before due, and, when the holder thereof has purchased the same in good faith and for value, and is the owner of all the interest therein (Code 2, 4, 5, 15). Persons severally liable upon the same obligation or instrument, including the parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes, may all or any of them be included in the action at the option of the party prosecuting the action (Code 16). Husband and wife may join in all causes of action arising out of contract in favor of either or both of them; if a husband and wife be sued together, the wife may defend for her own right, and, if the husband neglect to defend, she may defend for his right also; and she may defend in all cases in which she is interested, whether she is sued with him or not. No action abates by the death, marriage, or other disability of the party, or by the transfer of interest therein, if the cause of action survive or continue; but the Court may at any time within a year thereafter, on motion, allow the action to be continued by or against his representatives or successors in interest (Code 16). Actions must be tried in the county in which the defendants or some one of them resides at the time of commencement of action, subject, however, to the power of the Court to change the place of trial as provided by law (Code 50). The complaint shall contain: 1. The title of cause, specifying the name of the Court, the name of the county, and the name of the parties to the action; 2. A plain and concise statement of facts constituting the cause of action; 3. A demand for the relief which plaintiff claims; if the recovery of money be demanded, the amount thereof must be stated. Affidavits may be taken before any Judge of the Superior Court, or Clerk thereof, Judges of Probate, Justices of the Peace, Notaries Public, and Auditors of Counties.

ALIENS. Any alien, whether a resident of this State or not, enjoys the same powers and privileges that resident citizens now have.

WISCONSIN.

BANKING LAW.

All banking laws and amendments thereto are submitted to popular vote, under a constitutional provision. Banking corporations are created under general laws for that purpose. Any number of persons may so associate, and acquire the usual banking powers. The capital stock must not be under $25,000, or over $500,000. From banks of circulation, adequate security by deposit of bonds and public stocks with the State Treasurer is required before issue of their bills; but of course existing Federal legislation renders the careful provisions of the law in this respect practically a dead letter. All fees for protesting the circulating notes of any bank shall be paid by the person procuring the protest, and the bank shall be liable therefor. Any State bank may be changed into a National banking association under the general banking laws of the United States on the written assent of stockholders, owning two-thirds of the capital stock, being filed in such bank. The organization may then be perfected under the laws of the United States, and thereafter all the property shall vest in the new association. No security but the individual liability of each stockholder to the amount of his stock, is required from banks of deposit and discount only. A list of the stockholders must be filed semi-annually in the offices of Register of Deeds of the county, and of the State Treasurer. Stock in the bank is taxable where the bank is located. The rate of interest lawful among individuals, and the usual bank rule of discount and of calculating time are permissible to banks. Ten per cent. is the highest contract rate and seven per cent. is the legal rate of interest. Semi-annual reports of the banks' business must be filed and published.

Private banking is permitted, without State control or interference, apart from the usual civil and criminal liabilities and remedies, except that the name of the person or firm must be displayed. Most banking, not under National Charters, is so conducted.

Savings banks, on what is known as the "Massachusetts" plan, being strictly mutual corporations, may be organized by twenty or more persons, who must file a certificate stating their object, name of bank, etc. The modes of investment, securities, etc., are duly guarded. Deposit in one year by any one person is limited to $1,000. An annual report of its true financial condition must be filed by every bank in the office of the Secretary of State. Profits over 6 per cent. can be divided only once in three years.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. (See Deeds.) Deeds and like instruments for record must be acknowledged within the State before any Judge, or Clerk of court of record, Court Commissioner, County Clerk, Register of Deeds, Notary Public or Justice of the Peace; without the State, according to either the local law or the Wisconsin law, before a notary with seal or other authorized officer. No "Clerk's certificate" for a Notary, Commissioner of Deeds for Wisconsin, or Clerk of court of record is needed; for other officers it is needed to authenticate the acknowledgment. Official seals should be affixed.

ACTIONS. (See Attachment.) The Circuit and a few County Courts have general civil jurisdiction; Justices of the Peace, of actions (except for some torts and about land titles) up to $200. The practice is under a code. Distinctions between actions at law and suits in equity have been abolished as to form. Actions affecting real property must be commenced in the county where the land lies; non-residents must give security for costs on commencing actions, if security is demanded. Process to begin action in all courts is by summons. Arrest is allowed in certain cases. (See Arrests.)

ADMINISTRATION. All probate jurisdiction is vested in the County Court of the county of decedent's domicile, or of his property situs, if a non-resident. Administrators, executors, and guardians are appointed on petition and notice, the widow and heirs being preferred over creditors, unless they decline or fail to apply. Security is required. Foreign administrators and executors can act here upon filing copies of their letters, without ancillary administration. Possession and income of all realty (except homestead, q. v.), as well as personalty pertains to the administrator, etc., pending disposition of the estate. All non-exempt property is applicable to debts. Debts must be proved by affidavit filed in County Court, within six months after notice given upon issue of letters; else they are barred. This limitation does not bar contingent liabilities not fixed before said time expires. The Federal Courts ignore this limitation and entertain actions against the administrator, etc., on such debts within six years if assets are still in hand. Any other creditor or the administrator, etc., may contest claims. In insolvent estates, all other debts prorate after full payment of administrative, funeral, and last-sickness expenses, and debts preferred by United States laws. In solvent ones, the same order obtains. The residue (except homestead, q. v.) is distributed under the will or the law of descent. (See Descent.)

ALIENS may acquire, transfer and inherit property, like citizens, except that non-resident aliens cannot acquire more than 320 acres of land by purchase. (See Descent.)

APPEALS. Appeals may be taken to Supreme Court direct from Circuit and County Courts having civil jurisdiction, regardless of the amount involved, within two years from entry of judgment. The appellant must give security for costs of appeal. Appeals from Justice Courts to Circuit Court and County Courts with civil jurisdiction are permitted within twenty days after entry of judgment, and security may be required. The case is tried de novo in the Appellate Court. Appeals as to wills and other matters of probate jurisdiction lie from County to Circuit Court, and thence to Supreme Court.

ARRESTS are permitted in certain actions based on tort or fraud, and in actions for fine or penalty, and for recovery of personal property unjustly detained or concealed. No female can be arrested on any action except for willful injury to person, character or property. When an order of arrest is granted, bail in a sum stated to appear in court or respond to the judgment may be given.

ASSIGNMENTS FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS may be made by an insolvent debtor to such person as he elects, who must give bond in double the nominal value of assets. The assignee must file list of creditors and inventory within twenty days, and notify creditors who may prove their claims by affidavit filed with assignee or with Clerk of Circuit Court of county where debtor lives. Proof of claim must be so filed within ninety days after assignee gives notice. That court has a general supervision of all proceedings and settles final accounts. The assignee or any creditor can contest any claim filed. Debts to employes for wages, etc., earned within three months are preferred by law, and the same for six months may be preferred by the assignment. All others must prorate, and other preferences avoid assignment. Exemptions are allowed to assignor. (See Exemptions.) The assignment cancels a lien or levy under a judgment by confession entered within sixty days before; or, conditionally on the creditor's knowing or having cause to believe the debtor insolvent, any sale or security made within that time and in contemplation of an assignment or of insolvency. Insolvent debtors, after properly noticed hearing, may be discharged from all liabilities. A debtor who has made a voluntary assignment, by filing within six months thereafter his application for discharge in the Circuit Court, where such assignment is filed, may be discharged from all debts, after notice and hearing. Such application shall have annexed thereto a sworn statement that he has not disposed of any property for his future benefit, or in any way fraudulently compounded with any of his creditors; opposing creditors may have a jury trial on hearing of application for discharge, and have the right to appeal. Foreign assignments are treated according to the rules of comity. A majority in number and value of creditors may procure removal of assignee, and appointment of a new one, and the Circuit Judge may, upon notice and after hearing, remove assignee for cause. The assignee must file verified itemized statement annually during continuance of trust; assignor and assignee may be fully examined as to all matters relating to state of business immediately before and after assignment.

ATTACHMENT (See Garnishment) may be had, on contracts, when indebtedness exceeds fifty dollars, for absconding from State or concealment in it, to avoid process; for fraudulent disposition or removal, actual or intended, of property; for fraudulent contraction of liability; for official defaults; or against a non-resident, or a foreign corporation. On torts, it may be had in the two latter cases. It may be had in Justice Court, when indebtedness exceeds five dollars, on the same grounds and also for residence of defendant over 100 miles away and in another county of this State. The writ issues only upon affidavit of the ground for it and of the debt or tort and (except in Justice Court) a bond for two hundred and fifty dollars must go with it. The defendant may traverse or deny the ground for the writ, and if he succeeds on trial the writ is dismissed, but judgment (on proof of debt) given for plaintiff, less costs of attachment. Attachment may be had on a debt not due, if bond is given for thrice the debt; but on failure to sustain the writ, the action too fails. This is the only case where an action lies before debt is due.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES (For Bills of Sale, see Sales) must be filed in Town or City Clerk's office, or actual possession must be taken and kept by mortgagee, to make them good against third parties; and when filed, they must be renewed by filing affidavit of amount unpaid every two years from date. If on household furniture or exempt chattels, (See Exemptions), they are invalid without the wife's signature before two witnesses. If on stocks of merchandise, they become due between the parties unless the mortgagor every sixty days files a verified statement of amount sold, payments made and new stock added; if this statement is not so filed, the mortgage becomes invalid, as to third parties, fifteen days afterward. Foreclosure sales cannot be had without mortgagor's consent, and the goods cannot be removed from the county within five days after seizure. On satisfaction of mortgage, certificate of mortgagee may be filed and original mortgage removed from files.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS do not have to pay State or local licenses.

CORPORATIONS are organized only under general laws. Stockholders are liable for debts of the corporation to the full amount remaining unpaid upon their stock subscriptions, but no more, except as to wages due employes of other than railroad companies, for six months. On such debts each stockholder is liable to the amount of his stock. Foreign corporations may deal, sue and defend here, like domestic ones; but insurance companies are under State license and supervision.

DEEDS. (See Acknowledgments.) Deeds and mortgages must be sealed (with scroll or "L. S.") and have two witnesses. The usual rule of priority of bona fide purchase subsequent to an unrecorded deed prevails.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION. Realty (except homestead, q. v.), if intestate, descends to: 1. Children and their issue, if all are in the same degree; else by right of representation. 2. Widow. 3. Parents, or survivor of them. 4. Brothers and sisters, or if deceased, their issue by right of representation. 5. Other next of kin in equal degree. All realty owned in husband's life, except homestead, is subject to dower, unless barred by wife's assent to deed, or by a jointure or provision by will accepted in lieu of it; and all owned by wife at death and not devised by her or descended to issue by a former husband is subject to a tenancy by the curtesy. A non-resident wife is dowable only of lands owned by husband at decease. Tenancy by curtesy is independent of issue. Personalty is distributed by rules of descent.

EVIDENCE. There is no disqualification of a party as a witness, except as to transactions, etc., with a dead or insane person, for or under whom the opponent sues or defends.

EXECUTIONS from Justice Court may be stayed by bond for periods varying with amount; from a Court of Record only by security on appeal. There is no lien on chattels till levy; and sale is on twenty days' notice. On realty, lien begins with docket of judgment or transcript from Justice or Record Court, in Circuit Court Clerk's office of the county where the land lies; all papers or certified copy may be filed in county where land lies for enforcement of judgment. Sale is had on six weeks' notice, and Sheriff's deed absolute issues after fifteen months without redemption. Supplementary proceedings lie after issue of execution and before or after return unsatisfied. Execution is issued, of course, within five years after judgment; after five years, only on authority from the court.

EXEMPTIONS. (See Homestead.) Exempt chattels are clothing, bedding, stoves, cooking utensils and other furniture to value of $200; library; two cows, ten swine, two horses or mules (or one of either and a yoke of oxen), ten sheep and their wool, and a year's food for all exempt live stock; a wagon, a sleigh, a dray, a plow and $50 worth of other farm tools or tackle for teams; a year's provisions for debtor and family; tools and implements, or stock in trade, or both, up to $200; sewing machines for family use; printing materials and presses of a printer or publisher up to $1,500 (except that as to claims of laborers and servants for services, only $400 shall be exempt); patents, owned by the inventor; three months' earnings (not over $60 a month), if the debtor has a family to support; and all insurance money on exemptions. Most of these exemptions avail only residents. Corporations have no exemptions. Partners, however many, may take exemptions as individuals from joint assets by serving their interests. None of above property exempt from execution or attachment in action for purchase money of the same property. Exemptions cannot be waived.

FALSE PRETENSES may be committed by word or writing, and are punishable by fine or imprisonment.

GARNISHMENT. (See Attachment.) This remedy lies, whenever attachment does, in any court, upon affidavit for it showing indebtedness and the debtor's lack of sufficient non-exempt assets to satisfy it. No undertaking is required. This is a common mode (as less costly than attachment) of testing an alleged fraudulent transfer or invalid assignment for creditors. All garnishees may be united in one summons, and be deemed severally proceeded against unless otherwise specified; money garnished must be paid into court; property garnished may be released on giving sufficient undertaking.

HOMESTEAD. (See Exemptions.) Real estate of whatever value, not over one-quarter acre in a city or village, or forty acres for agriculture in the country, is exempt to the actually resident owner. So, too, of its insurance, when burned, or its proceeds when sold, and held not over two years for purchase of a new one. But it is subject to mechanics' and mortgage liens, created with the wife's assent, and it cannot be conveyed without her signature (except that purchase money mortgage is good without wife's signature). On death of owner (unless widow is otherwise provided for to her satisfaction) it goes to her for life or widowhood; then, as other realty, to the heirs. (See Descent, etc.)

INSOLVENCY. (See Assignments for Creditors.) An insolvent, independently of an assignment for his creditors, may procure a discharge as to creditors within (but not without) the State, by surrender of all non-exempt property, and petition. The property is distributed to creditors through an assignee. On notice to creditors, and an examination of the debtor, in the absence of fraud, the discharge is granted.

INTEREST. The legal rate is seven per cent.; maximum contract rate, ten. Usury (except in bottomry and respondentia bonds) forfeits the whole interest if not yet paid; if paid, treble the unlawful excess may be recovered by suit within a year.

JUDGMENTS. (See Executions and Limitations of Actions.) Judgments in Circuit Court are liens on land for ten years, and bear interest at the rate of seven per cent.

LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS are these: On sealed instrument, when cause of action accrues within the State, twenty years; when it accrues without the State, or on equitable cause of action, or a foreign judgment, ten years; on a municipal bond or other contract even when sealed, on any unsealed contract or liability at law, or trespass, trover or replevin, six years; on action against a Sheriff or other officer for violation of duty, three years; on action for a penalty or forfeiture, or for an injury to person or character, two years; on an action for equitable relief against fraud, within six years after discovery of the facts constituting the fraud; on an action for recovery of realty, ten years after the adverse possession begins, where occupant claims under a paper title; otherwise, twenty years.

LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS. (See Partnerships.)

MARRIED WOMEN (See Chattel Mortgages, Homestead) have in general the same rights as other adults, except that they cannot become liable as sureties without an express charge of the debt on their separate estate. A deed by a married woman without her husband's signature passes her entire estate in land, free of his tenancy by the curtesy.

MECHANICS' LIENS. Any realty whereon labor or materials are used or furnished for any construction, repairs or improvement is subject to a mechanics' lien thereon—limited to one acre in a city or village, and to forty acres elsewhere. The lien must be preserved by filing a petition in the Circuit Court, within six months after the date of the last item of work or materials, and by a suit to foreclose the lien within a year from the date of said item. Machinery may be removed in lieu of a sale of the land for the debt. The lien covers only the interest in the title of the person incurring the lien debt; but it is paramount to all other liens, securities or transfers after date of first labor or materials furnished, even though such liens, etc., were made of record before the lien petition was filed. Mechanics' liens prorate from the proceeds, irrespective of order of origin or filing of their liens. A sub-contractor has the same right of lien, up to amount still owing principal contractors, if he gives notice of his claim to the owner within thirty days after completing his sub-contract. Liens may be assigned.

MORTGAGES. (See Chattel Mortgages, Deeds.)

PARTNERSHIPS. There is no statutory regulation of general partnerships. Limited ones may be formed, to consist of general partners and special partners. The latter contribute a stated amount of capital and are liable for no losses beyond that. Public notice must be given of the formation of the firm, its members' names, their contributions of capital, etc.; the special partners must pay all their shares in cash, and must be strictly non-participating—else they become liable as general partners.

PROMISSORY NOTES AND BILLS. The common law prevails as to negotiability, protest and rights and liabilities of the various parties to them. Warehouse receipts are negotiable unless expressed not to be. Municipal bonds are not negotiable, unless expressly authorized to be. Sight drafts carry grace; demand drafts, none. Damages on foreign bills, five per cent. One action may be brought against all parties liable on a note or bill. Negotiable paper maturing on Sunday or holiday becomes due on the next preceding secular day.

REPLEVIN. Specific personalty may be recovered by this action, on an affidavit by or for plaintiff showing his title or right of possession and defendant's wrongful detention or taking. The limit of jurisdiction in Justice Court is $200. All cases above that must be in courts of record. Security in double its value for return of property and payment of damages is required in the latter, but not in the former courts; and the defendant can reclaim the property pending the suit by due security in his turn.

SALES are prima facie invalid, unless accompanied by immediate and continued change of possession. Unless the vendee proves his good faith this presumption is absolute. Installment leases and contracts for sale, reserving title to vendor till full payment must be written, and filed like chattel mortgages. "Futures" in grain, etc., are void if intended by both parties only as a wager on prices; else, valid.

STATUTE OF FRAUDS. Instruments affecting title or possession of realty must be in writing signed by grantor or his agent. Agreements not to be performed within a year, and those of suretyship must be in writing, expressing the consideration and signed by the party to be charged. Contracts of sale for $50 or over are void unless written or there is partial delivery or payment.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.—(See Executions.)

TAXES are levied about December 10. If not paid by about March 1, the land is returned delinquent to County Treasurer and sold on third Tuesday of May. The tax certificate issued therefor bears 25 per cent. interest, and after three years (unless sooner redeemed) a deed is due the purchaser, which is absolute.

WILLS. Any person over twenty-one, and a married woman over eighteen years, of sound mind, may make a will, which must be attested by two witnesses. Nuncupative wills under certain strict conditions are allowed. Revocation is by usual modes of destruction or by writing executed under the formalities of a will.

WYOMING.

BANKING LAW.

The Territorial legislatures are prohibited from granting private charters or special privileges; but they may pass general incorporation acts permitting persons to associate themselves together as bodies corporate for mining, manufacturing, and other industrial pursuits, and for conducting the business of insurance, banks of discount and deposit (but not of issue), loan, trust and guarantee associations, or the construction or operation of railroads, wagon roads, irrigating ditches, and the colonization and improvement of lands in connection therewith, and certain other purposes of a religious, educational, benevolent, charitable or scientific character. There is in the Territorial law a provision that shares of stock in National and other banks are subject to taxation, and certain provisions in the civil code in relation to a course of procedure for the purpose of preventing a banking corporation or its trustees or directors from making an improper disposition of the funds or other property of the bank, or violating any franchise of the corporation. All banks except National banks are required to make full statements at the end of each quarter, showing under appropriate heads and in details, their resources and liabilities. The quarters end on the last days of March, June, September, and December, in each year. The statement is required to be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the bank does business and in the office of the Auditor of the Territory. In the case of a corporation, the report must be published in a newspaper. It is unlawful for a bank to receive deposits when insolvent.

Provision is made under the Territorial law for the organization, management, and control of banks, banking associations, savings banks, and loan and trust companies. It is made the duty of the Territorial Bank Examiner to examine and report upon the condition of all banks incorporated under Territorial law once a year, and oftener if ordered to do so by the Territorial Auditor.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS must be made before a Judge or Clerk of a court of record, or before any County Clerk, Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, or U. S. Court Commissioner, within this Territory. If made out of the Territory, before any officer authorized by the State or Territory in which it is made, to take acknowledgments, before the Clerk of any court of record, or before any Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this Territory for such purpose, provided that if such acknowledgment is not made before an officer having a seal, it must have attached thereto a certificate of the Clerk of a court of record, or a County Clerk of the same place, having a seal, certifying that the officer taking the acknowledgment is authorized to take the same, and that he believes that the signature appended to the acknowledgment is genuine. Every Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, and Commissioner of Deeds for Wyoming, who takes an acknowledgment to any written instrument to be recorded in any public office in Wyoming, shall add to his certificate the date when his commission or term of office expires. Conveyances must be signed in the presence of one subscribing witness. If any deeds, mortgages, or conveyances of lands, or of any interest in lands, be executed in any foreign country, government, kingdom, or empire, such deed, mortgage, or conveyance of land may be executed according to the laws of this Territory, and may be acknowledged before a Consul General, Consul, or Vice-Consul of the United States; and when so acknowledged the officer taking the acknowledgment shall certify the same over his hand and official seal, or the seal of the consulate to which he is attached, if there be any such seal; and in case he has no official seal, and there be no seal of his consulate, that fact shall be stated in the certificate; and no other or further authentication shall be required to entitle such instrument to record in this Territory. This provision shall also apply to powers of attorney executed in any such foreign country, government, kingdom, or empire.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY. An insolvent debtor may make an assignment in good faith to one or more assignees for satisfaction of creditors. No preference of creditors or payment of false or fraudulent claims is allowed. The assignment must be in writing, executed according to the laws of the Territory, and must be filed and recorded in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which the assignor resides, or has his principal place of business, if he be a non-resident of Wyoming. Within fifteen days after the execution of any such assignment the assignee shall file a certified copy of the assignment and schedule in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the county in which the debtor resides, or does business, and shall, before entering upon the execution of his trust, make oath that he will faithfully execute the same, and shall at the same time file with the clerk a written undertaking to the Territory of Wyoming, with at least one sufficient surety, in a sum double the value of the property assigned, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his trust. The assignee then proceeds to close up the estate, convert the property into money, and make distribution to creditors. The District Court exercises a supervisory power over the acts of the assignee. The Judge of the District Court may remove an assignee for good cause shown, or appoint a new assignee in case of a vacancy in the position. Any creditor accepting from the assignee his dividend shall release the assignor from all further liability for the debt on which payment was made.

ATTACHMENTS may issue against the property of persons who are non-residents of this Territory or are about to become non-residents or a foreign corporation; or when the defendant has absconded with intent to defraud his creditors; or has left the County of his residence to avoid the service of summons; or so conceals himself that a summons cannot be served upon him; or is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the jurisdiction of the Court with intent to defraud his creditors; or is about to convert his property or a part thereof into money for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or has property or rights in action which he conceals; or has assigned, removed, disposed of, or is about to dispose of his property or a part thereof with intent to defraud his creditors; or has fraudulently or criminally contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which suit is about to be or has been brought. In order to obtain an attachment, the plaintiff, his agent or Attorney, must make affidavit showing the nature of the plaintiff's claim, that it is just, the amount which the affiant believes that the plaintiff ought to recover, and the existence of any one of the grounds for attachment mentioned above, or that the affiant has good reason to believe and does believe that some one or more of said grounds (stating which ones) exists. The plaintiff must also give an undertaking with sufficient surety, who must be a resident property holder in the Territory, and be approved by the Clerk of the Court by whom the order of attachment is issued, in a sum equal to double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, to the effect that the plaintiff shall pay the defendant all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment if the order prove to have been wrongfully obtained. Garnishee process may be had in aid of attachment. Property is not exempt from attachment and sale on execution for the money due for its purchase price. A creditor may bring an action upon a claim before it is due and have attachment against the property of the debtor when a debtor has sold, conveyed or otherwise disposed of his property with a fraudulent intent to cheat or defraud his creditors or to hinder or delay them in the collection of their debts; or is about to make such sale, conveyance or disposition of his property with such fraudulent intent; or is about to remove his property or a material part thereof with the intent or to the effect of cheating or defrauding his creditors or hindering or delaying them in the collection of their debts; or where the defendant is about to become a non-resident of the Territory. An attachment authorized in case of a debt not yet due may be granted by the Court in which the action is brought or by a Judge thereof, but an affidavit and undertaking of the creditor similar to those required for attachment in case of a debt past due must be executed before the writ of attachment will be issued.

ARREST AND BAIL. Arrest of the defendant in civil actions may be made on grounds very similar in character to those upon which a writ of attachment may be issued against the property of the defendant. The order for arrest of the defendant shall be made by the Clerk of Court in which the action is brought, when there is filed in his office an affidavit of the plaintiff, his authorized agent or Attorney, stating the nature of the plaintiff's claim; that it is just and the amount thereof, as nearly as may be, and establishing one or more of the grounds for which an arrest is sought. The affidavit shall also contain the statement of facts claimed to justify the belief in the existence of one or more of such particulars. The order of arrest shall not be issued by the Clerk until there is executed by sufficient surety of the plaintiff a written undertaking to the effect that the plaintiff will pay to the defendant all damages not exceeding double the amount of the plaintiff's claim stated in the affidavit which he may sustain by reason of the arrest if the order prove to have been wrongfully obtained. The defendant may be released upon payment by depositing with the Sheriff, or in court, an amount equal to double the claim of the plaintiff, or by giving bail for that amount, as provided by law.

COURTS. Terms and Jurisdiction. The Supreme Court holds one regular session annually at the capital of the Territory. Its business is principally of an appellate character. District Court is held twice a year in each organized county, except Fremont, Sheridan and Natrona counties, where it is held once a year, and in Weston county, where special terms may be held as provided by law. Said Court has full common law and chancery powers. There is a Probate Court in each county. Justice's jurisdiction, $100. It has been increased by Act of Congress and supplemental Territorial legislation in actions for the recovery of money only on contract, express or implied, to $300.

EXECUTION may issue immediately after judgment rendered, and is returnable in sixty days from a court of record, and thirty days when issued by a Justice of the Peace. There is no stay law except in Justice's Courts, and no provision for redemption.

EXEMPTIONS. Household furniture, provisions, etc., for head of family residing with same, $500; tools, team, implements or stock in trade of mechanic, miner or other person, kept for his trade or business, $300; library and instruments of professional man, $300; homestead actually occupied as such by head of family in country, 160 acres; in town, lot or lots in value $1,500; necessary wearing apparel of every person to the value of $150. Earnings of a judgment debtor to the amount of $100 where necessary to the use of a family supported wholly or in part by his labor. No property is exempt for a person removing or absconding from the Territory, and all persons claiming exemption must be actual, bona fide residents of the Territory. No article of property is exempt from attachment or sale on execution for its purchase price.

INTEREST. In the absence of express contract, all moneys, claims or judgments draw interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum. Any rate may be agreed upon in writing; unsettled accounts draw interest after thirty days from date of last item.

JUDGMENTS are a lien on debtor's real estate within the county from the first day of the term at which judgment is entered, but judgments by confession and judgments rendered at the same term at which the action is commenced bind the debtor's real estate only from the time of entry, which lien continues for five years.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS. On contracts not in writing, four years; upon specialty or agreement in writing, five years; on all foreign judgments, or contracts made or incurred before debtor becomes a resident, within two years after he establishes residence in Territory; recovery of lands, ten years. Revivor: Part payment or acknowledgment in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN. A married woman retains her property, both real and personal, may make a will, carry on business, sue and be sued, and retain her own earnings in the same manner as if sole. She may also vote and hold office. There is no right of dower under the Territorial Statute, but Congress has enacted a law with especial reference to Utah Territory, which was believed to have established the right of dower in all the Territories. In one of the District Courts of Wyoming Territory it has been decided that said law applies only to Utah Territory. The question has not been passed upon by the Supreme Court of Wyoming Territory.

MORTGAGES must be attested by one witness, acknowledged and recorded in the manner provided by law for the execution and recording of deeds, and are foreclosed by action at law, or by advertisement. Chattel mortgages are subject to the same rules in regard to execution and recording. They cease to be valid against creditors or subsequent purchasers in good faith, after the expiration of two months from the end of the term for which they are given, and may be foreclosed by advertisement for not less than twenty days. There is no provision for the redemption of real or personal property sold at mortgage sale.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE are subject to a Territorial law which substantially enacts the law merchant. The 1st day of January, the 22d day of February, the 30th day of May, the 4th day of July, the day appointed by the President of the United States or the Governor of the Territory as a fast or Thanksgiving Day, the 25th day of December and the day in the spring appointed by the Governor of the Territory as Arbor Day, are legal holidays.

SUITS. There is but one form of action, and the Code of Procedure is very similar to that of Ohio.

TAXES become due and payable on the third Monday in September in each year, and the taxpayer may pay the entire amount of his taxes after that time and before the third Monday in November following, or he may pay one-half of the amount of his taxes between those dates, and the remaining one-half on or before the third Monday of April following. In all cases where one-half of any tax is not paid on the third Monday in November succeeding the levy thereof, the whole amount of the tax charged against any taxpayer so failing to pay such tax shall become delinquent from that day, and in case the second installment of any tax be not paid before the third Monday in April, succeeding its maturity, such installment shall thereupon become delinquent. A penalty of ten per cent. on the amount unpaid is added to all taxes when they become delinquent. Delinquent taxes draw interest at the rate of twenty-five per centum per annum until paid or collected by distress and sale. Taxes upon real property are made a perpetual lien thereupon, and taxes due from any person upon personal property are a lien upon any real property owned by such person. Both personal and real property may be sold for taxes in the manner provided by law. Real property may be redeemed from tax sale at any time within two years after the sale, by payment of the amount for which it was sold, thirty per cent. of the same, interest on the whole amount at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum, and subsequent taxes.

MANITOBA.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. (See Deeds.)

ARREST. A debtor may be arrested at the instance of a creditor whose claim amounts to $100 or upwards, upon it appearing by affidavit of the creditor or his agent, to the satisfaction of a Judge of the Superior Court, that unless such debtor be forthwith apprehended he will quit Manitoba with intent to defraud his creditors. The writ of arrest (or capias) may be issued before or after judgment.

ASSIGNMENT AND INSOLVENCY. There is no bankrupt or insolvency law in force in this Province; but debtors may make assignments in trust for the benefit of all their creditors ratably and proportionately, and without preference or priority. Preference to creditors by confession of judgment, cognovit actionem, or by war rant of attorney, to confess judgment, or by gift, conveyance, assignment or transfer of any of his property, prohibited; but judgments recovered in due course retain their priority, notwithstanding the debtor is in insolvent circumstances.

ATTACHMENTS. All property, real and personal, of debtors, or persons against whom there is a cause of action, may be attached in the following cases: (1) When such debtor or other person shall depart from Manitoba with intent to defraud his creditors or to avoid arrest or service of process; (2) when such debtor or other person, not being a resident of the Province, shall be indebted or liable to a resident of the Province upon contract or for damages; (3) when such debtor or other person, whether resident or non-resident, is about to remove any of his property out of the said Province, or has assigned or secreted any of his property therein, with intent to defeat, delay, or defraud creditors. No bonds are required to be given by plaintiff. Remedy by garnishee process given by Statute to creditors or persons having a cause of action against another, which may be had at the commencement of or at any time during the pendency of suit.

COURTS. The Court of Queen's Bench is the Supreme Court of Manitoba, and has an original and appellate jurisdiction both at law and in equity. There are four terms a year for the hearing of appeals from a single Judge. County Courts have jurisdiction up to $250, in all actions except claims in the nature of seduction, breach of promise of marriage, and a few others which are confined exclusively to the Queen's Bench. An appeal lies from the County Court to the Queen's Bench.

DEEDS. Deeds of land, or of any interest in land, in this Province may be executed in the presence of a single witness. For the purpose of registration, an affidavit must be made by the witness of the due execution by the grantor, which affidavit, if made within the Province, may be made before any Commissioner for taking affidavits in the Queen's Bench, the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the county in which the lands lie, a Judge of any of the Superior or County Courts, or any Justice of the Peace; if made in any other Province of the Dominion, it may be made before a Judge or Prothonotary of any of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity, or any Notary Public certified under his official seal; if made in any State of the Union, it may be made before the Mayor of any city or corporate town and certified under the common seal of such city or town corporate, any Consul or Vice-Consul of Her Majesty resident therein, or a Judge of a court of record or a Notary Public, certified under his official seal. No acknowledgment is necessary if the due execution of the instrument is proven as above. It is not necessary for a wife to join in a conveyance by the husband of lands held in his own name, as dower does not attach during the lifetime of the husband. The Torren's system of land transfers has lately been introduced in the Province, but registration under the act is optional with the owners. When once brought under the operation of the act, however, all subsequent transfers or conveyances must be in the manner laid down and according to the forms prescribed by the statute.

EXECUTIONS issue from the Queen's Bench in all cases as of course against the goods of the judgment debtor, and bind the goods from the date of receipt by Sheriff as against the debtor or purchaser with notice, or from date of seizure as against purchaser for value without notice: lands are bound by the registration of a certificate of judgment in the Registration Division where the lands are situated, which must be renewed every two years. Executions from the County Court remain in force for three months, and bind goods only, but may be renewed.

EXEMPTIONS. The following personal and real property are free from seizure under any writ of execution issued by any Court in the Province: (1) Beds and bedding in the common use of the judgment debtor and his family, and also household furniture and effects not exceeding in value $500; (2) the necessary and ordinary clothing of debtor and his family; (3) twelve volumes of books, books of a professional man, one axe, one saw, one gun, six traps, and all nets and seines used by debtor; (4) the necessary food, if in possession of the debtor at the time of seizure, for himself and family for sixty days; (5) two cows, three oxen or three horses or mules, four sheep, two pigs, twelve fowl, and food for same for sixty days, the exemption as to horses to apply only in case they are used by debtor in earning his living; (6) the tools, agricultural implements and necessaries used by debtor in practice of his trade, profession or occupation to the value of $500; (7) the articles and furniture necessary to performance of religious services; (8) the land upon which debtor and his family actually reside, or which he cultivates or uses, provided the same does not exceed 160 acres, if outside the limits of any city or town; (9) the horses, stables, barns, and fences on debtor's farm, subject as aforesaid; (10) all necessary seeds or roots for the cultivation of thirty acres; (11) the actual residence of any person, other than a farmer, in any city or town, provided the same does not exceed in value $1,500; if it exceed the above value, before it can be sold, the said amount must be paid or secured to the debtor. The above exemptions only apply to debts contracted since May 2, 1885. All debts due or accruing due prior to that date are governed by the Exemption Act in force at the time such debts were contracted, and which was not as liberal to the debtor as the present law.

INTEREST. The legal rate is six per cent. There are no usury laws in force, and parties may contract for any rate. Interest is computed on judgments from date of entry at the legal rate. Rests not allowed unless there is a contract in writing. Accounts bear interest at legal rate from date of rendering or demand for payment; liquidated demands from date due.

JUDGMENTS remain in force for twenty years without renewal; they are not a lien upon either personal or real estate of debtor; execution may issue at any time within six years, but until issued and placed in the hands of the Sheriff, no lien arises. Certificates of Judgments may be issued and registered in the local Registry offices, and they bind all the lands of the debtor within the Registration Division. The lien thus created may be enforced by suit in the Superior Court.

LIMITATION OF SUITS on contract, not under seal, written or parol, within six years after cause of action accrued. Upon specialties, within twenty years after cause of action accrued. If party entitled to sue is under disability or beyond seas, then within six or twenty years from date of removal of disability, as the case may be. Recovery of real estate, ten years. Case taken out of statute, by part payment, or acknowledgment in writing.

MARRIED WOMEN since the 14th day of May, 1875, retain all property owned by them at date of marriage, or subsequently acquired for their own separate use, free from the debts or control of husband, but such property is liable for their own separate debts and contracts, and may be sold to satisfy same. In every respect, wife is considered separate from her husband; she may carry on business in her own name, and deal with her property, and sue and be sued in the same manner as if she were unmarried. Her property is not liable for any of the ordinary or necessary expenses of the family, unless specially charged by her. A widow is entitled to dower in the real estate of her husband which he dies possessed of, and which he has not disposed of in his lifetime or by his will. In such cases the share of the wife is declared by statute to be one-third absolutely. A man may convey land to his wife, and vice versa, without the intervention of a trustee.

MORTGAGES are executed in the same manner as deeds and are governed by same laws as to registration in the local Registry Offices, and as to priorities. Tacking prohibited by statute. Foreclosure or sale proceedings taken in the Queen's Bench; there is no redemption after final order for foreclosure or sale. Chattel mortgages and bills of sale must be filed with the Clerk of the County Court, within whose county the goods are situate, before they have any effect as against execution creditors or purchasers for value without notice. They require to be renewed within thirty days of the expiration of two years from the date of filing, by filing a statement verified by the affidavit of the mortgagee or his agent, showing the amount due upon the mortgage and exhibiting his interest therein; unless renewed, they are absolutely void as against the creditors of the mortgagor.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Bills of exchange, promissory notes and checks, are the ordinary forms of commercial paper used in this Province, and the Law of England relating to the same as it stood on the 15th July, 1870, governs in all cases, except when modified by Provincial or Dominion Legislation. It is not necessary that notes or bills of exchange be made payable at a bank or other particular place within the Province. Three days of grace are always allowed except when payable on demand. In case a bill or note falls due on a bank holiday (i. e. Sunday, New Year's Day, Christmas Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, 24th May, 1st July, and Thanksgiving Day), it must be presented on the following day; when properly presented and protested, and notice given, the indorsers are liable; otherwise they are relieved. The production of the protest in any Court within the Province proves presentment and notice of dishonor without further evidence. No stamp duty is now required on commercial paper within the Dominion of Canada.

SUITS. There is only one Superior Court, the Court of Queen's Bench, which has all the powers possessed by the various Courts of Law and Equity at Westminster, together with the Probate and Divorce, Admiralty and Ecclesiastical Courts of England, as they stood on the 15th day of July, 1870. Actions and suits are begun by writ of summons, or bill in equity. If defendant does not appear within time limited, judgment by default may be signed. Provision is made for substitutional service of process by publication or otherwise.

TAXES. Lands may be sold for taxes, when in arrears for one year or upwards, by the Treasurer of the municipality within which the lands lie, and may be redeemed at any time within two years from date of sale, upon payment of the sum paid by purchaser, with ten per cent. interest if redeemed within one year, or twenty per cent. interest if redeemed within two years from date of sale.

No property, debts, or effects regularly attached under original alias or pluries writs of attachments shall be released except by the termination of the suit in favor of the defendant, or otherwise by operation of law, until the defendant, or some one on his behalf, shall have given bond with two sufficient securities to the Sheriff in double the sum sworn to, or until he shall have deposited with the Sheriff, to abide the order of the Court in the cause, an amount equal to the sum sworn to, and a further amount for costs, as provided for by law; such bail bond shall stand and be security to the plaintiff to abide the final judgment of the cause. If not made payable anywhere, it is payable at the place where bill is dated.

ONTARIO.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

ACTIONS. All actions are commenced by a writ of summons indorsed with a statement of the nature of the claim made, or the relief or remedy sought. If the claim is for a liquidated demand in money arising out of contract, express or implied, for example, on a bill of exchange, promissory note, check, account, or any simple contract debt, the writ is specially indorsed with the particulars of the claim or amount sought to be recovered. A defendant, if served within Ontario, must enter an appearance within ten days after service, inclusive of the day of service. If served out of Ontario, further time is given, according to distance. If the writ is specially indorsed, and the defendant does not appear, judgment may be signed in default of appearance without any further proof of claim, and execution be issued on the judgment so signed at the expiration of eight days from the last day for appearance; should the defendant enter an appearance, proper pleadings will have to be served, and the action take its ordinary course. If the defendant appears to a specially indorsed writ and has no real defense, but appears merely for time, the plaintiff may at once give notice and apply for final judgment, after filing an affidavit setting forth the facts, made by himself or any other person, or agent, who can swear positively to the debt or cause of action, verifying the cause of action, and stating that in his belief there is no defense, and that the same was entered only for the purpose of delay. The Court, upon such application, has power to order immediate and final judgment to be signed. Inferior jurisdiction is exercised by the Division or County Courts. Division Courts are held in the different counties throughout the Province almost monthly, and have jurisdiction in: 1. All personal actions where the amount claimed does not exceed $60. 2. Claims and demands of debt, account or breach of contract, or covenant or money demand where the amount or balance claimed does not exceed $100. 3. Claims for debt or money demand not exceeding $200, where the amount, or original amount, is ascertained by the signature of the defendant or person whom, as executor or administrator, he represents. No costs are recoverable in the Division Court as a general rule, only court fees, which are not large. County Courts have jurisdiction in: 1st. All personal actions where debt or damages claimed do not exceed $200; 2d. In all suits relating to debt covenant, and contract to $400, if ascertained by act of the parties or signature of the defendant. They can not try these cases if title to land, or the validity of any devise or bequest is in question, or in actions for libel or slander, or crim. con. or seduction. In all these latter cases and in all actions above the limit of the County Court, the High Court of Justice for Ontario has jurisdiction. If suits are brought in the wrong court, the parties are deprived of costs. Priority of judgments is regulated only by the time of the delivery of the writ of execution into the hands of the Sheriff, and not by the time of obtaining the judgments.

AFFIDAVITS. Affidavits to be made in the United States or any foreign country, to be used in any of the courts in Ontario, may be made before a Notary Public, certified under his hand and official seal, or before a Commissioner residing in such foreign country, duly authorized to take affidavits, etc., to be used in Ontario.

AFFIRMATIONS. Special provision has been made for the taking, receiving and administering of any oath, affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration in attestation of the execution of any written instrument or deed, or allegations of fact, or of any account rendered in writing before any Judge, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or Commissioner by Cap. 141, Revised Statutes Dominion. Accounts and statements are usually verified in this way when required to be sent in to Assignees, Trustees, Executors and Administrators of estates.

ALIENS. Every kind of real and personal property may now be held, bought and sold by aliens as freely as though they were natural-born subjects. Although not resident in Ontario, they may be sued if they are served with process. Any resident in Ontario may be sued upon a cause of action arising in a foreign country. Any person not resident within the Province who brings an action in its courts, is bound, upon application made therefor, to give to the opposite party security for the costs which may be incurred in the action, generally to the extent of $400. In the County Courts, security is required to the extent of $200.

ARREST. One foreigner can not follow another into Ontario and have him arrested for a debt contracted abroad, but this rule is limited where the debtor is in the Province on temporary business and is about to return to his own country; but where the debtor absconds from his own country to this Province with no intention of returning, or intends to go to some other country, the creditor can follow him and have him apprehended upon a writ of capias ad respondendum; but where the debtor is passing through Ontario on his way to Europe it is questionable whether he can be followed and arrested in this Province. A married woman is not liable to arrest for debt.

ASSIGNMENTS. There is no Insolvent or Bankruptcy Act in force in Canada now. By Provincial Statutes preferences are illegal. On seizures by the Sheriff, creditors are paid ratably. Assignments to Trustees for the benefit of creditors are allowed when ratable and proportionate, and without priority, and supersede all executions. A chose in action may be assigned by any form of writing.

ATTACHMENT. A resident in Ontario who, being indebted to any other person, departs or absconds from this Province with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid arrest or service of process, and at the time of his so departing is possessed to his own use of any real or personal property, is deemed an absconding debtor, and his property may be seized and taken by a writ of attachment, for which a Judge's order must be obtained upon affidavits setting forth the necessary facts.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE AND PROMISSORY NOTES can not be made for less than $1. No stamp duty is required to be paid on bills, notes or checks. Three days of grace are always allowed. In case a bill or note falls due and is payable on a legal holiday, it must be presented the day after such holiday. The legal holidays as fixed by statute, in all matters relating to bills or notes, are, Sundays, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Christmas Day, the birthday of the Sovereign (24th of May), Dominion Day (1st of July), and any special days appointed by proclamation for public holidays, fasting, or thanksgiving. The legal rate of interest is six per cent. If a person accepts a bill of exchange payable at a bank, or other particular place, without further expression in his acceptance or makes a promissory note payable at a bank or at any particular place without more, such acceptance and promise are general. If the acceptance is stated to be at a bank or other place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, or if the note is payable at a bank or other place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, then the acceptance and promise are qualified. If a promissory note, payable only at some place in the United States of America, and not otherwise or elsewhere, is made or negotiated in Ontario, and is protested for non-payment, the holder is entitled to receive, in addition to the principal sum mentioned in the note, damages at the rate of 4 per cent. on the principal sum, and also interest thereon at 6 per cent.

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages must be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the county where the goods are situated, within five days from the date of execution. Renewal statements filed during the last month of each year of their currency, are required to preserve their effect.

Claims Against Estates of Deceased Persons. Where a person dies intestate, letters of administration may be granted by the Surrogate Court. In administering the estate, no difference is made as to the judgment debts or other debts; all are to be paid pari passu. Claims are enforced by suing the appointed executor or administrator. Wills are proved in the Surrogate Court of the county where the testator had his last place of abode.

Commissions are granted by order of a Judge for taking the depositions of a witness in a foreign country, or when dangerously ill, though resident in the Province, or about to quit the Province. The Court gives full directions as to the execution of the Commission.

Corporations are created by Act of Parliament, special charter, or under the general acts relating to the incorporation of joint stock companies by Letters Patent. In most cases the shareholders are liable only to the amount of their shares, and when these shares are paid in full, they are discharged from any further liability, except as to debts due to the company's servants. Provision has been made for the winding up of joint stock companies.

Costs. See Aliens.

Courts—County, Division and High Court of Justice. See Actions.

Deeds. It is better that all deeds be made in duplicate, so that one may be filed or registered while the other is returned with a certificate of registration indorsed thereon, and be used as evidence if necessary. Common forms of deeds may be used, but the statute provides a short form, with covenants and bar of dower. All deeds should be under seal. A wafer, sealing wax or other adhesive substance will answer for a seal, but a scroll is of no use. In conveying the estate of a married woman it is usual, although not absolutely necessary for safety, that the husband should be a party to the deed, but no acknowledgment or separate examination of the wife, apart from her husband, is required. Proof of all deeds, mortgages, etc., for registration, is to be made by an affidavit by the subscribing witness, indorsed upon the instrument and duplicate, or securely attached to it, as follows: in any foreign country—before the Mayor of any city, borough or town corporate certified under the common seal, or before any British Consul or Vice-Consul resident in such country, or before a Judge of a court of record, or a Notary Public, certified under his official seal. When different parties sign before different subscribing witnesses, each such witness must make a similar affidavit as to the execution by the parties whose execution he attests, or the deed, etc., can not be registered. One credible person, male or female, who can read and write, will suffice as a witness to attest.

Distress. See Exemptions.

Evidence. In all civil proceedings no person is disqualified as a witness on the ground of interest, as a party or otherwise. Husbands and wives are competent and compellable witnesses, save as to communications made during their marriage and proceedings consequent upon adultery. In actions by or against representatives of any deceased person, or by or against a lunatic, an opposite or interested party to the suit can not have judgment upon his own evidence as to any matter occurring before the death, unless such evidence is corroborated. An affirmation or declaration may be made by a witness if the presiding judge be satisfied that an oath would not in conscience have any binding effect.

Exemptions. The following goods and chattels of a judgment debtor are exempt from seizure under writs of execution, or distress warrants for rent or taxes: (1) The bed, bedding and bedsteads (including a cradle) in ordinary use by the debtor and his family; (2) the necessary and ordinary wearing apparel of the debtor and his family; (3) certain specially enumerated chattels, not exceeding in value $150; (4) all necessary fuel, meat, fish, flour, vegetables, actually provided for family use not more than sufficient for the ordinary consumption of the debtor and his family for thirty days, and not exceeding in value the sum of $40; (5) one cow, six sheep, four hogs and twelve hens, in all not to exceed in value of $75, and food therefor for thirty days; (6) tools and implements of, or chattels ordinarily used in, the debtor's occupation, to the value of $100; (7) bees reared and kept in hives to the extent of fifteen hives; (8) lands acquired under the free grant and homestead act are exempt from seizure and sale for debt for a period of twenty years from location of land being made by locatee or his widow, heirs or devisees.

Insolvency. There is no insolvency act in force. See Assignments.

Interest. Six per cent is the legal rate. Banks can not recover more than 7 per cent. on mortgages. Parties may agree between themselves as to any rate of interest; but, where no rate has been agreed upon, the legal rate only is recoverable.

Judgments. Foreign judgments are all judgments recovered against any person outside of the Province, even though it be in any other Province of the Dominion. A defendant sued in the courts of the Province on a foreign judgment of a court, to the jurisdiction of which he was subject, can not set up as a defense thereto any defense which he set up, or might have set up, to the original action if he was personally served with the process in such original action, or appeared or pleaded thereto. In the case of actions on judgments obtained in the Province of Quebec, if the service was not personal any defense may be set up which might have been made to the original judgment.

Limitations. All actions upon simple contracts, notes, bills, accounts, and all instruments not under seal and money demand, must be commenced and brought within six years from the time the cause of action arose or accrues. When the plaintiff is under any disability, such as infancy, coverture, or lunacy, the statute of limitations begins to run from the removal of the disability. All actions to recover land and real estate must be brought and commenced within ten years from the time when the right of action first accrued, and not after.

Married Women. A married woman is now capable of acquiring, holding, and disposing of, by will or otherwise, any real or personal property, including any property acquired by her in any employment which she carries on separately from her husband, or by the exercise of any literary, artistic or scientific skill, as her separate property, and as though she were a feme sole, without the intervention of any trustee. She may enter into any contract, and be sued either in contract or tort, and be liable as if a feme sole, and her husband need not be joined as a party. All damages and costs recovered against her in an action shall be payable out of her separate estate. No husband or wife shall be entitled to sue the other for tort in a civil action. A married woman may devise, bequeath her property by will. A wife is entitled to dower out of all the lands of which her husband was seized at and after their marriage in which she has not barred her dower. The husband can only be tenant by curtesy out of such lands as his wife may die seized or possessed of. Woman attains her majority at twenty-one years.

Mechanics' Liens. Unless an express agreement to the contrary exists, every mechanic, machinist, laborer, builder, contractor or other person doing work upon, or furnishing materials to be used in the construction of, any building, etc., or erecting, furnishing or placing machinery on or in connection with any building, has a lien for the price of the work, etc., on such building, etc., and the lands therewith, to the extent of the owner's interest. A statement of claim must be filed in the Registry Office of the county where the lands lie, within thirty days of the completion of the work, or the supplying of the materials, else the lien will cease. Proceedings to enforce the lien must be taken within ninety days from the completion of the work, in the County or Division Court, or in the High Court of Justice, according to the amount claimed. Mechanics are entitled to a lien upon a chattel for work done thereon, and may sell the chattel after three months if the work is not paid for. If the chattel is delivered to the owner, the lien ceases.

Mortgages on Lands should be duly executed by the parties under their hands and seals, as in case of deeds, and be proved in the same way. See Deeds. In order that a mortgage be valid against subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, it must be registered in the Registry Office of the county within which the lands are situated. It may be discharged by a certificate signed by the mortgagee, or his assignee, or representative entitled to receive the money, and such certificate should be registered in same Registry Office. After maturity the mortgagee is not entitled to charge the mortgagor any interest by way of bonus for the privilege of paying off the mortgage. The execution of a certificate is proved in the same manner as a deed or a mortgage. The usual remedies of a mortgagee in default of payment of the principal or interest, are by sale under the power of sale contained in the mortgage, foreclosure, or sale in a suit for that purpose, or by an action upon the covenant.

Partnerships. All partnerships, for trading, mining or manufacturing purposes, must be registered in the County Registry Office. The declaration must set out the full names, occupation and residence of the partners, the business they propose to carry on, and for how long their partnership has existed or is to exist. This declaration must be filed within six months after the formation of the partnership. A penalty of $100 may be imposed in case of non-compliance with the act. A similar declaration shall be filed when and so often as any change in the partnership takes place.

Promissory Notes. See Bills of Exchange.

Proof of Claims. See Affirmations.

Taxes. The rate for the year is fixed by the council of each municipal corporation, and by statute law the lands are charged therewith. Lands may be sold for taxes when they are in arrears for three years. The owner may redeem within one year after sale.

Wills must be in writing, and signed, but need not be sealed, by the testator or by some person in his presence and by his direction; such signature to be made or acknowledged by the testator, in the presence of two witnesses, both present at the same time, who shall sign their names as such witnesses, in the presence of the testator. A common form of attestation clause is as follows:

"Signed and declared by the above-named A. B., as and for his "last will and testament, in the presence of us, both present at the "same time, who, at his request and in his presence, have hereunto "subscribed our names as witnesses."

"C. D., of Toronto, Clerk,"

"E. F., of Hamilton, Merchant." (Signed) "A. B."

The gift to a witness, or to the husband or wife of a witness, is invalid. A will to pass personal property need only be in conformity with the law of the country in which the testator had his domicile. To pass real estate, however, the will must be valid and effectual for such purpose according to the law of the country where the real estate is situated. A will, no matter how long executed before the death of the testator, is construed as if it had been executed immediately before his death. Hence, property acquired between the date of the will and the time of the testator's death may pass by the will.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

COMMERCIAL LAW

ASSIGNMENT. An assignment made by any debtor after the commencement of a suit against him of any property whatsoever for the purpose of defrauding the plaintiff in such suit, or of giving any undue preference to any other plaintiff or creditor, will deprive him of the relief referred to, under the head of insolvent or indigent debtors.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES may be given by a debtor upon all his goods, chattels and stock in trade, to secure any debt, and must be filed with the prothonotary of the Supreme Court in the county where the mortgagor resides, otherwise it will only be valid as against the maker himself. If given to secure future advances, it will have the same effect as a mortgage on real estate to secure similar advances.

COMMERCIAL PAPER need not be payable at a bank or other particular place unless so desired, and specified on the face of the note or bill. Promissory notes and bills of exchange are negotiable, and are subject to the right of set-off between the same parties, but not if indorsed for value to third parties before they become due. Indorsers are not liable if the note is not duly presented for payment when it falls due, and notice duly given to the indorser. No protest is necessary on inland bills and notes, but is on foreign bills in order to make indorsers and drawers of bills liable. Three days' grace is allowed on all promissory notes or bills.

COURTS. The City Court of the city of Charlottetown, over which the stipendiary magistrate presides, has a limited jurisdiction extending only to persons living within the city limits, and to amounts under $80. The County Courts have jurisdiction in all cases of debt, detinue, trover, etc., where the debt or damages do not exceed $150. They have no jurisdiction in cases where the title to land is in dispute. They meet in the months of March, August, October, and December. The Supreme Court has jurisdiction in all cases for all sums over $32; and for amounts under $65 attorneys are only allowed one-third of the usual fees. All foreigners suing in the Supreme Courts may be compelled to give security for costs, and the same practice applies to the County Court.

EXECUTION may issue in the County Court after a lapse of ten days from the recovery of judgment against the goods and chattels of the debtor, and in default thereof, where the debt was contracted previous to January 1st, 1880, against his body. For debts contracted since that date, an affidavit showing good and probable cause for believing that the debtor is about to quit the Province to defraud his creditors generally, or the plaintiff in particular, or that he has made some secret or fraudulent conveyance of his goods to prevent their being taken in execution, is necessary before an execution issues to arrest the debtor. Executions can not issue after two years, without affidavit of amount due on judgment, and not at all after the lapse of ten years from the date of judgment, or the return of the last execution. In the Supreme Court executions may issue immediately after judgment, where it is a confession, and ten days after verdict where adverse, at any time within ten years, against the goods, chattels or lands of defendant, and for debts contracted previous to January 1st, 1880, against his person. For debts contracted since that date, an affidavit similar to that required in the County Court is necessary before a debtor's body can be arrested on final executions. Executions in County Court are made returnable in thirty days, and in Supreme Court at any time after thirty days from the issue thereof. Lands sold under execution must be advertised for at least six months in the Royal Gazette, and also by handbills.

EXEMPTION. The wearing apparel and bedding of the judgment debtor, the tools and implements of his trade, one cooking stove and one cow, in all amounting to the value of $50, are exempt from seizure under a County Court execution. In the Supreme Court the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the debtor and his family, and the tools or instruments of his trade or calling, $16.22 in money and his last cow, are exempted from execution.

GARNISHMENTS. Debts due to debtors can be attached in either the Supreme or County Courts before or after judgment. In case, however, a creditor fails to obtain judgment, the attachment proceedings will abate.

INTEREST. The legal rate of interest is six per cent. where no other rate of interest is specified; a contract, however, may be made for the payment of any rate of interest whatever, and whether secured by real estate, personal property or personal responsibility. Interest will be allowed on debts or sums payable by virtue of some written instrument at a certain time, such as bills, promissory notes, etc.; or if payable otherwise, then upon proving some agreement, express or implied, to pay interest.

JUDGMENTS. When judgment has been recovered in the Supreme Court, a minute or memorial thereof may be filed with the prothonotary of the court, and the judgment will, from the date of the filing of such minute, bind the lands of the judgment debtor, wherever situate in the Province. Execution may issue on such judgment at any time within ten years, after which a writ of revivor or suggestion is necessary. A judgment with a minute thereof filed ranks as a mortgage in binding the lands of the debtor, and will take preference to a mortgage subsequently recorded. Judgments may be recovered in this court both adversely and by confession, and also without suit, by a warrant of attorney being given by the debtor, on which judgment is entered. Judgments of this latter description are sometimes taken as securities for loans in preference to mortgages. Judgments in the County Courts do not affect lands.

LICENSES are not required for the carrying on of any business, except for the sale of spirituous liquors, carts, trucks, and peddlers, and these are, in some instances, granted by the incorporated towns, and in others by the Provincial government.

LIMITATIONS. On simple contracts, suits must be commenced within six years from the time the debt falls due, or from the date of the last payment on account of such debt, or should the debtor at the time the debt becomes due be out of this Province, then within a like time from the date of his return, or the date of the last payment by him. A promise or acknowledgment in writing, signed by the debtor, is sufficient to take simple contracts out of the statute, and it will then begin to run from the date of such written promise or acknowledgment. Actions to recover any sums of money secured by any mortgage, judgment or lien, or otherwise, chargeable out of any land, must be brought within twenty years next after a present right to receive the same shall have accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for the same, unless in the mean time some part of the principal money or interest thereon shall have been paid, or some acknowledgment of the right thereto shall have been given in writing by the person by whom the same shall be payable, or his agent, and in such case within twenty years from the last of such payments or acknowledgments.

MARRIED WOMEN Personal property owned by the wife at the time of marriage or acquired by her afterward (unless trusted for her sole benefit), becomes the property of the husband, he being liable for debts due by her at the time of marriage. She may hold real estate in her own name, her husband receiving the profits during their joint lives, and, in certain cases, during his life, but she can not convey it without the consent of her husband.

PARTNERSHIPS may be formed by two or more persons for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, or manufacturing business. Partners can not limit their liability to the public for debts contracted with the partnership. A certificate of the formation of such partnership should be filed with the prothonotary of the Supreme Court, giving the date of such formation, names and residences of the parties, and the nature of the business to be carried on. Until this is done, no suit or action can be brought in court in this Province, for any debt due such partnership. This Province has now one general incorporation Act, and a company desirous of obtaining a charter apply by memorial to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council stating the object, etc., of the company, and a charter to be granted for the purposes asked.

PROBATE. When a person dies his personal estate becomes vested in his executor, if he has made a will and appointed one, and if he has not appointed an executor, in the administrator appointed by the Surrogate, and is liable to the payment of the debts of such deceased person. His real estate, in case of a deficiency of personal estate, is also liable to be applied in payment of debts, subject to any judgment or mortgage lien affecting such real estate. Claims against the deceased must be attested by the creditor, or, in his absence from the Province, by his agent, before the Judge of Probate, or Register, or Justice of the Peace, by an affidavit in the form prescribed by the statute. Claims should be proved against the estate within eight months after letters testamentary have been taken out, as after that time the executor, on being sued, may plead specially that he had no notice of the debt, and that he has applied the assets in his hands in payment of the debts proved against the estate and of which he had notice.

REPLEVIN. When goods or chattels have been unlawfully distrained for rent, or taken or detained, an action of replevin will lie, by which the goods are returned by the Sheriff to the party from whom they have been taken, on his entering into a bond with sureties that he will prosecute for damages. This action is seldom adopted, except in cases of illegal distraint for rent.

QUEBEC.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

AFFIDAVITS taken within the Province, to be used in its Courts, must be sworn to before some officer of the Court. Commissioners of the Superior Court can receive affidavits for use in the Circuit Court. Like force is given to all foreign affidavits taken before a Notary Public, under his hand and official seal, or before the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city, borough, or incorporated town in Great Britain, the colonies, or any foreign country, under their hand and official seal, or before any Consul or Consular Agent of Her Majesty in a foreign country to which he is appointed.

ALIENS have a right to acquire and transmit property in the same manner as British subjects. Although not resident in Canada, they may sue or be sued in its Courts for the fulfillment of obligations contracted toward or by them, even in foreign countries. Every person not resident in the Province is bound, if thereto required by the opposite party, to give security for costs in any suit or proceeding which he institutes in its Courts, and to file a power of attorney authorizing the taking of such action. They can not, however, hold any public office nor exercise the franchise.

ASSIGNMENT AND INSOLVENCY. No abandonment of property can be made in the absence of capias or a demand of assignment. Every trader who has ceased his payments may be required, by any unsecured creditor, for a sum of $200 or upwards, or any creditor holding a judgment for $80 or upwards, to make an abandonment of his property for the benefit of his creditors in the office of the Prothonotary of the Court for the district within which the said debtor resides or the capias issued. He must give notice of this abandonment to his creditors. The Court appoints a curator, after taking the advice of the creditors, at a meeting called for that purpose, and the property is sold for the benefit of the creditors, amongst whom its proceeds are divided ratably, after payment of privileged claims. This abandonment only discharges the debtor to the extent of the amount which his creditors have received on account of their claims. The winding up of insolvent banks, insurance companies and trading corporations is regulated by a Dominion Statute of 1882 and amendments.

ATTACHMENT AND CAPIAS. A person may, even before judgment, upon affidavit, seize the property of his debtor, whether in the hands of such debtor himself, or of third parties, or arrest his person, on the ground of secretion of property, absconding with intent to defraud, and, in the case of insolvency, of his refusing to assign. A capias for the arrest of a debtor can not be issued for a sum less than $40, but his property may be seized for a debt of $5. To justify a capias, the debt must be a personal one, and contracted within the Province. Women, priests and septuagenarians are not liable to be capiased.

COMMISSIONS for the examination of witnesses outside of the Province, or within the Province at a distance from the place where the court is held, or in case of the illness of a witness, or of his probable absence from the country at the time of trial, are granted upon application to the Court. Such commissions contain full instructions as to their execution.

COURTS. The Circuit Court has original jurisdiction where the amount demanded is less than $100; the Superior Court where it is that sum or upwards. All judgments rendered by the latter Court are susceptible of review and appeal. The Superior Court sits once a month in the Chef-lieu of a district only; the Circuit Court sits once a month in the Chef-lieu, and three times a year in the country parts. A defendant may be summoned either before the Court of his domicile, or the place where the demand was served upon him personally, or where the right of action originated. Real actions are brought before the Court of the place where the object in dispute is situated. Suits are instituted by means of a writ ordering the defendant to appear on a certain day, copy of which, with statement of demand, is served upon him. The writ is obtained on written application and payment of proper fee. A system of summary procedure has been established in commercial matters. An appeal can be taken to the Court of Review and Court of Queen's Bench in all cases over $100. An appeal can also be had from the Court of Queen's Bench to the Supreme Court of Canada in all cases over $2.000; and to Her Majesty's Privy Council, in England, in all cases over $2,500.

DEEDS, MORTGAGES AND REGISTRATION. Mortgages and deeds affecting the title of lands held under the French system must be passed before a Notary Public. Where the lands are held in free and common socage, such deeds may be passed, either before a Notary, or before two witnesses, one of whom makes affidavit to the signatures, in order to prove their authenticity. To take effect from the time they were made, they must be registered within thirty days; otherwise, they do not take effect, as regards third parties, until registered. Mortgages can only be granted on real estate; they can not be given on movables or chattels; effects may, however, be pledged by being placed in the hands of a creditor to secure his debt. Judgments give liens only on the real property against which they are registered.

EVIDENCE. The testimony of one witness is sufficient in all cases where proof by testimony is admitted. A party can not be admitted as a witness in his own behalf. Husband and wife can neither testify for nor against each other, except where they are separated as to property, and one, as agent, has administered property belonging to the other, in which case the agent may be examined in relation to facts connected with such administration, but only as a witness for the adverse party.

EXECUTION may, in all cases, be issued after fifteen days from the rendering of the judgment. In summary matters the delay is only eight days. It may, however, be taken before the expiration of these delays upon causes which would justify a seizure before judgment. Except for taxes, executions can not issue against immovables unless the judgment is for a sum amounting to or exceeding $40, without costs.

EXEMPTIONS are very few. They include a portion of the furniture of the debtor, absolutely necessary for the use of himself and his family, with food and fuel for thirty days, and ordinary and necessary wearing apparel; a sewing machine is also allowed, and in the case of farmers, two draft horses or oxen, one cow, two pigs, four sheep, with food for thirty days. Books of account, titles of debt, alimentary allowances, wages and salaries not yet due, can not be seized.

FOREIGN JUDGMENTS. In any suit brought upon a judgment rendered out of the Dominion of Canada, any defense set up, or that might have been set up, to the original suit may be pleaded to the suit upon such judgment; but, if the first judgment was rendered in any of the other Provinces of the Dominion in a suit in which the defendant had been served personally, or had appeared, no defense that might have been set up to the original suit can be pleaded to the suit on such judgment. In suits against corporations, service upon the proper officers, according to their charter or to law, is held to be personal service. If the service have not been personal, or if in the absence of personal service the defendant have not appeared, any defense which might have been set up to the original suit may be made and pleaded to the suit upon such judgment.

HUSBAND AND WIFE. In default of an antenuptial contract of marriage, which must be in notarial form, there takes place between the consorts, by the mere operation of law, a community of the following property: (1) Of all movable property, either possessed by them before marriage or falling to them, or acquired after marriage, including the revenues of their private property; (2) of all the immovables they acquire during marriage, except such as fall to them by succession or equivalent title. Of this community the husband has the sole control. Immovable property belonging to either consort before marriage, or falling to him by direct succession during marriage, remains the private property of such consort, subject as regards the property of the husband, to the right of dower, preserved by registration, consisting of the usufruct to the wife, and the ownership to the children, of one-half thereof. This right of dower may be abandoned by the wife. The husband administers the private property of his wife, but can not alienate her immovables without her consent. In marriage contracts all kinds of agreements derogating from these rules may be made, such as complete separation of property, gift of future property, etc Where the consorts are separated as to property the wife retains the entire administration of her property, movable and immovable, but she can not alienate her immovables without the special consent of her husband or the authorization of a Judge.

INTEREST. Any interest may be charged which the parties may lawfully agree upon. If there is no agreement, the law fixes the rate of interest at six per cent. Corporations, except home and British insurance companies, and those constituted for religious, educational, and charitable purposes, in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, can not receive more than six per cent., and those mentioned more than eight, under severe penalties. Banks are not subject to any penalties for usury, but can not exact more than seven per cent.

LIENS AND PRIVILEGES. In cases of insolvency, the unpaid vendor of a thing has two privileged rights: A right to revendicate it, and a right to preference on the proceeds of the sale; but these rights must be exercised within fifteen days from the date of delivery. Sale is complete by the consent alone of the parties, although no delivery be made. The seller is not obliged to deliver the thing if the buyer does not pay the price, unless a term has been granted for the payment of it, nor, in the latter case, if the purchaser, since the sale, has become insolvent. A promise of sale, accompanied by actual delivery, is equivalent to a sale. The right of stoppage in transitu may be exercised when the goods are in possession of third parties as agents for their delivery.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS. Judgments and registered titles to and claims against real property can only be prescribed by thirty years, but possession as proprietor, and in good faith, of an immovable for ten years, covers defects of title. Actions on bills of exchange, promissory notes, store accounts, and generally all claims of a commercial nature, are prescribable by five years. There are also certain short prescriptions of one, two, and three years.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. Commercial paper includes negotiable instruments for the payment of a specific sum of money, payable absolutely and at all events. It is transferable by indorsement and delivery, or, when payable to bearer, by delivery either with or without indorsement. When a particular place of payment is mentioned, not necessarily a bank, presentment must be made there. If payable at a bank, presentment may be made either within or after usual banking hours. When payable generally, i. e., when no place of payment is mentioned in the instrument, presentment must be made to the party primarily liable, either personally, or at his domicile, or office, or usual place of business. If he be dead, or absent from the Province, presentment may be made at his last known residence or place of business. In the case of insolvency, all current paper of the insolvent becomes immediately due and exigible. The place of payment of a draft may be fixed by the acceptor in his acceptance. The commercial law of Quebec is founded on the old English law. Three days of grace are allowed on bills and notes payable with a term or at sight, but no grace is allowed where they are payable on demand or on a fixed day. If the day on which they would otherwise become due is a legal holiday, the delay is of right extended to the next day. Payment must include interest from the last day of grace and all expenses of noting and protesting and notices legally incurred. In the case of bills payable elsewhere than in Canada and Newfoundland, damages are also allowed equal to two and a half per cent. of the amount for which the bill is drawn, together with the costs of exchange and re-exchange. Indorsers and other parties secondarily liable are only held by protest and notice.

PARTNERSHIPS must be registered in the office of the County Registrar and Prothonotary of the Superior Court. The same rule applies to joint-stock companies and to persons carrying on business alone under a name other than their own. The laws applicable to commercial partnerships are chiefly derived from the English commercial law. The property of the partnership is to be applied to the payment of the creditors of the firm, in preference to the separate creditors of any partner; and in case such property be found insufficient for the purpose, the private property of the partners or of any one of them is also to be applied to the payment of the debts of the partnership; but only after the payment out of it of the separate creditors of such partners or partner respectively. Partnerships may be limited or general. If limited, the following declaration must be registered: 1st. The name or firm of the partnership; 2d. The general nature of the business to be carried on; 3d. The names of all the general and special partners, distinguishing which are general and which special, and their usual place of residence; 4th. The amount of capital contributed by each special partner; 5th. The period at which the partnership commenced and that of its termination. The general partners in a limited partnership are jointly and severally liable for the debts of the partnership, but the special partners are only liable to the extent of the amount they contributed. If the above statement is not registered all the partners are jointly and severally liable. In general partnerships all the partners are jointly and severally liable. An agreement by which one of the partners shall not be liable for the losses of the partnership is null as toward third parties, but binding between the partners themselves. If a partnership be dissolved, or a judicial demand be made for such dissolution, the Court or a Judge, upon demand of one of the partners, after notice given to the others, has power to appoint one or more liquidators. The liquidator must give the security fixed by the Court or Judge and be sworn to faithfully perform his duties before he can act. He is subject to the summary jurisdiction of the Court or Judge. He liquidates the business with the consent of the partners, or in default of such consent, with the approval of the Court or Judge after notice to the partners.

WILLS. Wills may be made in three different forms: 1st In authentic form, to wit, proved before a Notary Public and two witnesses, or before two Notaries Public. The original will, made in authentic form, remains with the Notary, who furnishes certified copies thereof; 2d. In holograph form, to wit, they must be wholly written and copied by the testator, and require no witnesses; 3d. In the form derived from the laws of England, to wit, before two witnesses, who attest and sign the will immediately in presence of the testator and at his request. Wills made in authentic form need no probate, but those made in the other forms must be probated. Any one can dispose absolutely, and without restriction, of the whole of his property, movable or immovable, by will. Executors appointed under a will have possession of the estate of the testator, and are allowed a year and a day to carry out the provisions of the will. They can be given the most absolute powers by the testator, and their seizure may be extended beyond the year and the day allowed.

The Atlanta Trust and Banking Co.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

Transacts a Regular Banking Business, as well as a Trust and Investment Business. All Trust and Investment Funds kept separate and apart from the assets of the Company.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS ON CITY AND IMPROVED FARM PROPERTY.

NET TO LENDERS 6%, 7%, AND 8%.

The Farm Loan Business in the West is generally conceded to be overdone. With but little competition here, we have built up a business of over One Million Dollars a year and at the same time take only the pick of loans offered. The MORAL RISK as well as property given as security being subjected to the closest scrutiny. The tide of immigration is turning this way. A steady stream of Northern capital is pouring into the State for permanent investment in Mining, Manufacturing, and other enterprises Real Estate, on which our loans are based, is reasonably certain to advance in value at least 50% within the period which loans have to run. We recommend no loan, however, that would require the lender to rely in any wise on the future prospects of the section, but value lands in every instance as though in a locality that had reached its maximum of developement. ATLANTA is situated in very nearly the center of the territory in which we place our loans, with railroads in every direction, which render possible at all times a prompt and careful investigation of securities by competent men in our employ. Loans can be furnished to suit investors in any amount from $250.00 upward.

We invite investigation as to our standing and method of doing business.

Correspondence with a view to business relations respectfully requested.
